

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

TRAINING CAMP COMMUNITY GROUPS

The Ravens had the privilege of hosting numerous groups during their 2019 training camp. Daily, different Baltimore community youth groups were invited to join in the day's festivities. Those in attendance experienced the fun of training camp by watching practice, playing games in the fan zone, and most importantly, having the opportunity to take photos, get autographs and meet their favorite coaches and players. Some highlights for players included interacting with guests from the nonprofit organization Athletes Serving Athletes, which is dedicated to pairing children with disabilities alongside volunteer athletes to compete in races throughout the year. Other highlights included visitors from Big Brothers Big Sisters, Boys and Girls Club, Next One Up, Ronald McDonald House and Special Olympics. When these organizations visit training camp, the levels of excitement and joy are palpable, and it's almost impossible to see who is deriving the greatest amount of pleasure – the children or the Ravens themselves.

12TH ANNUAL MILITARY APPRECIATION DAY

On Aug 3rd, the Ravens welcomed active and retired men and women of the armed forces to an exciting day at training camp. More than 500 families attended the 12th annual Military Appreciation Day. The event has been a highlight for players and coaches since Head Coach John Harbaugh created the event when he first arrived in Baltimore. Justin Tucker and CB Brandon Carr thanked those in attendance before Coach Harbaugh surprised all fans by welcoming them onto the field to take pictures, get autographs and interact with the entire team. Coaches, players and staff used the day as an opportunity to thank those who serve and their families for their unlimited sacrifices and dedication to our country.
