Head Coach Jack Del Rio

Opening Statement: "Alright, another fast Friday. Looking forward to traveling well; headed down to Jacksonville to take on the Jaguars. Had a good week of practice and the guys are dialed in, ready to go. Questions?"

Q: What do you have set up in terms of curfew and team activities when you're down in Florida?

Coach Del Rio: "You're talking about next week?"

Q: Anytime you're down in Florida.

Coach Del Rio: "You're kind of getting into next week. (laughing) You know how coaches are, man. We like to stay in the here and now. The bottom line is, I'll just lay it out there so we don't have to worry about it. Since you're here, since you're here, not everybody else is working like you are, so I'm going to give it to you. (laughing) Next week, we will treat as normal as possible while we're down there. If we bed check them here, we'll bed check them there. All of the way we operate, how guys, what time they have, when we meet and how we meet and the material they get, when we feed them are going to remain as much on schedule as possible. We've worked really hard at it. The football ops, [football operations coordinator] Tom Jones and his group have done a great job of really overseeing, putting all of this together. It's similar to like going to training camp in what they have to do. They take down the computers and some of the things like that. There's a lot of work behind the scenes. [Equipment manager] Bob Romanski and his group in the equipment room, tremendous job making sure we have all that we need down there for a week. That's who has the real strain. For us, players and coaches, it's going to be very seamless. Basically football preparation as we know it, just doing it in a different environment."

Q: So it's not a nightmare for you?

Coach Del Rio: "It is for them, (laughing) but they're doing a great job. They've been on the details. That's what I ensure is happening. They're doing a great job for us."

Q: How did Latavius Murray respond to practice this week?

Coach Del Rio: "I thought he had a good week of practice. It was good to have him back."

Q: What about Menelik Watson?

Coach Del Rio: "Yeah, Menelik had a good week of practice. It's good to have those guys back out there."
