

REMEMBERING A BALTIMORE INSPIRATION

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

This photo was taken by former Baltimore Orioles pitcher Zach Britton, on the night Mo passed away. The alluring orange and purple sky proved that Mo will always be in the hearts of the Baltimore community, as it represented his favorite teams: the Orioles and Ravens.

MO

Honored to share this special moment with Mo. He'll never know how many lives he touched. He will always have a special place in my heart. Rest In Peace Mo ❤️

In April of 2019, Mo Gaba made history, and stole the hearts of sports fans across the world, when he became the first person to ever announce an NFL draft pick in Braille. This momentous occasion created a bond between Gaba and the Ravens. In 2019, the Ravens welcomed Mo and his mother, Sony, to the Under Armour Performance Center to watch practice and meet the team. Additionally, Gaba served as an honorary captain for the team's 2019 Crucial Catch game. This past spring, the Ravens helped celebrate Gaba's 8th grade graduation with special appearances from mascot Poe, the Marching Ravens and G Bradley Bozeman. Days before he passed, Mo learned his legacy would be preserved forever alongside Ray Lewis, Ed Reed and Jonathan Ogden, as his Braille card is now displayed in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

"That voice, that giggle, that zest for just a moment... Being able to enjoy a moment, to make the most of it, it made you feel great to be in that moment with him [and] to share that moment with him when you were around him. To recognize what he dealt with every day, with the challenges that he had with his health, and to see that his spirit soared while his health failed him – that was a lesson for me. To me, it was a gift. I would say it was a gift from God." - Head Coach John Harbaugh on Mo Gaba

(Above) Passionate members of the Ravens Flock purchased nearly 600 "fan cutouts" of Mo to be displayed in "Mo's Rows" at home games this season. This section includes several different images of Mo from various Ravens events over the years.

(Left) For their Week 1 game, the Ravens honored Mo and his everlasting legacy by painting the 'MO' in the BALTIMORE-stenciled end zone gold. Mo's mom, Sony, also helped put the finishing touches on the gold "O."

WE LOVE YOU. WE MISS YOU. YOU WON'T BE FORGOTTEN.
