HEAD COACH MATCHUP 💍

COLTS HEAD COACH FRANK REICH

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 14th season NFL EXPERIENCE: 28th season COLTS HEAD COACH: 2nd season REGULAR SEASON: 12-7 (.632) POSTSFASON: 11-1 (500)

PRO CAREER: Frank Reich was named head coach of the Indianapolis Colts on Feb. 11, 2018. He has 27 years of NFL experience as both a player (1985-1998) and coach (2006-2018).

In his first season as head coach, Reich led the Colts to a 10-6 regular season record, including one postseason win and an appearance in the AFC Divisional Round. He became just the third head coach in team history to win a playoff game in his first season at the helm.

After starting the season with a 1-5 record, Indianapolis won nine of their final 10 regular season games to clinch the team's first postseason berth since the 2014 season. The Colts became the third team in NFL history to start a season 1-5 and make it to the playoffs. Additionally, Indianapolis was the second team in NFL history to start a season 1-5 and win a playoff game.

Reich previously served as offensive coordinator for the Philadelphia Eagles from 2016-17 and was instrumental in the team's Super Bowl LII championship following the 2017 season. He also served on the coaching staffs of the San Diego Chargers (2013-15), Arizona Cardinals (2012) and Colts (2006-2011).

Reich enjoyed a 14-year playing career with the Buffalo Bills, Carolina Panthers, New York Jets and Detroit Lions after being selected by the Bills in the third round (57th overall) of the 1985 NFL Draft. Including postseason play, he played in 129 career games (22 starts) and passed for 6,858 yards and 47 touchdowns.

Reich is most notably known for engineering the greatest comeback in NFL history in the 1992 Wild Card Round playoff game against the Houston Oilers. Making his first postseason start in relief of injured quarterback Jim Kelly, Reich led the Bills to a 41-38 overtime victory despite being down by 32 points early in the third quarter. He orchestrated five second half touchdown drives and led a gamewinning field goal drive in overtime.

BACKGROUND: Reich was a quarterback at the University of Maryland from 1981-84 where he backed up Boomer Esiason before earning the starting job as a senior in 1984. As a senior, Reich rallied the Terrapins from a 31-0 deficit to defeat the Miami Hurricanes, 42-40. At the time, Maryland's victory over Miami marked the greatest comeback win in college football history and is now only second to Michigan State's 2006 35-point comeback over Northwestern.

Indianapolis Colts Owner & CEO Jim Irsay embarks on his 48th season with the organization. His affiliation with the Colts dates back to 1972 when his father, Robert Irsay, acquired the team. His passion for winning and emphasis on sustained success has molded Indianapolis into one of the most successful franchises in the NFL. In addition to his commitment to winning, Irsay and his family are recognized as leaders in the community, spearheading many philanthropic endeavors

Irsay took the helm of the franchise in 1995, becoming sole owner in 1997. Going into his 25th season as the leader of the Colts, Indianapolis has had only five losing seasons, while earning 10 NFL record with 23 consecutive wins from 2008-division championships, two Super Bowl appearances and the team's fourth world championship with a victory in Super Bowl XLI. The team's 190-114 regular season record dating back to 2000 ranks third in the NFL. From 2000-09, the Colts produced 115 regular season wins, the most in a decade for any NFL club. Indianapolis also set an

09. Over the span of four seasons from 2012-15. the Colts won 16 consecutive games within the AFC South Division, which also set an NFL record.

Irsay grew up with the Colts and talks sentimentally about his years of living with the team during summer camp, watching every game and riding the team bus. After he graduated from Southern Methodist University with a degree in broadcast journalism, he joined the franchise and worked in virtually every department, from ticket sales to public relations to football operations. When the Colts arrived in Indianapolis in 1984, Irsay was named general manager at age 24, the youngest to ever hold that job.

Over his many years with the organization, winning always has been a priority for Irsay. In 2017, he hired Chris Ballard as general manager, who in his first three seasons utilized both the NFL Draft and free agency to rebuild the Colts roster. In 2018, Irsay and Ballard hired former Philadelphia Eagles Offensive Coordinator Frank Reich as head coach, bringing back a familiar face to the Colts > family. Reich began his coaching career in Indianapolis serving on the Colts staff for six years (2006-2011). Under their collective leadership, the Colts are building a strong team and organization that are primed for success.

In Reich's first year as head coach. the Colts became just the second team in NFL history to start 1-5, yet still reach the playoffs and win a playoff game. Reich's first season also featured quard Quenton Nelson and linebacker Darius Leonard being named Associated Press All-Pros, the first pair of rookie teammates to earn the honor since Gale Sayers and Dick Butkus did so with the 1965 Chicago Bears. The

BEST IN A DECADE

Under Owner & CEO Jim Irsay, the Colts established an NFL record for the most wins in a decade with 115 regular season victories from 2000-2009. Indianapolis reached double-digit wins in nine of those seasons, including a franchise-record 14 victories in 2005 and 2009.

2018 team went on to produce the AP "Defensive Rookie of the Year" (Leonard), three Pro Bowlers (Andrew Luck, Eric Ebron and Nelson) and the AP, Sporting News & Pro Football Writers' "Comeback Player of the Year" (Luck). Additionally, Reich was named the NFL 101 AFC Coach of the Year

A hallmark of Jim Irsav's stewardship was the 2006 season, when the Colts won Super Bowl XLI with a 29-17 victory over Chicago. Following its triumphant return to Indianapolis, the team was welcomed by a raucous crowd lining downtown streets in below freezing temperatures and filling the old RCA Dome. Irsay responded by sending the Lombardi Trophy on a 50-stop, 3,130-mile tour throughout Indiana, giving fans an opportunity to see, touch and take pictures with the iconic trophy. That fall, he also created a once-in-a lifetime opportunity for fans to compete for one of five authentic Super Bowl rings. The effort raised more than $225,000 for charity and entertained thousands who witnessed 10 finalists take their chance to pick one-of-five treasure chests that contained a ring inscribed with "Colts Fan."

All eyes were focused on the city in 2012 when Super Bowl XLVI came to Indianapolis, where Irsay and the Colts were instrumental in leading the Super Bowl effort for the city. Largely regarded as one of the most successful Super Bowls ever, the event generated hundreds of millions of dollars in economic impact, as well as worldwide exposure for the city and state.

A strong advocate of the NFL's history, tradition and principles, Irsay is an active team owner. He chairs the league's Legislative Committee and serves on both the Finance Committee and the Super Bowl Advisory Committee. He also has served on the Executive Committee of the Management Council and the Pro-College Relations Committee. What's more, Irsay was a member of the Realignment Working Group and the Working Club Executive Committee that authored the NFL's Collective Bargaining Agreement in 1993.

Irsay also oversees the team's extensive community outreach and philanthropic efforts. Under his leadership, the Colts have been committed to improving the lives of people in their home city and state by helping build a healthy, inclusive and compassionate community through meaningful outreach, projects and partnerships. The team also supports current and former players by engaging with them in charitable efforts, helping them leave a legacy of service to the community. The Irsay family has been honored to give back through projects such as the Irsay Family YMCA, the downtown Colts Canal Playspace, Riley Hospital for Children and dozens of other important community initiatives.

Although football has been the focus of Irsay's professional life, he is also a music aficionado who collects rare instruments, including: Les Paul's 1954 Gibson "Black Beauty," Jerry Garcia's "Tiger," the Fender Stratocaster Bob Dylan played at the 1965 Newport Folk Festival, Prince's "Yellow Cloud," David Gilmour's (Pink Floyd) "Black Strat," one of George Harrison's personal guitars, an original Beatles drum kit and a piano once owned by John Lennon. He is also an Americana fan who collects rare historical documents and items, including the original manuscript of Jack Kerouac's On the Road and the original manuscript of Alcoholics Anonymous, the organization's founding document that has helped millions of people around the world overcome addiction.

Irsay has three daughters, Carlie Irsay-Gordon, Casey Foyt and Kalen Jackson, as well as eight grandchildren. All three daughters represent the next generation of ownership for the Indianapolis Colts as each was promoted to the position of vice chair and owner in March, 2012.

In reflecting on the organization, Jim Irsay says, "One of the reasons I'm honored to be a steward of the Horseshoe is that we are able to use the enormous platform of pro football to bring joy into people's lives. Whether it's on the field on gamedays, serving our friends and neighbors off the field or other times throughout the year, our goal is to entertain, inspire and unite this community and Colts fans everywhere by not just winning, but winning the right way."

In two seasons at the helm. General Manager Chris Ballard has served as the architect of a Colts roster that returned to the playoffs for the first time since 2014. The 2018 Colts started the season with a 1-5 record and won nine of their last 10 games to clinch a postseason berth. Indianapolis became the third team in NFL history to start the season with a 1-5 mark and reach the playoffs. The Colts then defeated the Houston Texans in a Wild Card contest and became the second team in league history to start 1-5 and win a playoff game. The team's success, due in part to Ballard's construction of the roster, earned him the Pro Football Writers of America Executive of the Year award

Pivotal in the team's 2018 success was the Colts' 11-man NFL Draft class who combined to play in 133 games (67 starts) and 18 postseason contests. The group was spearheaded by guard/ center Quenton Nelson and linebacker Darius Leonard who joined Pro Football Hall of Famers Dick Butkus and Gale Sayers (Chicago, 1965) as the second pair of rookie teammates to be selected First Team All-Pro since the Associated Press started selecting All-Pro teams in 1940. Nelson was also selected to the Pro Bowl and Leonard was named the NFL's Defensive Rookie of the Year, Ballard made a trade with the New York Jets in March of 2018 to acquire the sixth overall pick (Nelson), in addition to two second round selections and a second round pick in 2019. Starting right tackle Braden Smith was selected with the acquired 37th overall selection and, following another trade during the draft, second round defensive end Kemoko Turay and fifth round running back Jordan Wilkins completed the Colts' picks in the trade.

Ballard's meticulous approach to free agency in the last three years has yielded productive results. Players like defensive end Denico Autry (team-leading 9.0 sacks), tight end Eric Ebron (14 touchdowns and a Pro Bowl selection) and guard Matt Slauson were instrumental to the team's success last season. In 2017, Indianapolis found starters in cornerback Pierre Desir, right guard Mark Glowinski, defensive tackle Margus Hunt, cornerback Kenny Moore II and defensive end Jabaal Sheard. In 2019, Ballard focused on re-signing many of the team's own, including Desir, safety Clayton Geathers, Glowinski, Hunt and kicker Adam Vinatieri. The team will also feature newcomers, wide receiver Devin Funchess and proven pass rushing defensive end Justin Houston.

The year's draft class featured the selection of 10 players, seven of which on the defensive side of the ball. The Colts traded out of the first round and selected Temple cornerback Rock Ya-Sin while adding a 2020 second round selection from the Washington Redskins. Ballard went on to bolster the defense with the selections of linebacker Ben Banogu (second round), linebacker Bobby Okereke (third round), safety Khari Willis (fourth round), cornerback Marvell Tell III (fifth round), linebacker E.J. Speed (fifth round) and defensive end Gerri Green (sixth round). The team also improved the wide receiver unit with the selection of Parris Campbell (second round) and added offensive line depth after drafting tackle Jackson Barton (seventh round) and center Javon Patterson (seventh round).

Ballard was hired as the team's general manager on January 29, 2017. He is entering his 19th NFL season and his third in his current role with the Colts. Ballard's experienced background includes 16 previous seasons with the Chicago Bears (2001-2012) and Kansas City Chiefs (2013-16) in a variety of roles.

Ballard navigated the organization through a challenging 2017 campaign. Through myriad injuries, the Colts witnessed the emergence of several free agents and draft selections. The team's 53-man roster for the regular season opener featured 30 new players compared to 2016's Week 1 roster. Ballard focused primarily on the defensive side of the ball in his first draft as six of the eight players selected competed on defense. In total, seven of Ballard's picks reached the active roster and combined to play in 82 games (17 starts). One of Ballard's first roster moves in Indianapolis came in early March of 2017 when he signed tight end Jack Dovle to a contract extension. Dovle went on to have a career year as he finished with 80 receptions for 690 yards and four touchdowns en route to his first career Pro Bowl. His reception total finished as the second-most in the league among tight ends and ranked as the second-most in franchise single-season history among players at his position. Ballard made one of his best roster moves eight days prior to the regular season opener when he acquired quarterback Jacoby Brissett in a trade with the New England Patriots. Brissett started 15 games and threw for 3,098 vards and 13 touchdowns. He ranked second in the league in passing touchdowns of 60-plus yards and was part of an offense that tied for the fourth-fewest giveaways in the NFL in 2017.

Following his first year at the helm, Ballard was nominated for the Pro Football Writers of America Jack Horrigan Award, which is given to the league or club official for his or her qualities and professional style in helping the pro football writers do their job. He was nominated for the award again following the 2019 season.

Ballard came to the Colts following a four-year stint with Kansas City, most recently as the director of football operations from 2015-16. He was promoted to the position after serving two seasons (2013-14) as the Chiefs director of player personnel. Ballard oversaw the college and pro scouting departments and worked directly with then-General Manager John Dorsey on player acquisition.

From 2013-16, the Chiefs won 43 games (fourthmost in the NFL), made three playoff appearances, won one AFC West Division title (2016) and had 15 players named to the Pro Bowl, including at least four in each season. Inheriting a team that went 2-14 in 2012, Ballard assisted in an overhaul of Kansas City's roster in 2013. By the end of the season, there were a total of 30 new players on the 53-man squad that went 11-5 and reached the playoffs as a Wild Card contender after finishing second in the AFC West.

Ballard helped the Chiefs draft four Pro Bowl players, including linebacker D.J. Alexander, wide receiver Tyreek Hill, tight end Travis Kelce and cornerback Marcus Peters. The team also acquired three-time Pro Bowl (2013, 2016-17) quarterback Alex Smith in free agency in 2013.

Prior to Kansas City, Ballard began his NFL career with the Chicago Bears. In 12 seasons with the Bears personnel department, he served as the director of pro scouting (2012) and was the southwest area scout (2001-2011).

During Ballard's tenure in Chicago, the Bears reached the playoffs four times, winning four NFC North titles (2001, 2005, 2006 and 2010) and appeared in two NFC Championship games (2006 and 2010). The Bears won the NFC Championship in 2006 and faced the Colts in Super Bowl XLI in Miami.

With the Bears, Ballard helped draft numerous Pro Bowl players, including running back Matt Forte (2008), wide receiver Johnny Knox (2009), cornerback Charles Tillman (2003), defensive tackle Tommie Harris (2004), cornerback Nathan Vasher (2004) and defensive tackle Henry Melton (2009). He also assisted in many notable acquisitions and trades, including the signings of wide receiver Brandon Marshall, guard Jermon Bushrod, tight end Martellus Bennett, linebacker D.J. Williams and linebacker James Anderson.

Before entering player personnel, Ballard spent seven seasons (1994-2000) on the coaching staff at Texas A&M-Kingsville under 2012 College Football Hall of Fame inductee Head Coach Ron Harms. In his first season as head coach of the Indianapolis Colts, Frank Reich led the team to the playoffs for the first time since 2014 after finishing with a 10-6 record. After starting the season with a 1-5 mark, the Colts won nine of their last 10 games and became just the third team in NFL history to start a season 1-5 and make it to the playoffs. Additionally, Indianapolis was the second team in NFL history to start a season 1-5 and win a playoff game.

