Head Coach Jon Gruden

Q: What is the status of your centers?

Coach Gruden: "You know, they were out there and did a little bit. Both very sore still. I would say they are questionable. They are giving us what they have, but they're still sore."

Q: Given Rodney Hudson's track record, would you be surprised to see him out there on Sunday?

Coach Gruden: "No, I wouldn't be surprised to see Andre [James] out there either. I just know that they haven't been able to do very much and 'Snacks' [Damon] Harrison is one heck of a player that he's playing in front of, so we got to be smart about this. And we have 48 hours before the game, so we'll keep you updated the best we can."

Q: What have you thought of Zay Jones' continued development?

Coach Gruden: "We are going to find out. He's going to get more and more opportunities and we'll let him decide that, but he's done well. He's looked good out here."
