THE OAKLAND RAIDERS FACILITY

The Oakland Raiders permanent facility sits on approximately 13 acres in the Harbor Bay Business and Research Park in Alameda. The state-of-the-art facility is located just west of the Oakland International Airport, about one mile from the team's former training facility on Doolittle Drive in Oakland and about three miles from McAfee Coliseum.

The 100,000-square foot facility houses the team's executive and administrative offices as well as coaches offices, player meeting rooms, locker rooms, training facility, television and radio studios and media center. Three full-sized practice fields are located on the property. The Silver and Black moved football and business operations into the facility in mid-June 1996 and in 1997, major improvements and renovations were made at the facility to suit the team's present needs. In 2002, the Raiders installed FieldTurf, an all-weather, state-of-the-art synthetic turf.

McAfee Coliseum

Oakland Raiders home games are played at McAfee Coliseum in Oakland. The Coliseum opened on Sept. 18, 1966 with the Raiders hosting the Kansas City Chiefs. The Coliseum, located three miles from Oakland International Airport, was built by the City of Oakland and the County of Alameda.

The all-time Coliseum record for football attendance is 62,748 fans on Jan. 14, 2001, when the Raiders hosted the Baltimore Ravens in the AFC Championship Game.

The Coliseum underwent a major renovation that began during the Raiders 1995 season. The remodeled Coliseum's capacity is now 63,132, including added luxury suites, club levels, two new club lounges, new locker rooms, remodeled press box, new video scoreboards and additional amenities. The playing surface is natural grass. Nearly 100 million people have passed through the turnstiles of the Coliseum, which rests on 120 acres. Originally known as the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum, it was re-named Network Associates Coliseum in October 1998, then was re-named McAfee Coliseum in time for the 2005 Raiders season.

THE GREATNESS OF THE RAIDERS

The Raiders — who began play in the American Football League in 1960, enter their 48th year of professional football competition, including the last 37 as a member of the National Football League.

In five memorable decades — the 1960s, '70s, '80s, '90s and the 2000s — the Raiders have been dominant in professional football since Al Davis first pledged in 1963 to build the finest organization in pro sports.

During these Decades of Dominance, the Raiders have won an AFL Championship, four American Football Conference Championships, three World Championships of Professional Football, participated in five Super Bowls, played in 14 Championship Games, won or tied for 17 Division Championships, had 21 playoff seasons, finished 33 seasons at .500 or better and played in 40 postseason games.

Pro Football's Dynamic Organization placed first in the AFC West in 2000, 2001 and 2002 despite playing among the toughest schedules in the NFL in each of those seasons. With their appearance in Super Bowl XXXVII, the Raiders became the only NFL team to play in Super Bowls in four different decades.

The Raiders are the only team to have been in Super Bowls in the '60s, the '70s, the '80s and the 2000s and have won the most games of any original AFL franchise.

The Silver and Black are the only AFC team — and one of just three NFL teams — to play in Championship Games in each of the last five decades.

The Raiders are one of only three original AFL teams to have won a Super Bowl since 1969 and have already done so three times. The Raiders are one of only three AFC teams to have won two Super Bowls since 1980.

In road games, the Raiders have the best record in pro football at 174-172-8 and are the only NFL team to post a winning record away from home. In their five Super Bowl appearances, the Raiders have been led by four different head coaches and started four different quarterbacks.

The Raiders are the last AFC Western Division team to go to the Super Bowl and are the last AFC West team to capture the division three years in a row (2000, 2001 and 2002). With four postseason victories, the Raiders are the only AFC West team to win more than one playoff game in the new millennium.

Since 1963, when Al Davis first took over the failing Oakland franchise that had struggled to win only nine of 42 league games in the initial three seasons of the new AFL and pledged to build the finest organization in sports, the Raiders have totally dominated professional football in terms of consistent victory. During those memorable 44 years in Oakland and Los Angeles, the Raiders have won 387 league games, tied 11 and lost only 268.

Commitment to Excellence has never been an idle phrase to those who have proudly represented the Raider organization during the '60s, '70s, '80s, '90s and now the new millennium as shown by their domination of pro football.

Fifteen of the great players who proudly wore the Silver and Black, as well as owner-leader Al Davis and legendary head coach John Madden, have been enshrined in the Professional Football Hall of Fame. The Raiders have also produced five Pro Coaches of the Year.

In addition, 56 Pro Bowl players have made 165 Pro Bowl appearances representing the Silver and Black. In 1970, as the Raiders began their second decade of play, the merger between the AFL and NFL became a reality on the field. In the 1970 through 2006 period of interconference play, the Raiders have compiled a remarkable 86-51-1 record against present National Football Conference rivals.

Another innovation came to professional football in 1970 — Monday Night Football. The Raiders total domination of this prime-time television series has seen the Silver and Black build an incredible 36-23-1 record in Monday night play. In the 37 years of this series, the Raiders are 15-5-0 in Monday Night Football games at home.

For their five decades — the '60s, '70s, '80s, '90s and now the 2000s — the Raiders have had the greatest players, the greatest coaches, the greatest plays and participated in the greatest games in the annals of professional sports.

Challengers to Raider domination of professional football will arise as they have in the '60s, '70s, '80s, '90s and the new millennium. The Raider organization will continue to meet these challenges. The past has been glorious, but THE TRUE GREATNESS OF THE RAIDERS WILL CONTINUE IN ITS FUTURE.

RAIDERS OWNERS

AL DAVIS

An unyielding total commitment to excellence has marked the three-time World Champion Raiders monumental rise during the last 44 years to the very top of the professional sports world.

In these memorable 44 years, the Raiders have had 28 winning seasons, including 16 in a row from 1965 through the 1980 World Championship season. In 33 of those seasons, the Raiders have earned a record of .500 or better.

Al Davis' six-decade professional football story — from assistant coach of the Chargers, to head coach and general manager of the Raiders, to Commissioner of the American Football League and finally to principal owner and president of the general partner of The Oakland Raiders — is a standard that no one in the history of professional football can match for winning and excellence.

In April 1966, the then 36-year-old Davis, head coach and general manager of the Raiders, became Commissioner of the American Football League. This was a post he accepted reluctantly, for first and foremost, Al Davis was a football coach, and knew that assuming the Commissionership would in all probability mean an end to his coaching career.

But AFL owners, in their battle with the rival National Football League, prevailed on Davis to accept the position. He was described by AFL President and Buffalo Bills Owner Ralph Wilson as “a coaching genius and astute administrator.”

Just eight weeks later, when pro football's two major leagues put an end to their six-year war, Davis was acclaimed nationally as the driving force who brought the leagues to merge. In 1969, he was once again a prime force in the dramatic realignment of professional football when two, 13-team conferences — the AFC and NFC — were formed for 1970.

As a member of the NFL Management Council's Executive Committee, Davis has been a major factor in achieving collective bargaining agreements with the players.

Al Davis first came to the Raiders in January 1963, dedicated to rescuing the faltering Oakland franchise and building the finest organization in professional sports. Just 33, Davis was the youngest man in pro football to hold the demanding dual positions of head coach and general manager.

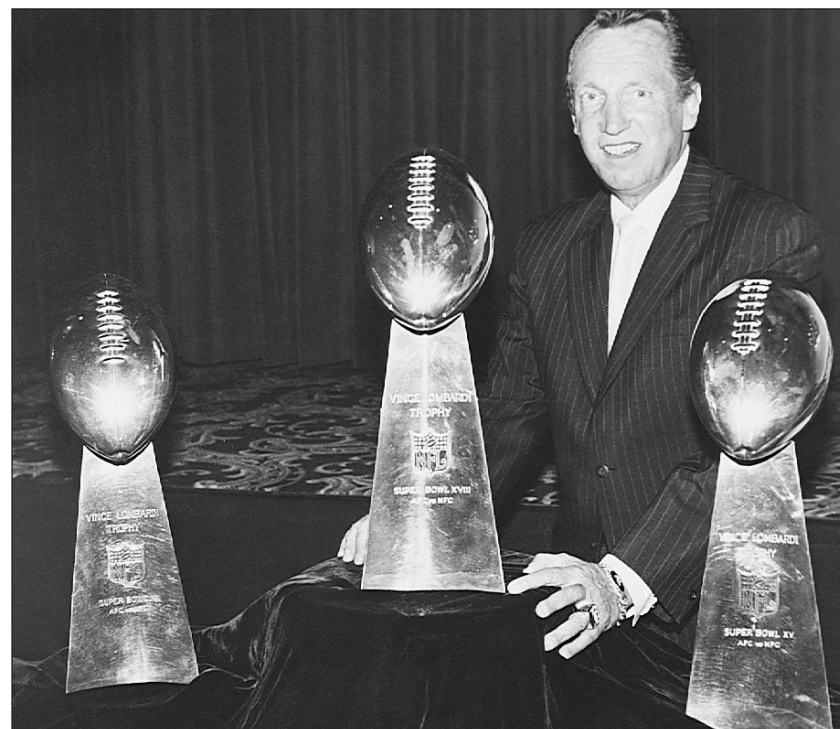

But Davis already possessed 14 years coaching experience. He had been tabbed a “young coaching genius” by Sports Illustrated and “the most inventive mind in the country” by Scholastic Coach Magazine.

