Raiders Relieve Jack Del Rio of Duties as Head Coach

ALAMEDA, Calif. - The Oakland Raiders have relieved Jack Del Rio of his duties as head coach, the team announced Sunday.

“We appreciate Jack’s effort in building the foundation of this team for the future. Thank you to Jack, his wife, Linda, and his daughter, Aubrey for their important contributions to the Raiders and to our local community in Oakland. We wish them all the best. We will have no further comment until we have named our next head coach,” said Raiders owner Mark Davis.”

Del Rio was named head coach in January 2015, and posted a 25-23 mark in three seasons with the Silver and Black.
