Head Coach Jack Del Rio

Opening Statement: “Back in Alameda, here we go. Alright, good day back, good to get back to work. It’s really our last kind of camp-style day. This next week coming up, we’ll simulate what a typical in season work day looks like, typical in-season work week, what it looks like. So we’ll take them through the paces this next week, how they get their information, all that kind of stuff. So, last of our camp days down here in Alameda. Questions?”

Q: Do you have more or less concerns now that you’ve watched the film from the Green Bay game?

Coach Del Rio: “There are always things that you look at on tape that you like and there are always things that you know you need to correct. Really pretty much the same. I thought we came out, we got some good work. I thought we did some good things defensively after the first drive. We got some conditioning there. Everybody came out healthy. We learned some lessons there. I think it’s a part of work in the preseason; looking at a lot of different players and the evaluation continues. [It’s] very fruitful from that standpoint. They don’t carry forward into regular season. It’s still preseason and we’re going to get our work done in preseason.”

Q: Do you hold back against Tennessee this week because you play them Week 3 of the regular season?

Coach Del Rio: “Well, there’s always those kind of discussions. How much do you want to show and how much do you want to do and all those kinds of things? Typically, it’s the time that your team plays the most, the guys that are healthy and ready to go. We’ll see as we get there. It’s still a little early to give you an indication of that. That’s typically how it goes in that third game. It should be a good opportunity for us to continue to grow as a football team and continue to work on some of the things that we need to work on. We’re looking forward to it.”

Q: Are you going to do the same things you did last year in presenting that information or will you tweak some things?

Coach Del Rio: “Might be a tweak here or there. The coaches present and how they present their information and how long they take, we like to leave a little individual time, it’s all part of the process. It’s good for us as coaches, too, how we put our game plan together, how we break an opponent down, all those things. We’re simulating a game week in terms of when we meet, how we meet, what information we’re going to give them, how they find their different cut ups and things. How we prepare as an organization for a typical game week, that’s what we’re going to simulation this week.”

Q: How is the battle at right tackle going so far?

Coach Del Rio: “It’s going well. Both guys have had good camps, staying healthy. We’re happy about that. I think it’s great to have Menelik [Watson] back. He brings a little temperament, little athleticism to the position. Obviously, Austin [Howard] filled in and did a great job for us last year. That’s been a good competition.”
