

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

BREAST CANCER AWARENESS VISIT

As part of the Ravens' Breast Cancer Awareness initiatives, Ravens players ILB Arthur Brown, ILB Daryl Smith, CB Jimmy Smith and WR Torrey Smith greeted patients and staff members at the Hoffberger Breast Center at Mercy Medical Center (Baltimore City) on Monday (10/13). The players signed autographs and gave out pink roses to patients currently undergoing breast cancer treatment, as well as several breast cancer survivors.

WR Torrey Smith, ILB Arthur Brown, CB Jimmy Smith, and ILB Daryl Smith

TEAM PURPLE WALK

In honor of Breast Cancer Awareness month, the Baltimore Ravens partnered with the American Cancer Society (ACS) through support of the nonprofit's Making Strides Against Breast Cancer event on Sunday (10/12). The event featured a non-competitive 5K in which Ravens fans joined Team Purple to raise money for American Cancer Society's breast cancer research initiatives. Ravens staff, along with official mascot Poe came out to show their support.

A PURPLE EVENING

WR Torrey Smith and RB Justin Forsett

On Monday (10/13), the Baltimore Ravens held their eighth-annual women's event, A Purple Evening, at M&T Bank Stadium. Over 4,000 predominately female fans attended the event. Some of the evening's highlights included on-field activities, Football 101 teaching sessions, fan forums, a live broadcast from 98Rock, and appearances from over 30 Ravens players, including RB Justin Forsett and WR Torrey Smith (pictured left). Attendees also had access to concessions, the Ravens Team Store and special offers and giveaways from Ravens partners.