The Raiders — “picked to finish dead last” — thundered to a 10-4 record and just missed the Division Championship. In 1963, Davis was named Pro Football Coach of the Year.

Perhaps his most singular honor is having made a record nine presentations of inductees to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. The nine great enshrinees to have selected Al Davis to make the presentation speeches on their behalf are Lance Alworth, Jim Otto, George Blanda, Willie Brown, Gene Upshaw, Fred Biletnikoff, Art Shell, Ted Hendricks and leading television football analyst John Madden.

Davis himself became enshrined on Aug. 1, 1992 when he was presented for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame by Madden.

In May of 1991, Al Davis became the very first recipient of the NFL Players Association's Retired Players Award of Excellence “for his contributions to the men who played the game.”

Born July 4, 1929, Al Davis was raised in Brockton, Mass. and moved at an early age to Brooklyn, N.Y. He attended Wittenberg College and Syracuse University, earning a degree in English while participating in football, basketball and baseball.

Al Davis received a Letterman of Distinction Award from Syracuse University. In March of 1998, Davis was inducted into the NFL Alumni's “Order of the Leather Helmet,” presented annually to “Individuals who have made significant contributions to the game of professional football.”

On Dec. 29, 1999, the Oakland Tribune and the Alameda Newspaper Group named Al Davis as the Bay Area's most significant sports figure of the 20th Century on a list that included such greats as Joe Montana, Willie Mays, Joe DiMaggio and Bill Russell. The Orange Bowl inducted Davis into its Hall of Fame in 2001.

In 1950, Davis was named line coach at Adelphi College in New York. He then went into the Army, being assigned as head football coach at Ft. Belvoir, Va. There he molded a national power service team and capped one season by defeating the University of Maryland, National Collegiate Champions, in a squad game.

Davis next served on the staff of the NFL's Baltimore Colts in 1954, at age 24, concentrating on player personnel work. During 1955-56, he was line coach and chief recruiter at The Citadel. He then spent three years at the University of Southern California as line coach.

In 1960, head coach Sid Gillman hired Davis as offensive end coach of the newly formed Los Angeles Chargers. After two Division Championships in just three years there, it was on to meet the challenges with the Raiders of Oakland in 1963.

Based on personal achievement, team achievement and contributions to the game, no one has had a more profound and lasting impact on professional football. In recognition of his status in pro football annals, NFL Films produced a film entitled, “AL DAVIS, NO. 1 FOR ALL TIME.”

SUPER BOWL RINGS

The Raiders World Championship rings — awarded to players, coaches, staff and owners after the dominating victories in Super Bowl XI, Super Bowl XV and Super Bowl XVIII — are renowned as the most memorable pieces of championship team jewelry ever produced.

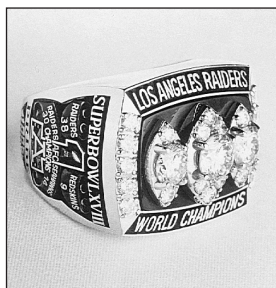

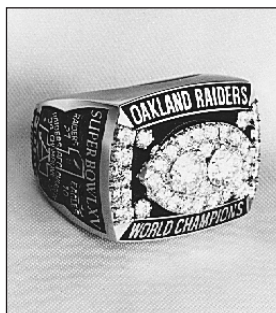

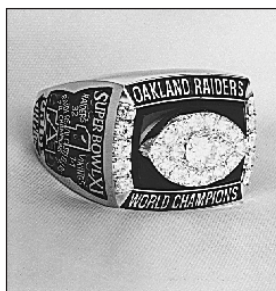

The rings were produced by Lenox Awards of St. Charles, Ill., whose staff developed creative concepts incorporating the explicit guidelines established by the Raiders — white gold, a raised football-shaped crest of diamonds on a black surface and a design based on “massive excellence” that would recognize these crowning achievements by the Raider organization.

The Super Bowl XVIII ring design features three large diamonds to represent the three World Championships won within eight years, each centered in a football-shaped crest plus an additional 20, five-point diamonds.

The Super Bowl XV ring design, featuring two large center diamonds to symbolize the two World Championships won within five years and 33, five-point diamonds on the ring face, was developed by Al Davis, Head Coach Tom Flores, Al LoCasale and Lenox Awards President Tom Brasher.

RAIDERS COACHES

LANE KIFFIN Head Coach

Lane Kiffin is the 16th head coach in the history of The Oakland Raiders. With his appointment by Raiders Owner Al Davis in January 2007 at age 31, Kiffin became the youngest head coach in the history of the modern NFL. Now 32, Kiffin is also the youngest head coach in Raiders history. Pro Football Hall of Fame Coach John Madden was 32 when he was elevated to the head post by Davis in 1969.

Before joining the Silver and Black, Kiffin presided over the vaunted offensive attack at the University of Southern California that featured a long, medium and short-range passing game coupled with a power running attack. His tutoring helped the Trojans capture back-to-back National College Football Championships in 2003 and 2004.

Kiffin's play-calling, structure and offensive design helped the Trojans produce two Heisman Trophy winners: Reggie Bush in 2005 and Matt Leinart in 2004.

Kiffin completed his sixth year at the University of Southern California in 2006. He joined the Trojan staff in 2001 by handling the tight ends and coached wide receivers from 2002-03. In 2004, he took on the responsibility of passing game coordinator in addition to coaching wide receivers.

In 2005, he was promoted to offensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator while continuing as the wide receivers coach. In Kiffin's three years as recruiting coordinator at the University of Southern California, the Trojans had the No. 1-ranked recruiting class in college football every year.

Under Kiffin's leadership in 2006, the Trojans finished first in the Pac-10 in passing efficiency, averaging 142.8 yards per game, produced two 1,000-yard receivers (Dwayne Jarrett — 1,105 and Steve Smith — 1,083) and a 3,000-yard passer (John David Booty — 3,347).

In 2005, Kiffin was named one of the nation's Top-25 recruiters and served as offensive coordinator of an offense that ranked in the top six nationally in every offensive category, including first in total offense (579.8 yards per game) and second in scoring offense (49.1) and set Pac-10 records for total yardage, first downs, points scored, touchdowns and PATs. The Trojans, who scored 50 points a school-record seven times, won games by an average of 26.2 points.

Kiffin's play-calling and offensive design enabled Bush to capture the 2005 Heisman Trophy and helped the Trojans become the first school to have a 3,000-yard passer (Leinart — 3,815), a pair of 1,000-yard runners (Bush — 1,777, LenDale White — 1,319) and a 1,000-yard receiver (Jarrett — 1,274) in a season.

In 2004, Kiffin coached on a staff that led Southern California to its second straight National Championship. He was in charge of a passing attack that helped Leinart win the Heisman Trophy with 3,322 yards passing and 33 touchdowns.

Kiffin also mentored the Trojan wide receivers including Mike Williams (now a Raider), a consensus All-American first teamer and a finalist for the Biletnikoff Award in 2003. Williams also set Southern California career (30) and season (16) touchdown reception records. Kiffin also coached Keary Colbert, who set the Southern California career reception record (207) and was a NFL second round pick and Jarrett, who was named Freshman All-American first team.

In 2002, Kiffin coached the Southern California wide receivers that included Williams, who was Freshman All-American first team and the Pac-10 Freshman of the Year, and Colbert, who teamed up with Williams to become Southern California's first pair of 1,000-yard receivers. He also coached Kareem Kelly, who was the Trojans career reception leader during 2002 and a sixth round NFL draft pick.

With Kiffin on the coaching staff, Southern California played in the 2001 Las Vegas Bowl, 2003 Orange Bowl, 2004 Rose Bowl, 2005 Orange Bowl (BCS Championship Game), 2006 Rose Bowl (BCS Championship Game) and the 2007 Rose Bowl.

Kiffin was the defensive quality control coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2000 (he worked with the secondary). He began his coaching career at Fresno State, his alma mater, where for two seasons (1997-98) he worked with the quarterbacks, wide receivers and defensive backs. He then was an assistant at Colorado State in 1999, working with the offensive line. The Rams played in the Liberty Bowl that season.

Kiffin was a quarterback at Fresno State for three seasons (1994-96), where his position coach was current University of California Head Coach Jeff Tedford. He earned his bachelor's degree from Fresno State in 1998. Kiffin prepped at Bloomington (Minn.) Jefferson High, where he played football, basketball and baseball.

Kiffin was born May 9, 1975 in Bloomington. His wife's name is Layla. They have two daughters, Landry, 2 and Pressley, 8 months. His father, Monte, is defensive coordinator for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. The elder Kiffin, a longtime NFL and collegiate assistant coach, served as North Carolina State's head coach in the early 1980s. His brother, Chris, was a defensive lineman at Colorado State (2001-04) and is currently an assistant coach at the University of Mississippi.

GREG KNAPP

Offensive Coordinator

Greg Knapp, who has 21 years of coaching experience, including 12 in the NFL, is in his first year as offensive coordinator for The Oakland Raiders.

