LAST TIME VS. OAKLAND

In a seesaw game that featured six lead changes, including three in the fi nal 13:01, K Robbie Gould hit a 49-yard field goal with two seconds remaining in the contest to give the Bears a 22-20 victory over the Oakland Raiders at Soldier Field.

After K Sebastian Janikowski's 41-yard field goal gave the Raiders a 20-19 edge with 2:05 to play, QB Jay Cutler engineered a 12-play, 48-yard drive marching the Bears from their own 20 down to the Oakland 32, setting up Gould's game winner. Cutler completed 5 of 8 passes for 41 yards to four different receivers (TE Martellus Bennett, WR Eddie Royal, WR Marquess Wilson and RB Matt Forte) on the drive.

The Bears erased deficits of 14-6, 17-16 and 20-19 during the contest.

Cutler returned after missing the previous game due to a hamstring injury, completing 28 of 43 passes for 281 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. With the Bears looking to extend a 19-17 lead with just under seven minutes remaining in the game, Cutler's pass intended for Bennett on third-and-one from the Oakland 23 was intercepted by Raiders CB Charles Woodson.

Gould's final field goal was his third of the game without a miss and came after he had drilled a 54-yarder to give the Bears a 19-17 lead early in the fourth quarter. After Cutler's 7-yard touchdown pass to Royal on the game's opening possession gave the Bears a 6-0 lead (Gould's extra-point attempt was blocked), the Raiders scored two touchdowns in just under four minutes to take a 14-6 lead midway through in the second quarter.

Derek Carr threw touchdown passes of 26 yards to WR Amari Cooper and 4 yards to RB Roy Helu Jr., the second coming after the Raiders recovered a botched snap between Cutler and Matt Slauson, who replaced starting center Will Montgomery early in the first quarter after Montgomery left due to injury, at the Chicago 25.

The Bears responded with 10 points in a 2:04 span late in the first half as Cutler hit Bennett with a 5-yard touchdown pass and LB Pernell McPhee intercepted a Carr pass that caromed off RB Latavius Murray, setting up Gould's 19-yard field goal.

Forte totaled 155 yards from scrimmage (91 rushing and 64 receiving) while Bennett paced the team with 11 receptions and 83 receiving yards.

RYAN PACE General Manager

Ryan Pace, the 2018 Sporting News NFL Executive of the Year, is in his fifth season as general manager of the Chicago Bears in 2019. He is the sixth GM in franchise history after being hired on January 8, 2015. The Bears announced a three-year contract extension for Pace on January 1, 2018, keeping him with the club through 2021.

Last season Pace became the third Bears executive to win Executive of the Year honors and the first since Michael McCaskey in 1985.

Following the 2017 season, Pace took the organization in a different direction and sought to find the next head coach to lead the Bears into the future. On January 8, 2018, Pace hired Matt Nagy as Chicago's 16th head coach. Nagy and the Bears went 12-4 during the regular season and captured the club's first NFC North title since 2010. Nagy would go on to earn Associated Press and PFWA Coach of the Year honors while setting a record for the most wins by a first-year head coach in franchise history.

With Nagy in place, Pace used all avenues available to help bolster a young and promising roster. He made a splash on the first day of free agency in March 2018, signing wide receivers Allen Robinson II and Taylor Gabriel and tight end Trey Burton. Pace also awarded players such as defensive backs Prince Amukamara and Kyle Fuller and defensive lineman Eddie Goldman with multi-year extensions.

Pace and his staff kept their foot on the gas during the 2018 NFL Draft, selecting three ESPN.com All-Rookie Team honorees in linebacker Roquan Smith (Round 1, 8th overall), offensive lineman James Daniels (Round 2, 39th overall) and defensive lineman Bilal Nichols (Round 5, 145th overall). He also traded up in the second round to draft wide receiver Anthony Miller (Round 2, 51st overall), who finished second among all rookie wide receivers with seven touchdown receptions. Smith, meanwhile, would go on to record the second-most tackles (122) by a Bears rookie. Nichols made an immediate impact, recording three sacks, while Daniels started the final 10 games at left guard as the Bears made their push to the postseason.