Reich became just the third head coach in team history to win a playoff game in his first season at the helm. He was named the AFC Coach of the Year for the 2018 season by the NFL 101 Awards. The Colts finished the regular season ranked in the top 10 in offensive points per game (27.1) and defensive points allowed per game (21.5). They were just one of four teams to rank in the top 10 in both categories. Additionally, the offensive line ranked first in the NFL in fewest sacks allowed as quarterback Andrew Luck threw for 4,593 yards and 39 touchdowns while tying an NFL record with touchdown passes to 13 different targets. He was named the NFL Comeback Player of the Year. Indianapolis also ranked seventh in the NFL in net offense (386.2 ypg.) and sixth in passing (278.8 ypg.).

Defensively, the Colts were just one of three teams to not allow a 100-yard rusher in the regular season. The unit forced at least one turnover in a league-high 15 regular season games. Indianapolis also ranked second in tackles for loss (91.0) and led the league with four players with 12.0 or more tackles for loss.

Three members of the Colts were selected to the Pro Bowl, including Luck, center/guard Quenton Nelson and Eric Ebron who established a career-high with 14 total touchdowns. Reich guided an 11-man draft class, who combined to play in 133 regular season games (87 starts) and 18 postseason contests (nine starts). The group was spearheaded by Nelson and Darius Leonard who joined Pro Football Hall of Famers Dick Butkus and Gale Sayers (Chicago, 1965) as the second pair of rookie teammates to be selected First Team All-Pro since The Associated Press started selecting teams in 1940. Additionally, Leonard was named the NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year.

Reich was named the Indianapolis Colts Head Coach on February 11, 2018. He has 27 years of NFL experience as both a player (1985-1998) and a coach (2006-2018). Reich rejoined the Colts after spending six years on the team's coaching staff from 2006-2011.

Reich spent the 2016-17 seasons as offensive coordinator of the Philadelphia Eagles and was instrumental in the team's Super Bowl LII championship following the 2017 season.

From 2016-17, Reich assisted with the development of quarterback Carson Wentz, whom the team selected in the first round (second overall) of the 2016 NFI Draft

The Eagles started the 2017 season in dominant fashion under the direction of Reich and his offense. Wentz started the first 13 games of the season, led the team to an 11-2 record and was in the running for NFL MVP after completing 265-of-440 passes for 3,296 yards with 33 touchdowns and only seven interceptions for a 101.9 passer rating. Philadelphia would face extreme adversity in a Week 14 contest vs. the Los Angeles Rams as Wentz suffered a season-ending knee injury toward the end of the third quarter.

Thrust into the spotlight for Wentz, who was leading the NFL in touchdown passes at the time of his injury, was veteran quarterback Nick Foles. Foles would start the final three contests of the regular season and guided the Eagles to a 2-1 record and a first round bye in the playoffs.

The 2018 Indianapolis Colts were just the third team in NFL history to reach the post-season after starting the year with a 1-5 record. The Colts also became the second team in league history to win a playoff game after starting 1-5.

In postseason play, Foles led Philadelphia to underdog wins over the Atlanta Falcons in the NFC Divisional round, the Minnesota Vikings in the NFC Championship and the New England Patriots in Super Bowl LII for the team's first-ever Super Bowl championship. He was named Super Bowl MVP after completing 28-of-43 passes for 373 yards with three touchdowns and one interception for a 106.1 passer rating. Foles also caught a one-yard touchdown pass late in the second quarter and became the first quarterback in NFL history to throw for and catch a touchdown in a Super Bowl.

The Eagles boasted one of the NFL's best offenses in 2017. Philadelphia ranked in the top 10 in numerous categories, including yards per game (365.8 – seventh), rushing yards per game (132.2 – third), interception rate (1.60 – sixth), first downs per game (21.1 – fourth), third down percentage (41.74 – eight), fourth down percentage (65.38 – third), red zone percentage (65.45 – first), goal to go percentage (83.33 – third), average time of possession (32:41 – first) and points per game (28.6 – third).

In 2016, Reich helped then rookie Wentz make the transition from FCS-level North Dakota State to the pros. Wentz started all 16 games and completed 379-of-607 passes for 3,782 yards with 16 touchdowns and 14 interceptions for a 79.3 passer rating. He set a franchise and NFL rookie record for completions. Wentz also established Eagles rookie records in pass attempts, passing yards, completion percentage (62.4 percent), passing touchdowns and passer rating. He attempted 134 consecutive passes without an interception, marking the third-longest streak to begin a career in NFL history. Wentz registered the fourth-most passing yards in Eagles single-season history and NFL rookie history.

Prior to Philadelphia, Reich spent three seasons (2013-15) with the San Diego Chargers, serving the last two seasons as offensive coordinator. Reich worked closely with quarterback Philip Rivers in San Diego. Under the direction of Reich, Rivers hit the 4,000-yard passing plateau in three-straight seasons for a total of 13,556 yards, marking the third-most passing yards by an NFL quarterback during that span. Also during that span, Rivers threw 92 touchdowns, the fourth-highest total in the NFL, while compiling the third-most completions in the league (1,194) and recording the second-highest completion percentage (67.3).

During Reich's two seasons as San Diego's offensive coordinator, the Chargers ranked third in completions (822), fourth in completion percentage (66.2) and fifth in the NFL in net passing yards (8.869).

In 2015, Rivers led the league with a career-high and franchise-record 437 completions, while finishing second in the NFL with a career-high 4,792 passing yards. Reich's impact was immediately evident in his first season as the team's offensive coordinator in 2014, as Rivers became the first quarterback since 1960 to record a quarterback rating of at least 120.0 in five-consecutive games, all of which were Chargers wins.

Reich served as quarterbacks coach with the Chargers in 2013. In Rivers' first year working with Reich, he led the NFL with a career-high 69.5 completion percentage, while he also matched his career-high 105.5 quarterback rating, which ranked fourth in the league that season. Rivers completed 378-of-544 passes for 4,478 yards with 32 touchdowns and 11 interceptions for a 105.5 passer rating. Some of his 2013 totals still rank among the best of his career, including pass completions (third), passing yards (fifth) and touchdown passes (tied for third).

Before his tenure in San Diego, Reich coached wide receivers for the Arizona Cardinals in 2012, where he worked with wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald. Fitzgerald caught 71 passes for 798 yards and four touchdowns en route to his seventh career Pro Bowl selection.

Reich spent the first six seasons (2006-2011) of his coaching career with the Colts as wide receivers coach (2011), quarterbacks coach (2009-2010), offensive assistant (2008) and coaching intern (2006-07). In Indianapolis, he was a member of teams that earned five playoff appearances, four AFC South Division titles, two AFC Championships, two Super Bowl appearances and one Super Bowl title.

In 2011, Reich led a wide receivers group that worked without future Hall of Fame quarterback Peyton Manning, who missed the entire season due to injury. Despite playing with three different starting quarterbacks, Reich's two top wideouts, Pro Bowler Reggie Wayne and Pierre Garcon, were just one of two wide receiver duos in the NFL to each record 70-plus receptions and 900plus receiving yards. Wayne caught 75 passes for 960 yards and four touchdowns while Garcon compiled 70 receptions for 947 yards and six touchdowns.

From 2009-2010, Reich was the position coach for Manning. Under Reich's guidance, he completed 843-of-1,250 passes for 9,200 yards with 66 touchdowns and 33 interceptions for a 95.6 passer rating. Manning was named to Pro Bowls in both seasons. In 2009, Reich's first season as quarterbacks coach, Manning was named NFL MVP after completing 393-of-571 passes for 4,500 yards with 33 touchdowns and 16 interceptions for a 99.9 passer rating. His 68.8 completion percentage was the best of his 18-year NFL career.

Reich began his NFL coaching career in 2006 as a coaching intern with the Colts. After two seasons in that role, he was promoted to offensive assistant in 2008.

Frank Reich became the third head coach in Colts history to win a playoff game in his first season at the helm joining Don McCafferty (12/26/70 vs. Cincinnati) and Jim Caldwell (1/16/10 vs. Baltimore).

Reich enjoyed a 14-year playing career with the Buffalo Bills, Carolina Panthers, New York Jets and Detroit Lions after being selected by the Bills in the third round (57th overall) of the 1985 NFL Draft. Including postseason play, he played in 129 career games (22 starts) and completed 575-of-1,036 passes for 6,858 yards and 47 touchdowns.

He spent the first 10 years of his NFL career with the Bills, where he served as a backup to Hall of Fame quarterback Jim Kelly. During his time in Buffalo, Reich was a part of Bills teams that went to four-straight Super Bowls from 1990-1993, appeared in five AFC Championships and captured five division titles

While Reich was rarely pressed into action during his nine years backing up Kelly, the former signal caller was called upon in the 1992 playoffs after Kelly sprained his right knee in the regular season finale and was forced to sit out the first two rounds. Despite having only attempted one pass in a postseason game prior to the 1992 season,

Reich made his first postseason start in the 1992 Wild Card round and engineered the greatest comeback in NFL history. With the Bills trailing the Houston Oilers by 32 points early in the third quarter, Reich orchestrated five second half touchdown drives, four of which were capped by touchdown passes, and led a game-winning field goal drive in overtime to defeat Houston 41-38. Reich started the next week in a Divisional Round win at Pittsburgh, and the Bills went on to make an appearance in Super Bowl XXVII.

A native of Freeport, N.Y., Reich attended Cedar Crest High School in Lebanon, Pa. He played collegiately at the University of Maryland from 1981-84 where he backed up Boomer Esiason before earning the starting job as a senior in 1984. As a senior, Reich rallied the Terrapins from a 31-0 deficit to defeat the Miami Hurricanes, 42-40. At the time, Maryland's victory over Miami marked the greatest comeback win in college football history and is now only second to Michigan State's 2006 35-point comeback over Northwestern.

Reich graduated from Maryland in 1984 with a business degree and earned Academic All-ACC honors as a senior.

After his 14-year career in the NFL, Reich retired in 1998 and made the decision to spend time with his family and join Reformed Theological Seminary in Charlotte, N.C. He graduated and led RTS for three years and then pastored a local church prior to his coaching career.

NFL 101 AFC COACH OF THE YEAR

Frank Reich was named the AFC Coach of the Year by the NFL 101 Awards for the 2018 season. He was honored at the 49th annual awards dinner on March 9, 2019, in Kansas City. The honor marked the fifth time a Colts coach won the award as Reich joined Ron Meyer (1987), Jim Mora (1999), Tony Dungy (2005) and Chuck Pagano/Bruce Arians (2012).

The nation's longest-running salute to professional football, the 101 Awards annually honor the outstanding achievements in the NFL based on votes by a selection committee comprised of 101 members of the national media. Founded in 1969, the 101 Awards has recognized many of the greatest players and coaches ever to take the field throughout NFL history.

THE GREATEST COMEBACK IN NFL HISTORY

As a quarterback with the Buffalo Bills, Frank Reich manufactured the greatest comeback in NFL history when he rallied the Bills from 32 points down to defeat the Houston Oilers in an AFC first round playoff game on January 3, 1993. Trailing 35-3 with 13:19 remaining in the third quarter, Reich led Buffalo to five consecutive touchdowns to take a 38-35 lead. Houston converted a 26-yard field goal with 12 seconds remaining to bring the game into overtime. After Buffalo intercepted Houston quarterback Warren Moon, Reich and the Bills set up Steve Christie for his 32-yard game-winning field goal. Reich completed 21-of-34 passes for 289 yards, four touchdowns and one interception and finished with a 123.2 passer rating in the second half.

FROM SEMINARY TO SUPER BOWL

After a 14-year career in the NFL. Frank Reich retired in 1998 and made the decision to spend time with his family and join the Reformed Theological Seminary in Charlotte, N.C., eventually becoming a pastor. Reich always believed he wanted to be an NFL head coach and reflects on a coversation with Bill Polian following his 1985 rookie season in which Polian said, "Frank, I want you to play as many years as you can. Then when you're finished playing. I want you to come coach with me because you're going to be a head coach in the NFL one day." Reich's father was a football coach, his mom was a coach and his brother. Joe Reich, is the head coach of the Wingate football program. Joining his family in the coaching ranks, Frank started his career as an intern with the Colts in 2006. He took his first full-time position in 2008 as the team's offensive assistant and eventually evolved into Indianapolis' quarterbacks coach (2009-2010) and wide receivers coach (2011). Reich spent a year (2012) in Arizona before joining the San Diego Chargers from 2013-15, the last two years spent as the team's offensive coordinator. He was hired by the Philadelphia Eagles as the offensive coordinator in 2016 and in just his second season at the helm, assisted the Eagles to their first Super Bowl championship in franchise history.

NFL EXP: 2 BORN: 12/12/95

Adams was selected by the Colts in the seventh round (221st overall) of the 2018 NEL Draft

DOWN THE STRETCH

Bucket list items: Make the Pro Bowl. I already went skydiving once, so I was able to cross that off.

Favorite food: Crab legs and crawfish.

Favorite TV show: "Different Strokes"

Favorite Movie: "Creed"

Best advice you've been given: Control what you can control.

Biggest obstacle you've overcome: Just the process and journey of getting here to the NFL.

If you could have dinner with three people, who would you invite: Atoya Collins, my girlfriend and Floyd Mayweather

Pet Peeves: People that don't tell the truth

Nicknames: Matty Ice

Favorite restaurant in Indianapolis: Ruth's Chris Steak House

What are your hobbies: I like to play Fortnite. Fortnite is life. I'm probably the best on the team. Most of the guys on the team play it on Xbox but I'm a PS4

DILL WITH IT

One of Adams' favorite foods is a unique combination that may not be widely accepted as a delicious cuisine, but it does the trick for him. "I love Kool-Aid Pickles. It's exactly what it sounds. It's just pickles that you soak in Kool-Aid. It's not cucumbers you soak in Kool-Aid, it's straight up pickles in Kool-Aid. Delicious."

BOB SANDERS 2.0

Adams measures out at 6-0, 229 pounds, which is typically on the shorter end of the spectrum for a linebacker. But Adams certainly won't let numbers define his career. "Have you seen a six-foot Bob Sanders? I feel like I'm a six-foot Bob Sanders!" Sanders, at 5-8, 200 pounds, won the NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 2007, was named to two Pro Bowls and earned one Super Bowl title with the Colts.

NFL EXP: 2 (2nd Year with Colts)

BORN: 9/19/93

Alie-Cox was originally signed by the Colts as an undrafted free agent on April 21, 2017.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite musician and/or song: My favorite musician would probably be Future. Favorite song would probably be "Rotation."

Hobbies outside of football: Playing basketball, playing Xbox. I play a lot of Madden, NBA 2K and Grand Theft Auto.

What is something interesting about you that most people may not know: I'm an avid cartoon watcher. I watch a lot of cartoons.

Favorite food: Pasta – chicken parmesan or chicken alfredo.