The 43-year-old Knapp has served as an NFL offensive coordinator for the past six seasons — from 2004-06 for the Atlanta Falcons and 2001-03 for the San Francisco 49ers. In seven of the past 12 years, Knapp has coached three different quarterbacks to the Pro Bowl: Michael Vick in 2004 and 2005; Jeff Garcia in 2000, 2001 and 2002; and Steve Young in 1997 and 1998.

Under Knapp's direction, the Falcons led the NFL in rushing for the past three seasons. His influence enabled the Falcons to produce two 1,000-yard rushers in 2006 while averaging 183.7 yards per game. With Knapp as coordinator, the Falcons led the league in rushing in 2005, averaging 159.1 yards per game, while producing a 1,000-yard rusher and three Pro Bowlers on offense. In 2004, Knapp's first season in Atlanta, the Falcons averaged 167.0 yards per game while advancing to the NFC Championship Game, had two Pro Bowlers and a 1,000-yard rusher.

Under Knapp's direction in 2003, the 49ers finished in the top five in total offense (355.4 yards per game) and rushing offense (142.4 yards per game). The 49ers also finished in the top-10 in passing offense (213.0 yards per game), scoring offense (24.0 points per game) and fewest sacks allowed (28). In 2002, Knapp was the architect of a 49ers offense that ranked eighth in the NFL in total offense, produced a 3,000-yard passer, a 100-catch receiver and set an NFL mark for a 16-game season in third down conversion percentage (52.3), while allowing only 22 sacks.

In his first season as an NFL coordinator in 2001, Knapp directed a 49ers offense that ranked fourth in total offense, was second in the league in rushing and produced five Pro Bowlers.

Knapp began his professional coaching career with the 49ers in 1995, serving as quality control assistant from 1995-97 before being promoted to quarterbacks coach in 1998 and then offensive coordinator in 2001.

Knapp enjoyed a distinguished college career as a quarterback at Sacramento State. He still ranks as one of the school's all-time leaders with more than 3,800 passing yards and 32 touchdown passes. He went to training camps with the Kansas City Chiefs in 1986, the Los Angeles Raiders in 1987-90 and the 49ers in 1992-94.

The Seal Beach, Calif. native began his coaching career as an assistant at his alma mater handling running backs from 1986-89. He also coached wide receivers from 1989-90 and was offensive coordinator/assistant head coach at Sacramento State from 1991-94.

ROB RYAN

Defensive Coordinator

Rob Ryan is in his fourth year as Raiders defensive coordinator. Ryan oversaw a defense that in 2006 led the NFL in pass defense and ranked third in the league in total defense.

The Raiders defense under Ryan in 2006 also ranked fourth in the NFL in fewest yards allowed per play, fifth in defense inside the 20, fifth (tie) in defensive touchdowns (four) and fifth in net passing yards per play. Ryan's defensive schemes in 2006 also helped Derrick Burgess record 12 sacks and play in his second straight Pro Bowl and Warren Sapp get 10 sacks, an NFL high for defensive tackles. In addition, the defensive schemes helped Nnamdi Asomugha post a career high eight interceptions.

The 2005 Raiders defense featured the NFL's leading sack artist, Burgess, who chalked up 16 and a Pro Bowl invitation.

Before joining the Raiders, the 21-year coaching veteran spent four seasons as linebackers coach on Bill Belichick's New England Patriots staff. Ryan's linebacking corps contributed to the Patriots posting victories in Super Bowls XXXVI and XXXVIII.

The 44-year-old Ryan is the son of NFL defensive coaching legend Buddy Ryan. The younger Ryan has previous experience as a defensive coordinator at the college level, having served in that capacity at Oklahoma State from 1997-99 and at Hutchinson Community College in 1996.

In 2003, Ryan's linebacking corps helped the Patriots defense rank first in the NFL in fewest points allowed (238) while ranking seventh overall in the NFL in total defense. Ryan's unit also contributed to one of the best scoring defenses in franchise history in 2001 as the Patriots allowed just 17 points per game and produced Pro Bowlers Willie McGinest and Tedy Bruschi.

Ryan entered the NFL coaching ranks in 1994 as defensive backs coach on his father's staff with the Arizona Cardinals. He also coached Cardinals cornerbacks and safeties in 1995. With Ryan as his position coach, cornerback Aeneas Williams earned two trips to the Pro Bowl in 1994 and 1995. In 1995, the Cardinals 32 interceptions and 42 total takeaways led the NFL. The 1994 Cardinals were ranked second in the NFL total defense, second in run defense and third in pass defense.

From 1997-99, Ryan was Oklahoma State's defensive coordinator, where the Cowboys defense was continually ranked among the best in the nation. In 1999, they were ranked 10th in the nation in total defense. In 1998, they were second with 41 sacks. In his first season at Oklahoma State, the Cowboys defense finished among the nation's top-20 in turnover margin, rushing defense, scoring defense and total defense, allowing just 302.7 yards per game. It was an over 100-yard improvement per game from the year before and helped the Cowboys produce an 8-4 mark and an Alamo Bowl berth.

Ryan began his coaching career as an assistant at Western Kentucky in 1987 and then coached outside linebackers at Ohio State in 1988. Ryan then spent five seasons at Tennessee State, where he coached running backs (1989-91), linebackers (1992) and the defensive line (1993). He served as defensive coordinator at Hutchinson Community College in 1996, where they led the nation in total defense (228 yards per game) and in sacks (56). His defense also set a national record by forcing 49 turnovers.

Ryan also played three seasons as an outside linebacker at Southwestern Oklahoma State. His twin brother, Rex, is defensive coordinator for the Baltimore Ravens.

WILLIE BROWN

Defensive Backs, Squad Development

Pro Football Hall of Famer Willie Brown is in his 37th year with the Raiders and 13th season as director of squad development and defensive backs assistant. He was secondary coach for the Raiders from 1979-88, during which the team won two World Championships of Professional Football in Super Bowls XV and XVIII. He also coached the secondary in 1997 while serving as director of squad development. Brown was an assistant at Long Beach State before taking over as head coach in 1991. In 1994, he was head coach at Los Angeles Jordan High. Brown earned his master's degree in Education at Long Beach State. He starred for the Raiders from 1967-78, beginning his pro career as a free agent with Houston. He spent 1963-66 with Denver before being traded to the Raiders. He played in 205 games and was chosen for three AFL All-Star Games and four NFL Pro Bowls. He shares the Raider career interceptions record with 39, holds the Super Bowl record for the longest interception return with a 75-yard TD in Super Bowl XI and is one of only two players to have intercepted at least one pass in 16 straight seasons. Brown intercepted 54 passes in his pro career and was selected to the AFL-NFL 25-year All-Star team. The Yazoo City, Miss. native starred at Grambling from 1959-62 and is a member of the Louisiana Sports, Grambling State, Southwestern Athletic Conference, Mississippi Sports, Black Sports and Bay Area Sports Halls of Fame. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1984. The Brown family includes wife Yvonne, two daughters and one son.

TOM CABLE

Offensive Line

Tom Cable, who has 20 years of coaching experience, including four as a head coach at the college level, is in his first year as Raiders offensive line coach. Cable, 42, spent the 2006 season as offensive line coach for Atlanta, where he tutored a unit that was the driving force behind helping the Falcons lead the NFL in rushing. From 2004-05, Cable was both the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at UCLA, where he helped develop one of the most productive offensive units in the nation. In 2005, Cable coordinated a UCLA offense that averaged 431 yards in total offense per game while earning 10 wins and a bowl berth. In 2004, the Bruins offense under Cable improved by over 1,000 yards from the previous season while averaging 410 yards per game. Cable was head coach of the University of Idaho from 2001-03. During his tenure at Idaho, his teams averaged 424.1 yards of total offense per game. Cable also spent two years at the University of Colorado. In 1998, he served as the offensive line coach and the following year was promoted to offensive coordinator. Under his direction, the Buffaloes offense was ranked 14th in the nation in 1999, averaging 424.9 yards per game. He spent six seasons (1992-97) as offensive line coach at the University of California, where he tutored four first team All-Pac-10 selections, including Jeremy Newberry, who joined the Raiders in 2007. Cable began his coaching career at his alma mater, serving as a graduate assistant at Idaho in 1987 and 1988. He was a graduate assistant at San Diego State in 1989, defensive line coach at Cal State Fullerton in 1990 and offensive line coach at Nevada-Las Vegas in 1991. The Merced, Calif. native played four years at Idaho, three as a starting guard, and spent one season with the Indianapolis Colts before beginning his coaching career. Cable and his wife Glenda have three children: Amanda, Alexander and Zachery.

