

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

SIP 'N PAINT

On Monday, Oct. 15, the Ravens kicked off their support of cancer awareness with their annual Sip 'N Paint event, which will lead into their Crucial Catch game, on Sunday, Oct. 21. While Crucial Catch recognizes survivors of all cancers, Sip 'N Paint specifically honors breast cancer survivors, those currently in treatment and the family and friends who support them. Participants included members of the Ravens Purple club, as well as those who are battling or have overcome breast cancer. Attendees were able to enjoy refreshments and hors d'oeuvres, followed by a Ravenized canvas painting session led by Trevino Paint (Pikesville, Md.). During the event, guests spent time with Ravens players CB Brandon Carr, TE Hayden Hurst (right), and LB Kenny Young, giving both the players and attendees an opportunity to share their stories and experiences.

USS MARYLAND

On Wednesday, Oct. 3, the Baltimore Ravens welcomed a special group of men to the Under Armour Performance Center. The Ravens hosted 10 crew members of the USS Maryland to celebrate Maryland Fleet Week, a span that celebrates maritime history, welcomes naval vessels from around the world and shows off historic planes during seven days of festivities in the Baltimore Harbor. During their visit, the crew was able to tour the facility, enjoy lunch and watch practice. At the end of practice, the crew had the opportunity to mix and mingle with both coaches and players, including QB Joe Flacco (bottom), head coach John Harbaugh (top left) and TE Hayden Hurst (bottom left). As a part of their Salute to Service campaign, the Ravens continue to honor and support the men and women who serve our country and our community year round.