Favorite vacation spot: Believe it or not, I've never been on vacation, but I'd probably say when I go out to Los Angeles to visit friends.

Favorite television show: "Dragon Ball Z"

What's the one thing you couldn't live without: My phone and my mom of course.

Pregame ritual: I listen to a variety of different artists such as Migos, Lil Uzi, Future - music that gets you hype. Then I do certain stretches just to make sure I'm loose in certain areas more than others.

What's on your bucket list: Skydiving. It looks interesting. Bungee jumping would be one too as well as traveling the world.

THE TRANSITION

Alie-Cox grew up playing both football and basketball, but his opportunities in high school came on the hardwood, not the gridiron. After transferring to Middleburg (Va.) Academy, a school that didn't field a football team, he excelled on the basketball court and accepted a scholarship to play at VCU. In college, he starred as a forward for the Rams and became an accomplished shot blocker, posting the second-most blocks in school history (255). His athletic, 6-5, 267-pound frame with a 7-1 wingspan also caught the attention of NFL scouts and even players like

Dallas Cowboys tight end Jason Witten. "I always told myself if I ever had the chance to go play football again, I would probably take the opportunity to do it," Alie-Cox said.

EMULATING MOSS

Alie-Cox was a football fanatic as a voungster, "I liked football more than basketball growing up as a kid. All I did was watch football. Me and my brothers played tackle football, one-on-one in the yard all the time." He grew up idolizing his favorite player, wide receiver Randy Moss. Now as a pro tight end, Alie-Cox still tries to emulate Moss' game. "I like going over people, catching the ball, 'Mossin' people."

NFL HIGHLIGHTS

- Has played in 12 games (one start) and has 10 receptions for 161 yards and two touchdowns.
- Has appeared in three games in 2019 and has three receptions for 28 yards.
- In 2018, he appeared in nine games (one start) and had seven receptions for 133 yards and two touchdowns. Scored his first touchdown in Week 8 on a 26-vard reception. Appeared in two postseason games (one start) and helped the Colts rush for a postseason franchise record 200 yards during AFC Wild Card weekend.
- Spent 13 weeks on the Colts practice squad in 2017 after being signed by the team as an undrafted free

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Was a four-year standout on the Virginia Commonwealth University basketball team.
- Had not played football since his freshman year of high school, but his athleticism allowed him to make the transition to football similar to the paths of former Indianapolis tight ends Erik Swoope and Marcus Pollard, former San Diego Chargers tight end Antonio Gates and Green Bay tight end Jimmy Graham.
- With the Rams, started 103-of-142 games and totaled 1,092 points, 663 rebounds, 87 steals, 112 assists and 255 blocks in 3.322 minutes.
- Connected on 57.4 percent from the field and 68.7 percent from the free throw line.

PERSONAL

- Attended Middleburg (Va.) Academy.
- Listed as the No. 9 basketball recruit in Virginia. according to Rivals.com.

SMART MAN

Alie-Cox credits his college basketball coach. Shaka Smart, with helping him develop as person and as an athlete. Smart pushed him to graduate with higher than a 3.0 GPA. Alie-Cox met this goal in only three years before completing a master's program. Smart also helped Alie-Cox in the toughness and confidence departments. "I was good, but I couldn't do it for long spurts," Alie-Cox said. "He really challenged me, and I think that's helped me getting to this point, being able to fight through fatigue and focused in on being mentally tough." Alie-Cox would have to scream at the top of his lungs every time he entered Coach Smart's office. "It was his way of instilling confidence in me. I'm not a person that talks, so we'd do little things like that."

PERSONAL CONT...

- Averaged nearly 20 points and over 10 rebounds per game during his senior campaign at Middleburg and was named an all-state first-team selection.
- · As a junior, led Middleburg Academy with 16 points, 12 rebounds and seven blocks per game and earned allstate first-team accolades.
- · Completed an undergrad degree in criminal justice in three years and added a master's degree in criminal justice and homeland security at VCU.
- After football, he's considering going back to law school and pursuing a career with the United States Secret Service agency.

TURNING POINT

As Arizona Western was mounting a comeback with three minutes left in the 2011 NJCAA national championship game, a fatigued Autry asked to be subbed out of the game. According to The Mercury News, EMCC's associate head coach/defensive coordinator, William Jones, refused to let Autry come to the sideline and said, "Bull****, this is for everything. Great players don't get tired right now. Great players don't come out this time of the game. You stay in and you find a way." Autry responded with a sack to help EMCC clinch the game and its first-ever national championship.

LAST CHANCE U

Coming out of Albemarle (N.C.) High School, Autry did not have the collegiate opportunities he initially desired and attended East Mississippi Community College. The football program at the junior college has been featured in a successful Netflix documentary series, titled, Last Chance U, which focuses on players' last chance to prove themselves to Division

I programs. Autry played for EMCC from 2010-11 and helped the Lions to a 12-0 season and an NJCAA national championship title while being named an NJCAA Football All-America first-team selection his sophomore year. Following his career at EMCC, Autry signed with Mississippi State over offers from Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Florida State, Ole Miss, Southern California and Texas among others. His brother, Lee, played defensive line at EMCC before transferring to Mississippi State as well. Other players to emerge out of EMCC and make it to the NFL include LeGarrette Blount, Chad Kelly, Jarran Reed and Antowain Smith.

DWYER PANTHERS PRIDE

Brissett was an extremely accomplished high school athlete at Dwyer High School in West Palm Beach, Fla. As a quarterback competing at the NFL level, it's not surprising he led his school to its first state football championship during his junior season. Basketball however was his first love. Playing point guard, he served as the hardwood equivalent of a quarterback and pieced together a tremendous prep hoops career. Brissett impressively won the Palm Beach County large classification Player of the Year award in both football and basketball as a senior.

After receiving basketball scholarships from the likes of Miami, South Carolina and Xavier, Brissett knew his ceiling was higher in football and chose to pursue a career on the gridiron.

A LEGENDARY MENTOR

Legendary NFL coach Bill Parcells has a retirement home in Florida and developed a mentor relationship with Brissett while he attended Dwyer High School. The coach assisted Brissett with college decisions in addition to helping him through the NFL Combine and draft process. The two are so close that Brissett has stated Parcells fills the role of a grandfather (Brissett's biological grandfather passed away before he was born). The two remain close as Brissett continues his NFL career.

NFL EXP: 2 (2nd Year with Colts)

BORN: 8/9/96

Cain was selected by the Colts in the sixth round (185th overall) of the 2018 NFL Draft.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Pregame rituals: I like to write down my goals and what I want to accomplish that game. I have time to myself before the game to talk to the Lord, listen to music, simple things like that. I need to be stretched out and pray before the game. I make sure I find my mom in the stands before the game and blow her a kiss

Bucket list items: I still want to travel around the world to foreign countries. I haven't left the country vet.

Favorite TV Show: "Shameless" or "Family Guy"

Favorite Movie: "Black Knight" with Martin Lawrence

Favorite Food: Chicken wings

Players you loved growing up: I was playing running back as a kid, so I looked up to guys like Edgerrin James and Ricky Williams. Once I started to play quarterback, I loved Michael Vick and Donovan McNabb. The list goes on because I've changed my position growing up. Now I look up to Amari Cooper, Odell Beckham Jr., Julio Jones, guys like that.

If you could have dinner with three people, who would you invite: Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Michael Jordan and Nelson Mandela.

Best advice you've been given: I just live by the principle that everything is earned. I'm a firm believer in faith. The more work you put in over time, the more it will show and more respect you'll get.

Biggest obstacle you've had to overcome: Mostly just the change of environment and things like that. You go from different places like high school and college and now the NFL. You have to learn how to learn within that culture and how to stand out at the same time.

Is there anything about you that you want people to know: My passion is to make a positive impact to any community that I'm in. I want to be a great influence to people back home in Tampa. I want to have my own charity for single-parent homes and I really want to help out low income families someday. I want to help people with anything they're going through because I went through a lot growing up and I want to give back. Life isn't perfect. At the end of the day, I want to be one of those guys that's seen as a positive person.

FROM STAR QUARTERBACK TO FIVE-STAR RECEIVER

Growing up as a youth running back, Cain made the transition to quarterback upon entering interscholastic athletics. Following a stellar sophomore season as Tampa Bay Tech's starting quarterback, Cain was invited to a 7-on-7 all-star competition that featured the best talent in the state of Florida. Frustrated by what he described as timid play by the wide receivers on his team, Cain asked his coach if he could have a shot at taking on the opposing defensive backs, and the rest is history. Cain made an immediate impact in the camp and went on to become the nation's No. 2 wide receiver recruit in the class of 2015 according to ESPN.com despite only registering six receptions in his high school career. "Really, the more I started getting recruited, I was getting a bunch of offers as a wide receiver," Cain said. "I only received six offers as a quarterback and I was told I would make a lot more money at receiver. I loved playing quarterback, but I wanted to stick with committing as a receiver and I went to Clemson and made it official."

REPRESENTING THE BRAND

In recent years, Clemson has been dubbed, 'Wide Receiver U,' because of its ability to grow college recruits into NFL talent. Recent first-round draft picks include Mike Williams, Sammy Watkins and DeAndre Hopkins and multiple Tiger wide receivers have been drafted in the last six years. "Clemson has a lot of hype on getting receivers to the league, and that's the main thing that drew me there. Going to the NFL was always my main goal, so the reputation behind the Clemson name and how they've been able to get guys there is something I wanted to be a part of. I want to put in the work to keep it going."

MOSS'D UP

Before his first ever NFL Training Camp, Cain decided to reach out to a 16-year NFL veteran and first-ballot Pro Football Hall of Famer to try and get some tips. Luckily he kept an important contact from little league football. "I've known Randy (Moss) since I was 10-11 years old. He has just always been there for me." Moss was happy to help out Cain and a few others down in Tampa, Fla. for a week of training over the summer. He tried to hit on every aspect that an NFL wide receiver needs to know. "He showed me how to attack defensive backs' leverages, learn how to run certain routes in different coverages, really just learn more about the NFL and learn how to be a pro."

TAMPA BAY REDEMPTION

After not participating in Clemson's 45-40 loss to Alabama in the 2016 College Football Playoff National Championship Game, Cain was able to seek redemption in the following year's rematch in his hometown of Tampa Bay, Fla. In front of nearly 20 family and friends, Cain caught five passes for 94 yards and helped the Tigers edge the Crimson Tide, 35-31. "We all came in here prepared for a dog fight, and that's what it was," Cain told ESPN following the game. "It was a great experience and we could live in this moment forever and tell this to our kids."

On the heels of kicking off its 75th anniversary and Super Bowl 50, both the USO and NFL celebrated another milestone, which was their 50-year partnership. To mark the longstanding relationship, the organization deployed their first USO/NFL team themed tour of the year when Castonzo, former Head Coach Chuck Pagano and three teammates visited service members and military families stationed in Japan in February of 2016. The group visited eight military bases, traveled aboard a naval ship, toured the newly opened USO Camp Kinser and participated in a 75th anniversary USO celebration at USO Camp Hanson.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite team and/or athlete outside of football: Kobe Bryant

Favorite musician and/or song: Michael Jackson - "P.Y.T."

What is something interesting about you that most people may not know: I train athletes on my own (even outside of football).

Favorite food: Any Haitian food

Favorite vacation spot: Hawaii

Favorite TV show: I like "Game of Thrones," "The Walking Dead," "Blackish" and "This is Us."

If you could have lunch with three people, living or dead, who would they be: Michael Jackson, Kobe Bryant and Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

What's the one thing you couldn't live without: My family

What is your pregame ritual: I think it starts the week of the game. I have to get at least two massages a week. I try to eat the same meals throughout the week, and in the pregame meal, I try to eat the same thing. I try to eat grilled chicken, spaghetti and have a cup of cantaloupe. I do the same thing every time.

What's on your bucket list: Going to Japan. I've always wanted to go. I just like the culture. I'm very interested in the culture and just being around the surroundings and the people. Definitely a place that I want to go take my family as well.

What inspired your switch from soccer to football and when did that happen: The switch happened in high school. I stopped playing soccer my freshman year and started playing football. I wanted a different challenge. It was something new. Most of my friends played it, so I just wanted to stick around with my friends and just have fun with them. So it was really just them pushing me to try the new sport. My parents, they didn't like it. They felt soccer was a lot safer. My dad played professionally for Haiti. I just took a chance, took a leap of faith and just wanted to play with my friends and try something new.

Did it take a while to catch on to football?

I did everything wrong. Whatever you think. I had the pads wrong. Back in the day it was the hit pads. I didn't know how the hit pads worked. I wore soccer cleats for awhile before I transitioned. I thought it was the same cleats. It took a little bit of time, but I think once I actually got the hang of things and got the concepts of how to actually play football, I just ran with it.

What was your most memorable football moment?

My most memorable game moment was intercepting Ben Roethlisberger, but the most memorable moment would be getting drafted. When you're finally able to reach your dream, it was just an emotional feeling for me and all the people that supported me throughout my career leading up to that point.

What is your source of motivation to reach the NFL?

My source of motivation is my family. My family and a couple of my friends helped to really keep me pushing. They all know how important this dream of mine is — to play in the NFL— and they've always been motivating me and been my support system. So my family has definitely supported me and kept me motivated, even when the times are hard—being cut, being injured. Always just kept things in perspective and kept me positive throughout that journey.

PIERRE'S ODD JOB

Desir worked at a temp agency in Saint Charles, Mo. It was the year he was sitting out of football. It was flood season in Missouri and an apartment complex got flooded. The job required Desir to travel to the agency and then hopefully be picked for a job. "You could go up there and not get picked," said Desir. "So you go up there about 6 a.m., they pick you and say, 'Hey, you got this job today.' So you don't know what the job is really until you get there." On the particular day during flood season, Desir got to the temp agency, they gave him boots and said, 'You have to get all this stuff from the basement out and you have to get all the water drained from the basement area.' Unfortunately for Desir, the filth was up to his knees. He credits that as his worst job and one experience he used to keep him motivated to play football.

HIS MOTTO P.U.S.H.

Every player has something that keeps them moving forward. For Desir, it comes from a simple acronym that he created in high school. "I was a teen father in high school and didn't get a Division I scholarship so I was trying to figure out a way to get myself to the point of reaching my goals." P.U.S.H. stands for persistence, utilizing your opportunity, sacrifice and hustle. Coming from two immigrant parents who have worked hard for everything they've earned, he wanted to create a concept for the grind. "I felt like P.U.S.H. and breaking down everything that meant has helped me throughout high school, college and even right now."

GOING CAMPING

Desir wants to make an impact on the younger generation. "I like to be involved in the community and help the kids any way I can." He helps train kids and hosted his first football camp in the summer of 2018 at his alma mater. "My first camp was at Lindenwood University. It was really exciting. It was a free camp and I had a couple of players come." He hosted his second annual camp in May 2019. He thinks when his career is over he can continue making an impact. "That's something that I want to do after football. Something like personal training or skills specialization training. I got into it last year and found that it is what I like to do."