But Pace saved his boldest move for last. With the season opener looming – 8 days away to be exact – Pace acquired All-Pro linebacker Khalil Mack in a trade with the Oakland Raiders, a move that turned Chicago's already Top-10 defense into the league's most dominant unit in 2018. Mack did not disappoint, leading the Bears with 12.5 sacks and six forced fumbles as Chicago's defense led the NFL in takeaways (36), interceptions (27), fewest first downs (17.3 pg), fewest rushing yards allowed (80.0 pg) and fewest points allowed (17.7 ppg) and finished third in turnover margin (+12), points off takeaways (107) and yards per game allowed (299.7).

Eight players, including Mack, were named to the 2019 Pro Bowl following the season. Joining Mack were defensive backs Eddie Jackson and Fuller, punt returner Tarik Cohen, quarterback Mitchell Trubisky and offensive linemen Cody Whitehair and Charles Leno Jr. Mack, Fuller, Jackson and Cohen also were named AP All-Pros.

In 2017, Pace continued his track record of drafting rookies who make an immediate impact on the team. Trubisky (No. 2 overall) set Bears rookie records for passing yards (2,193) and completions (196). He also rushed for 248 yards and two touchdowns and averaged 182.8 passing yards per game while completing 59.4 percent of his throws. Cohen became the first NFL rookie since Gale Sayers (1965) to score touchdowns via rushing, receiving, passing and punt return in a single season. He also tallied the third most receptions (53) by a Bears rookie in club history. Jackson finished the season with two interceptions and became the first player in NFL history to return both a fumble recovery and an interception for 75+ yard touchdowns in a single game (vs. CAR, 10/22/17).

After a stellar rookie season in 2016, RB Jordan Howard continued to have success on the ground, becoming the first player in franchise history to rush for over 1,000 yards in each of his first two NFL seasons (1,313 in 2016 & 1,122 in 2017) and also became the fastest player in Bears history to rush for 2,000 yards (24 games), besting Walter Payton's previous mark of 26. Defensive lineman Akiem Hicks, a key 2016 free agent acquisition, earned a four-year contract extension in September 2017 and went to the Pro Bowl the following season.

In Pace's first two seasons as Bears GM, five Bears were selected to the PFWA's All-Rookie team (Adrian Amos, Leonard Floyd, Eddie Goldman, Cody Whitehair and Howard), tied for the most in the NFL in that time. In his first season overseeing Chicago's roster, Pace was tasked with turning over a roster that ranked as one of the oldest in the NFL (average 27 years, 39 days old). He trimmed that average to just over 25-years old in two

ALL-TIME BEARS GENERAL MANAGERS

Ryan Pace was named Bears general manager on Jan. 8, 2015. He is just the sixth person to hold the GM position since the franchise was founded in 1920. The following is a list of all-time Bears general managers:

George S. Halas, Jr.	1963-74	Jerry Vainisi	1983-87	Phil Emery	2012-14
Jim Finks	1974-83	Jerry Angelo	2001-12	Ryan Pace	2015-Present

27

seasons.* The Bears fielded a competitive team, improving by one game over their previous year's record, despite the youth movement. The 2015 Bears were involved in 11 games decided by one score (5-6 record in those games) despite leading the NFL with nine rookie starters (three on offense, six on defense). The Bears defense improved from 30th in 2014 (377.1 yards per game) to 14th in 2015 (345.1 ypg) despite starting a league-most six rookie starters who combined for 41 starts, second most to the Saints 44 defensive rookie starts.

WEEK 5 • AT RAIDERS

Pace joined the Bears after spending 14 seasons (2001-14) as a member of the Saints organization, including 13 in the player personnel department. He spent his final two seasons (2013-14) with the Saints as director of player personnel. In that role, Pace helped manage the team's college and pro scouting operations including all facets of scouting and evaluation of college and pro prospects along with New Orleans' roster.

