Under the leadership, experience and vision of the Pegulas, the Bills along with their other business entities, constantly strive to innovate in order to build the most competitive organizations on and off the field.

EARLY BEGINNINGS

Raised in Carbondale, PA, a coal mining town, Terry's father worked as a miner, truck driver and mechanic, while both of his grandfathers were miners. Terry attended Scranton Preparatory School and then Penn State University as a math major. But in order to stay in school, he entered the Petroleum and Natural Gas Engineering program. He went on to graduate with a Bachelor of Science degree in 1973 and landed his first job with Getty Oil Co. in Victoria, TX. He later joined Felmont Oil Co., a decision that brought him to Olean, NY in 1975 and started his Western New York roots.

In 1983 he borrowed $7,500 from family and friends to create East Resources Inc., an independent oil and gas exploration and production company operating in the Appalachian Basin. Over the next 27 years Terry built it into one of the largest privately held companies in the United States. In July of 2010 Royal Dutch Shell purchased the assets of East Resources Inc., which continues to be active today.

Kim's path to becoming the Pegula Sports & Entertainment CEO and owner of the Buffalo Bills and Buffalo Sabres is equally, if not more unlikely than Terry's– beginning with her being abandoned on the streets of Seoul, South Korea at the age of five before being adopted by Ralph and Marilyn Kerr.

Following her adoption, Kim grew up in Fairport, a suburb of Rochester, NY. She attended Houghton College and graduated in 1991 with a degree in communications. After meeting Terry, Kim opted to put a broadcasting career on hold and began her professional career with East Resources in 1991–where she stayed involved with the company until its sale in 2010.

"IT STARTED WITH THE GRASS"

Back in 1983, Terry told his business partner Robert H. Long, Jr., "If I ever have more than two nickels to my name, I'm going to buy the Buffalo Sabres one day." Almost 30 years later, Terry's dream came to fruition on February 22, 2011.

Upon the acquisition of the Sabres, Terry and Kim wasted no time putting their touch on the team–launching a series of renovations to the Sabres facilities, including a complete overhaul of the team's locker room.

In a recent feature with NFL Network's Mike Silver, Kim told the story of how early on in the Pegula's tenure as owners of the Sabres they realized the impact that small initiatives could have on Buffalo.

instead choosing to pursue turning Buffalo into 'Hockey Heaven.'

In August 2012, the Pegulas plan for HARBORCENTER was announced. A multipurpose facility that sits directly across from KeyBank Center, HARBORCENTER is anchored by two NHL-size ice rinks that are used

"AND ONCE WE PUT THAT GRASS IN, IT CHANGED THE MINDSET OF THAT Community, and you started seeing people come down there."

As Kim tells the story, "Terry looked out the window [of his Sabres office], and at that time, it was like dirt and gravel, and he said, 'Hey, let's just put in some grass at least.' And so we worked with the city, and Terry said, 'I'll pay for the grass.' And once we put that grass in, it changed the mindset of that community, and you started seeing people come down there. And from that point on, it was a snowball effect. We have concerts down there now. And it has really been a great catalyst to say, 'It's OK to invest in Buffalo.'"

Terry and Kim did not let their vision be limited to just that patch of grass though, year-round by a variety of USA and international hockey teams and leagues.

In addition to the hockey facilities, HARBORCENTER includes (716), an upscale, sports-themed bar and restaurant, a one-of-a-kind Tim Hortons location that pays homage to the former Sabres player, retail stores including the healthy, quick-service restaurant Healthy Scratch, a parking structure and a 200room, full-service Marriott hotel.

Terry and Kim's efforts and vision quickly began to pay dividends as Buffalo was chosen to be the host city of the 2016 NHL Draft and has been chosen as the site of the 2018 World Junior Ice Hockey Championships–which will include an outdoor matchup between Team USA and Team Canada at New Era Field. These events have enabled HARBORCENTER to attract approximately 100,000 visitors per year since 2014.

ONE BUFFALO

A lready deeply ingrained in Buffalo via ownership of the Sabres, the Pegulas began to set their sights on taking yet another step in 2014.

With the possibility of being chosen as owners of the Buffalo Bills on the horizon, the Pegulas expanded their business interests in the summer of 2014 by forming Pegula Sports & Entertainment– naming Kim as CEO.

PSE was designed to be and currently functions as a multifaceted parent company of the Pegula's different companies that brings together the individual resources, capabilities, and talents of each entity to create a cohesive and sustainable brand that together represents the Pegula family's interest.

"ONE TEAM; ONE GOAL; ONE COMMUNITY; ONE FAMILY; ONE BUFFALO."

Following the creation of PSE, on Wednesday, October 8, 2014, Terry and Kim, who lived in Buffalo during the Bills' championship years in the 1990s, were voted in unanimously as only the second owners in the Buffalo Bills' franchise history.

Upon the Pegula's purchase of the Bills in 2014, Kim led the push to develop a campaign that could bring the community together, unite our sports teams and promote our city.

Kim's vision of creating a way to show pride in being part of the city of Buffalo and a Western New York regional resurgence culminated in a campaign called One Buffalo.

"One Buffalo provides a link between Bills fans, Sabres fans, and the city of Buffalo," said Kim. "We are all moving in the same direction: One Team; One Goal; One Community; One Family; One Buffalo. It is our goal to continue to contribute to the resurgence of Western New York, and we are very optimistic about the future. We are proud to be able to play a role in our city's redevelopment at a time when our community has never been closer together."

A NEW ERA

wo years after cementing the NFL's spot in Buffalo with their purchase of the Bills, the Pegulas continued their efforts to revitalize the Western New York region by pairing with the Buffalo-based company New Era Cap to rename the Bills home New Era Field.

"It was important to the Bills organization that a stadium naming rights agreement made sense. In joining New Era today for this landmark announcement, we have a partner that makes sense on so many levels," said Terry. "New Era is a company recognized for its integrity and guality on a global platform, while at the same time, representing the very fabric of Western New York. In partnering with our organization and the opportunities associated with the NFL brand, we feel that this agreement showcases two of the more recognized local brands not only for the benefit of our two franchises, but one that reflects well on our entire community."

In addition to being amongst the leaders in the WNY revitalization, Kim has prided herself on being amongst the leaders in the sports and entertainment industry in terms of finding ways to improve and modernize the fan experience. Kim's vision and efforts led to the launch of My One Buffalo–a mobile application that provides fans with an opportunity to customize their fan experience while rooting for the Bills and Sabres.

The mobile app, which includes features from mobile ticketing to customized fan offers and alerts, was born from Kim challenging employees to transform the game day fan experience.

Despite being relatively new to the NFL ranks, the positive momentum that the Pegulas have been building for the league did not take long to be recognized as in February 2016 Terry and Kim were honored with the prestigious Tank Younger Award by the Fritz Pollard Alliance.

Given to persons who display outstanding work on and off the field in helping to level the playing field in the NFL, the Pegulas were fitting honorees in the wake of the promotion of Kathryn Smith, the first full-time female NFL coach.

Terry and Kim's NFL footprint can also be seen by the league boards that they have each been selected to–including Terry on the NFL's Health and Safety committee and Kim on the NFL Foundation board and the Super Bowl & Special Events Committee.

The impact Terry and Kim have had on Buffalo in addition to the sports and entertainment world began in 2011 and has been gaining steam ever-since, gaining a wide array of plaudit–including tremendous praise from Dallas Cowboys owner and 2017 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee Jerry Jones. "I think they walked in the room as top-10 NFL owners, maybe top-five," said Jones. "You can just see how they're in step -truly joined at the hip -- and to me, that's why they're going to continue to be great NFL owners for a long, long time. You've got that combination of entrepreneurship, passion and some serious imagination about what they want their product to be, and how it can benefit fans. And they're such a great team -- he has that pragmatic engineering background, and she has exceptional people skills, and they're both incredibly smart."

Terry and Kim have five children: Michael, Laura, Jessica, Kelly and Matthew. Their younger daughters, Jessica and Kelly, were born in Buffalo.

GIVING BACK

On September 17, 2010 Terry and Kim donated $88 million to Penn State University -- the largest private gift in the history of the school -- to fund a state-ofthe-art, multi-purpose arena and a worldclass practice facility, to help establish an NCAA Division I men's hockey program. The Pegulas announced in 2012 they would increase their donation to the Nittany Lion hockey program to $102 million to allow for the endowment of student athlete scholarships.

Thanks to their generosity, Penn State has been able to add both men's and women's varsity hockey teams. Pegula lce Arena, which opened in 2013 and enjoyed a sold-out 2013-14 season, includes two ice sheets and serves as the only major ice facility within an 80-mile radius of State College. In addition to providing hockey and figure skating opportunities for the entire Central Pennsylvania region, it is also used for a broad range of campus and community activities. In 2017, Penn State hockey won the Big Ten Championship and earned their first NCAA Tournament berth.

In 2011 the Pegulas pledged $12 million for the construction of a new athletic center on the campus of Houghton College, Kim's alma mater. The second-largest gift in school history allowed Houghton to transition to NCAA Division III athletics.

18 Houghton College

The Kerr-Pegula Athletic Complex formally opened on October 4, 2014. The project included the construction of both a new baseball and softball stadium, resurfacing of Burke Field (a multi-sport competition field), and the construction of an 115,000-square-foot fieldhouse that will enable the college and region to host year-round athletic competitions. The fieldhouse features an eight lane, 200-meter regulation size track, five tennis courts, cardio fitness center, weight lifting room, MVP conference room, commercial kitchen and concessions, locker-room facilities, and office space. The facility provides dedicated practice space for outdoor sports over the winter and during inclement weather and also has the ability to host major concerts and events with a maximum capacity of more than 6,000 people.

MANAGING PARTNER AND PRESIDENT

RUSS BRANDON

A s the Managing Partner and President of the Buffalo Bills, Buffalo Sabres and Pegula Sports and Entertainment (PSE), Russ Brandon oversees all aspects of the day-to-day business and administrative operations of those three entities.

