RAVENS SUIT UP FOR HALLOWEEN PARTY

On Monday (10/31), Ravens K Billy Cundiff and T Michael Oher (bottom left) hosted the 12th Annual Goodwill Gridiron Halloween Party at Dave & Buster's at Arundel Mills Mall. The event, sponsored by the Baltimore Ravens, featured a costume contest and silent auction.

Several Ravens players, including LB Prescott Burgess, LS Morgan Cox, CB Danny Gorrer, DE Arthur Jones (right) and CB Lardarius Webb dressed up in their best Halloween costumes to meet and greet fans and pose for pictures. Partygoers had the opportunity to play video games, bowl, dance and participate in a costume contest.

The silent auction included Ravens autographed memorabilia, vacation getaways and golf outings. Proceeds from the party benefited Goodwill Industries of the Chesapeake, Inc. In 2010, Goodwill Industries of the Chesapeake provided training, employment and family support services to over 16,000 individuals with disabilities and other barriers to employment. Over the last 11 years, the partnership between Goodwill and the Ravens has raised more than $1 million.

ED REED FITNESS DAY

For the second consecutive year, Ravens S Ed Reed (above) hosted a fitness day for students at The SEED School of Maryland on Tuesday (11/1). Reed and Ravens teammates were on hand to teach students the importance of maintaining healthy lifestyles by demonstrating various drills and exercises they can do to improve their fitness.

The SEED School of Maryland is a statewide, college-preparatory, public boarding school. SEED presents deserving students from across the state with an extraordinary opportunity to receive a tuition-free education that prepares them for success in college and beyond.

PPK EVENT

The Baltimore Ravens joined Verizon Wireless in hosting a Punt, Pass and Kick event for students from Thomas Johnson Elementary School (Baltimore) Tuesday (11/1) at M&T Bank Stadium.

Close to 60 youth received commemorative t-shirts and took part in a competition featuring punting, passing and place-kicking skills. The group also enjoyed a catered dinner and a Ravens locker room visit, which was uniquely decorated for the students.

Ravens cheerleaders and official mascot Poe, in addition to Ravens front office staff and Verizon Wireless representatives, were on hand to encourage the youth at the special event.