Pace spent six seasons as the club's director of pro scouting (2007-12), which included overseeing the club's pro scouting staff. His duties involved recommending player acquisitions by evaluating the Saints roster and potential free agents, monitoring all transactions, researching possible trade opportunities, assessing player talent from other professional leagues and directing the advance scouting of future opponents. He also helped the Saints prepare for the draft following the regular season by assisting in the evaluation of top college prospects.

The Flower Mound, Texas native got his start in New Orleans' player personnel department as a scouting assistant in 2002, a role he held for two years before working as a pro scout from 2004-06. During that time he evaluated free agents and collegiate players entering the NFL Draft as well as scouted upcoming opponents. He joined the Saints in 2001 supporting the coordination of all game day, training camp and stadium operations.

Over Pace's 13 seasons in the New Orleans personnel department (2002-14), the Saints compiled a 115-93 (.553) record. Since 2006, the Saints reached the playoffs five times, won three division titles, played in two NFC Championship games (2006 and 2009) and won the franchise's first Super Bowl title (Super Bowl XLIV). The Saints pro scouting department helped build a Super Bowl championship club by using all avenues at their disposal: signing free agents QB Drew Brees, FB Heath Evans, LB Scott Fujita, CB Randall Gay, C Jonathan Goodwin, CB Jabari Greer, WR Lance Moore and DE Anthony Hargrove and trading for TE Jeremy Shockey, LB Jonathan Vilma, LB Scott Shanle and TE David Thomas. Pace has also worked to acquire players such as NT Brodrick Bunkley, G Ben Grubbs, LBs Curtis Lofton, RB Darren Sproles. Over his last two seasons with the Saints their draft classes included regular starters LT Terron Armstead (2013, third round), WR Brandin Cooks (2014, first round), S Kenny Vaccaro (2013, first round) and WR Kenny Stills (2013, fifth round).

In 2008, he was selected by the club to attend the NFL's Stanford Business School's Executive Education Program for Managers. He was a part of the franchise in 2005 while the club dealt with immense adversity having to guide itself through several moves in base operations in the wake of Hurricane Katrina.

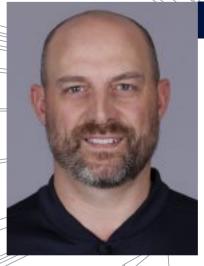

Pace played collegiately as a defensive end at Eastern Illinois (1995-99), serving as team captain as a senior, graduating with a bachelor's degree in marketing.

Pace and his wife, Stephanie, have a daughter, Cardyn.

Ryan Pace became the first Bears general manager since 1985 to win Executive of the Year honors.

MATT NAGY Head Coach

Matt Nagy is in his second season with the Chicago Bears in 2019 after being named the 16th head coach in franchise history on January 8th, 2018.

Nagy, who owns 11 seasons of NFL coaching experience, orchestrated a remarkable turnaround for the Bears in his first year, taking a 5-11 team in 2017 and transforming them into NFC North champions, winning Associated Press and PFWA Coach of the Year honors for his efforts. The Bears, who won nine of their last 10, finished the regular season 12-4, the most wins since the 2006 NFC Championship season (13-3), and the most by a Bears head coach in their inaugural season in franchise history. In doing so, Chicago secured the NFC's No. 3 seed and hosted a playoff game for the first time since the 2010 NFC Championship game.

The Bears finished 5-1 vs. the NFC North in 2018, their best mark in division play since 2010, sweeping both the Lions and the Vikings, and finished the regular season 7-1 at home, their best home record since 2005. The Bears averaged 26.3 points per game, fourth-best in the NFC. They scored 24 or more points 11 times, the most since 1995 and were the only team to hold a second-half lead in every regular-season game in 2018.

On the defensive side of the ball, the Bears ranked No. 1 in the NFL in takeaways (36), interceptions (27), INT returns for touchdowns (5), three-and-out percentage (.268), fewest first downs allowed (278/17.3 pg), fewest rushing yards allowed (80,0 pg) and fewest points allowed (17.7 ppg).

