

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

15TH ANNUAL HOLIDAY HELPERS

On Monday, Dec. 2, CB Brandon Carr and the Carr Cares Foundation hosted the 15th Annual Holiday Helpers held event at the Target in Owings Mills, MD. 60 high-achieving, underserved students were treated with a $200 shopping spree. Carr was joined by Ravens Cheerleaders, mascot Poe, a live DJ and 18 of his teammates for a fun night of shopping. Players and cheerleaders were paired with students to shop not just for themselves but also their friends and family. Prior to the surprise shopping spree, students received a pizza party, in addition to a Ravens Holiday Helpers gift bag.

HOSPITAL VISITS

On Monday, Dec. 12, ILB Otaru Alaka, ILB Chris Board, DT Daylon Mack, CB Iman Marshall, WR Chris Moore, QB Trace McSorley, G RJ Prince, WR Antoine Wesley, Ravens Cheerleaders and mascot Poe surprised hospital patients at Union Memorial Hospital. The Ravens continued the tradition of spreading cheer to patients who are unable to be home for the holidays. Players were able to alleviate some of the patients' stress and share in a few laughs through bonding and caroling.