A native of East Syracuse, NY and a graduate of St. John Fisher College in Rochester, Brandon is a driving force in generating growth and synergy among the Bills, Sabres and PSE. His work ethic and passion for success has earned him the status as one of the most influential figures in professional sports since joining the Bills in 1997.

His leadership and tireless efforts with the Bills in improving the team's business formula, in the renovation of the team's facilities, and in the negotiation of stadium lease agreements with the state and county in 1999 and 2013 played a vital role in allowing the franchise to be sold from the Wilson family to the Pegula family, and most importantly, to remain in Buffalo.

Brandon not only facilitated the sale of the Bills in 2014, but he also aided the Pegulas as they transitioned into their roles as NFL owners. His value was recognized early on by the new owners as they named him President and Alternate Governor of the Sabres in 2015 and COO of Pegula Sports and Entertainment in 2016.

Under his guidance during recent years, Buffalo has hosted several major sporting events including the NHL Draft, the NHL Scouting Combine, the NCAA Basketball Tournament as well as numerous concerts at both the Key Bank Center and New Era Field. Brandon also facilitated agreements to host the IIHF World Junior Hockey Championships in 2017, the NCAA Frozen Four in 2019 and the first and second rounds of the NCAA Basketball Tournament again in 2022. These events, along with the yearround activity at HARBORCENTER, have served as an economic engine for the community.

Brandon also played a key role in negotiating a stadium naming rights deal in 2016 with Buffalo-based New Era, the official on-field cap of the National Football League.

His strong business acumen is also known beyond Western New York as he was appointed by NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell in 2011 to the NFL's Business Ventures Committee, which is responsible for the oversight of various businesses of the league, including consumer products, sponsorship and marketing.

Brandon has earned several promotions throughout his tenure with the Bills. He joined the organization in 1997 as Executive Director of Business Development and Marketing. In 1999, he became the team's Vice President of Business Development and Marketing and held that post until 2006, when he was promoted to Executive Vice President of Business Operations. Brandon was then named Chief Operating Officer in 2008 with the title of General Manager added in 2009. He was promoted to Chief Executive Officer in 2010 before being ultimately named President and CEO in 2013.

In 1999, Brandon and his staff finalized the Bills regionalization plan by relocating training camp to St. John Fisher College in Pittsford, NY. The successful partnership with the school was extended in 2016. Brandon began his sports business career as a member of the Rochester Red Wings (then Triple A affiliate of the Baltimore Orioles) while serving in many capacities, including assistant general manager. He went to work for the Florida Marlins from 1993 until joining the Bills in 1997.

Brandon is a board member of the Buffalo Bills Foundation and the Buffalo Sabres Foundation. He is a member of the Advisory Board for the David Falk School of Sport at Syracuse University, a member of the Board of Trustees at St. John Fisher College and serves on the board of Buffalo Niagara Partnership. He is also a member of the Board of Trustees for the New York State Troopers Signal 30 Benefit Fund.

Brandon was a four-year letterman in baseball and football at St. John Fisher College and graduated with a degree in communications. He and his wife Amy have two sons, RJ and Jack, and a daughter, Grace. The family has a Silver Lab named Lola. They reside in Williamsville, NY.

Brandon Beane was named General Manager of the Buffalo Bills on May 9, 2017. He joined the Bills after a 19-year stint with the Carolina Panthers - including the last two seasons as the team's assistant general manager (2015-16). Throughout Beane's time in Carolina, the Panthers won five NFC South division titles and two NFC conference championships

"During our search for a new General Manager, Brandon stood out to Kim and I as he embodies the type of leader and type of person we want in our organization," said Bills owner Terry Pegula. "Brandon excelled in a variety of roles for a Panthers team that has consistently competed at a highlevel in this league. We feel his vast understanding and experience in many facets of football operations will be invaluable to our club moving forward. We also believe his vision for the Buffalo Bills combined with his detailed approach will help build a foundation for sustained success."

Beane, who became the 13th general manager in Bills franchise history, gained valuable experience in many areas of the Panthers football operations. Working with former Panthers General Manager Dave Gettleman and Head Coach Ron Rivera, Beane played a vital role in constructing the Panthers past six draft boards, has evaluated professional and collegiate players and worked closely with the football operations staff on the negotiation of player contracts.

In 2012, Beane was named the Panthers interim general manager–holding the role for the final 10 games of the season. Carolina finished out the season with a 6-4 record under Beane's watch.

A cum laude graduate in communications studies from UNC-Wilmington in 1998 and a native of Stanly County, North Carolina, Beane (born July 27, 1976) began his career in 1998 with the Panthers communications department before moving on to fill various football operations/personnel roles with Carolina before being named the team's director of football operations in 2008. Brandon and his wife, Hayley, have two sons, Tyson and Wes and reside in Orchard Park, NY. The family has two dogs, Bodie and Peanut. ## HEAD Coach

19TH YEAR IN THE NFL 1ST YEAR WITH THE BILLS

SEAN MCDERMOTT

• n January 11, 2017, the Buffalo Bills named Sean McDermott the 20th head coach in franchise history. McDermott joined the Bills after spending six seasons as the defensive coordinator of the Carolina Panthers where he developed a top-10 defense in four of his six seasons in charge.

Over the past six seasons, the Panthers defense ranked second in the NFL in sacks (261), third in turnovers forced (169), sixth in rushing yards allowed per game (103.3), ninth in yards per game (339.1) and 12th in points allowed per game (22.1). In his time in Carolina, McDermott helped the Panthers to three division titles and a trip to Super Bowl 50.

In 2016, McDermott's defense put up impressive numbers in multiple categories. Despite not having any player with over 10.0 sacks, the Panthers finished second in the NFL in sacks (47). Carolina also finished second in red zone defense (43.64%) and sixth in run defense (91.6).

In 2015, McDermott's defense helped lead the way for the Panthers' 15-1 regular season and run to Super Bowl 50. The Panthers ranked second in the NFL in yards allowed per play (4.9), sixth in scoring defense (19.3) and total defense (322.9). The defense led the league in interceptions (24), takeaways (39), points off turnovers (148) and turnover differential (+20) and tied a franchise record with four interception return touchdowns. Four of McDermott's defenders – linebackers Thomas Davis and Luke Kuechly, cornerback Josh Norman and defensive tackle Kawann Short – were named to the Pro Bowl and earned All-Pro honors.

IN HIS TIME IN CAROLINA, MCDERMOTT HELPED THE PANTHERS TO THREE DIVISION TITLES AND A TRIP TO SUPER BOWL 50.

In 2013, McDermott was named The Sporting News Coordinator of the Year when his unit ranked second in total defense (301.3). The Panthers also led the league in sacks (60) while finishing second in scoring defense (15.1). The defense helped propel Carolina to a 12-4 record, an NFC South title and the team's first playoff appearance since 2008. In allowing the franchise's fewest points since 1996, the defense set a team record with an NFL-low 21 touchdowns allowed.

McDermott came to Carolina following 12 seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles. He spent his last two seasons in Philadelphia as defensive coordinator, helping the Eagles to the playoffs in each of those seasons.

DURING HIS TENURE WITH PHILADELPHIA, MCDERMOTT CONTRIBUTED TO SIX DIVISION TITLES, FIVE NFC CHAMPIONSHIP APPEARANCES AND A TRIP TO SUPER BOWL XXXIX.

In 2010, McDermott led one of the league's youngest defenses to top 10 rankings in takeaways and sacks. In his first season overseeing the Eagles' defense in 2009, McDermott was named the NFL's top defensive coordinator by Pro Football Weekly after his unit ranked third in the NFL with 38 takeaways and 44 sacks. McDermott coached the secondary and linebackers before becoming defensive coordinator, learning under the late Jim Johnson, the Eagles' legendary defensive coordinator.

In 2007, McDermott took over the linebackers after serving as the secondary/safeties coach from 2004-06. Brian Dawkins was a Pro Bowler all three seasons, and fellow safety Michael Lewis joined him in 2004.

McDermott worked as the team's assistant defensive backs coach in 2003 and as the defensive assistant/quality control coach from 2001-02, assisting with linebackers. He joined the organization in 1998 as a scouting administrative coordinator before being promoted to assistant to the head coach in 1999.

An All-Atlantic 10 Conference choice at safety for William & Mary as a senior in 1997, McDermott graduated with a degree in finance and began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater in 1998. He and his wife Jamie, have three children.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

A TRANSFORMER

Throughout his NFL career Lorenzo Alexander has had to adapt. Alexander entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent 300-pound defensive linemen. At one point he was asked to play offensive line. After stints in Carolina and Baltimore his first two years, he found a home in Washington in 2006 and made his name as a special teams standout earning a Pro Bowl in 2007. But his full transformation to finding a regular defensive position was not complete until he lost nearly 70 pounds in 2009. Redskins linebacker London Fletcher served as Alexander's mentor during this stage in his career. "In one offseason he dropped a good 50 pounds or so," Fletcher recalled. "Losing that weight unleashed that athleticism that was hampered by all that extra weight. That helped him play better on the football field."

In 2016, Alexander finally produced his breakout defensive season. He was the first NFL player to start the season with a seven-game sack streak since Jared Allen in 2011. He was named AFC Defensive Player of the Month in October. He earned his second career Pro Bowl bid after finishing third in the NFL with 12.5 sacks and won Pro Bowl MVP honors.

COMING UP ACES

Everywhere Lorenzo Alexander plays, he becomes a community standout. Alexander established the ACES Foundation where his mission is to support youth through emphasizing accountability, taking pride in the community, striving for educational excellence while promoting a healthy mind, body and spirit through sports. This offseason, Alexander made numerous school visits in Western New York, hosted a celebrity bowling party in Northern Virginia, and a football camp in his hometown of Oakland. He stresses the same message when speaking to young people. "It's always about – character," said Alexander.

"Being a great person, taking care of your classmates, your community and yourself and staying healthy – all the things you want to emphasize with kids. I emphasize with my own children."

