

OUR TEAM. OUR COMMUNITY.

CALAIS IN THE COMMUNITY

In his second year with the Ravens, 2019 Walter Payton Man of the Year and six-time Pro Bowler DE Calais Campbell has continually served as a leader, both on and off of the field.

Participating in several community events, including a green space restoration in a local neighborhood and a laptop giveaway for high school students in Baltimore City, Campbell has made his presence known as a leader in the Ravens organization and the Maryland community.

In addition to several community projects in Baltimore, Campbell garnered national recognition during the offseason after making a $30,000 donation to help his alma mater, South High School (Denver, CO), acquire new uniforms, signage and gym flooring after changing their mascot to the "Ravens."

T.RowePrice

HIGH SCHOOL LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE

For the third consecutive year, the Baltimore Ravens and T. Rowe Price have joined forces to present the Baltimore Ravens Leadership Institute (BRLI), a year-long leadership development program for Baltimore City and Baltimore County high school students.

Annually, the program consists of six events – a kickoff, four informative leadership sessions and a graduation/celebration. The four middle sessions are composed of speakers, instruction and collaborative learning focused around four themes: Lead Yourself, Lead Others, Lead Community and Lead Change.

During the kickoff event on 8/13, students were assigned to year-long teams named after Ravens Ring of Honor members, and they participated in team-building exercises to learn about effective communication and leadership.

HONOR ROWS

The Baltimore Ravens and the Governor's Office on Service and Volunteerism announced the recipients of the 21st Annual Honor Rows program, presented by M&T Bank. During each Ravens home game of the 2021 regular season, the program will honor 13 youth groups or organizations that provide outstanding volunteer service to their communities.

The winning groups will receive tickets to a game, Honor Rows t-shirts for all participants and in-game recognition on the RavensVision boards. In addition, WBAL-TV 11, the Ravens' official broadcast partner, will periodically feature Honor Rows recipients during on-air news segments.

On 9/19, the Baltimore Ravens recognized Weave (pictured) as the first Honor Rows group of the season during the home opener against the Kansas City Chiefs.

