

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

SHOP WITH A JOCK

Ravens ILB Jameel McClain hosted his first-ever “Shop with a Jock” event on Tuesday (12/17). In an effort to celebrate the holidays, the event allowed 16 children from the Baltimore community an opportunity to shop with McClain at the Dick’s Sporting Goods store in Hunt Valley. Children were preselected by The Salvation Army for the event.

ILB Jameel McClain

FOOD DISTRIBUTION

QB Tyrod Taylor visited the Harry & Jeanette Weinberg Family Center YMCA on Tuesday (12/17) to distribute holiday dinner baskets to 150 Baltimore-area families in need. The Ravens partnered with Giant Food, the official supermarket partner of the Baltimore Ravens, to provide dinner baskets that included a turkey and various side dishes.

QB Tyrod Taylor

MILES VISITS YOUTH

On Tuesday (12/17), S Jeromy Miles spoke to youth from the Maryland Department of Juvenile Services at the Baltimore City Juvenile Justice Center (BCJJC). Miles explained his background and his journey to the NFL and answered questions from those individuals in attendance. Each attendee received a Ravens t-shirt and an autographed team photo.

S Jeromy Miles

SMITH HOLIDAY DONATION

Ravens CB Jimmy Smith purchased and delivered gifts, a tree and décor for a family in need on Friday (12/20). With the help of The Salvation Army of Central Maryland, Smith was able to ensure that this family would have everything it needs to appropriately celebrate this holiday season.

CB Jimmy Smith