6-6 • 262

NFL EXP: 7 (7th Year with Colts)

BORN: 5/5/90

Doyle was claimed by the Colts off waivers from Tennessee on September 1, 2013.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite team and/or athlete outside of football: Indiana Pacers

Favorite musician and/or song: Eric Church

Do you have any hidden talents: No, I am extremely boring. I play football and I go home.

If you could have lunch with three people, living or dead, who would they be: I would choose four, all four of my grandparents.

Favorite movie: "Forrest Gump"

What's the one thing you couldn't live without: Family

Do you have any pets: I have two dogs and a cat. We have two Great Danes, Stella and Dottie. They're four and three. Then I have a cat named Ralph. They get along for the most part. They're a lot of fun.

What is your pregame ritual: My pregame ritual is pretty much just doing the same thing every time, which is I go out with the tight ends two hours before and do the same routine every week. I try and keep it the same. I usually eat the same thing once I establish it early in the season. It's whatever they're serving us. I just try to keep it the same, whatever that is.

What's on your bucket list: I want to go to Ireland. I've never been to Ireland. I'm obviously Irish and I think that would be a fun trip.

Did you have a "welcome to the NFL" moment:

Getting cut after my rookie camp in Tennessee and then getting claimed by my hometown team. So that was pretty cool driving up from Nashville to here and practicing with the Colts that first Monday. I was surprised, thankful and lucky. That was my 'Welcome to the NFL' moment with getting cut and then 24 hours later getting picked up by your hometown team.

Who do you model your game after: I watch a lot of different tight ends and try to pick up different things from different guys who do stuff well. I watched Dallas Clark with him being a great tight end here. Then Jason Witten always comes to mind. I think he is the best to ever do it and be an all-around tight end.

Do you have any mentors: My high school coach, Coach John O'Hara, was a huge influence on me at Cathedral.

84 JACK DOYLE

HOMETOWN HERO

Doyle, a graduate of Cathedral High School just 11.5 miles away from Lucas Oil Stadium, is thrilled to be playing for his hometown team. "It's something you dream about as a kid. I try not to think about it too much and just try and play football. But it's definitely something when my career is over and I can look back and reflect, it's something that I will truly, truly appreciate and realize how lucky I am."

WALK WITH JACK DOYLE

While leading a special team's meeting in 2014, then Special Teams Coordinator Tom McMahon's innocence led to the term "Walk with Jack Doyle" after he was unable to identify what the "WWJD" meant on one of the player's bracelets. They created the phrase because whatever Doyle does, it's usually right. Doyle is a locker room favorite and a true football guy. Former Colts running back Frank Gore called him one of the best teammates that he has ever had. It continued to Doyle becoming the "Jack of all Trades," with a shirt showcasing him in all his different roles.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Who do you look up to: My two older brothers are my role models. They paved the way for me to get to where I am. Without them, I wouldn't be here.

What did you want to be growing up: I always wanted to be a firefighter growing up. They have one of the most intense jobs and they save lives.

What is your dream superpower: I'm a huge Marvel and DC Comics fan. My superpower would either be the ability to teleport or to fly.

Favorite superhero: Iron Man

Favorite food: Chinese food

Favorite television show: "Martin"

What is your guilty pleasure: Girl scout cookies. Peanut butter or shortbread.

Hobbies outside of football: I believe that I'm a professional video gamer and that's what I do outside of football.

What is something you can't live without: My sons. They changed my life forever.

What is your pregame ritual: Besides talking to my wife and my child, I don't have one. I just listen to music and joke around. It helps take my mind off what I'm going to go into because it's a battle.

What's on your bucket list: Well I did one thing, I went to Dubai. Another thing that I want to do is skydive.

If you could trade lives with anyone for one day, who would it be: It would be two people — Will Smith and Robert Downey Jr., simply because he plays Iron Man. I've always looked up to Will Smith and who he is as a person and as a father. Nobody's perfect and he explains his journey and he's such an intelligent person. I would just like to trade places with him for one day to see how his life is.

What's the biggest obstacle you've had to overcome: I think it was in college. I had surgery on my knee and when I came back I was 265 pounds. I had to lose weight, regain my speed, regain flexibility in my knee and it felt like it took forever.

CAN'T FIGHT FATE

Ebron's path to the NFL has been as unusual as any, as he did not play football from age 10 through his junior year of high school. Born in New Jersey, Ebron and his family moved to Rhode Island to be with his ailing grandfather, who served as the family's inspiration. After his grandfather died, Ebron lost all motivation and went into a depression, until his mother told him he can't just sit around and play video games all day. After transferring to Smith High School in North Carolina as a sophomore, Ebron decided he wanted to give football a try and Coach Rodney Brewington took him to camps leading up to his junior season. At the North Carolina recruiting camp, Ebron not even wearing gloves – outshined the elite prospects and was offered a full scholarship to play football for the Tar Heels that same day. And all of this happened before Ebron even played a single snap of organized, contact football.

ANOTHER CALLING?

Before becoming a football player, Ebron always envisioned being a firefighter and still has the itch to learn about the field. Something about having the mentality to go into harm's way to save lives has always appealed to Ebron, and it runs in the family. "I have a whole bunch of uncles who are firefighters so I eventually want to sit around and see what it's like for a day. Maybe I can go on a call or something, but I'm assuming that will come once my sons gets older."

FAMILY MATTERS

Ebron has always drawn motivation from his family, and it stems down from his late grandfather, Oling R. Jackson, who served as a U.S. army general. Ebron has the names of his niece and nephew, Aloni and Legend, tattooed on the inside of each shoulder and strives to be the best player and person he can be since they admire his every move. Now a father to two sons, Ebron wants to spread his joy and positivity to everyone in his family. "I always do to others before I do for myself. That's always been my mantra. At the end of the day, the people that love and support you deserve that in return. That's who I am as a person, but I'm only 26. I'm still growing.

Favorite movie: "Do the Right Thing"

Favorite artist: Meek Mill

Favorite vacation spot: Bahamas

Biggest obstacle you've had to overcome: Loss of family.

Proudest achievement outside of football: Getting my degree in finance at Syracuse.

If you could have dinner with three people, who would you invite: Jay-Z, Kevin Hart and Barack Obama

Favorite childhood sports memory as a fan: When I was young, this was before LeBron left to go to Miami, the Cavs played the 76ers. This was back when Andre Iguodala was on the 76ers, and I just remember sneaking down to the bottom level of the stadium. The 76ers almost ended up winning and only lost by a couple points in overtime, but Iguodala came down on the fast break and just completely demolished Jamario Moon. It was one of the most disrespectful things I've ever seen. That was a fun game to go to. I grew up a fan of every Philadelphia team.

Something Colts fans might not know: Marvin Harrison is from Philadelphia and his son currently goes to the same high school I went to — La Salle. I don't know him personally, he's young, but I hear he's really good. I obviously know the legacy of the last few Syracuse guys to go to the Colts and I want to live up to that.

FOLLOW THE LEADER

Franklin's legacy at Syracuse University transcends the game of football, as he is one of the best leaders the school has ever produced. He became the first sophomore football player to be named a captain at Syracuse since the 1940s and was the first player to be a three-time Orange captain since 1896. He served as the president of his fraternity, Omega Psi Phi, and organized community-driven initiatives for the group that included donating 100-plus new backpacks filled with school supplies to children in need. In 2016, Franklin helped organize and lead a campus-wide discussion, 'Real Men Real Talk: Locker Room Talk Edition,' to open up dialogue on the role men can play in preventing sexual violence and how athletes can contribute positively to society. "I'm trying to create my own foundation at the moment. Anything to give back to the less fortunate and helping kids in Philly or Indy is something I want to do."

WON'T LOOK BACK

Franklin's mother, Shelice, dropped out of college as a junior to raise him and made a promise to herself that Zaire would be the first one in the family to earn college degree. For years, she suffered from a recurring brain tumor on the occipital nerve at the base of her brain and eventually died from heart failure in February of 2013. Roughly two months later, his grandmother and other primary caretaker, Juanita Highsmith-Bailey, died from sepsis-induced kidney failure. Despite the adversity, Franklin persevered and was able to land a scholarship and excel both on the football field and in the classroom. In 2017, he fulfilled his mother's promise and graduated from Syracuse University with a degree in finance — even doing so a semester early.

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

 Played in all 48 games during his four seasons (2014-17) at Syracuse and started the final 39 games of his career beginning with the last three games of his freshman season.

HOME IS WHERE THE HEART IS

Franklin made an immediate impact in his hometown community when he visited Kenderton School, located in North Philadelphia, in July of 2018. Working with the Colts, Philly's Finest and French Toast, a school uniform outfitter, Franklin was able to donate a uniform to every child in kindergarten to fifth grade at Kenderton. His donation provided over 300 school children a uniform for the 2018-19 school year. On his Instagram page, Franklin said, "This city will always hold a special place in my heart. I'm blessed I can give back to the place I called home for so many years and the place that helped shaped me into the man I am today." He is in the works to do another uniform donation in the summer of 2019.

CLAYTON GEATHERS

(Geh-thers)

6-2 • 216

NFL EXP: 5 (5th Year with Colts)

BORN: 6/1/92

Geathers was selected by the Colts in the fourth round (109th overall) of the 2015 NFL Draft.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite football memory: When we won the Fiesta Bowl. That was huge. Right before halftime, I broke my thumb, but I didn't come out. Cast it up real quick. finished the game. We won the game. That was unhelievable

Favorite musician and/or song: Phil Collins - "In the Air Tonight"

Hobbies outside of football: Playing with RC cars and playing video games, mostly Call of Duty.

What is something interesting about you that most people may not know: I play with RC cars.

Favorite vacation spot: Jamaica

If you could have lunch with three people, living or dead, who would they be: James Geathers, Sean Taylor and Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Favorite movie: "The Five Heartbeats"

What's the one thing you couldn't live without: Family

Pregame ritual: I get to the stadium, get relaxed, use the restroom, read the program and then work with the training staff and strength staff to get stretched and ready. I get back to my locker, look at the playbook some more, go over a few little things and then chill with my headphones on.

What's on your bucket list: I always wanted to go to Alaska for some reason - there and Greece.

FAITH IN THE FACE OF ADVERSITY

Geathers' Baptist faith was a big part of his upbringing. "My family's big on faith. My mother, that's all she talks about. She taught us at a young age, 'That's your foundation. That's what you lean on.' That kind of stuck with me." Clayton did in fact lean on his faith as he recovered from a neck injury suffered during the 2016 season. He returned to play in five games in 2017. "When people say things like, 'He might not (come back),' I believe in the man up above, and he's with me. I go on faith."

GEATHERS FAMILY TREE

GEATHERS FAMILY FOUNDATION

Geathers comes home to South Carolina multiple times during the year to contribute to the Geathers Family Foundation. Clayton's cousin Robert Geathers Jr. created the foundation during his playing days, wanting to emphasize academics, character and discipline in students. The family runs a football camp

one season (2013) for the Chargers at NT every summer at Carver's Bay schools in Georgetown, S.C., and the foundation has also created the Leaders in Training program (LIT) to help encourage students to make the A/B honor roll. "It's something the whole family can get behind, not just one person. That's why we did it. We wanted to do something together."

FAMILY BUSINESS

Geathers had a lot of football role models to look up to in his youth. He has two uncles (Robert Sr. and Jumpy) and three older cousins (Robert Jr., Clifton and Kwame) that played in the NFL before him. Other cousins Jarvis and Jeremy also played at high levels. Jarvis played defensive end for four seasons at UCF. Jeremy played in both the AFL and CFL. "I joke sometimes that football is the family business," Clayton said. "Seeing them and seeing the work they did and things they had, I wanted the same thing. I was a late bloomer, but I kind of followed that path." Another cousin, Carlton, played college basketball at South Carolina, and the next up-and-comer is cousin Thurman Jr. who will begin his redshirt freshman season as a defensive end at Louisville this fall (2018).

PORCUPINE

As a youngster growing up in South Carolina, Geathers was nicknamed 'Porcupine' by a babysitter based on the way he wore his hair and for his tendency to "stick" or tackle other kids in the yard. Clayton Sr. reinforced the moniker after noticing that no one could touch his speedy son on the football field. "When I go home, everybody calls me that — 'Porky P,' 'Porky,' 'Porcupine.' They don't even call me 'Clayton.'"

64 MARK GLOWINSKI

6-4 • 310

NFL EXP: 5 (3rd Year with Colts)

BORN: 5/3/92

Glowinski was claimed by the Colts off waivers from Seattle on December 18, 2017.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite music: I listen to everything, especially rock and country.

Hobbies outside of football: I liked doing more outdoors stuff on the water when I was younger, but now I am into outdoors stuff with more golf.

Do you have any hidden talents: I'm pretty good at bowling.

Favorite food: Pizza

Favorite vacation spot: Hawaii

Favorite TV show: I like "The Office" and it kind of hits me more because Wilkes-Barre is only 20 minutes from there and when I went to junior college it was in Scranton, Pa. So when they talk about things in the area it is more relatable.

Do you have any pets: I have a cat named Jennifer.

If you could have lunch with three people, living or dead, who would they be: Albert Einstein, Jimi Hendrix and a founding father

What is your nickname: Glow or glow stick. Basically anything that has "glow" in it.

Pregame ritual: I like to get out there early and go through all the steps that I would do for the game. So just walking through it half speed and stuff like that. I like to get a feel for how the field is going to be as well as the weather.

What's on your bucket list: Once football is over with, I would like to travel and do stuff like that. I don't have anything that is a must, but I would like to travel outside the country.

Did you have a "welcome to the NFL" moment: I would say kickoff return my rookie year and being on that. We had a really good returner in Tyler Lockett so we thought we were awesome because as soon as we would go and block somebody he was making moves. But once you see the ball in the air for your first real NFL snap, your adrenaline is going.

Who were your mentors: My mom and then once I got into college football I would say Mark Duda. When I went to junior college he kind of showed me the way. He was in the NFL and he brought guys from not being able to go Division I to being able to play at that level.

A SUPER BOWLER

Glowinski's first sport that he loved wasn't football. Growing up in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Glowinski would spend his time at the local bowling alley playing in leagues. He played throughout high school and even bowled a perfect game once. But once he realized his potential in football, bowling faded away. He says when he goes bowling now he just goes for fun, but some day after football he will be back in competitive leagues.

NFL HIGHLIGHTS

- Has competed in 50 games (31 starts) in five seasons with Indianapolis and Seattle.
- Has started three games in 2019 and helped Marlon Mack rush for a career-high 174 yards in Week 1. It was the most by a Colts running back since Dominic Rhodes rushed for 177 yards against Atlanta in 2001.
- In 2018, he appeared in 11 games (nine starts). Was part of an offensive line that ranked first in the NFL for the fewest sacks allowed. In Weeks 7 and 8, he started both games and helped the Colts rush for over 200 yards in back-to-back games, which was the first time in the same season since 1985. Was part of an offensive line that didn't allow a sack in five straight games, which tied the New York Giants (2010) and Tennessee Titans (2008) for the third-longest streak since 1982. Started two postseason games and helped the Colts rush for a postseason franchise record 200 yards during the AFC Wild Card weekend.
- Saw action in 10 games in 2017 and made two starts with the Seahawks before joining the Colts. Only allowed 1.0 sack and committed one penalty.
- Started all 16 regular season games in 2016, as well as two postseason contests for a Seahawks offense that produced 4,124 passing yards, the 10th most in the league. Gave up 3.5 sacks and one holding penalty in a full season of play.
- Played in 10 games and registered one start as a rookie in 2015. Blocked for an offense that amassed 6,058 total offensive yards, which was the fourth most in the league.