CHARLES COE III

Wide Receivers

Charles Coe III is in his first season as an assistant with the Raiders, where he will coach wide receivers. Coe, 58, spent the past four seasons as head coach at Alabama State University, leading the football team to a 29-18 record and two conference titles. Alabama State went 5-6 in 2006, Coe's only losing season as Alabama State's head coach. The Hornets were off to a 6-1 start in 2005 before falling to 6-5, losing the final four games by a combined 14 points. His high-scoring offense scored more than 40 points in five games in 2005. In 2004, Coe led Alabama State to a 10-2 record and the Southwest Athletic Conference Championship, the second in school history and the first since 1991. Alabama State led the SWAC in scoring and total offense in 2004, with nine players named either first or second team All-Conference, including quarterback Tarvaris Jackson, who was a 2006 second round draft choice by Minnesota. Coe also led Alabama State to the SWAC Eastern Division title and a berth in the 2003 SWAC Championship Game. His offensive unit scored over 48 points in four games in 2003 while posting an 8-5 record. Coe was a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award — given annually to the top head coach in Division I-AA — in 2003 and 2004 — and was named the 2004 SWAC Coach of the Year. Coe began his college coaching career in 1976 at the University of Iowa. He also coached at the University of Cincinnati (1977-79), Ball State (1982), Louisville (1983-84), Missouri (1985-88) and Kansas State (1989). From 1990-92, Coe coached receivers and running backs at the University of Tennessee under legendary coach Johnny Majors. Coe followed Majors to the University of Pittsburgh in 1993, where he was the run offense coordinator. He moved on to the University of Memphis as running backs coach for three seasons before being promoted to assistant head coach and receivers coach in 2000. In addition, Coe has served several NFL fellowships with the Dallas Cowboys, Pittsburgh Steelers, Cleveland Browns, Kansas City Chiefs and New York Jets. He also was the offensive coordinator for the North squad in the 1994 Blue-Gray All-Star Game. The St. Louis native was an outstanding baseball player during his collegiate years, earning All-Big Eight Conference honors as a second baseman in 1971. He was a first round choice in the 1971 Major League Baseball Draft by the Detroit Tigers and spent two years in their system. Coe and his wife Debbie have five children: Rodney, Chuck, Cecily, Michael and Ashleigh. Michael played defensive back for his father at Alabama State and was a fifth round pick by Indianapolis in 2007.

JAMES CREGG

Assistant Offensive Line

James Cregg is in his first season with the Raiders, where he will serve as an assistant offensive line coach. Cregg, 33, spent the past three seasons coaching the defensive line at the University of Idaho. Last year, he coached at the University of Idaho under former NFL head coach Dennis Erickson. Cregg coached defensive line at Colgate from 2000-03, where, in his final season, the Division I-AA team was undefeated before losing in the Division I-AA Championship Game. During his four seasons at Colgate, he helped guide the Raiders to back-to-back Patriot League titles in 2002 and 2003 with the team's defense leading Division I-AA in total defense. He was a graduate assistant at Colorado State, his alma mater, from 1997-99. Cregg earned All-Western Athletic Conference honors as a senior offensive lineman at Colorado State. Cregg was a two-year starter on Colorado State's offensive line and played in two bowl games in the mid-1990s. Cregg played on the Norco High team that reached the 1990 CIF title game. Cregg and his wife Dayna have one daughter, McKenzie.

JOHN DeFILIPPO

Quarterbacks

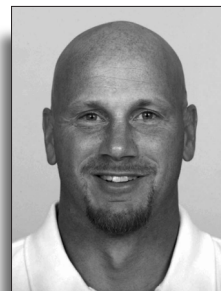

John DeFilippo is in his first season as Raiders quarterbacks coach. DeFilippo, 29, spent the past two seasons as an offensive quality control assistant for the New York Giants, working on Tom Coughlin's staff. In DeFilippo's two seasons with New York, the Giants made the postseason twice and compiled a 19-13 regular season record. He joined the Giants after spending two seasons as quarterbacks coach at Columbia University. While at Columbia, DeFilippo tutored Raiders free agent quarterback Jeff Otis, who left the school ranked second all-time in passing yardage and pass completions. From 2001-02, DeFilippo was a graduate assistant at Notre Dame, working with wide receivers and tight ends in 2001 under Bob Davie and quarterbacks in 2002 under Tyrone Willingham. That 2002 squad jumped out to an 8-0 start, with wins over No. 7 Michigan and No. 11 Florida State and finished 8-3 with a Gator Bowl berth. He began his coaching career tutoring quarterbacks at Fordham in 2000. DeFilippo played quarterback at James Madison University, where he earned All-Academic Atlantic 10 Conference honors for four straight seasons and helped the team to the league title as a senior in 1999. DeFilippo held NFL summer coaching internships in 1997 with the Carolina Panthers and in 1998 with the Indianapolis Colts. The Youngstown, Ohio native's father, Gene, is the athletic director at Boston College.

JEFF FISH

Strength and Conditioning

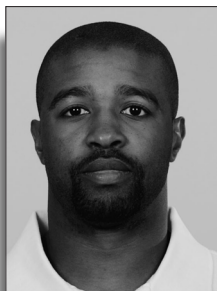

Jeff Fish is in his fourth season with the Raiders. Before joining the Silver and Black, Fish spent three seasons as head strength and conditioning coach at the University of Missouri, where he oversaw a program that worked with nearly 500 student-athletes from all 20 Missouri sports teams. Fish, 40, was assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Kansas City Chiefs from 1999-00 after interning in that department for the Chiefs in 1998. Before joining the Chiefs, the Ithaca, N.Y. native served as a strength and conditioning intern for Tampa Bay in 1997. The certified strength and conditioning specialist was strength and conditioning coach at the University of Tulsa from 1995-97 after serving in the same capacity at Kent State from 1993-95. From 1991-93, he was assistant strength and conditioning coach at Clemson. Fish began his coaching career as a graduate assistant strength and conditioning coach at Western Michigan in 1989. He played football as a wide receiver at Western Carolina. Fish and his wife Rachel have a daughter, Whitney.

CURTIS FULLER

Quality Control, Special Teams

Curtis Fuller is in his first year with The Oakland Raiders as special teams quality control assistant. Fuller, 29, played defensive back and on special teams from 2001-04 for the Seattle Seahawks, Green Bay Packers and Carolina Panthers. He originally entered the NFL as a fourth round pick by Seattle in 2001. He most recently worked in the scouting department for the Dallas Cowboys and also assisted at Texas Christian University, his alma mater. In addition, Fuller was defensive coordinator at Ft. Worth Christian High School in his hometown. He also served a business internship with Frito Lay. Fuller was an all-conference performer as a defensive back at TCU and earned a master's degree in Liberal Arts by the time he was drafted into the NFL. His wife's name is Rachel.

RANDY HANSON

Assistant Defensive Backs

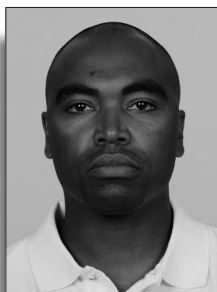

Randy Hanson joins the Raiders as assistant defensive backs coach in 2007 after spending the 2006 season with the St. Louis Rams. Before joining the Rams, Hanson coached three seasons with the Minnesota Vikings, the first two as an offensive assistant and the third as the assistant quarterbacks coach. From 2000-02, Hanson coached the secondary at Portland State. He also coached special teams in his final two seasons at Portland State. Hanson came to Portland State from Eastern Washington, where he spent five seasons coaching the secondary. He was a graduate assistant at the University of Washington from 1996-97, helping coach the defensive line and special teams. The Burlington, Wash. native played quarterback at Stockton Delta Junior College in 1987, Walla Walla Community College from 1988-89 and Pacific University (Forest Grove, Ore.) from 1990-91. The Hanson family includes wife Laura.

ADAM HENRY

Quality Control, Offense

Adam Henry is in his first year with the Raiders as offensive quality control assistant. Henry was most recently assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and receivers coach at McNeese State University. Henry spent the past 10 seasons at McNeese State, where he coached B.J. Sams, the conference player of the year as a senior who's now with the Baltimore Ravens, and Jermaine Martin, the school's all-time leading receiver. One of his receivers has been named the team MVP in each of the past five seasons. Henry, 35, served a coaching internship with the Cleveland Browns. The Beaumont, Texas native was an all-conference wide receiver at McNeese State and remains in the top-10 among all-time receivers in school history with 93 catches for 1,690 yards. He has a master's degree in Instructional Technology. Henry signed with New Orleans as a free agent in 1994 and also spent training camp and the preseason with the Saints in 1995 and 1996. He was on the Saints practice squad in 1995. Henry and his wife Eunice have three children: Darian, Kynnidee and Ava.