PERSONAL

Lorenzo and his wife Majanique are parents to two daughters, Vanessa and Zoie, and two sons, Mason and Myles. Alexander graduated from Cal with a degree in Legal Studies and attended St. Mary's High School in Berkeley where he was on the school's 2001 state championship basketball team. He endorses Nike and TruSox and received the Athletes in Action Call to Courage award in March 2017.

FOOTBALL IS FAMILY

Preston Brown's family has been involved in football his entire life. Brown's father Mike was a linebacker at Ball State and was signed as an undrafted free agent linebacker with the Denver Broncos. Mike served as Preston's linebacker coach in Preston's senior season at Northwest High School. Preston and his dad have been breaking down football film since Preston was six years old. "I'm watching my kid live his fantasy," said the elder Brown. "That's the coolest thing in the world you can have as a dad. He's in a fantasy world and for a dad to be able to watch that is incredible. I enjoyed every step from Pee Wee to high school to college to now the NFL."

Preston's mom Patrice is a certified NFL agent with Purpose-Based Sports and represents her son.

ADVICE FROM A HOMETOWN FRIEND

In his first year in Sean McDermott's defense, Preston Brown is is fighting for a starting spot among the Bills linebackers. This offseason he reached out to one of McDermott's most accomplished proteges for insight into the new defensive scheme - Panthers All-Pro linebacker Luke Kuechly. Brown and Kuechly are both from Cincinnati.

"I have watched the last three seasons of Carolina defensive film to get a better understanding of how they want us to play in this system," said Brown. "I talked to Luke about it when he was back in Cincinnati this offseason. The linebackers who played in this system have played well so I am looking forward to it."

NEW WAYS TO GET BETTER

In an effort to find new ways to improve, one training method Charles has taken up is hot yoga. Hot yoga, also known as bikram yoga, involves performing 90 minutes of yoga in a room kept between 90-108 degrees with the intention of helping stretch and tone muscles. Charles enjoys the activity enough that he has even convinced teammate Richie Incognito to tag along for a few sessions.

In addition to hot yoga, Clay has even spent time working on his boxing skills in order to improve his hand speed which helps in both blocking and breaking free off of the line of scrimmage.

SEANTREL 66 HENDERSON

CRETIN-DERHAM HALL HIGH SCHOOL

4TH YEAR

UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI

2014 ACQUIRED

SEVENTH ROUND SELECTION (237TH OVERALL) BY THE BILLS IN 2014.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD' BIG MAN, BIG BATTLE

After being diagnosed with Crohn's disease, an inflammatory bowel disease that impairs the function of the stomach, colon and nearby organs, Henderson underwent two surgeries in January of 2016 that removed 80 cm of his intestines. For three months, he wore an ileostomy bag. He now needs to avoid certain foods like tomatoes, corn, aluten, dairy and broccoli. Needless to say, he learned a lot from that experience.

"You can't take anything for granted." Henderson recalled. "2015 could have been the last year I ever played football. At one point, the doctors were saying I might have to wear the ileostomy bag for the rest of my life."

Henderson is grateful for the support he received along the way and hopes to help others in the future. "So many people reached out to me on social media. And I made sure to take the time to write back. It meant the world to me and it helped me get through it."

A TOWERING PRESENCE ON THE OFFENSIVE LINE, SEANTREL HENDERSON IS IN HIS FOURTH SEASON IN BUFFALO

after being drafted in the 7th round in 2014. After starting all 16 games as a rookie, Henderson has battled through a bout with Crohn's disease that contributed to his limited play over the last two seasons.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

PERSONAL

Seantrel is the son of Zora Jasper and Sean Henderson, a property manager. He has two children, a daughter, Synneva, and a son, Seantrel, Jr.

He lists his mother as the most influential person in his life. "She always kept me busy and to stay out of the streets. I didn't want to play football. She made me and I'm so happy she did. If it wasn't for her, I wouldn't be in the NFL."

His hobbies include shopping, traveling, and playing NBA2K, Madden and Halo. His favorite vacation spots are Los Angeles and San Francisco. His favorite teams growing up were the Minnesota Twins, Vikings, and Timberwolves.

BIG-NAME SCHOOL

A product of Cretin-Derham Hall High School in Saint Paul, MN, Henderson played high school football with NFL wide receiver Michael Floyd. Famous alumni from that school include: Matt Birk, Joe Mauer, Paul Molitor and Chris Weinke.

Henderson also competed in basketball and the shot put and discus in high school. In fact, he competed in a national shot put tournament while in the 6th grade.

MAJOR VOID

Henderson was devasted by the loss of his best friend, Jordan Hughes, who passed away tragically on July 25, 2012. "I think about him every day. He motivated me a lot in college or when school was getting hard or when I just felt tired. He kept telling me, 'just keep going, don't ever think it's too hard. It's so much better being in Miami than in Minnesota doing nothing. You're too big for a cubicle."

COMEBACK KID

After sitting out the entire 2014 season, Incognito does not take anything for granted in the NFL. "I'm super grateful every day I'm here. There were many times I thought I wasn't coming back. Having football taken away from me, it allowed me to re-focus on what was important – inside and outside of the game. It's tough to find a silver lining in it all, but the silver lining is just where I'm at right now."

Incognito is especially grateful for the opportunity to meet with Terry and Kim Pegula before signing with the Bills in 2015. "I told them I had learned from the whole situation and this whole learning process was about becoming self-aware, about becoming a better person, teammate and leader."

FIRST-AND-10

A physical, durable and smart player, Incognito became the first Bills offensive lineman to earn consecutive Pro Bowl berths since Jason Peters did so in 2007 and 2008.

IRON CHEF

First began cooking at the age of six with the help of his mother and older sisters. Johnson recalled, "At the age of 7, I started to cook for myself, my cousin, Cortez Hearns, and best friend Antonio Patterson in our neighborhood. We'd collect food and ingredients from our houses and meet up and one house and cook whatever we could get our hands on."

An avid traveler as well, Johnson would often call ahead to restaurants and culinary schools in countries such as Thailand, Egypt and Dubai to learn how to cook in those particular cultures. "I would offer to pay to serve as a one-week apprentice. Most of the time, they would not accept the payment and were just happy I was there to learn and absorb their cultures. It was a lot of fun."

Johnson, who aspires to host a show on the Food Network once his playing days are over, listed his top three recipes:

- 1. Garlic Parmesan Salmon
- 2. Brown Stew Chicken
- 3. Alfredo Pasta (from scratch, including the noodles)

EIGHT IS ENOUGH

Growing up in a home with seven brothers and sisters, Johnson stressed that it helped him "learn the importance of core values, especially now when it comes to parenting his own kids. There was never a dull moment in our house growing up. But most importantly, it taught me how to love, despite all of the different personalities and interests of my siblings."

BARBER SHOP

Born and raised in Clearwater, FL, his favorite cornerback of all-time was Ronde Barber of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. He tried to model his game after Barber and actually became a teammate of his in 2012 when he was signed by the Bucs as an undrafted free agent. Leonard's favorite sports moment as a fan: "Ronde's pick six vs. the Eagles in the 2002 NFC Championship game."

RB 26 TAIWAN JONES

all I.S

CAME TO THE BILLS VIA FREE AGENCY IN 2017.

COMMITMENT TO EDUCATION

Taiwan Jones' biggest obstacle that he had to overcome on the way to success in the NFL wasn't a physical one, but a mental one. Big-time schools had no difficulty identifying Taiwan as a special talent during his high school days, but a low gradepoint average kept him from receiving an scholarship offers from a Division I school. It wasn't until halfway through his senior year of high school that he was diagnosed with the learning disorder dyslexia. This diagnosis allowed him the extra time he needed to get his grades to the level he needed to play at Eastern Washington. Jones' passion for learning continued this past offseason when he attended the NFL Business Academy at the University of Michigan's Ross School of Business.

FIRST-AND-10

TAIWAN JONES CAME TO THE BUFFALO

BILLS IN 2017 after spending six seasons with the Oakland Raiders, where he was drafted in the fourth round (125th overall) of the 2011 NFL Draft.

Jones earned PFWA All-AFC honors in 2015 after leading the AFC in kick return yards.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD' MR. VERSATILITY

Jones is used to being utilized all over the football field. He has bounced back and forth between defensive back and running back since arriving on Eastern Washington's campus in 2007. He started out playing cornerback until he made the switch over to running back in 2009 and he became an AP First-Team FCS All-American in 2010. He started his NFL career at running back in 2011 and made the switch to cornerback in 2013. While excelling on special teams, Jones was able to make the switch back to running back in 2015.

A weapon on special teams, Jones led the Raiders in special teams tackles in 2013 and posted big numbers on kick returns in 2013 and 2015.

CRUCIAL MOMENT

Taiwan recorded his first carry in a Bills' uniform and capitalized in a crucial moment. With the game on the line against Tampa Bay, Jones was able to pick up the yards needed for an important first down.

PICK AND ROLL

Lawson contemplated leaving football behind as a freshman to focus on basketball, but joined the varsity team at the last minute. As a sophomore, Lawson was the starting center for the Daniel Lions and he teamed up with Houston Texans WR DeAndre Hopkins to lead the school to their first ever Class AAA state basketball championship. Lawson led the way in the title game with a game-high 25 points.

CLEMSON BOY

Shaq's first job was working in the concessions stands at Clemson games from the Ages of 11 to 14 selling popcorn. During that time, Lawson saw how much the Tigers meant to his local community. Despite this experience, Lawson was leaning towards going to Tennessee before his father passed away in a car accident. Shaq knew he had to stay close to home to be with his family and the Tigers welcomed him after he went to Hargrave Military Academy for one year. As a Tiger, Lawson would go on to be a unanimous All-American and would total 123 tackles, 45.5 tackles for a loss and 20 sacks.

FIRST-AND-10

SHAQ LAWSON WAS DRAFTED BY THE BUFFALO BILLS IN 2016 after three seasons at Clemson.