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Started all 25 games he saw action in during his two seasons at West Virginia.
- Received All-Big 12 first-team honors and All-Big 12 second-team accolades from coaches after his senior season in 2014.
- Paved the way for a rushing attack that averaged 228.2 rushing yards per game, which was the second most in the conference.
- Supported an offensive unit that generated 499.8 yards of offense per game, the fourth most in the Big 12 on the year.
- · Redshirted during the 2012 season due to transferring.
- Before attending West Virginia, played at Lackawanna College from 2010-11.

Favorite TV show: "Archer"

What's the one thing you couldn't live without: Netflix

Pregame ritual: I always show up with a coffee. Exactly an hour and a half before we go out on the field is when I start getting dressed. Forty-five minutes before we go out for pregame warmups is when I personally start warming up. Exactly 15 minutes before is when I put on my shoulder pads and my helmet. Then I do some pass sets in the locker room.

What's on your bucket list: I want to do a fiveminute stand-up comedy at an open mic night. That is probably further down the line but that would be fun.

Pets: I have a German Shepard named Steve.

Do you have any nicknames: Some of the guys called me Haeger.

Strangest thing you have ever eaten: Harkarl. I had it in Iceland and it is basically shark that has been fermented for four to five months. I had it in a soup. I couldn't get myself to eat it straight. It was decent.

NFL EXP: 2 (2nd Year with Colts)

BORN: 11/12/96

Hines was selected by the Colts in the fourth round (104th overall) of the 2018 NFL Draft.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Pregame rituals: I read the same Bible verses in the same spot.

Favorite musician: Drake and Lil Uzi Vert

Favorite food: Spaghetti

Hobbies: Fortnite, Big Fortnite guy.

Hidden talents: I'm really good at tumbling, like flipping. I was on SportsCenter in 2015 for doing a flip, backflip catch.

Players you tried to model your game after growing up: Brian Westbrook and Warrick Dunn. I loved those guys growing up and then being from Carolina, I loved Steve Smith. He was the guy that showed me a little guy can do it. I ended up meeting him, which is really cool.

If you could have dinner with any three people, who would you invite: Warren Buffett, LeBron James and Bill Gates

Best advice you've been given: My parents told me to remain humble because any day, this can be taken from you. In football, you can be a millionaire one day and one hit away from never playing again.

What motivates you: My mother and grandmother's battles with muscular dystrophy, for sure. I also want to give my future kids and father and sister and mother a better life. They sacrificed so much for me and spent a lot of money. I don't want to fail them and hope I can repay them someday.

Favorite athlete growing up: I've always been a Chris Paul fan. Kind of like the LeBron fans, I've always rooted for wherever he's gone. I guess I always looked up to Steve Smith, too.

N.C. STATE TRACK STAR

In addition to excelling on the football field, Hines was a menace on the track for the Wolfpack. He won two ACC Championships in the outdoor 4x100m relay and received numerous All-ACC honors while competing for the indoor and outdoor track and field teams as a freshman and sophomore. His twin sister, Nyah, ran indoor and outdoor track with him in college as well.

GROWING UP WITH A WHOLE LOT OF LOVE

One of Hines' best friends is former Stanford running back Bryce Love, Growing up in North Carolina, Hines and Love competed with each other in track, with their fathers coaching them to premier national success on the Carolina Elite track team. The pair played football against each other only once in high school, as seniors in the 2014 North Carolina 4AA State Semifinals, but Love emerged victorious. In college, the pair talked on a regular basis and Hines would routinely stay up to as late as 2 a.m. to watch Love's Stanford games. "Sometimes we talk about the frustrations, the good, the bad," Hines told The News & Observer in 2017. "And sometimes we just talk about life." In a 2017 ESPN.com article, Love said, "We go way, way, way, way back. We've run track together since we were little kids. We're like family," Love was selected in the fourth round (112th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft by the Washington

(NYE-heem)

Redskins.

PLAYING FOR A DIFFERENT KIND OF GREEN

A major source of motivation for Hines is his mother, who is currently battling muscular dystrophy. Hines' grandmother passed of the same illness in 2004. "What my mother is going through makes me think about things from a different perspective. I never liked the color green until I found out that the muscular dystrophy ribbon color is green. My mother and my grandmother's battle with muscular dystrophy is definitely something that motivates me on the field." Hijnes participated in the MCMC program in 2018 to bring money and awareness for MD.

A PASSION FOR BOJANGLES

The bye week is usually a time for all the players to go home, go back to their colleges or even just heal up and get ready for the second half of the season. Hines had a different approach. He decided to work at a Bojangles restaurant in Raleigh, N.C. "My agent had connections with somebody and set it up." he told Andrew Brandt. I took some orders outside the drive thru." He enjoyed the experience but one thing was very clear to him. "The fast food industry is really stressful because you have to please the people," said Hines. He is focused on football now and wouldn't mind owning a Bojangles in the future. "Hopefully I'll keep building a relationship with them and have an opportunity with them later on in life.'

OHIO STATE

Hooker was selected by the Colts in the first round (15th overall) of the 2017 NFL Draft.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite team and/or athlete outside of football: LeBron James

Favorite musician and/or song: Future

Hobbies outside of football: Paintball

What is something interesting about you that most people may not know: I like poetry.

Favorite food: Steak and chicken alfredo

Favorite movie: "Antwone Fisher"

Favorite TV show: "Martin" or "The Real Husbands of Hollywood"

What's the one thing you couldn't live without: Family

What is your go to karaoke song: NBA YoungBoy - "Through the Storm"

Do you have any pets: I have a Jack Russell named Diamond.

What is your pregame ritual: I go to the end zone and say a prayer.

What's on your bucket list: I want to go to Dubai. I always see people going there and I have never been out of the country.

Who is your inspiration: My mom

Did you have a "welcome to the NFL" moment:

The day right after I got drafted, I thought I was going to have a few days to celebrate with my family and cherish the moment, but two days after I came here to get my iPad my coaches were calling me asking me questions about the plays. So I was like, "Dang, this is the real deal."

What is your pet peeve: I hate repeating myself. Say I tell somebody something one time and then they ask about it a few days later. It bothers me.

A POET AT HEART

Hooker grew up seeing his mom write poetry and finally decided to get into it himself. "I've been doing it since my freshman year of college." Although he shows it to friends and family, he says he isn't on his mom's level yet. "I share my poetry too, but I mostly share hers because hers is good."

HOOKED ON FOOTBALL

Hooker almost never played football in high school. He was a basketball standout and even made a SportsCenter Top 10 play in high school. His Uncle John kept pushing him to play football and he finally obliged his junior year. It didn't take long to be noticed. "I think it started out with me getting offers from ACC schools like Pitt and West Virginia. And this is all in a week's span. I had like 20 offers. Then when Ohio State offered me, all the Big-10 schools started offering me and it just went from there." He said he stopped caring about basketball once the offers came in and was ready to move on. "I still loved basketball, but I talked to my mom and I was just thinking more so for the future."

99 JUSTIN HOUSTON

 $6-3 \cdot 270$

NFL EXP: 9 (1st Year with Colts)

BORN: 1/12/89

Houston was signed by the Colts as a free agent on March 21, 2019.

DOWN THE STRETCH

What is on your bucket list: I am a big family guy so I would like to spend more time with them and travel with them.

Do you have any pets: My wife has a dog named Jiggy.

Pregame ritual: I don't have one now. In high school I used to wear the same pair of boxers every game.

Nicknames: I got the nickname Big Tune in high school from a close friend. It was from a rap song.

Favorite artist: I don't have one in particular. I like a lot of different music depending on my vibe. My son's favorite is Drake and I like him too.

Favorite food: I love some good soul food.

Favorite vacation spot: As of right now, I would say Montego Bay.

Best advice you've ever gotten: I carry this with my faith and everything, my coach in college was talking to me about perfection and he said, 'You will never be perfect, but you can always strive for perfection and the more you strive for perfection, the better off you will be in life.'

Who is your mentor: My trainer, Curtis Winters. I've known him since my first year in college. He is there any time I need him on or off the field. My pastor is a mentor too.

Hidden talents: I love playing video games, but I would say my hidden talent is basketball. People look at my size and don't realize that I play guard. They look at me like I am a post player.

What is your pregame ritual: I go to the end zone and say a prayer.

Did you have a "Welcome to the NFL" moment: My first game as a rookie I was on kickoff return. I was running back to block a defensive end and as soon as I turned around — first play of the game — bang, he hit me and I flew. I landed dead on the back of my neck.

FAITH BEFORE FAME

Houston continues to give back to his community in Statesboro, Ga. He holds a camp there to show kids that anything is possible. "It is about giving back to the kids," Houston said. "I want to tell the kids to keep their hope and faith alive. When you're chasing after your dreams you need to keep faith because there are going to be some ups and downs." His event this past summer included a youth football camp, a cheer and dance clinic and a 3-on-3 basketball tournament. He believes it is a good way to show that anything is possible, but you just have to have a good perspective on life. "You always have to stay positive."

NFL EXP: 11 (1st Year with Colts)

BORN: 10/13/85

Hoyer was signed by the Colts as a free agent on September 2, 2019.

DOWN THE STRETCH

What is on your bucket list: I want to travel all over the world.

Pets: I have two dogs, Daisy and Brody.

Who is your favorite artist: Justin Timberlake

Favorite type of food: Mexican

Hidden talents: I am pretty good with electronics. I can figure out how to hook up a lot of stuff that people would normally have to call someone to figure it out.

One thing you can't live without: My family

Hobbies outside of football: I like to golf and travel.

Favorite athlete growing up: Manny Ramirez

Favorite TV show: "Breaking Bad," "Yellowstone" and "The Ranch"

What was your 'Welcome to the NFL' moment:

My rookie year, we killed the Titans. I got to play in the game and do a quarterback sneak for a touchdown. I was like, 'Man, this is my moment to celebrate.' I went to celebrate and spike the ball and one of my college teammates on the Titans knocked it out of my hand before I could even spike it so I couldn't even celebrate.

Favorite food: Salmon

Favorite vacation spot: Tahiti

What's the one thing you couldn't live without: My wife and family.

Pregame ritual: I usually go out and do a little pre warmup. I try to make sure I have enough time to get taped up and ready. I also listen to music, but it is not specific. It depends on the mood I am in.

What's on your bucket list: I want to skydive, but I am way too heavy to do that.

Pets: I have two Australian Shepherds named Maverick and Bailey.

Hidden talents: I used to be able to play the piano.

Best advice you have ever been given: Don't let the small things effect you long term.

Pet peeves: People not using their turn signals.

Who is your inspiration: My mom. She has been through a lot with me coming over here. She is back home by herself and has been strong through it.

78 RYAN KELLY

6-4 • 307

NFL EXP: 4 (4th Year with Colts)

BORN: 5/30/93

Kelly was selected by the Colts in the first round (18th overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite team and/or athlete outside of football: Cincinnati Reds and Nashville Predators

Favorite musician and/or song: George Strait - "Clear Blue Sky"

Hobbies outside of football: Golfing, fishing and hunting.

Favorite food: Steak

Favorite vacation spot: Siesta Key, Fla.

If you could have lunch with someone, living or dead, who would it be: Johnny Cash

Favorite movie: "The Patriot"

What's the one thing you couldn't live without: Relationships with my friends and family.

What is your pregame ritual: I get to the stadium a little early. I drink a 20-ounce coffee. Kind of relax a little bit, and then I start getting treatment. I'll listen to music until about five minutes before.

What's on your bucket list: I always wanted to go to Ireland. One of my uncles actually went over there and met some of our distant cousins through Ancestry. com. I always wanted to do that. And then, honestly, I eventually just want to have a farm with a pond and do whatever I want.

What was your "welcome to the NFL" moment:

My rookie year, preseason, I was blocking the Eagles front seven. I was trying to block Fletcher Cox and all these big name dudes, and I was kind of holding my own. Then you kind of learn how more relaxed preseason is than the actual season, but that was a cool moment for me playing against a lot of guys that I've been watching since I was a kid.

Who was your mentor: Bob Odum was my offensive line coach in high school. He ultimately made me move from guard to center, so I have a lot to thank him for. He taught me how to lift weights, how to play with strength and how to play bigger than what you actually are.

What is the best piece of advice you have received: 'What you do speaks so loudly that I can't hear what you say.' And that's from Nick Saban. He uses that all the time. I love that piece.

In 2016, Ryan Kelly became the first center selected by Indianapolis in the first round of any NFL Draft. He was 1-of-11 rookies in the NFL to start all 16 games and was 1-of-2 rookie centers to start every contest. Kelly joined Steve McKinney (1998, LG), Tarik Glenn (1997, RG), Adam Meadows (1997, LT) and Ron Solt (1984, RG) as the only Colts offensive linemen to start all 16 games as a rookie. He is also the only Colts center to start all 16 games as a rookie in team history.

NFL HIGHLIGHTS

- In four seasons with the Colts, has started all 38 games he has played in at center.
- Has started three games in 2019. In Week 1, he helped Marlon Mack rush for a career-high 174 yards. It was the most by a Colts running back since Dominic Rhodes rushed for 177 yards against Atlanta in 2001.
- Started 12 games in 2018 and was part of an offensive line that ranked first in the NFL in fewest sacks allowed. He helped protect Andrew Luck during a 464-yard, four touchdown performance in Week 4. In Weeks 7 and 8, he started both games and helped the Colts rush for over 200 yards in back-to-back games, which was the first time in the same season since 1985. Was part of an offensive line

That didn't allow a sack in five straight games, which tied the New York Giants (2010) and Tennessee Titans (2008) for the third-longest streak since 1982. Started two postseason games and helped the Colts rush for a postseason franchise-record 200 yards during AFC Wild Card weekend.

- In 2017, started seven games he competed in at center and was inactive for another nine contests. Blocked for a Colts offense that averaged 284.6 yards per game as Jacoby Brissett threw for 3,098 yards and 13 touchdowns. Placed on Injured Reserve on December 18.
- Started all 16 games at center in his rookie season and blocked for a Colts offense that ranked tied for fifth in the NFL in passing yards per game (262.6), seventh in

THREE-TIME NATIONAL CHAMPION

2()15

With Alabama from 2011-15, Kelly was part of three Crimson Tide national championships. Kelly won BCS Championships as a redshirt freshman in 2011 and again the following season where he competed in 10 games. Kelly and Alabama were College Football Playoff National Champions in 2015 concluding his career with the Crimson Tide.

CONCERNS OF POLICE SURVIVORS

Ryan was raised in a police family. His father, Dave, served on the force for nearly 30 years. "I grew up in that community, met a lot of great people in that community and also have seen the struggle," Kelly said. "It's the toughest job that you could have right now." This first-hand experience inspired Ryan to get involved with the Concerns of Police Survivors organization. He promoted the group through the NFL's My Cause My Cleats initiative in 2017 and 2018 and was a guest speaker at the Indiana chapter's 2018 banquet. "Any time they can get good exposure in the media, I think that helps them out a lot. For those men and women who have laid their lives on the line, I just want to give back for them."