Eight players (LB Khalil Mack, DB Eddie Jackson, DB Kyle Fuller, DT Akiem Hicks, RS Tarik Cohen, QB Mitchell Trubisky and OL Cody Whitehair and Charles Leno Jr.) were named to the 2019 Pro Bowl following the season while four (Mack, Jackson, Fuller, Cohen) earned All-Pro honors.

In 2017, Nagy completed his fifth and final season in Kansas City and his first as offensive coordinator. He was promoted to OC following the 2016 season after serving as co-offensive coordinator with Brad Childress. Prior to that, Nagy spent three seasons as the Chiefs QBs coach.

In his first season as offensive coordinator in 2017, Nagy guided a Chiefs offense that ranked No. 5 in the NFL in total offense with 375.4 yards per game en route to a 10-6 record and an AFC West Division championship. The Chiefs also finished sixth in the NFL in points per game (25.9), seventh in passing yards (256.5), ninth in rushing (118.9) and led the NFL with the fewest giveaways (8). The Chiefs also were one of the most explosive offenses in 2017, tying for fifth in the NFL with 69 plays from scrimmage of 20 or more yards.

Quarterback Alex Smith finished the 2017 regular season fourth in the AFC in passing with 4,042 yards to go along with 26 touchdowns – both career highs – and only five interceptions. Also under Nagy's tutelage, rookie running back Kareem Hunt led the NFL in rushing with 1,327 yards and eight touchdowns and tied for first in the NFL with 12 rushes of 20 or more yards, earning Pro Bowl honors in the process. Travis Kelce also earned Pro Bowl honors, leading all NFL tight ends with 83 receptions and finishing second among tight ends with 1,038 yards and eight touchdowns. Nine of his 83 grabs went for at least 25 yards, second most in the league behind only New England's Rob Gronkowski (11). Additionally, wide receiver Tyreek Hill ranked seventh in the NFL with 1,183 yards to go along with seven touchdowns and tied for third with 15 receptions of 25 or more yards – trailing only Pittsburgh's Antonio Brown (16) and Houston's DeAndre Hopkins (17).

In his five seasons with the Chiefs, Nagy worked closely with Smith, who owned a 65.1 completion percentage in the five seasons working with Nagy, ranking first among all Chiefs QBs with at least 700 passing attempts.

In 2016, Nagy helped the Chiefs to a 12-4 regular-season record, the club's first AFC West title since 2010, the No. 2 overall seed in the AFC and a first-round bye. Overall, Nagy helped the Chiefs to the postseason four times in his five seasons with the club.

In his first year with the Chiefs, Nagy worked with Smith in a season that brought him five 100.0-plus quarterback ratings, one of which was a perfect rating of 158.3 at Oakland. Focusing on ball protection, he coached Smith to an AFC-low seven interceptions with a minimum of 300 attempts and a 1.4 interception percentage, also the lowest in the AFC. Smith also earned his first Pro Bowl selection following his first season with the Chiefs in 2013.

Before joining the Chiefs coaching staff, Nagy spent three years on the offensive staff of the Philadelphia Eagles,

CHUCK PAGANO DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Chuck Pagano is in his first season as the Bears defensive coordinator after being hired by the team on January 11, 2019. Pagano most recently spent six seasons as the head coach of the Indianapolis Colts from 2012-17 while serving as a consultant for the NFL in 2018. He previously served as defensive coordinator in the NFL once before, holding the top defensive coaching position with the Baltimore Ravens in 2011.

In his six seasons as the head coach in Indianapolis, Pagano led the Colts to a 53-43 regular-season record, including a 3-3 mark in the playoffs. He led the Colts to two AFC South Championships (2013, 2014), three consecutive playoff appearances (2012-14) and an appearance in the 2014 AFC Championship Game.