Lawson helped lead the Tigers to the National Championship game with a Consensus All-American performance in 2015 before suiting up for the Bills in the latter portion of 2016, where he posted 13 tackles and 2.0 sacks in 10 appearances.

FAMILY MAN

The man that Shaq Lawson is today was shaped by a tragedy that happened when he was 15 years old. The car his parents were driving was hit by a drunk driver and his father passed away at the scene. His mother also had to spend weeks in the hospital due to her injuries. Shaq knew he had to step up and help raise his younger siblings even though he just lost the most influential person in his life. Lawson still makes it a point to visit his father's grave as often as possible and to focus on the advice he instilled in him as a kid, "High school hero, backyard zero." Every game, Lawson takes the field with his father's memory in mind, always looking to make him proud and to accomplish all the goals they set together.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

SHADES OF GREATNESS OFF THE FIELD After LeSean's grandmother, Maryann Branch, lost a battle to ALS, the disease has become a driving force behind the creation of his foundation – Shades of Greatness.

This foundation is dedicated to helping the fight against Lou Gehrig's Disease (ALS) and provides direct support to individuals battling ALS to ensure a comfortable quality of life while supporting their family and caregivers in providing quality life care.

In 2017, McCoy and his foundation conducted their 4th celebrity softball game in Rochester, NY. They honored long-time ALS treatment advocate Mike Maloney, a Cheektowaga resident who passed away in February of 2017. The first two softball games occurred in Lancaster, PA, while McCoy was a member of the Eagles.

Each year in Buffalo and Harrisburg, his foundation conducts an annual backpack giveaway in September, an annual Thanksgiving turkey giveaway as well as a coldweather gear giveaway around Christmas.

BROTHERLY LOVE

Claims his older brother, LeRon, is his biggest role model. "Just the way he handled himself. He did everything I wanted to do. He set the bar high for me. He made it to the NFL and really wasn't even recruited out of high school. But he went to a Division II school and made it out." LeRon was drafted in the 7th round by the Cardinals in 2005 out of Indiana University of Pennsylvania.

ROYAL BEGINNING

McCoy began playing football as a running back for the East Shore Royals in Harrisburg and went on to star at Bishop McDevitt High School.

PERSEVERANCE AT A YOUNG AGE

On pace to shatter the state's rushing record during his senior season at Bishop McDevitt HS, McCoy suffered a compound ankle fracture during the fourth game and missed the rest of the season. "I felt like I was on top of the world," recalled McCoy. "Then at the very next moment I lost it all." After one year of prep school at Milford Academy in New York, McCoy was given a chance to play Division I football by Pittsburgh coach Dave Wannstedt. In 2012, he (#20) joined Ricky Watters as the only two players to have their jersey numbers retired by Bishop McDevitt.

NEVER FORGETTING HIS ROOTS

In 2016, McCoy donated two sets of uniforms to each player on the Harrisburg HS football teams and also donated new uniforms for their girls basketball team.

"Obviously, we didn't have that in our budget," said Calvin Everett, the school's athletic director. "As far as the dollar amount, he said get what you want. We were very, very appreciative of it. He's a Harrisburg guy. He's just giving back to his community."

PERSONAL

Conor McDermott wasn't only a football player in high school, and certainly wasn't always the size of a lineman. Heading into UCLA, he was listed as tall as 6'8" and was only 235 pounds. McDermott earned the Mr. Basketball Award for the state of Tennessee during his senior season, where he averaged 15 points per game along with 8.5 rebounds. As a senior in high school, McDermott won not one, but two state championships in football and basketball.

On the gridiron, McDermott lined up as a TE and got some time at DT. When he got to UCLA, his coaches immediately switched him to OT and slowly increased his weight from 235 lbs to 315 lbs.

CB 22 TONY MCRAE

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD

NORTH CAROLINA NATIVE

Tony McRae has played several different positions throughout his football career. At his North Carolina high school, he was a standout running back. Once he got to North Carolina A&T, he switched to cornerback and ended up playing the position throughout his four-year Aggie career. During his sophomore year, he played cornerback, free safety and the nickel position, recording one interception across the three positions. By the time he reached his senior year, he was an integral member of the team, starting in every game and leading the defense in tackles. He also excelled in kick and punt returns in college, and when asked by Alex Khvatov of NFL Draft Blitz what the highlight of his career was, McRae noted a kick return for a touchdown against Appalachian State in 2013.

FIRST-AND-10

TONY MCRAE CAME TO THE BUFFALO BILLS IN 2017 after playing five games with the Baltimore Ravens in the same season.

McRae entered the NFL in 2016 as an undrafted free agent with the Oakland Raiders. He spent time on the Cincinnati Bengals practice squad before joining the Ravens on September 5th.

SPEED MACHINE

McRae was applauded for his speed entering the 2016 NFL Draft, as he recorded a 40-yard dash in 4.45 seconds. # TE 84 NICK O'LEARY

3RD YEAR

DRAFTED BY THE BILLS WITH THE TEAM'S SIXTH ROUND PICK (194TH OVERALL) OF THE 2015 NFL DRAFT.

AMONG FSU'S BEST

O'Leary finished his college career as the most productive tight end in Florida State school history. O'Leary captured the 2014 John Mackey Award en route to ending his career as FSU's alltime leader among tight ends in receptions (114), yards (1,591) and touchdowns (18).

NO GLOVES NEEDED

One of the most unique aspects of O'Leary's game is that he does not use gloves. O'Leary's reasoning for playing without them? He says that he grew up catching footballs and playing without them with no problem. So why change things up now? The lack of gloves don't seem to affect his ability to catch the ball though, as O'Leary's high school coach Jack Daniels says that O'Leary has the best hands of any player he has ever coached.

NICK O'LEARY ORIGINALLY JOINED THE BILLS AS THE TEAM'S SIXTH ROUND PICK IN THE 2015 NFL DRAFT, O'Leary is

entering his third season with the Bills after appearing in all 16 games during the team's 2016 season.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

TAKE ME OUT TO THE BALL GAME If it wasn't for his love of football, Poyer believes he could be playing baseball in the MLB today. Drafted in the 42nd round of the 2009 MLB Draft by the Marlins following a stellar high school career, Poyer instead chose to play football and pursue baseball at Oregon State. Poyer chose to quit baseball to focus on football while with the Beavers, but the passion never went away. In his introductory press conference, Poyer said, "If it wasn't pursuing my dream of playing football in the NFL, it was definitely going to be the MLB because I was damn good at baseball. You can go back and look at my stats. I was damn good at baseball."

SCHOLASTIC SUPERSTAR

Poyer remains a high school legend in his hometown of Astoria, Oregon. He led his high school to state titles in both football and baseball on the 4A level. On the gridiron, he was named the 4A Offensive and Defensive Player of the Year as a senior, starring as a dual threat quarterback and a ballhawking safety. On the basketball court, he was named the 2009 Cowapa League Player of the Year and he pitched the baseball team to a state title. In all, Poyer earned 11 varsity letters, which puts him as one of the most decorated athletes in Oregon high school history. His talent was evident to everyone in town at an early age when he threw a 50 yard touchdown in fifth grade during halftime of the Astoria high school game.

"Tyrod, to me, is one of the greatest playmakers in the National Football League. Just an unbelieveable work ethic. I heard one quote that parallels really well with Tyrod's personality: 'It's hard to tell the general from the group because he works like a soldier.' That's just his personality. At this point in his career - seven years in, a lot of money - he could start doing whatever he wants. But he's probably the most humble man I've ever met. I'm really proud to play for someone like that.

- Wide receiver, Zay Jones, 10/22/17

40 TD PASSES/10 RUSHING TDS

QB 5 TYROD TAYLOR

PARENTS LEAD THE WAY

An only child, Tyrod credits much of his success and his work ethic to his parents, Rodney and Trina Taylor. From a young age, Taylor had set the goal of becoming a professional athlete and his parents did everything in their power to make it happen. Their selflessness and dedication showed Tyrod the path that he had to take to get where he is today.

CHIP ON HIS SHOULDER

Tyrod's biggest motivation as a player is proving his doubters wrong. The main fuel for this is how he felt after falling to the sixth round of the 2011 NFL Draft. To this day, Taylor can name all 10 QB's that went ahead of him in order. He looks at New England Patriots QB Tom Brady as a source of inspiration because he went from being a sixth round draft pick to one of the most successful quarterbacks in league history.

SEE HIM ON THE COURT

If he could have gone pro in any other sport, Tyrod would immediately choose basketball. In his words, he views his game as most similar to Washington Wizards PG John Wall. Taylor is a frequent participant in charity basketball games during the offseason, particularly back home in Virginia.

#TYRODTAILORED

Tyrod is very passionate about fashion and is always breaking out new looks. Taylor was recently named to the 2017 Fashionable 50 list by Sports Illustrated and he earned the title of "Most Consistent".

FROM THE 757

It wasn't hard to find inspiration when Tyrod was chasing his childhood goal of being a professional athlete. Two athletes in particular, Michael Vick and Allen Iverson, showed Taylor that anything was possible for a kid from Virginia Beach. Taylor was lucky to develop relationships with both of them and now he looks to serve as a sign of inspiration for the youth currently growing up in the 757.

ELEVATE 2DAYS FUTURE

Taylor started his own foundation, Elevate 2Days Future, in order to give back to the youth back home in Virginia. The foundation mainly funds youth sports leagues and puts on an annual football and life skills camp.

PERSONAL

Born August 3, 1989 in Hampton, Virginia, Tyrod is the son of Rodney and Trina Taylor. Tyrod studied Residential/ Commercial Property Management and graduated from Virginia Tech.

TE 82 LOGAN THOMAS

CAME TO THE BILLS VIA FREE AGENCY ON NOVEMBER 30, 2016.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

THE POSITION CHANGE

The positon change of Logan Thomas has been well documented as he has made the move over the past year from quarterback to tight end. Thomas has stated that this positon change has been the biggest obstacle he's faced in his career. After a standout collegiate career playing QB at Virginia Tech, Thomas only managed to complete one pass in the NFL, an 81-yard touchdown against the Denver Broncos while he was with the Arizona Cardinals.

