

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

PLAY 60 SUPER SCHOOL ASSEMBLY

Ravens players DE Chris Canty, S Matt Elam, WR Torrey Smith and DT Brandon Williams visited Federal Hill Preparatory School on Tuesday (12/3) to speak with students about the importance of good health. During the visit, they led the children in fitness activities as part of the NFL's PLAY 60 campaign, helping youth receive at least 60 minutes of exercise per day. On behalf of the NFL, the Ravens players presented the school with a $10,000 NFL PLAY 60 grant for health and wellness programming and/or equipment. Ravens players helped the students get 60 minutes of exercise during an NFL PLAY 60 Ultimate Fitness class.

Ravens Players, Cheerleaders and Poe with School Representatives

WR Torrey Smith

S Matt Elam

2013 COMMUNITY QUARTERBACK AWARD RECIPIENTS

The Baltimore Ravens and BGE selected four outstanding community volunteers as their 2013 Community Quarterback Award recipients. Supported by the Ravens Foundation and funded by BGE, the award recognizes individuals who exemplify dedication, leadership and commitment to improving the communities in which they live through volunteerism, with a focus on education, environment, community development and arts and culture. The four honorees were honored at M&T Bank Stadium on Sunday (12/8), when the Ravens hosted the Minnesota Vikings. Each Community Quarterback was awarded game tickets for themselves and a guest, Ravens apparel, autographed memorabilia, a commemorative plaque and a $3,000 financial grant benefitting their respective nonprofit organization. The 2013 Community Quarterback winners are Thomas Clavell (Sons of the American Legion – Post #200), Scott Kashnow (Franklin Square Community Association), Susie Oursler (Habitat for Humanity Susquehanna) and Jason Reed (Filbert Street Garden).

Community QB Winners with BGE Representatives