A native of Boulder, Colo., Pagano became only the second head coach in NFL history to earn at least 11 wins in each of his first three seasons with a team and became the third head coach in Colts history to reach the playoffs in each of his first three years. Prior to his arrival in Indianapolis, Pagano spent four seasons with the Ravens, serving as the secondary coach form 2008-10 and defensive coordinator in 2011. During his four seasons in Baltimore, Pagano's defenses allowed the second-fewest points per game (16.3) and the second-fewest net yards (292.3) in the NFL. The Ravens also ranked third in the NFL in scoring defense during that span. In 2011 as coordinator, Pagano's defensive unit finished third in the NFL in total defense (288.9 ypg.), second against the run (92.6 ypg.) and fourth against the pass (196.3 ypg.) on their way to an appearance in the AFC Championship Game.

MARK HELFRICH OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

In 2018, he helped transform a Bears offense that went from averaging just 16.5 ppg in 2017 to 26.3 in 2018. He also worked closely with Mitchell Trubisky as the second-year QB was named to the Pro Bowl following the 2018 season. The Bears scored 24 or more points 11 times in 2018, the most since 1995, and were the only NFL team to hold a second-half lead in every regular-season game in 2018.

Prior to joining the Bears Helfrich served as the head coach at Oregon from 2013-16 where he compiled a 37-16 record during his four years, including a 24-12 mark in the Pac-12. He enjoyed his best season in 2014 in leading the Ducks to a school-record 13 wins, a Pac-12 championship, a Rose Bowl victory in the inaugural College Football Playoff semifinal and an appearance in the CFP national championship game. In recognition of his efforts, Helfrich was finalist for the Eddie Robinson and Maxwell Football Club Coach of the Year. Prior to becoming the head coach in Eugene, Helfrich served as the offensive coordinator for former head coach Chip Kelly at Oregon from 2009-12. During that time the Ducks played in four straight BCS bowls and won three consecutive Pac-12 championships. Under Helfrich and Kelly's tutelage, Oregon's offense averaged 44.7 points per game and 283.4 yards rushing while putting up more than 500 yards of total offense per game. The 2012 season featured one of the top offensive seasons in Oregon history as the Ducks averaged 49.6 points and 537.4 yards per game.

CHRIS TABOR SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Chris Tabor starts his second season as the Bears special teams coordinator after being hired on January 12, 2018. It is his second stint with the club, originally holding the title of assistant special teams coach from 2008-2010. Prior to last season he had spent the last seven seasons with the Cleveland Browns as their special teams coordinator.

In 2018, Tabor helped mentor return specialist Tarik Cohen to Pro Bowl honors after leading the NFL in punt return.

In Cleveland, the Browns were the only team in the NFL to have earned at least one AFC Special Teams Player of the Week award each season from 2011-2016. In total, the Browns won seven AFC Special Teams Player of the Week awards. He also oversaw kicker Phil Dawson and returner Joshua Cribbs in 2012 when they were both were selected to the Pro Bowl.

During his seven seasons with the Browns, Tabor helped numerous players set NFL and franchise records. Punter Britton Colquitt set the Browns net punting average record in consecutive seasons with 40.3 in 2016 and 40.6 in 2017. In 2015, kicker Travis Coons set an NFL record with 18 consecutive field goals to start his career, while Andy Lee set a franchise record in punt average with 46.71.

Prior to joining the Browns, Tabor spent three seasons (2008-10) as assistant special teams coach with the Bears.

PACKERS- Valdes-Scantling 4-52 yds. BEARS – Robinson II 7-102 yds. The Bears defense allowed just one touchdown and sacked Aaron Rodgers five times in Thursday night's season opener at Soldier Field. But an out-of-sync Chicago offense mustered only one field goal in a 10-3 loss.

The Bears defense started Thursday night's game in dominant fashion, forcing three straight three-and-outs while holding the Packers to minus-12 yards on nine plays. Green Bay's first two possessions ended with third-down sacks by Roy Robertson-Harris and Leonard Floyd.

The Bears took a 3-0 lead on Eddy Pineiro's 38-yard field goal with 4:09 left in the first quarter. The kick, which sailed right down the middle with plenty of distance, elicited a thunderous roar from the Soldier Field partisans.

The Packers offense ignited early in the second quarter as Rodgers completed four straight passes for 74 yards, capped by an 8-yard touchdown toss to tight end Jimmy Graham, giving Green Bay a 7-3 lead.