HOKIE CONNECTION

Thomas has experience playing wide receiver in high school and also lined up at wideout as a freshman at Virginia Tech to catch a touchdown pass from current Bills QB Tyrod Taylor. With their touchdown against the Bucs, Thomas and Taylor reignited the connection they first built at Virginia Tech.

FIRST-AND-10

LOGAN THOMAS CAME TO THE BUFFALO BILLS IN 2016 after time with the Arizona Cardinals, Miami Dolphins, New York Giants, and Detroit Lions. Thomas was drafted by the Cardinals in the fourth round of the 2014 NFL Draft out of Virginia Tech.

Thomas played quarterback with the Hokies and during his first couple of years in the league, but converted to tight end after joining the Lions.

SHAMARKO 29 THOMAS

FIRST-AND-10

SHAMARKO THOMAS CAME TO THE BUFFALO BILLS IN 2017 after four seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers and a stint with the New York Jets.

The safety out of Syracuse was drafted 111th overall by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 2013 NFL draft. During his time with the Steelers, he totaled 53 tackles and one forced fumble.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

INSPIRATION THAT RUNS DEEP

Shamarko lost both his mom and stepfather in the span of nine months prior to his sophomore year at Syracuse.

He was forced in to a parental role of his five siblings as the oldest while also playing at Syracuse. Since college, Sharmarko has adopted three of his brothers.

Shamarko (featured above with his late mother, Ebeth) says that while the loss of two family members was tough to get over, he now uses it as motivation. "I want to be in the NFL because it's my goal to make my parents smile down on me. I really take that to heart," said Shamarko.

WR 10 DEONTE THOMPSON

SHOUTOUTS

Thompson was signed by the Bills on Tuesday, October 17, practiced for the first time with the team on Wednesday and played 21 snaps on offense vs. TB (10/22) on Sunday. All he did was become the first Bills wide receiver to top the 100-yard receiving mark in 2017 by catching 4 passes for 107 yards, including a 44-yard grab in the 4th quarter which set up the game-tying TD.

THAT'S MY QB

Thompson and Tyrod Taylor have a history together. The duo played together at the U.S. All-American All-Star game during their high school days. Deonte and Tyrod each started their NFL careers with the Baltimore Ravens and were a part of the Ravens' Super Bowl XLVII championship.

FIRST-AND-10

DEONTE THOMPSON RETURNS TO

THE BILLS after spending time with the team at the end of the 2014 season and in the 2015 offseason.

In addition to the Bills, Thompson has spent time with the Chicago Bears and the Baltimore Ravens.

Thompson originally entered the NFL in 2012 with the Ravens after a four year collegiate career with the University of Florida.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD' DUAL SPORT GATOR

Deonte's speed is a known commodity, as he ran a 4.31 40 yard dash prior to the 2012 NFL Draft. Part of the foundation for his speed is his background as a track star.

After a stellar high school career in track & field that included winning the 100 meter dash at the 2007 Western Conference Meet-Deonte participated on Florida's track & field team during his freshman year in 2008.

PERSONAL

Deonte married the former Jourdan Neal in July of 2016.

DT 91 CEDRIC THORNTON

CAME TO THE BILLS VIA FREE Agency on Sept. 5, 2017.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD' EDUCATION PUSH

During the 2015 offseason, Thornton went back to his hometown of Star City, Arkansas, to serve as principal for a day at Jimmy Brown Elementary School. Thornton brought $10,000 worth of brand new books to encourage the students to read more and excel academically. "It is a blessing to be able to travel back to my hometown to help motivate and inspire the youth to excel in life," Thornton said. "I am living my dream and want to inspire others to achieve the same and then some."

Every student at the elementary school received a free book for them to keep and take home. The books ranged from various Cat in the Hat titles to Disney's The Wonderful World of book series and biographies on Bill Gates, Steve Jobs, and others.

CEDRIC THORNTON WAS SIGNED BY THE BUFFALO BILLS IN 2017 after spending last season with the Dallas Cowboys. Thornton also played for the Philadelphia Eagles for four years after coming into the NFL as an undrafted free agent in 2011.

Known as a sturdy and tough defensive tackle, Thornton is one of six players to ever make it to the NFL out of Southern Arkansas.

THE STAMPEDE

Best player you have ever lined up against? Jason Peters in practice while in Philly.

Pregame rituals? I like to read The Bible.

> First jersey you ever owned? An Eddie George #27 Titans jersey.

Favorite superhero? Thor.

Biggest influence on your career?

My parents. They always pushed me to be the best player I could be. After games, my dad would always keep it real and help me with what I needed to work and get better at.

Three must-haves on a deserted island? Fresh water, a Bible, and food.

Favorite Halloween costume growing up? Billy the Blue Power Ranger.

Did you play any other sports in high school?

I played baseball, basketball and football for Star City and dreamed of the NBA, but turned to football once I realized I was better at football.

CEDRIC 91 THORNTON

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

PICKING PEAS

Cedric played RB and WR at Star City High School, but only ran a 4.6 40-yard dash before entering college. When he got to D-II Southern Arkansas, his coaches moved him to the defensive line. He was a two-year starter with the Muleriders and earned first-team All-America honors as a junior in 2009.

Cedric credits his strength from picking peas on farms near his home. He worked from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m. every day, walking up and down between acres of peas to pick the ripe ones and stick them in large bags. It took about 90 minutes to fill one bag and Cedric would make as much as $50 a day based on the weight of the bag, but rarely ever reached that amount.

AGGRESSIVENESS

When Thornton first started playing sports, he had aspirations of being a baseball or basketball player, but the two sports didn't really suit his physical mentality. "When I played basketball, I was a little too aggressive and basically fouled out of every game, so I decided football was probably a better fit for me."

PERSONAL

Cedric is the son of Nathaniel, a pastor in Arkansas. He has two older brothers, Nathaniel Jr. and Christopher, and he has two younger sisters, Tammi and Olydia. Cedric is married to Shakacia and the couple have three children.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

NEW FATHER

Tre'Davious and his girlfriend, Ikea, celebrated the birth of their first and only son, Tre'Davious Jr., just days after the cornerback was drafted to the Bills in late April.

Ikea is finishing up her nursing degree in Louisiana, but she and Tre'Davious Jr. are planning on moving up to Buffalo shortly after she finishes her final semester this fall.

UNIQUE PATH

Tre'Davious hasn't had the easiest road to the NFL, but his mother has done everything she can to provide for the young cornerback and three siblings. LaShawnita Ruffins worked an overnight shift as a floor supervisor at a casino near Shreveport and would get home in time to see her kids onto the school bus and off to school.

"I feel like my duty is to get her in a comfortable situation where she can call something her own," Tre'Davious explained. "I feel like that is my job as her child. I feel like I owe that to her for all the sacrifices that she's made for my little sister and my two brothers and I."

Tre'Davious has never been on a vacation, but vows to take his family on one soon. "Wherever mom wants to go, we'll go. I'll make sure it happens."

GIVING BACK

KEEPS ON GIVING

Throughout his tenure with the team, Wood has redefined the term "Bills in the Community" with his continued commitment to contribute to a variety of programs supported on a league level. Eric has been a key to the success of the Bills Play 60 program, A Crucial Catch outreach, Salute to Service initiatives, and more. Aside from these larger scale campaigns, Eric is an ambassador for the Teammates for Kids Foundation, assisted in several Bills Make-A-Wish visits, makes impromptu stops at local hospitals and schools, and regularly participates in Bills Community initiatives including visiting the Community Hospitality Tent at Training Camp, providing Thanksgiving Meals for families at the Food Bank of Western New York and handing out gifts at the Bills holiday party for children.

PERSONAL

Born March 18, 1986 in Cincinnati, Ohio, Eric is the son of Diane and Randal Wood. Wood studied Political Science and graduated from the University of Louisville. He lives with his wife, Leslie, and they have a daughter named Grace. Wood also has a Black Lab named Daisy.

LOVE FOR LOUISVILLE

One of Eric's biggest passions in the world is supporting his alma mater, Louisville, and the Louisville community. After a stellar career as a Cardinal, Eric has made Louisville his home and trains there every offseason. In addition to his community work in Buffalo, Eric also focuses on helping out the less fortunate in Louisville.

A big-time Louisville sports booster, Eric can often be found at Louisville basketball games during the offseason and he was in attendance at the 2013 NCAA Men's Basketball National Championship game.

Another connection that Eric continues to hold with Louisville is his yearly attendance at the Kentucky Derby. Wood is usually joined by Bills teammates at the race and during the weekend at events.

Due to their attending of the Derby, Wood and Richie Incognito have taken their horse racing interest to the next level. In conjunction with Louisville basketball coach Rick Pitino, the two own a horse named Ms. Card Nation.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

POSITIVE IMPACT

Jerel's positive demeanor can be attributed to his late grandmother, Mimi, who passed away early in his NFL career.

"She was always so positive and upbeat," recalled Worthy. "Everything she taught me as a kid, I still hear those lessons from her today. I can hear her words so vividly. She had the biggest impact on my life and for my faith."

Worthy's first job growing up was helping his grandmother clean the church, a job he had from the time he was 7 years old until he went to college. He fondly remembers his grandmother cooking for his high school football teams during their two-a-days.

"She and I speak through prayer before every game," Worthy proudly said.

HIGH PRAISE

When asked what his favorite part of playing in Buffalo is, Worthy quickly talks about playing with long-time Bills DT Kyle Williams.

"He's the best teammate I've ever had," said Worthy. "He never lets you feel you can't do something. His words can make you run through a wall."

WORTHY NOTES

Once his playing days are complete, Worthy plans on working in real estate and construction.

Has a lasting memory of meeting Charles Woodson as a rookie in Green Bay. "I was in the locker room late one night in the spring and he tapped me on the shoulder and asked me how I was doing. It meant a lot to me that he even knew who I was."

In high school, competed in football, track, wrestling, and baseball, while also playing AAU basketball.