FOOTBALL IN THE FAMILY

Ryan's brother, Mike, attended the Naval Academy and competed as a linebacker on the football team. Following the 2016 season, he became a commissioned Second Lieutenant in the United States Marine Corps.

Pregame ritual: I warmup the same exact way at the same exact time every game. I do the same drills just to try and get my body going.

What's on your bucket list: I want to be a Pro Bowler, Super Bowl champion and Defensive Player of the Year. Off the field, I want to start my own foundation to give back to my community. I want to start my own Maniac Foundation so that kids in my community back home have somewhere to be besides school

THE MANIAC

Leonard is known for his energy both on and off the field. He wanted to go to Clemson, but they never offered him a scholarship. He made sure to make them feel his presence when he had the opportunity to play them in 2016. Although S.C. State lost, Leonard had 19 total tackles. "The next day on campus everybody was calling me maniac so it kind of just went from there." He has embraced the nickname and tries to emulate it every time he steps on the field. "If you see me at 5:30 in the morning at practice you will see why they call me Maniac because I scream at the top of my lungs just having fun and doing crazy stuff."

A STUDENT AND TEACHER OF THE GAME

When Leonard was at S.C. State, he would make trips back home to coach players back at his high school. "We started our season a little later than them so every time I could go home I would and every time I could watch film on their opponents I would. I would give little hints when I saw some things that guys were doing." With his help, his former high school, Lake View High School in South Carolina, won a state title in 2016. He plans to coach when his playing career is over because he enjoys seeing the players succeed. "It was pretty rewarding."

DEFENSIVE ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

Leonard was named the 2018 AP Defensive Rookie of the Year. He is just the third player in team history to win the award, joining Vernon Maxwell (1983) and Duane Bickett (1985). A rookie out of South Carolina State, Leonard became the first non-FBS conference player to win Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year honors since Hugh Douglas (Central State) in 1995. He is the first Defensive Rookie of the Year award winner to lead the league in tackles since Luke Kuechly in 2012. Leonard is also the first Defensive Rookie of Year winner that was drafted outside of the first round since DeMeco Ryans in 2006 (second round, 33rd overall). He became the first player to register at least 125 tackles, 7.0 sacks and four forced fumbles in a single season since Bryan Cox in 1992.

DEFENSIVE ROOKIE OF THE MONTH

Leonard started his NFL career by winning the Defensive Rookie of the Month Award in September after finishing the month ranking first in total tackles (54) and solo tackles (38), third in tackles for loss (7.0) and tied for sixth in sacks (4.0). He ended the month being the only player in the NFL with at least 25 tackles and 4.0 sacks. Since 1994, Leonard's 54 tackles through the first four games are the most by any player in a team's first four games. In Week 2, he was awarded Defensive Player of the Week and Pepsi Rookie of the Week after a 19 tackle (15 solo), 1.0 tackle for loss, 1.0 sack, one pass defensed and one forced fumble performance.

A FAMILY MENTOR

Leonard's half-brother, Anthony Waters, was selected in the third round of the 2007 NFL Draft by the San Diego Chargers and also played for the New Orleans Saints. Waters is retired now, but Leonard says he has received plenty of advice from him so far in his career. "He told me to outwork the guy beside me and if I look to my left and right I am doing the wrong thing because I can only control what I can control." Waters also made sure Leonard knew that careers can end quickly. "He just told me to keep my eyes focused and to not take it for granted because it could be over in a split second."

DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE MONTH

Leonard was named AFC Defensive Player of the Month for the month of December. It marked the first time that he won the award in his career. Leonard joined Edgerrin James (1999) as the only Colts to win AFC Player of the Month recognition as a rookie. In the month of December, Leonard totaled 49 tackles (34 solo), 3.0 tackles for loss, 1.0 sack, five passes defensed and one interception. #### A FAMILY MAN

Lewis was the male leader in his household growing up. His father wasn't around and Lewis took on the responsibility of being a role model to his three younger brothers. He would always go to their games when he could and offer advice to them. When he left home to go to Ohio State, his family adapted and still managed to stay close. He decided to host his draft party back home in Pinetops, N.C. with friends and family. After he got the call from the Colts, he even made sure to FaceTime his brother to make sure he was included in the family photo celebrating the occasion.

BOUNCING BACK AFTER CANCELLATION

Milligan had to go through some tough times to keep his football career alive. After going to junior college at Reedley College, he went to UAB to play for a Division I program. However, after only one season they decided to cut the football program. "The day it happened there were a bunch of people lined outside of the building," Milligan said. "People were crying. It was crazy." Different college coaches ended up coming to the campus to recruit them. "Once I took my visit to Toledo, it was a clean choice." While at Toledo, he impressed scouts enough to make it to the NFL.

23 KENNY MOORE II

5-9 • 190

NFL EXP: 3 (3rd Year with Colts)

BORN: 8/23/95

Moore II was claimed by the Colts off waivers from New England on September 3, 2017.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite musician and/or song: Meek Mill

Hobbies outside of football: Watching Jeopardy!

What is something interesting about you that most people may not know: I have a twin sister.

Favorite food: Southern BBQ deal."

What's the one thing you couldn't live without: God

What was your "welcome to the NFL" moment:
The first day I was in New England, Tom Brady spoke to me. He knew my name, he introduced himself, so it felt pretty cool coming from Tom Brady. You don't really think you're anyone as a rookie. Just practicing against guys like Julian Edelman and Danny Amendola was cool, too. My first game, I was thinking, 'Dang, I'm actually here. I hear all the fans. This is the real

Did you play with any NFL players in high school: When I was a freshman and he was a senior, I played basketball with Jaguars ILB Telvin Smith. We had Josh Harvey-Clemons as well, he's with the Redskins now. Me and Josh played basketball together in high school, too.

Hobbies outside of football: Photography and doing spontaneous things, whether that's going downtown and taking pictures or just hanging out. I like to get to know people. I'm trying to read more often now. I enjoy doing digital art and illustrations.

Unique jobs growing up: I worked at the pool store in Valdosta every summer in college. I worked in the chlorine room and I was basically like a little chemist, I like to say. I tested people's chlorine water to see the pH and stuff like that.

Favorite athlete: Dwyane Wade. It was Cristiano Ronaldo just because I really loved soccer, but it's definitely D-Wade. I think he's a great man on and off the court. He expresses himself well and has style. I love fashion.

Proudest achievement outside of football: My last year of college, I got an academic award. That wasn't something that I was used to getting or being honored for, but I was pretty proud of myself.

MOORE II LIFE THAN FOOTBALL

As humble of an athlete as they come, Moore wants to impact as many lives as he can and benefit the world around him. "I just care about people in general and the best way for me to show that is to go out and do it. I'm passionate about community work and helping people. I want to do more than just play football and get a check." A man of his word, Moore is planning an event in his hometown of Valdosta, Ga., to help bring the community together. "I feel like my hometown has gone through a lot, so I want to have a community festival at my college to bring everyone together for a day of fun. I want to do that annually and I think we can all have a good time."

THE MOORE YOU CAN DO

While Moore is making strides in the football world, his talent and creativity transcends the field. Moore is a self-taught photographer and designer who enjoys capturing the world around him from his own perspective. "I really love landscapes because it's not man-made. But I do love architecture because you do see what man can create. It goes hand in hand. I like to point something out and try to get my own angle on it because everybody has different types of perception." The picture and illustration are both Moore's original creations. Moore II wore No. 42 as a rookie in 2017.

HELPING IN A TIME OF NEED

During Moore's rookie year, he was driving home from a community event with the team when the car in front of him ran over a dog that was running into the street. Moore got out of his car and helped the dog and its owner. He promptly invited the dog and its owner, Max, into the car to go to the closest vet hospital. The dog had suffered a broken pelvis, but the first vet they visited wasn't able to assist and gave them the address to one that could perform surgery. Moore ended up taking them to the other vet to have the surgery done and thankfully, the dog was going to make it. Max and Moore still keep in contact to this day and Max has even made it out to a Colts game on Moore's behalf.

Pregame ritual: Every day before the game I go walk around the town to get a feel of it and how it is going to feel outside. Favorite TV network: Cartoon Network

Favorite Movie: "8-Mile" or "Lord of the Rings"

NFL EXP: 3 (3rd Year with Colts)

BORN: 12/2/92

Rhodes was originally signed by the Colts as a free agent on October 5, 2016.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite team and/or athlete outside of football: Pittsburgh Penguins

Favorite musician and/or song: Eminem or Chainsmokers

Hobbies outside of football: Skiing

What is something interesting about you that most people may not know: I was adopted

Favorite food: Pizza

Favorite vacation spot: Bethany Beach, Del.

If you could have lunch with three people, living or dead, who would they be: Dwayne "The Rock" Johnson, Donald Trump and Pat McAfee

Favorite movie: "The Day After Tomorrow"

What's the one thing you couldn't live without: Family

Do you have any pets: I have a pit bull named Harner

What is your pregame ritual: I wouldn't say a ritual, but more of just relaxing, listening to music and joking around. Try to stay calm and not get too tight.

What is on your bucket list: As of recently it was being a starter in the NFL. It was always one of my dreams being a kid and now, having accomplished that, I want to be the best snapper in the league and go to a Pro Bowl.

Who is your inspiration: I would say my dad. He played college football as a guard at Navy and was in the military for a long time and he got sick and fought through it and is still living today so he is definitely most of my inspiration.

What was your "welcome to the NFL" moment:

Probably the first time I snapped. It was really the first time I started in a real game other than preseason. The play was awful. It was a horrible snap. They were full rush and I had never snapped really in my life until preseason camp in 2017. But I threw it a little low and wide on a punt. I settled in after that.

LUKE Rhodes

FAMILY INSPIRATION

Rhodes has been inspired by his father, Doug Rhodes, who battled brain cancer. "They gave my dad six weeks to live, and we're over a decade now. Pretty nowerful " Rhodes helped raise awareness for the disease by participating in the 'My Cause, My Cleats' during both the 2017 and 2018 seasons. He wore green and orange cleats to support the National Brain Tumor Society.

CONVERTING TO LONG SNAPPER

In 2016, Rhodes competed as a linebacker, mainly on special teams, and finished with one tackle. The following season, the Colts moved Rhodes to long snapper. Transitioning to a new position can be challenging and he was certainly welcomed to the position during the team's first preseason game where Indianapolis was punting out of its own end zone. Rhodes successfully made the adjustment and assisted kicker Adam Vinatieri and punter Rigoberto Sanchez to impactful campaigns in 2017. He snapped for Vinatieri to convert 29-of-34 field goals (85.3) and 22-of-24 extra points for 109 points on the season. NFL EXP: 4 (4th Year with Colts)

BORN: 1/12/94

Rogers was signed by the Colts as an undrafted free agent on May 2, 2016.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite team and/or athlete outside of football: Cleveland Cavaliers

Favorite musician and/or song: Starlito

Hobbies outside of football: Acting

What is something interesting about you that most people may not know: I was a childhood actor and was in four movies, including "Madea's Family Reunion," "Dirty," "Reanimated" and "Constellation."

Favorite food: Wings

Favorite TV show: "Martin"

Favorite vacation spot: St. Thomas, Virgin Islands

If you could have lunch with three people, living or dead, who would they be: Denzel Washington, Jerry Rice and Allen Iverson

Favorite movie: "Batman Trilogy"

What's the one thing you couldn't live without: My mom

Did you have any nicknames growing up: Yes.

My nickname now is 'Tre' but I have another nickname

- 'Stumpy.' My granddaddy gave me that as a kid because I was so small.

What is on your bucket list: I want to go to Africa or Dubai or somewhere like that and just see different cultures.

What is your pregame ritual: I talk to my mom and my dad on the phone before every game. Right after we get off the field for pregame warmups, I talk to them and we pray.

Do you try to model your game after any current or former wide receivers: Yes, there are a lot of great receivers in the game, and I just try to take small pieces from all of them and put them together. You have your AB's (Antonio Brown), your DeAndre Hopkins, older players — Jerry Rice, John Stallworth.

What is the best advice you've ever been given: From my mom, 'Never give up on your dreams and always believe in God.'

GIVING BACK TO GRAMBLING STATE

Each step of the way along his football journey, Rogers has had to earn his spot. As a walk-on at Grambling State, he was paying out of pocket and getting student loans for his first two years at the university. His hard work paid off when the Colts signed him as an undrafted rookie free agent in 2016. After earning a spot on an NFL roster, he finished with 19 catches for 273 yards in addition to returning punts as a rookie. Rogers felt a need to help other players who struggled with the same circumstances. That's when he decided to create the Chester Rogers Perseverance Scholarship Award, which he established for non-scholarship players at Grambling State. Candidates have to write an essay, have the appropriate credentials, reach a GPA requirement and display character on and off the field.

"Going through my situation, I just knew how hard it was," said Rogers. "I just want to help and give those guys hope because being a walk-on, you face a lot of odds and a lot of people don't believe in you. I want to let them know I believe in them. Just because you're a walk-on doesn't mean anything based off my story."

In March of 2018, Rogers presented the first annual Chester Rogers Perseverance Scholarship Award to a college player attempting to follow in Rogers' footsteps in Calief Samon, a walk-on wide receiver at Grambling. The scholarship covers expenses for one semester with the hopes that the recipient can earn a full scholarship for the following season. In the future, Rogers plans to make the scholarship available to student athletes at HBCUs all around the country.

MAKING HIS MARK ON THE BIG SCREEN

Chester got his first taste of fame and success long before he became an NFL wide receiver. As a 10-year-old in Huntsville, Ala., Chester and his mother heard that the movie Constellation was filming in town and holding open auditions. "I had always been the class clown," Rogers said. "I was always making people laugh, so I said, 'Of course, let's do it." Chester auditioned, got the part and was a natural. Rogers was such a success that his family moved to Los Angeles so that he could pursue more opportunities on the big screen. He went on to earn roles in Tyler Perry's Madea's Family Reunion, Reanimated and Dirty, starring Cuba Gooding Jr. The Rogers family returned to Alabama before Chester began high school, but acting may still be in his future after football. "I'm all focused on football, but I'm ready for any opportunity. I'm definitely going to pursue it once I retire."

A SPECIAL FIRST TOUCHDOWN

Chester's parents, Temeca and Chester Sr., call their son before every game. Before the Colts' 2017 Week 10 matchup with the Pittsburgh Steelers, Chester Sr. called his son with a prediction. "He called me and said, 'When you get your touchdown, I'm coming down to get the ball." A few hours later, Rogers hauled in his first career touchdown, a 61-yarder from quarterback Jacoby Brissett. After an end zone celebration, Chester found his dad in the crowd and delivered the special ball, as requested. "For that to actually play out, it was special," Chester said.

