

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

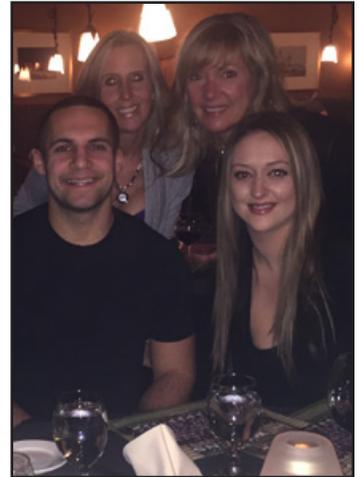

UNDER ARMOUR SHOE DISTRIBUTION

On Monday, Dec. 7, Ravens players S Matt Elam, ILB Zachary Orr and S Brynden Trawick (all pictured below) distributed Under Armour shoes to students of Francis Scott Key Elementary/Middle School. Earlier this year, the Ravens hosted these students at their fourth-annual Ravens TEAM Challenge at M&T Bank Stadium as part of the 2015 NFL/United Way Hometown Huddle. The students received these shoes as a reward for their ongoing dedication to the NFL's PLAY 60 initiative.

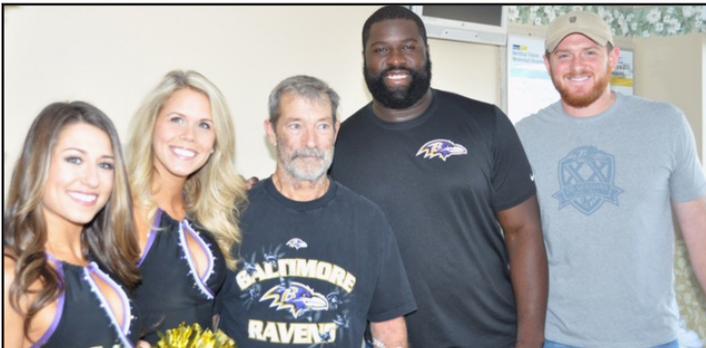

PURPLE DINNER PARTY

On Monday, Dec. 7, the Baltimore Ravens hosted their annual Purple Dinner Party at Café Troia in Towson, Md. Members of Purple, the official women's fan club of the Ravens, enjoyed a night that included dinner, wine, beer and free Ravens giveaways and Christmas items. Ravens players WR Michael Campanaro (pictured below right) and DE Kapron Lewis-Moore (pictured below left) were on hand throughout the evening to sign autographs, take photographs and mingle with attendees.

MEDSTAR HOSPITAL VISIT

On Monday, Dec. 7, Ravens players LS Morgan Cox (pictured below top right), DE Lawrence Guy and DE Kapron Lewis-Moore (pictured below) visited Union Memorial Hospital (Baltimore City). They were joined by cheerleaders and mascot Poe to help spread cheer and Ravens Christmas ornaments to patients who are unable to be home for the holiday season.

BALTIMORE BOOK DRIVE

On Monday, Dec. 7, Baltimore Ravens DE Chris Canty (pictured below) hosted The Baltimore Book Drive, in partnership with the Baltimore City Sheriff's Office. The Chris Canty Foundation is currently accepting book donations for children ages 4-11, as they continue to work to enhance the total development of youth in our communities through literacy education.

