

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

MY CAUSE MY CLEATS

In Week 14, Ravens players debuted their custom cleats, showcasing charities and causes dear to their hearts. Participating players included: OLB Tyus Bowser (kidney cancer), TE Nick Boyle (Show Your Soft Side), G/C Bradley Bozeman (Bradley and Nikki Bozeman Foundation), CB Brandon Carr (Carr Cares Foundation), QB Robert Griffin III (RG3 Foundation), TE Hayden Hurst (Hayden Hurst Family Foundation), DB/LB Anthony Levine Sr. (Anthony Levine 4Every1 Foundation), QB Trace McSorley (pediatric cancer), WR Willie Snead IV (Type 1 Diabetes) and T Ronnie Stanley (BARCS). Players will have the opportunity to raise money for their cause by auctioning off their cleats on NFL.com or through their own charity.

HIGH SCHOOL COACH OF THE YEAR

Justin Payne, varsity head football coach of the Parkville Knights, was named the 2019 Ravens High School Coach of the Year. Each week during the season, the Ravens honored a high school coach who made a significant impact on his student-athletes. As the 2019 Ravens COTY, Payne received a $4,000 donation toward Parkville's football program and a trip to attend the Pro Bowl in Orlando, FL., as the Baltimore Ravens' nominee for the Don Shula NFL High School Coach of the Year award.

RISE HALFTIME COMBINE

Throughout the season, the Baltimore Ravens, T. Rowe Price, the College Savings Plans of MD and Under Armour partnered to recognize outstanding local high school student-athletes. At halftime of each game, two area schools competed on the field at M&T Bank Stadium in an advanced relay race competition. Participating schools received tickets to the game and a $500 Under Armour gift card. The fastest team for the entire season won brand new Under Armour jerseys for its varsity team.