FORK IN THE ROAD

While soccer was Sanchez's first love, he obliged to a friend's request to give football a try. After converting a 30-yard field goal attempt on his first ever kick in practice as a high school sophomore, Sanchez propelled a football career that left him with a major decision to make prior to entering college. With opportunities to play either soccer or football at the junior college level, Sanchez passed on pursuing his first love and pursued a football career that has since seen him excel at the NCAA FBS and NFL levels.

As a high school student, Sanchez set numerous goals to push him and drive him to excellence, both in the classroom and in athletics. When Sanchez, a captain at Hamilton High School, was progressing as a promising soccer

World Cup in Russia. He specifically targeted the 2018 FIFA World Cup in Russia because he felt it would give him enough time to develop and make an impression to the United States Men's National Team, but his soccer dreams shifted to football ambitions by the end of his high school career.

SPANISH HERITAGE

Sanchez grew up in his household speaking Spanish with his mom and dad and is still fluent in the language today. He still tries to speak it today, and communicates in Spanish with his wife here and there. He tries to keep up with it because he wants to teach it to his kids Spanish one day. Both of his parents are from Mexico and when they were around the age of 15, they came to the USA. His mom is from Guanajuato and his dad is from Michoacán. Being one of the players with a hispanic heritage, he says it motivates him and he is proud to represent for them. In 2018, he went to an event with a a lot of Hispanic kids and was excited to engage with them. "I was talking to them in English and then started talking to them in Spanish and asked who spoke Spanish. They all raised their hands and it was a pretty cool thing to watch. They were all excited to talk with me in Spanish.

FROM BUTTE TO THE BIG LEAGUES

Sanchez is not the only Chico, Calif., native to go through Butte College en route to launching a professional sports career, Sanchez attended Hamilton High School and his graduation class was only 73 students. The only other professional athlete to ever come out of Hamilton is Kyle . Lohse, who split 16 Major League Baseball seasons with Minnesota, Cincinnati, Philadelphia, St. Louis, Milwaukee and Texas. Like Sanchez, Lohse went from Hamilton to Butte College, a junior college that participates in the California Community College Athletic Association. Roughly 12 miles from Hamilton lays Pleasant Valley High School, which produced Packers quarterback Aaron Rodgers, Rodgers also attended Butte College to keep his professional sports ambitions alive. Following their tenures at Butte, Sanchez transferred to the University of Hawaii, Rodgers transferred to the University of California and Lohse entered the MLB.

SURPASSING ELAM

At Hawaii, Sanchez served as the team's punter, placekicker and kickoff specialist. In the 2016 season, he went a perfect 13-of-13 in his field goal attempts (100.0 percent), breaking the school's single-season mark set by Jason Elam in 1989 (90.9 percent). Sanchez's career mark of 87.5 percent on field goals topped Elam's former record of 79.0 percent and Sanchez's career 44.8 punting average leapfrogged Elam's former record of 43.5 yards per punt.

Before starting an NFL career that spanned 15 seasons and included three AP First-Team All-Pro honors and two eam All-Pro nonors and two Super Bowl championships, Elam scored the third-most points in NCAA history (397) and tied for the second-most field goals made (79). In the NFL, Elam notched a thenrecord 63-yard field goal and owns nearly every career kicking record in Denver Broncos history.

A LIFE SAVED BY BRAVERY

At the age of 11, Sheard was awarded a bravery medal after he helped an elderly woman escape from her burning home in Florida. Sheard was with friends riding their bikes when the group saw smoke and rushed to the scene. As they approached the house, bystanders were watching. Sheard and his friends raced home, called the police and then rushed back to the house. Not knowing if anyone was inside, they tried to break in. Firefighters then arrived on scene and managed to open a door where they found the elderly woman unconscious on the floor of her kitchen. Sheard and his friends were told that their actions saved the woman's life.

BRADEN SMITH

6-6 • 315

NFL EXP: 2 (2nd Year with Colts)

BORN: 3/25/96

Smith was selected by the Colts in the second round (37th overall) of the 2018 NFL Draft.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Do you have a pregame ritual: It kind of varies. I have a few nuances and superstitions but it changes week to week. There are usually small things like last year before every game if I had Gatorade chews they would have to be red.

What's on your bucket list: I want to be able to see most of the world. I don't want to be constricted to one area. The first place I would want to go is Greece.

Pets: I have two dogs named Rocket and Groot. They are named after Guardians of the Galaxy characters. Groot is a German shepherd and Rocket is a Cavalier King Charles Spaniard.

Who is your inspiration: My parents. My dad is one of my driving factors. He has always pushed me. He has guided me in the right direction and I would do anything for him.

Who are some of your mentors: Some of the guys in college took me under their wing. It was Alex Kozan and Shon Coleman. They brought me in and helped

Do you have a nickname: I have had a lot. Gigantor, Hulk and Terminator.

Favorite TV show: "Stranger Things"

What are your pet peeves: People coughing on me and people that eat loud.

Hobbies off the field: I like to garden and fish.

A GUARD-NER AT HEART

Growing up in Olathe, Kan., Smith found a hobby that has developed into a passion. "I am a really good gardener. That is one of the things that I like to pride myself on." Smith said he started helping his mom with a little planter in their backyard in the fourth grade and his interest grew from there. Even while playing at Auburn, Smith was able to continue gardening. "I had two areas in college - one was on campus and the other was about 30 minutes away where I could have a little bit more space to do some stuff. I just did it to volunteer. He says it helps him relax and clear his head. "It is something that I like doing in my free time and kind of is a safe haven for me. It helps me get away from the chaos of everything."

NFL HIGHLIGHTS

- Has appeared in 18 games (16 starts) in two seasons with the Colts.
- Has started three games in 2019. In Week 1, he helped Marlon Mack rush for a career-high 174 yards. It was the most by a Colts running back since Dominic Rhodes rushed for 177 yards against Atlanta in 2001.
- Appeared in 15 games (13 starts) in 2018. Was part of an offensive line that ranked first in the NFL for the fewest sacks allowed. He was one of five Colts rookies to start in Week 1. In Weeks 7 and 8, helped the Colts rush for over 200 yards in back-to-back games, which was the first time since 1985. Was part of an offensive line that didn't allow a sack in five straight games, which tied the New York Giants (2010) and Tennessee Titans (2008) for the third-longest streak since 1982. Started two postseason games and helped the Colts rush for a postseason ranchise-record 200 yards during AFC Wild Card weekend.
- Named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team.

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Played in 53 games (41 starts) in four seasons (2014-17) as an offensive lineman at Auburn.

A NIGHT TO REMEMBER:

Most draft picks have draft parties or go to the city where the draft is hosted. Smith had different plans. "I was at Texas A&M watching my fiancée play some softball." Smith's now wife, Courtney Shea, was playing catcher for Auburn on the night when he got drafted. Smith was watching from the stands and Shea's mom made sure to bring an iPad to check in on the draft. If she didn't know that he got drafted by the loud applause from the Auburn fan section, Shea's parents had it covered. "They brought a little poster board in case something happened so they could relay the message." Smith says it was an easy decision to come support Shea on draft night. "I was definitely going to go to it. I mean, my fiancée wanted to be here with me when it happened. I mean, happy wife, happy life."

NFL EXP: 3 (3rd Year with Colts)

BORN: 10/20/93

Stewart was selected by the Colts in the fourth round (144th overall) of the 2017 NFL Draft.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite team and/or athlete outside of football: LeBron James

Favorite musician and/or song: Gucci Mane

Hobbies outside of football: Fishing, riding four wheelers and working on cars.

What is something interesting about you that most people may not know: In high school, I ran the 100 meters in track.

Favorite food: Wings and hamburgers

Favorite vacation spot: Pensacola, Fla.

If you could have lunch with three people, living or dead, who would they be: My grandma, my granddad and my son.

Favorite movie: "Get Out"

What is your pregame ritual: I always look at my son's picture, because I know he's going to be my No. 1 fan and that pushes me.

What is your main motivation as a player: My son is my biggest motivation. I always know I didn't have much, so I want him to have it. That's pushing me.

What's on your bucket list: I want to go skydiving.

What was your first job or your most unique job growing up: I was a country guy so working in fields. I worked in a watermelon patch. In college my first real job was at a pecan mill pushing barrels.

Did you have an important coach or mentor growing up: My high school coach Dondrial Pinkins. He was the one that pushed me and made me open my eyes and realize everything.

What's the one thing you couldn't live without: My parents

GROVER THE MECHANIC

When Grover's not pushing around offensive linemen on the football field, he loves to be tinkering under the hood of an old car. "I love working on cars," Stewart said. "I used to always watch my dad work on cars, and I said, 'I need to figure out how to work on those just in case I have problems." But Grover has taken his mechanical interest beyond just the ability to make a needed repair. These days he's looking to take old or damaged vehicles, fix them up and sell them for a profit. He worked on a Ford F-250 Lariat during the 2018 offseason.

THREE-POINT STANCE SPRINTER

Believe it or not, Grover dabbled in some sprinting in high school. Stewart was a thrower on the track & field team but had surprising quickness for a big man. After sizing up the competition at one meet, he decided he could take the field. "I was just checking out the guys and I was like, 'Yeah, I know I'm faster than them," Grover said. His coach gave him the go-ahead to give it a shot. "Everybody was looking at me on the start line. I didn't know how to use the blocks, so I got in a three-point stance. I want to say I was in first after the first 50 (meters), but towards the end they were passing by me. But I still came in third place."

A KID FROM CAMILLA

Grover is a self-proclaimed "country boy" from the small town of Camilla, Ga. (population 5,360). He's proud of his unlikely journey from a tiny community to the NFL and wants to help those that come after him. "It means a lot to me, because I'm opening doors to younger guys and the guys from back home," Stewart said. "They see me and I tell them, 'It doesn't matter where you're from. It's all about the hard work you put in and the decisions you make.' I want to say the biggest thing I did was make better decisions. Coming from there, I just tell the guys, 'Just keep your head up, stay focused on the goal.' I stayed focused and look what happened."

DOWN THE STRETCH

Pregame rituals: Before games I usually take the time to listen to music or motivational speakers, such as Eric Thomas and Muhammad Ali. I like to listen to anybody that had influence in the sports world and had a motivational impact on a lot of kids. I also pray everytime before a game.

What is one of your best accomplishments: I graduated with a major in information technology and informatics. I'm just trying to be the best player I can be on and off the field and learn from a player like Robert Mathis. I want to help kids and give back to my community and impact other people's lives. In addition to football, I want to keep getting better and looking for more jobs for myself.

Favorite TV show: I like watching "Flash," "Arrow," "Game of Thrones" and "Power."

Favorite Movie: "Happy Feet"

Favorite Food: Pizza and chicken

Strange food you like: An African food called Fufu. It's bashed up bananas and you create a soup with it and eat it with chicken or beef.

Best advice you've ever been given: God will help those who help themselves. Everybody has a different GPS and a different route in life, so you can't compare yourself to anybody else. Everybody is destined for different things.

If you could have dinner with three people, who would you invite: I'd bring my mom, Nelson Mandela and Muhammad Ali.

Which players have you looked up to: I looked up to Jason Pierre-Paul when I first came out. Then it went to DeMarcus Ware and Von Miller. From that, now I'm looking up to Robert Mathis and taking his advice and watching Dwight Freeney. I watch great pass rushers and critique their game and bring it out to myself.

What do you want people to know about you: I just want to learn a lot. I stick to my religion and treat everybody equally. Everybody is still human, no matter how successful they are. I follow my religion, and don't do anything that's detrimental to my health or performance.

UNCONVENTIONAL PATH TO THE NFL

Turay was born in Guinea, a country located in West Africa, before immigrating to America with his parents at three years old. After injuring his ankle in his first season trying football as a freshman at East Orange Campus (N.J.) High School, Turay's parents transferred him to Newark Tech, a school that did not have football in fear of him playing the sport. Turay focused on basketball as a sophomore and junior but did not garner Division I scholarships for his ability. The head football coach from nearby Barringer High School noticed Turay play basketball and urged Turay to give football one more shot and another coach offered to pay Turay's college tuition if he transferred to Barringer and played football but did not receive a scholarship. Turay transferred to Barringer as a rising senior and participated in summer football camps at Temple and Rutgers. Despite not having any film or varisty experience, Rutgers offered him a scholarship on the spot because of his amazing athletic potential. In his only season playing varsity football, Turay tallied a state-leading 19.0 sacks and helped the school break a 26-year playoff drought before heading off to Rutaers.

THE KOMODO DRAGON

One of the nicknames Turay acquired at Rutgers was, 'The Komodo Dragon.' According to "Smithsonian's National Zoo Conservation & Biology Institute," Komodo dragons are the largest, heaviest lizards in the world—and one of the few with a venomous bite. These stealthy, powerful hunters rely on their sense of smell to detect food, using their long, forked tongues to sample the air. They can spend hours waiting for a sizable meal to wander within range before launching a deadly attack with their large, curved and serrated teeth. "I see why they call me that," Turay said. "Kemoko is a similar name to Komodo and I'm also long, bendy and can attack. I admire that dragons can do a lot of things and I like the nickname."

CLUTCH PERFORMER

Vinatieri is responsible for three of the most memorable kicks in NFL history. He hit two last-minute gamewinning field goals in the Super Bowl (Super Bowl XXXVI vs. St. Louis on Feb. 3, 2002 and Super Bowl XXXVIII vs. Carolina on Feb. 1, 2004). In New England's divisional playoff victory against Oakland on Jan. 19, 2001, Vinatieri split the uprights on a 45-yard field goal with 27 seconds remaining to take the contest into overtime. Deemed the "Snow Bowl," the kick was made during a snowstorm with several inches already accumulated on the ground. # ANTHONY WALKER

6-1 • 230

NFL EXP: 3 (3rd Year with Colts)

BORN: 8/8/95

Walker was selected by the Colts in the fifth round (161st overall) of the 2017 NFL

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite team and/or athlete outside of football: Dwyane Wade

Favorite musician and/or song: Phil Collins - "In The Air Tonight"

Hobbies outside of football: Video games and Netflix

What is something interesting about you that most people may not know: I ran track and made it to the Junior Olympics every year. I placed in the 400 meters as well.

Favorite food: Chicken

Favorite vacation spot: Cancun

If you could have lunch with three people, living or dead, who would they be: Dwyane Wade, Jay-Z and Malcolm X

Favorite movie: "Remember The Titans" or "Friday Night Lights"

What's the one thing you couldn't live without: My phone

Pregame ritual: I get to the stadium early. I do stuff as far as taking care of my body. I have to play "Go Crazy" by Young Jeezy when I take my lap around the field. I do my stretching routine and then come back and try to get my mind right.

What's on your bucket list: I want to take my family on a 50-day around the world expedition.

Did you have a "Welcome to the NFL" moment: Yeah, I would say during camp in 2017 and I was in coverage when we had a joint practice with the Lions. Matt Stafford's center got pushed right into him and he was on one foot and side armed a dig route perfectly. I was like, "Did anybody see that?" Everybody said that was normal.

Karaoke song: John Legend - "So High"

Pet peeve: Getting woken up from my sleep.