PERSONAL

He and his fiancee, Jilian, have a son, Jerel, and a daughter, Sofia. The family has a Husky named Ice. Jerel is the son of Bobby Smith and Stephanie Worthy. He has two brothers, Bobby Smith and Brandon Smith, the latter of whom serves in the United States Navy. He also has a sister, Jamie.

PICTURE IS WORTH A 1,000 WORDS

One of Wright's favorite things to do off the field is photography, a hobby he recently picked up.

"It started when my son Elijah was born." recalled Wright. "I bought a camera and was taking pictures of him. I took a couple of good shots and we framed them and started having fun with it. I took it from inside the house to outside doing street photography. That's one of my favorites. It helps me relax and takes my mind to a deeper level when you've got to see that picture before you take it."

KEEP ON TRUCKIN'

Shareece owns a trucking company named S. Wright Enterprises, which consists of five car hauling trucks and two refrigerated trucks based in Fontana, CA. "The trucking business is a good business," said Wright. "You always see so many trucks on the road. They are always in need."

One of the most accomplished front office executives in NFL history, Bill Polian helped build multiple successful franchises during his 24 years as a general manager. In all, his teams made 17 playoff trips, eight conference championship games and five Super Bowl appearances, including winning Super Bowl XLI with the Indianapolis Colts.

Widely praised as both a top talent evaluator and influential executive, Polian is the first sixtime recipient of the NFL Executive of the Year award from The Sporting News and during his time in Buffalo he redesigned the franchise from a last place team in 1985 to the forefront of the league with appearances in Super Bowl XXV, Super Bowl XXVI, Super Bowl XXVII and Super Bowl XXVIII. Working alongside Owner Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. and Head Coach Marv Levy, Polian's eye for talent and negotiating prowess brought a bevy of outstanding players to Buffalo. In fact, of the 47 Bills at the first two Super Bowls, 45 came to Buffalo during Polian's tenure.

His acquisitions included the 1986 signing of QB Jim Kelly from the USFL and the 1987 trade for LB Cornelius Bennett. Additional draft picks Polian made in Buffalo included DE Bruce Smith, OT Will Wolford, RB Thurman Thomas and WR Andre Reed. He built a team that would reverse the Bills record from 8-40 from 1984-86 to a 58-22 mark from 1988-92. During his time in Buffalo, 13 Bills drafted or obtained by Polian made a total of 49 Pro Bowl appearances. In all, Polian brought in five players who would end up in the Pro Football Hall of Fame (Jim Kelly, James Lofton, Andre Reed, Bruce Smith and Thurman Thomas), as well as Head Coach Marv Levy.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

• Responsible for putting together the only NFL team to go to four consecutive Super Bowls

• Brought six future Hall of Famers to Buffalo (Jim Kelly, James Lofton, Andre Reed, Bruce Smith, Thurman Thomas and Head Coach Marv Levy)

Andre Reed ended his 16-year career as the most accomplished wide receiver to ever play for the Buffalo Bills. The 6-2, 190-pound Kutztown product led the Bills in receiving from 1986 to 1992 and then again in 1994, 1996 and 1997 on his way to racking up the Bills' career receiving records for receptions (941) and receiving yards (13,095).

After being selected by Buffalo with the team's first choice in the fourth round of the 1985 NFL Draft, Reed emerged as one of the elite wideouts in the league during the 1989 season when he caught 88 passes for 1,312 yards and nine touchdowns.

Reed would go on to provide a dynamic presence on all four of the Bills' AFC Championship teams—leading the team in receptions, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns during the four-year run.

A seven-time Pro Bowler, Reed recorded a franchise record 36 100-yard receiving games (regular season) as a Bill. Reed also ranks as the franchise leader in games played with 221 and is tied with Bruce Smith as the franchise's all-time leaders in years of service with 15 seasons.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Selected to seven straight Pro Bowls spanning from 1988 to 1994
- Bills franchise leader in receptions, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns
- Named to the Bills 50th Season All-Time Team in 2009

The impact Ralph Wilson, Jr. had on professional football culminated in 2009 with his induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

For starters, he was the only original AFL owner to keep his team in its originating city. The role he played in the AFL-NFL merger, his presence on nearly every NFL committee and his passion for the game as one who has always had the league's best interests at heart before his own team has led many to refer to him as the NFL's "voice of reason." Under his direction as owner, the Bills won two AFL Championships in 1964 and 1965 and were the only AFL team to make the postseason in four consecutive years (1963-66). Later, his Bills would become the only team ever to win four consecutive AFC championships (1990-93) and appear in four straight Super Bowls. He was honored with numerous awards, including the Pete Rozelle Award from the Touchdown Club in New Orleans, the NFL Alumni's "Order of the Leather Helmet" and the "Timmie" Award from the Touchdown Club of Washington D.C. In 2008, Mr. Wilson received the Maxwell Football Club's Francis J. (Reds) Bagnell Award for Contributions to the Game of Football and the inaugural Lamar Hunt Award for Professional Football at the 101 Awards in Kansas City. At the turn of the century, The Buffalo News named Ralph Wilson, Jr. as the "Top Sports Figure" of the region in the past millennium.

Widely regarded as one of the most dominant defensive players ever to play in the National Football League, Bruce Smith began his tenure with the Buffalo Bills in 1985. Over the next 19 seasons, Smith would amass more sacks (200) than any other player in NFL history. In Buffalo, Smith anchored the defense for 15 years, which ranks first (along with WR Andre Reed) for the most seasons played in a Bills uniform. In 10 of those years, Buffalo reached the postseason.

Taken with the first overall pick in the 1985 NFL Draft, Smith started 13 games his rookie year and collected 48 tackles and 6.5 sacks. Those numbers jumped to 63 and 15.0, respectively, in 1986. Perhaps his finest year came in 1990, when he posted 101 tackles, 19.0 sacks and 14 QB pressures while the team won its first of four consecutive AFC Championships. Smith was named to the Pro Bowl 11 times in his career and was the NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1990 and 1996.

Known for his ability to get to the opposing quarterback, Smith racked up sacks against 74 different quarterbacks and against every team but three: San Diego, Buffalo, and Baltimore. He ranks first in NFL history with 13 seasons of 10 or more sacks and second on the all-time postseason sack list with 14.5. He was named to the NFL's All-Decade team in both the 1980's and 1990's. Smith was the AFC Defensive Player of the Week eight times during his Bills tenure, and Defensive Player of the Month six times. Extremely durable, Smith ranks 16th on the all-time games played list with 279.

Thurman Thomas developed into one of the NFL's most versatile and dangerous offensive players in his 13 years in the league. He was also known as one of the team's most emotional leaders for the Buffalo Bills – a team that won more games (103) than any AFC team in the 1990s.

His ability to catch the ball as well as run with it was a key ingredient to the Bills' "No Huddle" offensive attack. The team improved to 13-3 in 1990 as Thomas led the NFL in all-purpose yards. He rushed for 1,297 yards and scored 11 touchdowns while catching 49 passes for 532 yards and two touchdowns. With the versatile back leading the way, the Bills marched through the playoffs to the first of their unprecedented four straight Super Bowl berths.

In 1991, Thomas amassed more than 2,000 all-purpose yards, just the 11th player ever to do so. His league-leading yardage output included 1,407 yards on the ground and an additional 631 yards on a career-high 62 receptions. He scored 12 touchdowns. He reached the 2,000-yard total again the following season which marked a record fourth straight season of leading the NFL in yards from scrimmage.

Named to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s, Thomas was selected first- or second-team All-Pro and All-AFC five times, and was voted to the Pro Bowl five straight years. Thomas retired as the NFL's ninth ranked rusher with 12,074 yards and added another 4,458 yards on 472 catches. He scored 65 rushing and 23 receiving touchdowns in his 13-season career.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- First NFL player to lead the NFL in yards from scrimmage in four consecutive seasons (1989-92)
- Third back in history to record 400 receptions and 10,000 rushing yards
- Five-time Pro Bowl selection and 1991 NFL Most Valuable Player

In the 1970s, Joe DeLamielleure and his Buffalo Bills offensive line mates were dubbed the "Electric Company," because they "turned the Juice loose." The "Juice" of course was Hall of Fame running back O.J. Simpson. An All-American and three-time All-Big Ten performer at Michigan State, "Joe D" was selected in the first round of the 1973 NFL Draft by the Bills.

Extremely durable and dependable, DeLamielleure played in 185 consecutive games during his 13 playing seasons with the Bills and the Cleveland Browns. A starter from the first game of his rookie season, DeLamielleure started in every game for eight seasons in Buffalo before being traded to Cleveland in 1980. He went on to become the most honored lineman of the Bills' respected front wall.

Éight times during his career he was selected first- or second-team All-Pro; seven times he was named first- or second-team All-AFC, and six times he was named to the Pro Bowl. Since 1970, only two Hall of Fame guards, John Hannah with 10 and Gene Upshaw with seven, were named All-Pro more often James Lofton's speed and soft hands made him an immediate deep-threat receiver from the moment he entered the pros in 1978.

It was something he would remain throughout his long career with the Green Bay Packers, the Los Angeles Raiders, Buffalo Bills, Los Angeles Rams and the Philadelphia Eagles. In 16 seasons, Lofton caught 764 passes for 14,004 yards – an average of 18.3 yards per catch. His 14,004 career-reception yardage mark was an NFL best at the time of his retirement, while his 43 games with 100 or more yards receiving ranked third.

In 1987, Lofton was traded to the Raiders, and two years later joined the Bills. In Buffalo, he reemerged as one of the game's premier deep-threats. In 1991, at the age of 35, the still-speedy receiver became the oldest player in league history to record 1,000 receiving yards in a season.

