

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

FOOTBALL CAMPS AND CLINICS

This offseason Ravens players, coaches and staff continued to inspire local youth as they hosted numerous football clinics and camps throughout the summer. In June, members of the Ravens' coaching staff held their annual Ravens Football Clinic, presented by Under Armour, for more than 300 Harford County youth at the Fallston Recreation Complex in Fallston, Md. All participants received free t-shirts provided by Under Armour. Several Ravens players also took their turn at coaching by hosting their own youth football camps this summer, including WR Kamar Aiken (Hollywood, Fla.), ILB Josh Bynes, alongside former Raven Jameel McClain (Reisterstown), DE Kapron Lewis-Moore (Weatherford, Tx.) CB Jimmy Smith and CB Lardarius Webb (Towson).

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

Earlier this past May, the Ravens teamed up with Habitat for Humanity of the Chesapeake to unveil three brand new row homes funded by the Ravens Foundation, Inc. Ravens representatives, including president Dick Cass, K Justin Tucker and DT Brandon Williams, alongside Habitat Chesapeake CEO Mike Posko, helped celebrate with a ribbon-cutting ceremony in the Washington Village neighborhood of Baltimore, known to many as "Pigtown." The construction of these homes occurred over 11 months in an area where one-third of the residents live below the poverty line.

President Dick Cass, DT Brandon Williams and K Justin Tucker

BEACH BASH

Ravenstown took a road trip to Ocean City, Md., the first weekend in June as fans joined players, cheerleaders and mascot Poe in celebration of the third annual Ravens Beach Bash. FB Kyle Juszczyk and DE Kapron Lewis-Moore (both pictured left) joined S Brynden

Trawick and former Raven Gerrard Sheppard to participate in several activities over the course of the weekend, including karaoke at the Ravens Roost Convention and a parade down Coastal Highway. During the parade, players signed autographs and posed for pictures with fans.

WEBB'S CHARITY SOFTBALL GAME

Ravens CB Lardarius Webb hosted his foundation's fifth-annual Charity Softball Game at M&T Bank stadium this past June. Fans gathered to watch over 40 Ravens players compete in an offense vs. defense softball game. The event sold more than 12,000 tickets, with all of the proceeds benefitting the Lardarius Webb Foundation, which supports underprivileged Baltimore youth, specifically Boys and Girls Clubs throughout Maryland. Ravens participants included OLB Elvis Dumervil, S Matt Elam, QB Joe Flacco, WR Jacoby Jones, T Eugene Monroe, LB C.J. Mosley, WR Torrey Smith, and newly-acquired WR Steve Smith, Sr.

CB Lardarius Webb