MARK JACKSON

Director of Football Development

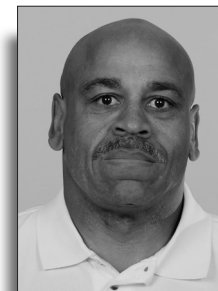

Mark Jackson is in his first year with The Oakland Raiders as director of football development. Jackson will work closely with Raiders Head Coach Lane Kiffin on all operational aspects of the football team. He will be involved in a number of areas — including player contract negotiations, personnel evaluation, coaching staff decisions, media relations and overall administrative functions of the football team. Jackson was director of football operations/assistant athletic director at the University of Southern California from 2001-05, where he helped Head Coach Pete Carroll rebuild the Trojans program back to prominence. During his tenure at Southern California, the Trojans posted a 54-10 record and won back-to-back National Championships in 2003 and 2004. Most recently, Jackson was vice president of athlete development at A2 Holdings in Los Angeles, which focused on rebuilding the sport of boxing in the United States at all levels. Prior to that, Jackson was the executive senior associate director of athletics at Syracuse University. From 1998-00, Jackson was a coaching assistant with the New England Patriots, working with special teams and running backs under then-Head Coach Pete Carroll for two years and Bill Belichick for one year. He originally worked in the Patriots media relations department, serving internships in the summers of 1994 and 1995. Jackson began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Trinity College for two seasons (1995-96), helping with the offensive backfield and special teams. He played cornerback at Colby College for four years (1991-94) and earned a master's in Public Policy from Trinity in 1997. Jackson and his wife, Tricia, who is expecting in August, have two daughters: Grace and Hannah and one son, Kevin.

DON JOHNSON

Assistant Defensive Line

Don Johnson is in his first season as assistant defensive line coach for the Raiders. Before joining the Silver and Black, Johnson spent two seasons with Chicago, where his unit contributed to the Bears 2006 NFC Championship and Super Bowl appearance. Johnson helped Bears defensive tackle Tommie Harris earn a Pro Bowl berth in 2005 and 2006 and tutored players in the past two seasons who've posted double-digits in sacks — Mark Anderson with 12 in 2006 and Adewale Ogunleye with 10 in 2005. Johnson's unit helped the Bears lead the NFL in takeaways in 2006, contributing 13 forced fumbles and two interceptions. From 2000-04, Johnson was an assistant at UCLA, serving as defensive line coach and adding recruiting coordinator to his duties in 2004. UCLA went to four bowl games during Johnson's tenure and he tutored several all-conference players while with the Bruins. Prior to coaching at UCLA, Johnson was an assistant at Nevada from 1995-99, where he tutored defensive ends and special teams. Nevada made two bowl appearances and captured three conference titles during Johnson's tenure. Johnson spent two offseasons in the NFL minority coaching internship program with the San Francisco 49ers. Johnson began his college coaching career in 1987 as an assistant at Riverside Community College where he helped guide the team to four bowl appearances and a junior college national championship in 1989 (11-0). From 1991-92, Johnson coached at Cal State Fullerton before the school dropped the football program and he returned to Riverside for two seasons. The New Jersey native played football at Jersey City State. He had a free agent tryout with the New York Jets and played in the USFL for the New Jersey Generals. Johnson began his coaching career at Santa Ana Valley High School in California from 1976-82. Johnson then coached linebackers at his alma mater in New Jersey for two years. He went back to coach at Valley High in 1986 before moving to Riverside College. Johnson and his wife, Deborah, have two daughters, Denise and Leanna, and one son, Don, Jr. A fourth child, son Duane, died in an automobile accident in 2002.

SANJAY LAL

Quality Control, Offense

Sanjay Lal joins The Oakland Raiders in 2007 as the offensive quality control assistant and will also work with the wide receivers for the Silver and Black. Lal spent the past three seasons as an offensive assistant — quarterbacks at Cal, following one season on the football staff at St. Mary's (Calif.) College as quarterback and strength, speed and conditioning coach. The Bears played in bowl games in each of Lal's seasons at Cal and captured a share of the school's first Pac-10 title (tied with USC) in 2006. He was the wide receivers coach at Los Medanos (Calif.) College (2003) and was passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach at Miramonte (Calif.) High (1996-02) when the school won five North Coast Section Championships and one state title, including a 13-0 record in 2001. Lal played wide receiver at the University of Washington and was a Husky Hall of Fame selection. He was on the Huskies 1992 National Championship team and a member of two Rose Bowl teams. Before transferring to Washington, he was a member of the 1989 UCLA Cotton Bowl Championship team. Lal signed as a free agent with the St. Louis Rams in 1998 and was with the Scottish Claymores of NFL Europe in 1999. His wife's name is Melody.

DON MARTINDALE

Linebackers

Don Martindale, a 22-year coaching veteran with experience as a college defensive coordinator and a coach on a Division I-AA National Championship team, is in his fourth year as the Raiders linebackers coach. Martindale's unit helped the Raiders finish first in the NFL in pass defense and third in the league in total defense. He tutored a corps that included Kirk Morrison, who finished 11th in the NFL in tackles and Thomas Howard, who placed second in the NFL among rookies in tackles. In 2005, Martindale coached a linebacking unit that included Morrison, who led all NFL rookies in tackles. Morrison and Danny Clark each had more than 100 tackles in 2005 which ranked among the league leaders and only four other teams had two linebackers in the top-25 in tackles. Under the tutelage of Martindale, Clark also finished eighth in the NFL in total stops in 2004. Martindale spent three seasons at Western Kentucky, serving as the Hilltoppers inside linebackers coach and special teams coordinator. He also helped produce a group of linebackers that were considered among I-AA's best. In 2003, Martindale was defensive coordinator at Western Kentucky when they ranked sixth in the nation in total defense. In 2002, his unit played a key role in helping Western Kentucky capture the NCAA Division I-AA National Championship. Martindale entered the coaching ranks as an assistant at his alma mater, Defiance College, in 1986. In 1987, he was defensive coordinator at Defiance and then spent the next six years coaching at the Ohio high school level. The Dayton, Ohio native was a defensive assistant at Notre Dame from 1994-95, helping the Irish earn a berth in the 1995 Fiesta Bowl and the 1996 Orange Bowl. Martindale then coached defensive ends at the University of Cincinnati in 1996 before spending the 1997 and 1998 seasons as the Bearcats linebackers coach and special teams coordinator. He helped Cincinnati appear in the 1997 Humanitarian Bowl as the defense was in the top five nationally both against the run and in forced turnovers. His special teams topped the conference in at least one category in both seasons under his tutelage. In addition, Martindale's special teams units topped the conference in at least one category during his tenure. In 1999, Martindale was defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Western Illinois where they were second in the nation in total defense. His family includes wife Laura, daughter Cassie and son Ty.

GEORGE MARTINEZ

Quality Control, Defense

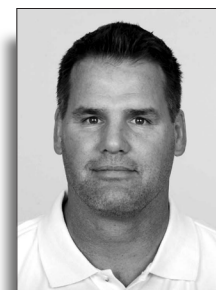

George Martinez is in his second year on the Raiders coaching staff. In 2006, Martinez helped coached a defense that ranked third overall in the NFL and first in the AFC against the pass. He has 30 years of coaching experience in professional, college and high school football and prior to joining the Raiders, was involved in private business. He was an assistant for the Arizona Cardinals from 1994-95, first as quality control coach, then as running backs coach. With Martinez coaching the Cardinals offensive backfield, Garrison Hearst rushed for 1,000 yards for the first time in his career and Larry Centers set an NFL record for receptions for a running back that still stands while earning NFC All-Pro honors at fullback. In 1993, Martinez coached at Santa Rosa High, which captured the New Mexico state prep title that year. From 1989-91, he was head coach and offensive coordinator at New Mexico Highlands University and spent one season (1988) as head coach and offensive coordinator at Panhandle State in Oklahoma. While at New Mexico Highlands, his offenses were rated second in 1989, third in 1990 and fifth in 1991 in pass offense and total offense in NAIA and Division II. Martinez coached at the high school level in California, Arizona and New Mexico for 16 years. He also coached seven seasons at East Central University in Oklahoma, handling linebackers (1981-82 and 1985-87) and serving as passing game coordinator (1983-84). Martinez was an all-state quarterback and punter at Kofa High School in Yuma, Ariz. Martinez attended the University of Arizona before transferring to Northwestern Oklahoma State, where he was a three-year starter and all-conference quarterback. The Fort Bragg, N.C. native who grew up in Yuma had tryouts with the Washington Redskins and Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the CFL. Martinez and his wife Katherine have three children: Tara, Scott and John.

KEITH MILLARD

Defensive Line

Keith Millard, an NFL first round draft choice and All-Pro and Pro Bowl performer, is in his third year with the Raiders, his second as defensive line coach. As assistant defensive line coach in 2005, Millard tutored a unit that helped the Raiders rank third in the NFL in total defense and first against the pass. Millard's corps also contributed to a Raiders defense that placed fifth in the NFL in net passing yards per play, sixth in the NFL in sacks per pass play and sixth in the AFC in rushing yards per attempt. Under Millard's tutelage, defensive end Derrick Burgess earned his second Pro Bowl selection in 2006 after recording 12 sacks. Millard also coached Warren Sapp, who led all NFL defensive tackles in sacks in 2006 with 10. The Pleasanton, Calif. native spent four seasons as an assistant with Denver. In 2004, Millard coached a defensive line that helped the Broncos finish fourth in the NFL in total defense. In 2003, he coached a defensive line that ranked fourth in the NFL in sacks. Millard, 45, was a first round pick by Minnesota (13th selection overall) in 1984 and went on to become a three-time All-Pro performer and two-time Pro Bowler as a defensive lineman from 1985-93. He began his pro career in the USFL, playing one season with the Jacksonville Bulls and was second in the league in sacks (12) behind Reggie White (12.5). Millard joined the Vikings in 1985 and led the team with 11 sacks at defensive end, which he followed up with 10.5 in 1986. Millard moved to defensive tackle, and in 1989, set an NFL record for sacks by an interior lineman with 18 en route to his second Pro Bowl invitation and third straight All-Pro honor. He also earned his second NFL Defensive Lineman of the Year Award in 1989 and was named NFL Defensive Player of the Year. Millard also played in the NFL with Seattle and Green Bay (1992) and Philadelphia (1993). He played in 93 career games and posted 58 sacks. Before joining Denver, Millard served as defensive line coach of the XFL's San Francisco Demons in 2001. Millard began his coaching career in 1996 as defensive line coach at Fort Lewis College, then was defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at Menlo College from 1997-00. He was defensive line coach for the West team in the 2002 East-West Shrine All-Star Game. After starring at Foothill High in Pleasanton, Millard played at Washington State where he earned first team All-Pac-10 honors as a senior and won the Morris Trophy as the Pac-10's top defensive lineman. Millard and his wife Paula have six children: Dustin, Johnny, Jack, Keith Jr., Mandy and Kade.