Extremely durable, Lofton was the first NFL player to score a touchdown in the 1970s, 1980s and 1990s. Many of his 75 touchdown receptions came on long passes when he simply outran the opposition.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- When he retired in 1993, his total of 14,004 yards was No. 1 all-time
- Selected to eight Pro Bowls (1979, 1981-86, 1992), named All-Pro four times and All-NFC three times
- First player to score a touchdown in the 1970s,

A strong-armed passer with a "linebacker's mentality," Kelly virtually rewrote the Bills' record book for quarterbacks. Only three players in NFL history had reached the 30,000-yard career passing mark faster. Eight times during his NFL career he passed for more than 3,000 yards in a season, and 26 times he passed for more than 300 yards in a game.

With Kelly and teammates Thurman Thomas and Andre Reed, the Bills possessed a highly potent offense during the 1990s. Kelly's quick decisiveness and fast paced "no-huddle" offense terrorized opposing defenses. In 11 seasons in Buffalo, Kelly led the Bills to the playoffs eight times. In 17 playoff game appearances, including four consecutive Super Bowls, he passed for 3,863 yards and 21 touchdowns. At the time of his retirement, his 84.4 passer rating ranked sixth all-time and was second when compared to Hall of Fame quarterbacks. His 35,467 career passing yards ranked tenth in NFL history; his 2,874 completions ranked eighth; and his 237 touchdowns ranked thirteenth.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Selected to four Pro Bowls: 1987, 1990-1992
- Led the Bills to an unprecedented four straight

In 1986, when Marv Levy was chosen to direct the fortunes of the Buffalo Bills, he brought with him more than 30 years of coaching experience. In 1987, his first full season with the Bills, the team returned to respectability with a 7-8 record and were in the playoff hunt throughout most of the season.

The following season the team posted a 12-4 record and won their first of six AFC Eastern Division titles. With his high-powered "no-huddle" offense, Levy went on to set a new standard for NFL coaches as he led his AFC championship team to four consecutive Super Bowl appearances. From 1988 through 1997, the Bills were first in the AFC in winning percentage and second only to the San Francisco 49ers in the NFL. Levy, the winningest coach in Bills' history, recorded a 112-70 regular season record and was 11-8 in the playoffs during his 11 seasons with the Bills. He was named NFL Coach of the Year in 1988 and AFC Coach of the Year in 1988, 1993 and 1995.

Equally adept at pass blocking and run blocking, Billy Shaw's ability to pull out in front of runners was a perfect fit for the Bills. Shaw's speed, strength, and natural ability made him "the driving force of the offensive unit" according to his former offensive line coach Jerry Smith.

Especially effective on short-yardage scoring plays, Shaw would pull out from his left guard position tollowed by heavy-duty runners Cookie Gilchrist and Wray Carlton. Bills quarterback Jack Kemp or his super-sub Daryle Lamonica would follow the powerful trio of blockers – often untouched – into the end zone. A key member of the Bills teams that won AFL titles in 1964 and 1965, Shaw was named a firstteam All-AFL selection five times (1962-66) and also a second team All-AFL choice in 1962, 1968 and 1969. He was selected to play in eight AFL All-Star Games and was named to the All-Time AFL Team. Named to pro football's All-Decade Team of the 1960s, Shaw is the first Hall of Fame member to play his entire career in the AFL.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Helped lead the Bills to back-to-back AFL titles in 1964 and 1965

O. J. Simpson, a two-time All-American from the University of Southern California and the 1968 Heisman Trophy winner, was one of history's most heralded rookies when the Buffalo Bills selected him with the first overall pick in the 1969 draft.

His career record for 11 seasons confirms the rave notices were well founded. He rushed for 11,236 yards and scored 456 points on 76 touchdowns in his career.

O.J. may be best remembered for his sensational 1973 season when he became the first back in history to rush for over 2,000 yards. With 219 yards in the next-to-last game against New England and a 200-yard output in the finale with the New York Jets, Simpson totaled 2,003 yards, tops for a 14-game season.

Simpson also led the league in rushing four years: 1972, 1973, 1975 and 1976.

In various selections, he was named NFL Player of the Year in 1972, 1973 and 1975. He was both All-AFC and All-Pro five straight years from 1972-76. He played in six Pro Bowls, winning Player of the Game honors in the 1973 game.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Won four NFL rushing titles (1972, 1973, 1975 and 1976)
  Became the first back to ever rush for more than 2,000 yards in 1973 with 2003 yards.

 Named NFL Player of the Year in 1972, 1973 and 1975, and also named to both All-Pro and All-AFC squads from 1972-76.

BUFFALO BILLS WALL OF FAME

The Buffalo Bills Wall of Fame was created in 1980 to honor former players, administrators and coaches who have played significant roles in the team's history. To be eligible for induction, an individual must have played with the Bills for at least three years and be retired from professional football. Also eligible are other individuals who have made outstanding contributions to the Bills, including administrators and coaches. Selections are made by a distinguished panel composed of club personnel and media members.

Ralph C. Wilson Jr. Statue

The Buffalo Bills announced in March 2015 that the organization would commission a statue to be made of Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. The statue is displayed outside of New Era Field in Founder's Plaza.

Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. passed away at the age of 95. Mr. Wilson was the sole owner of the Bills franchise for 54 seasons after purchasing the team on October 28, 1959. Under his leadership, the Bills won two American Football League Championships in 1964 and 1965 and appeared in an unprecedented four consecutive Super Bowls in the 1990s. Mr. Wilson along with former Bills Head Coach Marv Levy, former General Manager Bill Polian plus eight of his players have earned football's highest honor by being inducted into the Professional Football Hall of Fame.

The construction of the statue was a collaborative effort between Terry and Kim Pegula and Mary Wilson. Founder's Plaza, the current location of the statue, is located northwest of The Bills Store at New Era Field.

Mr. Wilson's statue is the first statue in history to be displayed on the grounds of New Era Field. The life-size statue is based on a photo taken of Mr. Wilson with Thurman Thomas along the sidelines on October 21, 1990 during Buffalo's 30-27 victory over the New York Jets.

PUTTING THE COMMUNITY FIRST

The Buffalo Bills organization is committed to improving the quality of life in Western New York through community outreach and charitable investment with a focus in the areas of health & safety, youth football and military appreciation. With the platform that the Bills players and coaches are given, they've always made it a point to make an impact in the Western New York community and that is no different during the 2017 season.

PLAY 60

The Buffalo Bills, Independent Health Foundation and the Buffalo Niagara Heart Association launched the Play 60 Challenge and Fitness for Kids Challenge on Tuesday, Oct. 3, at Buffalo Public School 32 - Bennett Park Montessori. Several Buffalo Bills players attended, hosting a pep rally and an outdoor gym class for the kids.

Tuesday, Oct. 3, proved to be the perfect day for the Buffalo Bills, Independent Health Foundation, and the Buffalo Niagara American Heart Association to launch the Play 60 Challenge and Fitness for Kids Challenge. The programs, which launched in over five hundred classrooms in the area, aim to encourage children between grades two and five to participate in at least 60 minutes of physical activity a day, while also encouraging healthy nutritional choices.

The initiative kicked off at Buffalo Public School 32 - Bennett Park Montessori with a pep rally and Play 60 gym class lead by several Buffalo Bills including Colton Schmidt, Joe Webb, Preston Brown, Reid Ferguson, Joe Banyard, Lorenzo Alexander, Conor McDermott, Andre Holmes, Khari Lee.

As the Bills entered the pep rally, they were greeted with high fives and handmade signs from children decked out in Bills apparel. After introducing themselves and sharing tips for maintaining a healthy lifestyle, they welcomed questions from the youngsters. From the fun and informative Q&A session, the kids learned everything from the players' favorite healthy snacks, to their favorite dance moves – FYI Reid Ferguson can dab.

Following the pep rally, the Bills had a chance to show the kids some of the ways they stay active. As each child rotated through the different activity stations, they spent quality time with their role models. Encouraging healthy habits was something that came easy to many players.

During the event, Bills wide receiver Andre Holmes reminisced about how he loved being active and playing outside as a kid.

"When I was kid and there were professional players that went out in the community and showed them drills or told them how important it is to be healthy, it meant a lot to me," stated Holmes. "To be able to do that for the kids, when I am in the position [as a professional athlete] is important."

As the drills progressed, it was hard to say who was more excited to be outside playing, the Bills players or the kids.

Overall, the event was a remarkable success. Not only did the children pick up on the drills and score a few touchdowns, but they left equipped with knowledge on healthy nutritional habits and the importance of physical activity.

"The children were so excited," stated Principal Marianna Cecchini. "I think they are going to talk about this for the rest of their lives. It is really phenomenal to have so many Bills come."

COMMUNITY TUESDAY

Understanding the importance of building lasting relationships both on and off the field, the Bills recently took action. On their day off, Tuesday, Oct. 17, players came together to serve the community's youth through five different events.

It starts with one person doing the right thing. It starts with one person making a difference.

The Buffalo Bills players have truly embraced what it means to lead by example and to be a team. Understanding the importance of building lasting relationships both on and off the field, the Bills recently took action. On their day off, Tuesday, Oct. 17, players came together to serve the community's youth through five different events.

As explained by Bills veteran linebacker Lorenzo Alexander, the day of service was just one plan the players have put in place to inspire change.

"As a team, we have decided to engage our community in two ways," said Alexander. "First, on Tuesday, October 17, we plan to go out into the community as an organization and serve Buffalo's young people through five different community relations events. Our hope is that this is not just a feel-good moment, but from these events, relationships are birthed and are continued into the future and become sustainable for the men who come behind us. Secondly, we plan to meet with local public and political officials about how as players, we can help change and improve legislation and institutional culture."

Paying visits to the Belle Center, Northwest Buffalo Community Center, Matt Urban Hope Center, Hennepin Community Center, as well as the ADPRO Sports Training Center for the Crucial Catch Family Fun Night, the players made memories, created lasting friendships and touched the lives of everyone they met.

"Yesterday, [Oct. 17] was awesome, it was really a team initiative," said Alexander. "We took a step forward as far as being proactive about making change. Yesterday we really had a team function. We hit up five different venues – 42 guys spread around the city of Buffalo, serving and giving back and really building relationships that are going to go on past what we started yesterday, so I was very happy with it."

