Game Themes

- For the second consecutive week, Oakland scored a touchdown on its opening drive after scoring on a 23-yard pass to Jared Cook last week and a 1-yard rush by Doug Martin in today's contest.
- The Raiders recorded two interceptions in the first half for the second consecutive week, marking just the second time Oakland has done so in franchise history (Last; Week 3-4 of 2007).

- K Daniel Carlson
 - Carlson split the uprights from 42 yards out with 2:34 left in the first half to cut Baltimore's lead to 13-10. Carlson's first field goal capped a 7-play, 20-yard drive that lasted 2:57 following Reggie Nelson's second quarter interception.
 - Carlson was perfect on both extra point attempts in the contest.

- QB Derek Carr
 - Carr helped put the Raiders on the board on the opening drive, orchestrating a 12-play, 81-yard drive lasting 6:15 that culminated in a 1-yard rush by RB Doug Martin.
 - Carr recorded his first touchdown of the game with 5:09 left in the third quarter, connecting with TE Jared Cook for a 16-yard touchdown.
 - Carr ended the day completing 16-of-34 pass attempts for 194 yards with one touchdown against zero interceptions for a passer rating of 74.9. The contest marked the sixth consecutive game in which Carr hasn't thrown an interception.

- TE Jared Cook
 - With 5:09 left in the third quarter, Cook recorded a 16-yard touchdown to cut Baltimore's lead to 20-17. The score marks his fifth of the season, tying a career high.
 - Cook's score marked the 24th of his career, tying him for 13th in the NFL among active tight ends.
 - After recording a 23-yard touchdown last week in Arizona, Cook has now recorded a touchdown in back-to-back games for the first time in his career.
 - Cook ended the day with two receptions for 32 yards and one touchdown.

- S Marcus Gilchrist
 - Gilchrist recorded the Raiders second interception of the first half, picking off Lamar Jackson in the endzone with 1:08 left in the first half.
 - Gilchrist's interception marked his second of the season, tying the most he's recorded since recording two in 2016 with the New York Jets.
 - Gilchrist ended the day four tackles (three solo), one interception and one pass defensed.

- RB Doug Martin
 - Martin recorded his first touchdown as a member of the Silver and Black, breaking the goal line from 1-yard out on the Raiders opening drive. Martin's score was the culmination of a 12-play, 81-yard drive that lasted 6:15.
 - In the second quarter, Martin surpassed 5,000 career rushing yards, making him the 12th active player in the NFL to reach that milestone.
 - Martin ended the day as the Raiders leading rusher with 51 yards on 11 carries (4.6 avg.) and added three catches for 21 yards (7.0 avg.).

- LB Nicholas Morrow
 - Morrow recorded the first sack of his career, taking down Lamar Jackson for a loss of four yards with 8:14 left in the first quarter.
 - Morrow end the day with three tackles (three solo) and one sack.

- S Reggie Nelson
 - Nelson recorded his second interception of the season with 5:37 left in the first half, giving Oakland the ball at Baltimore's 43-yard line.

- Nelson's pick marks the third consecutive week the Raiders have recorded at least one interception.
- Since 2007, Nelson ranks first among active safeties with 38 career interceptions.
- Nelson ended the day with five tackles (three solo) and one interception.

Other Notables

- WR Seth Roberts led the team with 54 receiving yards on two receptions, marking a season best and his most since Oct. 30, 2016 when he totaled 69 yards.
- FB Keith Smith appeared in his 43rd consecutive game, tied for the fourth-most among active full backs.
- LB Tahir Whitehead led the team in stops for the ninth time this season, finishing the day with a season-best 14 stops.
