

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

TORREY'S TURKEY DAY

On Tuesday (11/25), WR Torrey Smith visited the POWER House Community Center of the Living Classrooms (Baltimore City) and provided a Thanksgiving meal to 70 children and their families. The evening featured photo opportunities with Smith and activities such as bingo and Thanksgiving craft projects. The POWER House Community Center provides resources and programs to enhance academic achievement and graduation rates among Baltimore teens.

WR Torrey Smith

HELPING UP MISSION DINNER

For the eighth-consecutive year, former Ravens LB Bart Scott served a hot Thanksgiving meal to 350 men at the Helping Up Mission shelter (Baltimore City) on Tuesday (11/25). Scott was joined by former Ravens G Jeff Blackshear, DE Michael McCrary, K Matt Stover and S Bennie Thompson. The Helping Up Mission shelter provides long-term addiction services to men in Baltimore.

Ravens Alumni

TUCKER VISITS PAUL'S PLACE

On Tuesday (11/25), K Justin Tucker surprised the children of Paul's Place, Inc. (Baltimore City) when he greeted them during their After-Three program. This after-school program offers a safe and constructive environment for children to learn and play. Tucker participated in activities, served a Thanksgiving-themed snack to the children and read a story to all in attendance.

K Justin Tucker

WEBB'S TURKEY DISTRIBUTION

On Tuesday (11/25), CB Lardarius Webb, in partnership with United Way, held his fifth-annual Turkey Drive at the Webster Kendrick Boys and Girls Club (Baltimore City). Club members, along with their families, were invited to pick up a turkey and a box of pre-packaged Thanksgiving sides, donated by the Maryland Food Bank, for the holiday. Ravens players CB Danny Gorrer and CB Anthony Levine helped Webb distribute food and posed for pictures with families.

CB Anthony Levine, CB Danny Gorrer and CB Lardarius Webb