Alexander who made stops at the Belle Center and the Crucial Catch Family Fun Night, was grateful to be able to use his platform to make an impact.

"It's always awesome to go back and just be a part of the process of helping them realize their potential and ability to rise above their circumstance," said Alexander. "Whether that's giving some kind words, just hanging out with them, maybe some words of wisdom, or just giving them my story. I came up in a similar situation, in the inner city of Oakland, where resources were scarce. I had people step in and fill the gap for me. So, to be able to come full circle in my lifetime...and have a platform to be able to serve is truly a blessing."

At the Belle Center – a nonprofit organization which offers educational, social and community building services to youth, senior citizens and families in the Western New York area, Alexander was joined by his teammates including linebacker Preston Brown, defensive end Eric Lee, tight end Khari Lee, wide receiver Jordan Matthews, guard John Miller and fullback Mike Tolbert. While on the visit, the Bills got to participate in a variety of after school activities with a group of youngsters. They played games, helped with arts and crafts, interacted with a middle school girls mentoring program and took part in the Soccer for Success program for students in grades three through five.

As the day progressed, Bills players including wide receiver Zay Jones, linebacker Matt Milano, center Adam Redmond, linebacker Zach Vigil and cornerback Shareece Wright, made their way to the Northwest Buffalo Community Center where they joined adolescents aged 6-13 in several fun activities. The kids were thrilled to have some of their role models join them for basketball, art projects, air hockey and pool.

"I love kids," explained Zay Jones when reflecting on his decision to go to the Northwest Buffalo Community Center. "I love spending time with kids. It's awesome – I think it's [one of the] best forms of giving back. Just seeing young children smile and make their day is a wonderful opportunity."

For veteran Shareece Wright, the visit hit close to home.

"I remember growing up at a community center," said Wright. "It's what I did as a kid to stay out of trouble, so I figured I'd come to see how I could relate to these kids. I think it means a lot to them to show them that professional athletes care about them. [To] make them feel special [and] feel important, because they are."

Meanwhile, over at the Matt Urban Hope Center, Bills players including safety Jordan Poyer, wide receiver Kaelin Clay, defensive end Ryan Davis, defensive end Jerry Hughes, running back Taiwan Jones, defensive end Shaq Lawson, running back LeSean McCoy, tackle Jordan Mills, quarterback Tyrod Taylor, defensive tackle Adolphus Washington, quarterback Joe Webb and defensive tackle Jerel Worthy, spent quality time with a group of children and teenagers that visit the center each day after school. During the visit, the Bills got to test their basketball skills as well as get to know the kids.

"It was so cool yesterday," said LeSean McCoy when reflecting on the visit. "Just seeing how happy the kids were meant a lot to me because I come from those same areas. You never really see NFL players or guys you idolize or see on TV so to see that, was super cool. I know it meant a lot to them; it meant a lot to me. You look at the things that mean the most like that because you can impact some else's life."

For defensive tackle Marcell Dareus, safety Micah Hyde, tight end Logan Thomas, defensive end Cedric Thornton and defensive end Eddie Yarbrough, their evening spent at the Hennepin Community Center proved one to remember. There to show support and to watch a Police Athletic League female basketball game, the Bills players made the most of the visit.

"It means a lot to the community to have Buffalo Bills players out here, but it's big for us," said Micah Hyde. "A lot of us aren't from here and to be able to come out and support people here in Buffalo, whoever it may be, it's an awesome feeling. I can tell you this, being somewhere else and coming here, you really experience the family atmosphere. I've said this probably 100 times since I've been here, but it's awesome to feel like I'm a part of a family and that's how this community feels."

Executive Director of the Police Athletic League of Buffalo Nekia Kemp, weighed in on the impact this type of interaction has on the community.

"It's very important for children to have something to do outside of school hours," said Kemp. "I think anytime the community can come out and support kids not being on the street, not being in trouble and doing something positive...is positive. I think they're proud at this moment. They're very excited and very appreciative of the Bills coming out today."

Knowing that support can go a long way for those going through a tough time, Bills players Lorenzo Alexander, safety Colt Anderson, linebacker Preston Brown, tackle Dion Dawkins, fullback Patrick DiMarco, guard Vladimir Ducasse, long snapper Reid Ferguson, kicker Stephen Hauschka, tight end Ryan O'Malley, guard Will Pericak, quarterback Nathan Peterman, punter Colton Schmidt, tight end Keith Towbridge, center Eric Wood and defensive tackle Kyle Williams, went to the ADPRO Sports Training Center for another unforgettable event. Teaming up with ECMC for Crucial Catch this week, the Bills hosted a Family Fun Night for families from Stones Buddies and the PUNT Foundation to raise awareness for pediatric cancer. The special evening featured a variety of games and activities for the families and gave the players an opportunity to connect with the guests.

Longtime Bills center Eric Wood, whose foundation seeks to assist children in need in the Buffalo and Louisville, Kentucky communities, was overjoyed to take part.

"Through my foundation, I've got to meet a lot of these families," said Wood. "It's so awesome to see familiar faces. The joy that these kids have is unbelievable. The perspective that you gain on a night like tonight is just incredible."

Using their platform as professional athletes to make positive change, the Bills players will continue to do their part in the community.

"I think it can get bigger and better," said LeSean McCoy when discussing the team's community involvement. "Let's think together, let's be on the same team. That's what it's ultimately about."

PLAY 60 GAMEDAY EXPERIENCE

The NFL Play 60 campaign is designed to tackle childhood obesity by getting kids active through in-school, afterschool and NFL team-based programs.

In game three against the Broncos, we welcomed students who will participate in the Buffalo Bills Play 60 Challenge and the Independent Health Foundation's Fitness for Kids Challenge, as well as the Fuel Up to Play 60 program sponsored by the American Dairy Association North East.

The Buffalo Bills are proud to team up with the Independent Health Foundation, The Buffalo Niagara American Heart Association and the American Dairy Association North East to implement the Play 60 Challenge, the Fitness for Kids Challenge, and the Fuel Up to Play 60 program in area schools.

With your help we can make the next generation of youth the most active and healthy. For more information on these programs visit NFLRush.com/Play60 and FitnessforKidsChallenge.com.

RANDOM ACTS OF KICKOFF

With kickoff only a few days away, Bills players surprised fans in the community with random acts of kindness to show them how grateful they are for their support this year.

In the first week of September, Lorenzo Alexander, Charles Clay, Dion Dawkins and Zay Jones surprised a local youth football team with Perry's Ice Cream during their practice. The Bills players had their hands full with quarts of Perry's Sundae at the Ralph ice cream to give to the young players. Despite the colder temperatures, the players [Bills and the youth team] all enjoyed the ice cream break.

Safety Jordan Poyer also got in on the action by paying for the meals of some lucky fans at Duff's Famous Wings on Sheridan Drive in Amherst, New York. He was happy to share his favorite Buffalo food with fellow football fans.

HISPANIC HERITAGE MONTH

In honor of Hispanic Heritage Month, the NFL and the Hispanic Heritage Foundation have partnered to launch the Hispanic Heritage Leadership Awards, which recognize the contributions of Hispanic leaders.

The Buffalo Bills 2017 Leadership Award winner is Eunice Lewin – president of Impacto Consulting and Trustee for the State University of New York.

As a part of the leadership award, Eunice has selected the Hispanic Heritage Council of Western New York to receive a $2,000 grant from the NFL.

Buffalo Bills owner Kim Pegula presented the award to Eunice Lewin

The National Football League and the Buffalo Bills are committed to serving football fans of all cultures, and are proud to support Hispanic Heritage Month.

STAFF VOLUNTEER DAY

The Buffalo Bills headed to Cradle Beach Camp in Angola, NY, for the 2017 Staff Volunteer Day. This annual tradition provides Bills staff the opportunity to be out in the community giving back to the people who support the team day in and day out.

"It's become a tradition like none other for our staff," said Russ Brandon, Buffalo Bills Managing Partner and President. "The support that the staff provides to come out and give back to the community - it's a big part of what we do - social responsibility. Our community that gives so much to us, to have the opportunity to come out and give back means a lot to all of us."

Cradle Beach is a non-profit organization that provides hope, opportunities and life changing experiences for children with special needs and children who are economically disadvantaged to help them reach their full potential.

TOYOTA ROOKIE CLUB

For the Buffalo Bills, days off from football are an opportunity to give back to the community. This week, the Buffalo Bills Toyota Rookie Club came together to host a NFL Flag Clinic powered by USA Football at New Era Field. Inviting local youth football and NFL Flag participants from the Western New York Football Alliance member leagues and local NFL Flag organizations, the Bills rookies worked alongside coaches to guide the youngsters through a series of NFL Flag stations.

Not only did the event provide participants with a unique opportunity to learn football fundamentals and techniques in a fun and safe environment, it also allowed them to spend time with some of their hometown heroes.

"With our youth football outreach, we want to provide kids with an opportunity to engage with our players, and learn from them," said Preston Teague, Buffalo Bills Director of Community Relations and Youth Football. "NFL Flag Football is a program that we hope to grow throughout Western New York and our Rookies did an amazing job working with the kids, it was a great night."

Able to relate to the kids, Bills rookie cornerback Tre'Davious White explained how important it is for children to have these types of experiences.

"I was in their shoes years ago," said White. "I know how important it is to them to actually see the person under the helmet. I know it's going to be a day they remember, so we're just trying to make more memories by being interactive and being fun guys. I'm having a great time and I feel like they are too."

Bills wide receiver Zay Jones was all smiles as he worked with WR Malachi Dupree to instruct the youngsters on catching drills.

"Just getting to meet the younger kids, asking them their names, and seeing their personalities...it's been fun," said Jones. It's just so much fun for them. To get away from everything and come out here and enjoy football, both girls and guys, it's a fun experience."

Signing autographs and taking photos, the event proved as memorable for the rookies as it was for the participants.

"It's just awesome," said T Dion Dawkins. "I'm just happy to be in a position to make these kids' day."
