

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

MARYLAND FOOD BANK

Ravens DT Brandon Williams, spokesman and ambassador for the Maryland Food Bank, stopped by the organization's Charles T. Bauer Community Kitchen for a special visit with students from its FoodWorks program. FoodWorks provides culinary training to low-income individuals who, over the course of 12 weeks, will learn cooking skills while producing healthy meals for those in need. Williams joined forces with the students in the kitchen to whip up traditional holiday dishes using perishable donations from local farms. While visiting, he also provided a monetary donation benefiting the Maryland Food Bank and those it serves.

MEDSTAR HOSPITAL VISIT

Ravens players, including S Matt Elam, DE Kapron Lewis-Moore, C Matt Skura and CB Shareece Wright joined Ravens cheerleaders and mascot Poe at Union Memorial Hospital, an extension of MedStar Health, the official medical partner of the Baltimore Ravens. The group continued its annual tradition of spreading cheer to patients and their families who are unable to be home for the holidays.

HOLIDAY PAWTY

On Saturday, Dec. 3, Ravens WR Chris Moore, DT Willie Henry and additional "Ravens Softies" participated in a public service campaign presented by Show Your Soft Side Inc., aiming to end animal abuse. Players posed for photos with pups at the Downtown Dog Resort for its Holiday Pawty. Families also had the opportunity to purchase family photos with their four-legged friends and the "Ravens Softies."

CELEBRITY BOWLING NIGHT

Ravens DB/LB Anthony Levine Sr. and RB Terrance West hosted the Eighth Annual Celebrity Bowling Night on Friday, Dec. 2, at the AMF Bowling Lanes in Timonium. Those attending were encouraged to bring toys to donate to the Terrance West B.W.I. Foundation and the United Way Adopt-A-Family Holiday Drive. Each organization serves needy families in Baltimore County and City. Tickets for the charity event were sold in advance and at the door. Attendees had the chance to eat, bowl and interact with a plethora of Ravens players at the family-friendly event.
