

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

SEATS FOR SERVICE

The Baltimore Ravens continue their tradition of honoring our country's service members through this season's Seats for Service program. In conjunction with Northrop Grumman, the Ravens will honor a group including, but not limited to, representatives of the military, first responders, veterans and wounded warriors. The group will receive pre-game sideline passes and tickets to a home game in five specially designed seats. A sixth seat will remain empty to represent Prisoners of War (POW) or Missing in Action soldiers. In addition to these tickets, all honorees receive five tickets to the Military Bowl presented by Northrop Grumman in Annapolis (12/27).

HS COACH OF THE WEEK

Wednesday (9/10) marked the beginning of the Baltimore Ravens RISE High School Coach and Game of the Week initiative. Now in its 18th year, the program strives to honor a high school football coach each week who has made a significant impact on his student-athletes. This year's first recipient is varsity head football coach Brad Wilson of the Westminster Owls. All winners will receive on-field recognition at the Ravens-Jaguars game (12/14) along with a donation from the Ravens towards their school's football program. At the conclusion of the 2014 season, one coach will be named High School Coach of the Year.

BOOK DONATION

On Monday (9/8), DE DeAngelo Tyson and OLB Courtney Upshaw served as "Principals for a Day" at Moravia Park Elementary School (Baltimore). Tyson and Upshaw helped distribute over 500 Disney books to students in grades Pre-K - 2nd. Both players have partnered with Athletes for Charity and Forever Free Books in hopes to boost literacy skills among young students.