Rodgers caught the Bears with 12 men on the field and knew he had a free play. So the two-time NFL MVP lobbed the ball to the 6-7 Graham, who outleaped 6-foot safety Deon Bush in the end zone. On the first play of the drive, Rodgers completed a 47-yard pass to receiver Marquez Valdes-Scanting.

The Bears offense was out of sync in the first half. Six possessions resulted in five punts and one field goal, which came on a drive that started at the Packers 36.

The Bears reached the Green Bay 33 in the third quarter but opted not to attempt a 51-yard field goal on fourth-and-10. Instead, Mitchell Trubisky rushed up the middle for three yards, turning the ball over on downs.

On one possession early in the fourth quarter, the Bears were called for three straight penalties—holding and hands-to-the-face on left tackle Charles Leno Jr. and pass interference on Taylor Gabriel—resulting in firstand-40.

Crosby's 38-yard field goal increased the Packers' lead to 10-3 with 5:15 left in the fourth quarter.

The Bears reached the Green Bay 16 on their final drive of the game. But Trubisky's pass into double coverage intended for Allen Robinson II was intercepted by Adrian Amos with 1:58 remaining in regulation.

BEARS – Robinson II 4-41 yds; Shaheen 3-24 yds. BRONCOS – Sanders 11-98 yds, TD; Freeman 5-48 yds. In a game that featured dramatic emotional swings in the final moment, the Bears rallied to beat the Denver Broncos 16-14 Sunday on Eddy Piñeiro's 53-yard field goal as time expired.

The Bears blew a late 13-3 lead, eventually falling behind 14-13 on Joe Flacco's 7-yard touchdown pass to Emmanuel Sanders followed by Flacco's two-point conversion pass to Sanders with :31 left.

Piñeiro's field goal was set up by Mitchell Trubisky's 25-yard pass to Allen Robinson II on fourth-and-15 to Denver's 35 with :01 remaining.

Brandon McManus gave the Broncos a 3-0 lead with a 43-yard field goal on the game's opening possession. Quarterback Joe Flacco completed 6-of-6 passes for 41 yards on the drive, mostly on short, quick throws.

The Bears tied the score 3-3 early in the second quarter on Eddy Piñeiro's 40-yard field goal. The kick capped a 14-play, 64-yard drive that was sustained by Adam Shaheen's 9-yard reception from Trubisky on third-and-eight and David Montgomery's nine-yard rush on third-and-three.

Piñeiro's 52-yard field goal gave the Bears their first lead of the game at 6-3 with 5:10 remaining in the second quarter.

The Bears were much more balanced on offense in the first half than they were Sept. 5 in a Week 1 loss to the Packers. They had 16 rushes for 59 yards, while Trubisky completed 9 of 14 passes for 82 yards. However, his only two pass plays that gained more than 11 yards picked up 18 and 16 yards.

The first half ended with the Bears not having scored a touchdown on 17 possessions over six quarters this season.

The Bears finally ended their touchdown drought with 1:14 left in the third quarter as Montgomery dove in from the 1 on third-and-goal, barely breaking the plane. The Bears' first TD 103 minutes 46 seconds into their season extended their lead to 13-3.

The Bears ran the ball on all nine plays of their 80yard touchdown drive. Cordarrelle Patterson produced the longest gain, taking a pitch in the backfield and racing 46 yards to the Broncos' 22.

Montgomery's TD was the fourth straight play the Bears ran from either the 1 of 2. They were given new life when cornerback Chris Harris Jr. was penalized for holding receiver Robinson on an incompletion from the 2.

The Broncos answered, cutting the deficit to 13-6 on McManus' 32-yard field goal with 13:37 remaining in the fourth quarter. The kick came after Eddie Goldman drew a questionable 15-yard penalty for roughing the passer.

After the Bears went three-and-out, the Broncos marched from their own 24 to the Chicago 2. On thirdand-goal, Kyle Fuller intercepted Flacco's high pass intended for receiver Emmanuel Sanders in the right flat with 4:45 to play.