50 ANTHONY WALKER

HE'S HEATING UP

Following his rookie season with the Colts in 2017, Walker returned to his hometown of Miami, where he spent a month as an intern for the Miami Heat, learning about the business operations side of professional sports. "For me, it's about trying to get the other side of sports," Walker said. "Football's going to end for me at some point. I want to be able to use the networks I have now to help me in the future for when I do need to find something else to do with my life." Walker got connected with the team by contacting Heat assistant coach Chris Quinn. Quinn previously worked as director of player development at Northwestern, where Walker studied business management and played his college football.

JERSEY RETIREMENT

Walker went back home to Monsignor Pace High School in South Florida this past year to see his jersey get retired. He played at Pace from 2009-2012, before heading to Northwestern and eventually the NFL. He became the seventh player from Pace to have their jersey retired. He also ended up donating $5,000 to the football program.

NFL HIGHLIGHTS

- Played in 28 games (19 starts) in three seasons and registered 145 tackles (92 solo), 14.0 tackles for loss, 1.0 sack, one interception, four passes defensed and one fumble recovery. Also has four special teams tackles and one blocked punt.
- In 2019, has started three games and has 22 tackles (16 solo) and 3.0 tackle for loss. In Week 3, he had a careerhigh 14 tackles (11 solo) and tied a career-high in tackles for loss (2.0).

- In 2016, was named to the Walter Camp, Bednarik, Nagurski and Butkus award watch lists prior to the season.

BRINGING THE GAME TO LIFE

Walker is trying to take his game to another level any way he can. One way he works on the mental side of the game is playing Madden. "When I am playing I am playing like I am actually calling the defense out. My dad is an offensive coordinator so I learned a lot from him and playing offense. It helps me diversify my game and when we play I am coming for the kill." He says playing middle linebacker has enhanced his Madden skill

NFL EXP: 4 (2nd Year with Colts)

BORN: 5/11/94

ILLINOIS

Ward was originally signed to the Colts practice squad on September 3, 2018.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Bucket list: I want to travel the world and go overseas. The goal is to travel to every country.

Pet peeves: Favoritism

Pregame ritual: I stretch, work on get offs and listen to Meek Mill.

Favorite artist: Jay-Z

Favorite TV show: "Prison Break"

Hidden talents: I like making hip hop beats. I would like to get my own studio in the future and make music. I've been a snare drummer since I was a little kid.

Hobbies off the field: I like playing basketball, riding dirt bikes and going to the gun range.

NOT YOUR AVERAGE JUCO

Before playing at Illinois, Ward had an unusual college life, especially for a college athlete, while attending the Globe Institute of Technology in New York. "It took me three hours to get to school every day. I would catch the bus, the boat and a train every day. It was right in the heart of Times Square and my housing was in Staten Island." After getting off the train, he would have to walk seven blocks to the field, drop off his bags, then go grab his football equipment five blocks away in a storage unit and come back for practice. After practice, he would have to take everything back and make the trek home. He ended up impressing other colleges with 81 tackles and 10.0 sacks in two seasons to end up playing in the Big Ten for Illinois.

NFL HIGHLIGHTS

- In four seasons with the Raiders and Colts, has played in 29 games (14 starts) and has 36 tackles (21 solo), 4.0 tackles for loss, 4.0 sacks, one pass defensed and one fumble recovery.

He started his college career at Global Institute of Technology in New York and accumulated 81 tackles and 10.0 sacks in two seasons there.
- In 2015, he started all 12 games and had 53 tackles (24 solo), 3.5 tackles for loss, 1.5 sacks, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and two passes defensed. Earned All-Big 10 honorable mention honors from the coaches and media.

Hobbies outside of football: Anything outside. I like taking my dog on walks and being active outdoors.

Do you have any nicknames: They called me Deuce Deuce in college.

Do you have any mentors: I had a high school coach named Chris Jordan who played at the University of Memphis and he knew I had talent and he took me under his wing. He always made me work and wouldn't let me take the easy way out.

Who is your inspiration: My family of course, My dad worked his tail off and went over and beyond. He is always taking care of us first and putting himself second. He would work long days and then still be in a good mood and would want to hang out with us. Other than that my favorite athlete who inspires me is LeBron James. I like the way he carries himself on and off the court. He is always prepared as well and is one of the greats.

Favorite movie: "300"

Pets: I have a dog named Deuce and he is a Rottweiler mixed with a German Shepard.

Pregame ritual: I just pray when I wake up in the morning and go through a regular routine with treatment and stuff like that.

What's on your bucket list: I want to visit every continent. I want to go to Australia and do one of those jungle expeditions.

Do you have a go to karaoke song: Michael Jackson - "Thriller

Pet peeve: People chomping their food.

A HIGH SCHOOL UNLIKE ANY OTHER

Williams attended Allen (Texas) High School, where football is not just an extracurricular activity. Allen opened a brand new $60 million facility in 2012 that sits 18,000 people. The school gained notoriety because of the investment, but that type of facility doesn't just go to a team without a great football program. Williams graduated a year before the stadium was in use, but he is proud of the school he went to. "I was lucky that I moved to the district early on," Williams said. Just in the 2019 NFL Draft, Allen High School had three former players selected, including Greg Little, Bobby Evans and the No. 1 overall pick, Kyler Murray.

WELCOME TO THE NFL

Growing up, Williams favorite player was always Reggie Bush. He wore number five in high school to emulate Bush. When Williams got drafted by the Bills, Bush was playing there. "We were in the same running back room and that was sort of my 'Welcome to the NFL moment'." Williams said. When he was in middle school, he even presented a PowerPoint to his class on Bush. However, Williams decided to give it some time before he said anything about it. "I had to wait until we were cool."

31 QUINCY WILSON CORNERBACK

6-2 • 193

NFL EXP: 3 (3rd Year with Colts)

BORN: 8/16/96

FLORIDA

Wilson was selected by the Colts in the second round (46th overall) of the 2017 NFL Draft.

DOWN THE STRETCH

What is something interesting about you that most people may not know: I train athletes on my own (even outside of football).

Favorite TV show: "The Office"

If you could have lunch with three people, living or dead, who would they be: Michael Jackson, Kobe Bryant and Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Do you try to model your game after any current or former players: I'd say I model my game after Xavier Rhodes. We're pretty much the same kind of corner. I watch him a lot. Patrick Peterson, too.

Do you have a "Welcome to the NFL" moment: I'd probably say the Buffalo game in the blizzard, because that was my first time seeing snow.

What's the one thing you couldn't live without: My family

Did you have an important coach or mentor growing up: I would say my dad. He was always my coach growing up. Everything I know about the game literally came from him.

What's on your bucket list: To go somewhere out of the country. The only time I've been out of the country was on a cruise. I want to go to Paris or something.

A FLORIDA FOOTBALL FAMILY

Quincy is part of a proud line of cornerbacks. His father, Chad Wilson, was a corner at the University of Miami from 1992-94. Chad was an All-Big East selection his senior year and signed with the Seattle Seahawks as a rookie free agent. Quincy's younger brother, Marco, is currently following his older brother's footsteps as a cornerback at the University of Florida. Marco started every game as a freshman in 2017 for the Gators and earned All-SEC Freshman Team honors. "I'm excited to watch him," Quincy said. "I think he'll be better than me when it's all said and done." Naturally, Chad taught his boys the game at a young age and then coached both at the high school level. "He would always take me and my brother out to the field," Quincy said. "He was super hands-on."

6-3 • 252 NFL EXP: Rookie

BORN: 1/19/96

Banogu was selected by the Colts in the second round (49th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft.

DOWN THE STRETCH

What is on your bucket list: I would like to travel the world. I would like to achieve all the goals that I have set out for myself as far as football. I also want to skydive.

Do you have any nicknames: In college I got Bombay and Bennie and the Jets.

Do you have a pregame ritual: Usually I just make sure I get a lap around the field. I listen to a certain playlist that I would go through throughout the whole year. I usually play it right before the game starts.

What is your favorite TV show: Growing up it was either "Dragon Ball Z" or "Drake and Josh."

What is your favorite movie: "Big Daddy"

What is the best advice that you have ever gotten: Stay true to yourself, just be you and everything else will take care of itself.

Who is your mentor: On the field it would probably be my coaches at TCU and my coach at ULM. Also, my brothers Prince, Michael and Wisdom.

What are your pet peeves: When people mispronounce my last name. I know it seems hard, but it is only six letters. People always try and add a little flavor to it because they feel like they need to. Also, when people think they are better than everybody else.

Do you have any hidden talents: I picked up juggling my senior year to ease my mind throughout the day. I would like to think I am kind of a comedian — I like to think I am funny.

What is one thing you can't live without: My mom's spaghetti.

FULFILLING HIS PROMISE

Banogu had a chance to declare for the NFL Draft after his junior year when he was named First Team All-Big 12 after posting 49 tackles (29 solo), 16.5 tackles for loss, 8.5 sacks, one pass defensed and three forced fumbles. He was projected to go as high as the first round, but he wanted to finish his career the right way. "I feel like it would of been a disservice if I left without finishing," Banogu said. It was an easy decision because when he decided to transfer to TCU, he promised his mom that he would get his degree from there. "At the end of the day I just went back to my roots and I knew it was something I had to do."

NFL HIGHLIGHTS

 In 2019, has seen action in three games and has three tackles (one solo), 1.0 tackle for loss and half a sack.

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Started 40 games during his college career at TCU and Louisiana-Monroe and finished with 151 tackles, 49.0 tackles for loss, 22.0 sacks, one pass defensed, five forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. At TCU, he started 27 games and finished with 106 tackles (71 solo), 34.5 tackles for loss, 17.0 sacks, one pass defensed, five forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries.
- In 2018, he was named First Team All-Big 12 and Honorable-Mention Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year after starting 13 games and recording 57 tackles (42 solo), 18.0 tackles for loss, 8.5 sacks, two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. He was also chosen as the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week against Baylor.
- After transferring to TCU, he was named 2017 First Team All-Big 12 and Honorable Mention Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year after he accumulated 49 tackles (29 solo), 16.5 tackles for loss, 8.5 sacks, one pass defensed and three forced fumbles.
- Sat out the 2016 season due to NCAA transfer rules.
- In 2015 with Louisiana-Monroe, he was named to the All-Sun Belt Newcomer Team after he started 13 games and recorded 45 tackles, 14.5 tackles for loss and 5.0 sacks.
- He redshirted the 2014 season at Louisiana-Monroe.

FROM OB TO A HYBRID DEFENDER

Banogu didn't start playing defense until his sophomore year of high school. He played quarterback and had aspirations of being Prosper High School's starting quarterback until Davis Webb, who was selected by the New York Giants in the third round (87th overall) of the 2017 NFL Draft, won the starting job. "The coaches loved him obviously. So I was like, 'I need to find a way to get on the field somehow," Banogu said. He ended up switching to defensive end his sophomore year and the rest is history.

- Attended Prosper (Texas) High School and played under Head Coach Kent Scott.
- Earned third team all-district and third team all-state honors as a senior.
- As a senior, finished with 21 tackles for loss and 10.5 sacks.
- Earned three letters with the football program.
- Selected as one of Dallas Morning News' Top Five Players of the Week.
- Also earned all-dstrict and all-area honors in track and field.
- · Was born in Nigeria before his family moved to Texas.
- Grew up in McKinney, Texas.

STAYING CLOSE TO HOME

Like any high school football prospect, Speed had a tough decision to make. He was recruited by FBS schools, including Oklahoma State, Colorado and Colorado State. However, life for him changed his senior year. "My brother got diagnosed with cancer in December of my senior year in high school. So I decided to stay close to him with the chances that he would get over cancer and come and play with me at a closer school, about 45 minutes away from my house." Unfortunately, Speed's brother, Paul, passed in April of 2019. But Speed doesn't regret choosing a Division II school and thinks he is as prepared as any Division II school and thinks he is as prepared as any Division II athlete coming into the NFL. "I wouldn't say it was tough because we had a great strength and conditioning coach. We always lifted like DI athletes and trained like DI athletes."

Then his sophomore year, he recieved a medical redshirt and finally ended up making the switch to linebacker in 2015. NFL EXP: Rookie BORN: 5/23/96

Ya-Sin was selected by the Colts in the second round (34th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft.

(va-SEEN)

DOWN THE STRETCH

What is on your bucket list: I want to have a successful NFL career. I want to get my bachelor's in psychology. I want to go to physical therapy school and get a master's degree. I also want to travel the world with my mom.

What is your pregame ritual: I like to go out and play catch before warmups with one of my teammates. Then come back in the locker room and listen to some Meek Mill.

Do you have any nicknames: Rock

Favorite artist: Meek Mill

Favorite food: Chicken wings

Favorite movie: "Bad Boys"

Favorite TV show: "Spartacus"

Best advice you've ever been given: Probably from Pierre Desir telling me about study habits, watching film and how to take care of my body.

Who is a mentor that you look up to: Eric Berry

What is one thing you can't live without: My family

Who was your favorite athlete growing up: Troy Polamalu

A TOUGH DECISION

Ya-Sin was a two-time wrestling state champion in high school in two different weight classes (145 lbs and 152 lbs). He didn't test out football until his junior year of high school and after the season his wrestling coach gave him some wise words in terms of his football potential. "You just started playing football. In one year you've seen how far you have come, imagine how far you can go." When Ya-Sin talked to Presbyterian's Head Coach, Tommy Spangler, he felt even more comfortable with his decision to play football instead of wrestling in college. "I believed in him. I trusted him." He left wrestling scholarships on the table from Virginia Tech, Virginia and N.C. State. It all ended up paying off in the end when he eventually transferred to Temple and performed well enough to get invited to the NFL Combine and be selected in the second round of the 2019 NFL Draft.

THE NAME ROCK

Ya-Sin is known by Rock now, but that wasn't always the case. He was born Abdurrahman Ibn Ya-Sin and didn't start going by Rock until he was in high school. During his sophomore year of high school, his wrestling coach, Keith Johnson, couldn't pronounce his first name and started calling him Rock. "It just stuck," Ya-Sin said. It didn't end up being on sport guides until his football coach started calling him Rock in 11th grade and adding the name to the official roster.

NFL HIGHLIGHTS

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Played in 45 games (35 starts) between his time with Presbyterian College and Temple and recorded 142 tackles, 5.0 tackles for loss, seven interceptions, 31 passes defensed and three fumble recoveries.
- In his lone season at Temple, he started 12 games and was named a First Team American Athletic Conference choice after finishing with 47 tackles (36 solo), 2.0 tackles for loss and 12 passes defensed. He was awarded a single-digit jersey, which are awarded to the nine toughest players on the team.

HELP FROM A PRO BOWLER

(va-SEEN)

Ya-Sin didn't start playing football until his junior year of high school after getting advice from his wrestling coach to try out the sport. Before his first season, Ya-Sin attended Eric Berry's football camp the summer before the season and had the opportunity to chat with him there. "He gave me some advice on working hard and putting my all into this." They still stay in touch to his day and Ya-

Sin credits Berry's advice as the start of his preparation for the NFL. "It really stuck with me for a long time." This past summer, Ya-Sin had the chance to be one of the coaches for Berry's camp.

- In 2017 at Presbyterian College, he started 11 games and was named a First Team All-Big South selection and recorded 49 tackles, a school-record five interceptions and two fumble recoveries.