DARREN PERRY

Defensive Backs

Darren Perry, who has coached defensive backs for the Pittsburgh Steelers since 2003, joins The Oakland Raiders in the same capacity. The 38-year-old Perry, a standout defensive back for Pittsburgh during the 1990s, returned to the Steelers in 2003 as assistant defensive backs coach. He was promoted to defensive backs coach in 2004 where his secondary ranked fourth in the NFL against the pass. Perry was also a part of the 2005 Super Bowl XL Champion coaching staff. Perry spent the 2002 season as the safeties coach for the Cincinnati Bengals. He played seven seasons (1992-98) with the Steelers and started the first 110 games of his career, including the postseason. Perry signed with the San Diego Chargers in 1999 and rounded out his playing career in 2000 with the New Orleans Saints. Perry played in 139 regular season games and started 13 postseason games, including as a safety for the Steelers in Super Bowl XXX. He had a career total of 35 interceptions. Perry played college football at Penn State where he established several school records, including 299 interception return yards and three interceptions for touchdowns. Perry and his wife Errika have four children: Danielle, Dominique, Dedriana and Devan.

TOM RATHMAN

Running Backs

Tom Rathman, whose nine-year NFL playing career included a season with the Raiders, joins the Silver and Black coaching staff as running backs coach in 2007. Rathman has been an NFL assistant for nine seasons, most recently coaching running backs for the Detroit Lions from 2003-05. He served in the same capacity for the San Francisco 49ers from 1997-02. In 2004, Rathman tutored Kevin Jones, who rushed for 1,133 yards, including an NFL-leading 825 yards on 153 attempts (5.4 avg.) over the last seven games. Jones' performance in his first NFL season was tops among rookies in the NFL that season and the best rookie season by a Lions running back since Barry Sanders in 1989. Under Rathman's direction from 1998-02, the 49ers rushing attack was the best in the NFC and second in the NFL. In 2002, Rathman's unit helped the 49ers finish with the sixth-best rushing attack in the NFL with an average of 140.3 rushing yards per game. In 2001, Rathman was instrumental in guiding Garrison Hearst, the two-time NFL Comeback Player of the Year, to his second career Pro Bowl selection. Rathman also helped to tutor rookie Kevan Barlow to rush for more than 500 yards during his first year. The 49ers ranked second in the league with 140.3 rushing yards per game. Rathman coached Charlie Garner to his second consecutive 1,000-yard season and his first career Pro Bowl selection in 2000 after gaining 1,142 yards on 258 carries and a career-high seven touchdowns. Garner also eclipsed his career highs with 68 receptions for 647 yards and three touchdowns. As an NFL player, Rathman helped the 49ers capture two World Championships (Super Bowl XXIII and XXIV) and seven NFC West titles. In 1989, he led all NFL running backs in receiving with 73 receptions for 616 yards. Rathman played his final season in the NFL with the Los Angeles Raiders in 1994. Rathman finished his NFL career with 2,020 rushing yards, 320 receptions for 2,684 yards and 34 touchdowns. A three-year letterman at Nebraska, Rathman rushed for 1,425 yards and averaged over six yards per carry. He entered the NFL as a third round pick by San Francisco in 1986. Prior to beginning his NFL coaching career with San Francisco, the Grand Island, Neb. native helped rebuild the Menlo College (Calif.) program by serving as the offensive coordinator in 1996 and coached the running backs at Serra High School in San Mateo (Calif.) in 1995. Rathman and his wife Holly have three daughters: Nicole, Alexandra and Samantha.

BRIAN SCHNEIDER

Special Teams Coordinator

Brian Schneider joins The Oakland Raiders as special teams coordinator in 2007. Prior to joining the Raiders, Schneider was an assistant coach at the Air Force Academy in 2007 after spending the 2006 season at Iowa State, where he coached the tight ends and special teams. Prior to his stint at Iowa State, Schneider spent three years (2003-05) as an assistant coach at UCLA where he coached the linebackers, safeties and special teams. In 2005, several of Schneider's UCLA special teams units ranked among the best in the nation: punt returns, kickoff coverage and net punting. Maurice Jones-Drew led the nation in punt returns with an NCAA-record 28.5-yards per return average, including three touchdowns. He also coached the safeties in 2005. In 2004 under Schneider, UCLA punt coverage and punt return teams led the Pac-10 Conference and ranked fourth in kickoff returns and blocked six kicks. Schneider coached tight ends and coordinated the special teams at Colorado State for six seasons, in which the Rams excelled in special teams play. He coached eight all-conference special teams performers or tight ends. Colorado State ranked among the national leaders in 2000 and 2001 in net punting. Schneider spent three seasons (1994-96) as a graduate assistant coach at Colorado State, working with the team's defensive unit and special teams prior to moving to full-time status in 1997. The San Diego native was a three-year starter and four-year letterwinner for the Rams as a linebacker from 1990-93 and is regarded as one of the finest players at his position in Colorado State history. As a senior in 1993, he was named first team all-conference and was an honorable mention All-American. Schneider was a second team all-league choice in 1992. Schneider still ranks among the school's career leaders in total tackles. Schneider and his wife Kelli have one daughter Jaden and three sons: Jace, Joby and Joel.

KELLY SKIPPER

Tight Ends

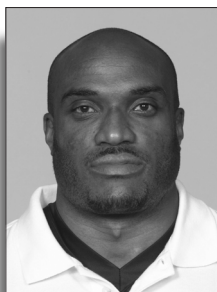

Kelly Skipper joins the Raiders as tight ends coach after spending the past four seasons coaching running backs and special teams at Washington State. Skipper, 40, has 18 years of coaching experience and has served as an offensive coordinator at the NCAA Division I level. He also spent two summers, one with Seattle and one with Washington, as an NFL minority coaching fellowship intern. From 1998-02, Skipper was on the coaching staff at UCLA, where he was offensive coordinator from 2001-02. He has tutored a number of players who went on to the NFL, including Lorenzo Neal, Michael Pittman and DeShaun Foster. Skipper also coached Jerome Harrison, who broke Washington State's single season rushing record after running for 1,900 yards. Skipper was an assistant at Fresno State, his alma mater, from 1989-97, beginning his coaching career as a graduate assistant before becoming a full-time assistant in 1991. He handled running backs, return specialists and served as recruiting coordinator and was on the Bulldog staff that included current Raiders Head Coach Lane Kiffin. Skipper's father, Jim, is a longtime NFL assistant and was head coach of the XFL's San Francisco franchise. The Brawley, Calif. native played running back at Fresno State and rushed for 2,237 career yards to rank in the Bulldog top-10 list. Skipper also scored 28 touchdowns during his college career when Fresno State went 36-9-1. As a senior, Skipper was a first team All-Big West running back and earned Associated Press All-America honorable mention honors. He earned a degree in business from Fresno State in 1989. Skipper and his wife Mary have two children: Kaelen and Darius.

RAIDERS PLAYER PERSONNEL

CALVIN BRANCH Player Personnel

Calvin Branch first joined the Raiders as a sixth round pick in 1997 out of Colorado State. He played defensive back and was a valuable member of the Silver and Black's special teams from 1997-01. The Louisville, Ky. native also played in NFL Europe in 2002. Branch began his college career at Iowa State as a running back before transferring to Colorado State, where he ranked third in the nation in scoring (132 points) as a senior. His wife's name is Michele. His brother Colin is a defensive back who played for the Carolina Panthers and was signed by the Raiders in 2007.

The Hendersonville, N.C. native played 11 seasons (1977-87) at guard for the Raiders, with starts in two Raider World Championship wins in Super Bowls XV and XVIII. Marvin was a three-year starter at Tennessee and an All-American in 1975. Marvin was an all-state lineman at Hendersonville and Brevard High Schools. Marvin and his wife Lisa, a former Raiderette, have one son and one daughter.