The ball sailed over Sanders to Fuller, who deflected the ball into the air and then picked it off. The Bears' first takeaway of the season couldn't have come at a better time.

The Bears traveled to Washington after scoring only one touchdown and generating just one takeaway in their first two games of the season. Determined to improve in both of those key areas, the Bears accomplished that objective and then some during a breakout first half against the Redskins.

The defending NFC North champions scored four touchdowns and produced three takeaways in racing to a 28-3 halftime lead en route to a 31-15 victory on Monday Night Football at FedEx Field.

The defense set the tone early as Ha Ha Clinton-Dix intercepted an overthrown Case Keenum pass and returned it 37 vards for his first career touchdown.

After their first two drives ended in punts, the Bears scored touchdowns on three straight possessions-all on passes from Mitchell Trubisky to Taylor Gabriel of 3, 1 and 36 yards.

The first two came 1:18 apart in the second quarter and were sandwiched by Khalil Mack's strip/sack of Keenum, which resulted in a fumble that Akiem Hicks recovered at the Redskins' 11.

Kyle Fuller followed with a diving interception, his second pick in as many games and his ninth since the start of the 2018 season.

The Bears converted their third takeaway into their fourth touchdown of the half as Trubisky lofted a 36-yard TD pass to Gabriel with :36 left in the half. Gabriel was initially ruled out of bounds, but the call was reversed after a replay review showed that he deftly got both feet in bounds.

In the first half, Trubisky completed 20 of 23 passes for 173 yards with three touchdowns, no interceptions and a 137.6 passer rating.

Dustin Hopkins, who earlier had missed a 43-yard field goal wide left, hit a 35-yarder on the final play of the second quarter, cutting the deficit to 28-3.

The Bears opened the second half the way they ended the first as Clinton-Dix intercepted a Keenum pass and returned it 60 yards to the Redskins' 24. It was the defense's fourth takeaway against a Redskins offense that had not committed a turnover in its first two games.

The Bears failed to capitalize, however, as Eddy Piñeiro pushed a 44-yard field goal attempt wide right.

The Redskins produced their first touchdown of the game on Keenum's 15-yard pass to rookie receiver Terry McLaurin midway through the third guarter. The twopoint conversion failed, keeping the Bears' lead at 28-9.

The Bears committed their first turnover of the game as Trubisky's pass on second-and-three from the Redskins' 6 was intercepted by Josh Norman.

The Redskins followed with a 97-yard drive capped by Keenum's 2-yard TD pass to Paul Richardson Jr. on fourth-and-goal. The two-point conversion failed, making the score 28-15 with 13:11 remaining in the game.

The Redskins were driving again when the Bears defense produced its fifth takeaway of the game. On fourth-and-1 from the Chicago 16, Keenum reached the ball out in front of him on a quarterback sneak and Danny Trevathan knocked the ball loose. The fumble was recovered by Eddie Jackson.

VIKINGS – Diggs 7-108 yds, Cook 6-35 yds. BEARS – Robinson II 7-77 yds; Wims 4-56; Cohen 2-7 yds, TD. Backup quarterback Chase Daniel and an inspired, injury-depleted defense led the Bears to a 16-6 win over the Minnesota Vikings Sunday at Soldier Field.

The Bears entered Sunday's NFC North clash against the Vikings without five starters—and then sustained another key loss on the game's first possession.

Quarterback Mitchell Trubisky sustained a left-shoulder injury while being sacked by defensive end Danielle Hunter with 11:54 left in the first quarter. Trubisky was replaced by Daniel and did not return.

Trubisky fumbled on the sack and the Vikings recovered. But a defensive holding penalty nullified the play and gave the Bears a first down.

Daniel stepped in and eventually capped the drive with a 10-yard touchdown pass to Tarik Cohen, giving the Bears a 7-0 lead.

Daniel completed 4-of-5 passes for 52 yards on the 14-play, 75-yard drive, including a 25-yarder to Allen Robinson II to the Vikings' 5.

