

OUR TEENS

OUR COMMUNITY

BALTIMORE RAVENS LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE

On Wednesday (8/14), Baltimore-area high school students kicked off their participation in the sixth year of the Baltimore Ravens High School Leadership Institute (BRLI). Students heard from representatives of Baltimore City and County schools, T. Rowe Price and the Ravens about the importance of leadership and the impact of the program.

Students also received remarks from WJZ co-host and Ravens Legend Qadry Ismail. Throughout the year, the 2024-2025 cohort of BRLI students will engage in sessions with the goals of developing leadership qualities through vital discussions with community, civic and business experts. Students will graduate from the BRLI program in Spring 2025.

Qadry Ismail

GIRLS' FLAG FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

On Friday (11/8), the Ravens hosted the 2024 Maryland High School Girls Flag Championship. The evening's events marked the end of the second-year initiative funded and supported by the Baltimore Ravens and Under Armour. The top eight teams in the high school flag league competed in a single-elimination tournament at M&T Bank Stadium.

Malik Harrison

A Friday night at "The Bank" prompted Ravens players OLB Tavius Robinson, ILB Trenton Simpson and LB Malik Harrison to cheer on and encourage all teams in attendance. Additionally, Ravens Legends Femi Ayanbadejo, Ray Rice and Terrance West served as honorary captains.

2024 Champions:
Clarksburg High School Coyotes