KENT McCLOUGHAN Player Personnel

Kent McCloughan is in his 42nd season with the Raiders, first as a player and now as a scout. The Broken Bow, Neb. native began scouting in 1972 after retiring. He was a standout cornerback for the Raiders from 1965-70, earning All-AFL honors in 1966 and 1967 and played for the Raiders in Super Bowl II. He attended Nebraska, where he played offense and defense, leading the Big Eight in scoring as a senior. McCloughan, 63, attended Broken Bow High and was all-state in basketball and All-America in both football and track and set a state record in the 220. McCloughan and his wife Elnora have three sons including David, who played in the NFL, and Scot, a player personnel executive for the San Francisco 49ers.

RICH SNEAD

Player Personnel

Rich Snead has re-joined the organization in 2007. Snead previously spent four seasons in the Raiders player personnel department from 1990-93. Snead spent the past 13 years in player personnel with the Tennessee Titans, the last nine as director of player personnel. The San Gabriel, Calif. native originally joined the Houston Oilers in 1994 as the director of pro personnel. He worked two seasons (1988-89) as a scout for the San Diego Chargers. Snead began his pro career in 1983 as a scout for the Oklahoma Outlaws in the United States Football League (USFL). He also served as director of player personnel for the USFL's Los Angeles Express from 1984-86. Snead's coaching experience includes a stint as an assistant coach at Santa Ana College from 1979-82 after attending Long Beach State University. The Snead family includes wife M'Lissa and son Bill.

GEORGE STREETER

Player Personnel

George Streeter — a former NFL performer, has more than a decade of experience in pro and college player personnel evaluation — joined the Raiders in 2007. Streeter most recently was director of marketing and recruiting for KMG in Cincinnati, where he was responsible for handling contract negotiations, player promotion and endorsement deals, evaluating pro player personnel and providing draft eligible players with NFL testing insight. The Chicago native began his NFL front office career as a scout with the Green Bay Packers in 1992, working with Ron Wolf, who highly recommended him to the Silver and Black. Streeter spent six seasons with the Cleveland Browns as a college scout, preceded by a stint in pro player personnel with the San Francisco 49ers from 1996-97. The former Notre Dame star was a four-year letterman and three-year starter for the Irish and graduated with a business degree. He was drafted by Chicago in 1989 and played three seasons in the NFL as a defensive back with the Bears and the Colts. Streeter and his wife Jennifer have three children, daughter Shea and sons Jordan and Benjamin.

RAIDERS RADIO NETWORK

For the fourth straight year, The Oakland Raiders, The Team of the Decades, will broadcast their 2007 games on KSFO 560 AM, the Bay Area's Talk Leader.

This year, Oakland Raiders broadcasts on KSFO will include extensive pre- and postgame shows as well as Raiders-specific programming during the week.

KSFO Radio has enjoyed a very successful relationship with Oakland Raiders football. The Raiders Commitment to Excellence and commitment to winning in 2007 is the quality of professional sports that KSFO is excited about presenting on the radio.

KSFO 560 AM is the Bay Area's Talk Leader, committed to presenting "the news and views you won't hear anywhere else" along with Oakland Raiders football. KSFO Radio is the talk radio station broadcasting at 560 AM in San Francisco and throughout Northern California.

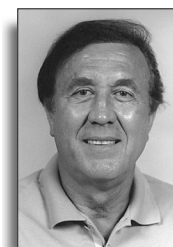

Greg Papa returns for his 11th season broadcasting the Silver and Black. Papa also serves the Bay Area as the radio and television voice of the San Francisco Giants after previously handling broadcast duties for the Oakland Athletics. Papa got his start in broadcasting in 1984 as the Indiana Pacers back-up announcer and in 1986, did play-by-play for the Golden State Warriors.

Papa will team up with former Raiders quarterback and head coach Tom Flores. Flores is one of only two people in NFL history to have a Super Bowl ring as a player, assistant coach and head coach. He earned his rings as a reserve quarterback with the Kansas City Chiefs in Super Bowl IV, as a Raiders assistant coach in Super Bowl XI and as a head coach of the Silver and Black in Super Bowls XV and XVIII.

Raiders Legends George Atkinson and David Humm will collaborate on the pre- and postgame shows, as will KGO Radio's Rich Walcott.

RAIDERS SPANISH/NAVAJO RADIO

Raiders fans can listen to veteran broadcasters Armando Botello and Angel Dimanita call all of the action on KLOK 1170 AM — "Aquí Esta Todo," the Official Flagship Spanish Radio Station for the Oakland Raiders 2007 season.

KLOK-AM transmits 50,000 watts of power from the San Jose tower covering the entire San Francisco Metro area. In addition, KLOK-AM provides bonus spill into neighboring Monterey/Salinas/Santa Cruz Metro to the south and the Modesto/Stockton Metro market to the east.

Botello enters his second season as the play-by-play announcer for the Raiders Spanish radio broadcasts. With more than 30 years of experience, Botello has held positions ranging from television to print to radio in Sacramento's local media scene.

Botello has served as the Spanish radio play-by-play announcer for the Sacramento Kings for the past 10 years. He has co-hosted "Voz y Voto," a weekly political television show broadcast by the Univision Network throughout California. He was inducted into the California Chicano News Media Association Hall of Fame in the summer of 2002.

Dinanita enters his first season with the Raiders as the color analyst for the Spanish radio broadcast. Dinamita is currently on KSTN-FM "La Poderosa" and is the station's operations manager. Born in Ciudad Juarez, Chihuahua Mexico, Dinamita has won various awards during his career including "DJ of the Year" in 1996.

The broadcasts open with a pregame show 15 minutes before kickoff. Botello and Dinamita analyze the preceding contest, the NFL standings, the history between the two teams meeting that day, the keys to victory for the Raiders and the opponent as well as player and coach interviews. After the game, Botello and Dinamita wrap up with a summary of each quarter, discuss that day's scores across the NFL and look ahead to next week's opponent.

RAIDERS IN NAVAJO

The Oakland Raiders will broadcast four games in Navajo in 2007 through an agreement with KTNN 660 AM. Four Raider games have been broadcast in Navajo over the past two seasons — two in 2006 and two in 2005. L.A. Williams and Ray Tsosie, both award-winning newscasters, will again call the action for KTNN.

Williams, KTNN's sports and rodeo Director, began her broadcasting career with KTNN in 1993 and since then has broadcast a variety of sports including football, basketball and volleyball. Williams recently brought home a gold medal for Outstanding Media Coverage at the North American Indigenous games in Denver.

Tsosie, who's considered a Navajo Nation radio icon, was named outstanding newscaster in 1999 by the Arizona Broadcasting Association for his work in broadcasting Navajo news. Tsosie burst upon the broadcasting scene when he took the opportunity to host the KTNN 660 AM morning show. KTNN, "The Voice of the Navajo Nation," broadcasts a 50,000-watt clear channel signal from its Window Rock, Ariz. studio that reaches the entire western United States and northern Mexico.

RAIDERS TV

Silver and Black Productions, the Raiders in-house television production operation, provides viewers with innovative, cutting-edge and behind-the-scenes content devoted solely to The Oakland Raiders. Three dynamic television shows air in the Bay Area as well as in additional television outlets throughout California, Nevada, Hawaii, Oregon and Idaho and feature the personalities that make up the NFL's most dynamic organization.

GREG PAPA AND JIM PLUNKETT

In 2007, popular radio personalities Renel Brooks-Moon and JT the Brick will join the Raiders television broadcasting team for the preseason. In addition, Renel will contribute as a correspondent on Raiders-produced television shows, "The Raiders Report" and "Behind the Shield," throughout the 2007 season. JT the Brick, who served as the pre- and postgame game host for Raiders Radio for six years, will continue in his role as host of "The Raiders Report."

"The Silver and Black Show" consists of an in-depth, comprehensive, week-by-week analysis of the Raiders throughout the 2007 season. The show also offers a retrospective look at the previous week's Raider game and a breakdown of the upcoming contest with a look at the matchups.

Features on players past and present are part of the new, cutting-edge program profiling the Silver and Black. Raiders radio play-by-play man Greg Papa hosts the half-hour show while Raiders Legend Jim Plunkett, MVP of Super Bowl XV, is co-host.

"Behind the Shield" provides viewers with unprecedented access for an inside look at the Silver and Black. This unique show offers a behind-the-scenes perspective on the Raiders preparation for the upcoming week's game as experienced by the entire organization including players, coaches and team personnel. Raiders Legend George Atkinson, who roamed the secondary for the Silver and Black from 1968-77, hosts this television show.

"The Raiders Report" is an hour-long show which combines analysis and a behind the-scenes look at the Oakland Raiders. Papa, Plunkett, Atkinson and Renel also contribute to this program. "The Raiders Report" focuses on longer, in-depth pieces featuring the Team of the Decades all year long.

All three shows are produced by the Raiders own Silver and Black Productions. The shows originate from Silver and Black Productions state-of-the-art studio located within the Raiders 100,000-square foot Alameda facility. Archived episodes can be found online at www.raiders.com.

The Raiders were among the first professional sports teams to launch an official web site when the team went online in 1995. Since then, the site has evolved into one of the top online destinations in sports.