After the teams traded punts, the Vikings marched from their own 5 to the Bears' 44 before Prince Amukamara stripped the ball from Stefon Diggs after a 10-yard reception and Ha Ha Clinton-Dix recovered at the 20.

The play was originally ruled an incomplete pass, but coach Matt Nagy challenged the call and it was reversed after a replay review.

The Bears converted the turnover into points, extending their lead to 10-0 on Eddy Piñeiro's 25-yard field goal as time expired in the first half.

The kick capped a 16-play, 75-yard drive that was sustained Daniel passes of 10 yards to David Montgomery on third-and-nine, five yards to Anthony Miller on fourthand-three and 11 yards to Trey Burton on third-and-nine.

After the Bears defense recorded its second straight three-and-out, Daniel's 37-yard pass to Javon Wims set up Pineiro's third field goal of the game without a miss, a 30-yarder, widening the margin to 16-0 late in the third quarter.

The Vikings closed the gap to 16-6 on Dalvin Cook's 2-yard TD run with 2:58 left. But Amukamara read a receiver screen on the two-point conversion, tackling Diggs immediately, preserving the Bears' two-score lead.

The Bears played without right guard Kyle Long (hip), receiver Taylor Gabriel (concussion), defensive end Akiem Hicks (knee), defensive tackle Bilal Nichols (hand) and linebacker Roquan Smith, who was deactivated Sunday due to undisclosed personal reasons.

HALAS HALL EXPANSION

2019 GAME RELEASE

In November 2017 the Bears announced a partnership with global design and architecture firm HOK to design a 162,500-square-foot football operations addition to the already-existing 143,000-square-foot Halas Hall and a 30,600-square-foot remodeling project on the northeast side of the building -- bringing the total square footage of Halas Hall to more than 3,000.

Bears president and CEO Ted Phillips detailed what he described as "a significant expansion of Halas Hall". "We're effectively going to double in size," Phillips said. "The ultimate facility will be on a par with the best in the NFL. This is being done to make our football operations, coaching and player personnel areas the best in the league." The magnitude of the project, which broke ground in March 2018 and will be completed this fall in time for the start of the Bears' 100th season, has completely transformed the look and feel of all existing team space and provides even greater resources for the team's training and performance needs. The initial phase of the expansion project focused on enhancement of the team's football operations, including player training, education, performance, nutrition and rehabilitation.

While football operations, players and coaches are the most affected by the renovation, Bears general manager Ryan, Pace told employees that they, too, will benefit.

"It affects all of us because it equates to winning," Pace said. "This project is not about flash. It's about what it tangibly does to help us win games. So you'll see the way we train, the way we rehab, the way we recover, the way we educate our players, those are all areas that we're going to drastically improve in.

"We've seen the top facilities across the United States in pro and college football. This is going to put us right at the top among the elite. I'm proud of this. It shows a major commitment to winning from our ownership and leadership, and everyone in football operations recognizes this."

The addition features a 13,000-square-foot indoor turf space for training and walkthroughs and adjacent virtual reality room, in addition to a 2,000-square-foot weight room expansion. Also included is an equipment room, recovery space and nutrition/fuel station that doubles the current size while the sports medicine space is four times larger than the old area and will feature a hydrotherapy pool.

Position meeting rooms and the draft room have doubled in capacity, while coaches' offices have increased by 50 percent and allow for improved collaboration. A 3,250-square-foot players' lounge and separate huddle space also has been created, along with an approximately 1,700-square-foot player locker room and a larger coaches/scouts locker room.

The team and staff café has been expanded by 4,300 square feet to support the organization's growth, as well as providing new food offerings. Basement storage space also has increased through the expansion.

Additionally, two additional football fields were added at the start of the 2018 season on the east side of the Walter Payton Center, which will allow the team to spread out the field use over four fields throughout the offseason and during in-season practices. That project also added a training slope, a storage facility and a small practice viewing suite, much like the existing viewing suite used at Halas Hall for corporate pathors and other VID guests.

suite, much like the existing viewing suite used at Halas Hall for corporate partners and other VIP guests.