In late 2002, the Raiders broke new ground again with the launch of Raiders en Español (www.raidersenespanol.com), the first complete Spanish-language web site in the NFL. The site also offers original and translated content in Chinese, German, Japanese and Tagalog. Raiders.com is the first and only official team web site in the NFL to offer original content in six different languages.

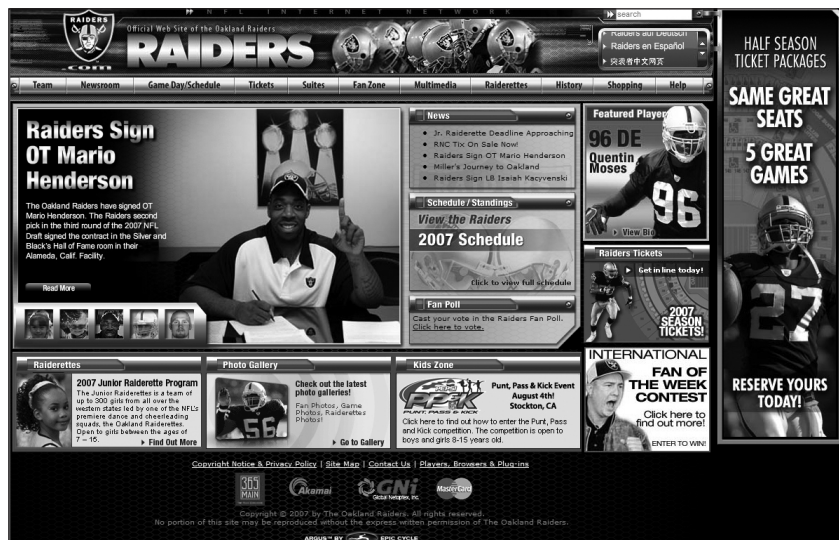

In March of 2007, raiders.com was re-launched, the first such undertaking in four-and-a-half years. In addition to an exciting new design, the site features new technology and content such as expert commentary, site search, podcasts, blogs, RSS feeds and more.

Located at www.raiders.com, the site continues to provide comprehensive photography, official press releases, transactions, player biographies, profiles on current and former players and team personnel, along with features and updates on the Raiders Commitment to Community. Raiders.com also offers a daily online video news program which features in-depth interviews, press conference highlights and much more.

During games, fans can access the Raiders.com Game Center and view live updates, sideline action photography and listen to a live audio stream from the Raiders flagship radio station — KSFO 560. Comprehensive game recaps, postgame press conferences and complete game statistics are available after each game.

In addition, raiders.com provides complete coverage of the NFL Draft, team mini-camps, training camp and the Raiderettes. Since 2004, the team has offered "live" coverage of the NFL Draft both in English and Spanish.

In 2007, the Official Website of The Oakland Raiders — www.raiders.com — and its sister site, Raiders en Español — www.raidersenespanol.com — will continue to use cutting edge technology to provide the Raider Nation with news, information, team history and entertainment, offering visitors an in-depth, state-of-the-art look at the Silver and Black.

THE RAIDER IMAGE, LLC (The Image) is the official team shop of The Oakland Raiders. All stores are owned and operated by The Oakland Raiders out of the team's headquarters in Alameda. The Image began as a retail catalog while the team was in Los Angeles.

In addition, The Image currently operates 15 brick and mortar locations throughout California. The Image also plans to increase that number this season.

The Raider Image online store opened for business in September 1999 on the Raiders official web site, www.raiders.com. The Image e-commerce store provides the best selection of Raider merchandise to Raider fans around the world. In August 2000, the Raiders followed up their Internet success with their first store located in Southland Mall in Hayward, Calif., giving Bay Area fans an opportunity to shop in a store dedicated to Raiders merchandise.

As of August 2007, there are 15 Raider Image locations throughout California to reach out to the many fans across the state. There are currently six Bay Area locations including Hegenberger Gateway in Oakland, Oakridge Mall in San Jose, Sunvalley Mall in Concord, Southland Mall in Hayward, NewPark Mall in Newark and West Gate Center in San Leandro.

The Image has also expanded outside of the Bay Area with stores in Arden Fair Mall in Sacramento, Fashion Fair Mall in Fresno, Vacaville Outlets in Vacaville and Weberstown Mall in Stockton. To serve our Southern California fans, locations were opened at Lakewood Mall, Montebello Town Center, Ontario Mills and Moreno Valley Mall. In addition, The Image added a new twist with the June 2003 opening of its Signature Store at Universal City Walk in Universal City.

The successful chain of stores will continue to expand to meet the growing needs of Raider fans around the world.

RAIDER REWARDS

Great Rewards for Great Fans!

The Raider Rewards Program is the official rewards program of the Oakland Raiders. The program began in 2005 and included the launch of a website (www.raiderrewards.com) to help fans track their points, participate in interactive activities and also gain access to exclusive rewards with their memberships such as a pair of Season Tickets, a personalized authentic Raider jersey, a trip for two to the Pro Bowl and many other items. These items are only available to Raider Rewards members. Members also receive VIP treatment at player signings at our Raider Image stores and receive an in-store coupon for $10 off a purchase of $50 or more at The Raider Image, a membership card and much more. For more information about the Raider Rewards Program, log on to www.raiderrewards.com or call 1-800-RAIDERS.

MEDIA INFORMATION

OAKLAND RAIDERS P.R.: 510-864-5001, ext. 3028

PRESS BOX: 510-567-0702, 0703

PRESS BOX FAX: 510-382-1520

P.R. FAX: 510-864-5160

VISITING P.R.: 510-567-0704

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS: Credential requests will be honored only for working media on specific assignment for a recognized news or sports organization. Credentials will not be issued to freelance writers or photographers unless requested by a recognized news or sports organization. All credential requests must be issued to the Raiders Public Relations Department on the official Credential Request Form. The Credential Request Form can be faxed or emailed to you by request via email (raidrspr@raiders.com). Please send all completed forms to: Brian Proctor, c/o MEDIA CREDENTIALS, Oakland Raiders, 1220 Harbor Bay Parkway, Alameda, Calif. 94502 or by fax to 510-864-5160, and email all headshots to bproctor@raiders.com as well as to raidrspr@raiders.com. All season-long requests must be received by August 1 prior to the season and all game-by-game requests must be received by noon, Monday, prior to the home game.

PARKING: Media parking is limited. Every effort will be made to accommodate requests for parking passes, but parking cannot be provided for all credentialed media. The appropriate parking pass will be required for access to stadium parking. TV trucks which provide satellite, uplink or microwave functions will need to make prior arrangements with Chad Ladov at McAfee Coliseum at 510-383-4817 to secure locations.

MEDIA WILL-CALL: The Media Will-Call booth is located on the east side of the "F" parking lot in a kiosk. Each person must pick up their own credential and present corresponding photo identification. Media Will-Call will open three hours prior to the scheduled kickoff.

MEDIA ENTRANCE: The media entrance, which is new for 2007, is located on the Plaza level between the west side club entrance and west side customer accommodations and will be clearly marked. Media credentials will not be honored at any other gate. All media must check in at the media entrance before entering McAfee Coliseum. Individuals and their belongings will be searched upon entry into the stadium. Note that media will no longer be able to enter through the "F" lot.

MEDIA DINING ROOM: Individuals without full-season credentials will need meal tickets to access the media dining room. Media may pick up those tickets at the press entrance prior to entering the McAfee Coliseum.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Sideline access for NFL games is limited to photographers and videographers on assignment for a recognized news or sports organization. All field photographers must remain outside the bench areas and outside the yellow border surrounding the playing field. All media (photographers, videographers and sideline reporters) staying on the field during the game need to wear a vest which can be obtained at Media Will-Call.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS: Raiders Head Coach Lane Kiffin conducts his postgame news conference in a room adjacent to the Raiders locker room. Selected players will also be brought into the interview room following the game. The opponent's head coach and selected players will be available in the interview room located adjacent to the visitor's locker room.

PRESS BOX, SERVICES: The press box and all broadcast positions are located on Level 3 accessed by the press elevator. Programs, lineups, depth charts, statistics and game notes are provided. Game stats are provided at the end of each quarter. Complete team and individual statistics, lineups and substitutions, scoring summary, coaches and players comments and quarter summaries are available after the game. If postgame faxing of final stats or play-by-play is needed, contact a member of the Raiders P.R. staff. There is a nominal charge for faxing postgame stats, as agreed upon by the Pro Football Writers Association.

RAIDERS TRAIN IN NAPA

The Oakland Raiders are now in their 12th year of summer training in Napa, Calif. The Raiders are housed at the Napa Valley Marriott Hotel and Conference Center with practice sessions held at the adjacent Redwood Middle School.

The state-of-the-art facility located in the Napa Valley has two, 100-yard practice fields with an additional 50-yard field.

The Raiders summer training facility also consists of a 10,000-square foot field house that includes locker rooms, showers, training and equipment quarters. There's an additional 3,000-square foot outdoor weight training area.

The facilities serve the Raiders during the summer training camp period and are available for Napa youth activities and other community functions during the year.
