

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

BCA GAME

The Baltimore Ravens promoted Breast Cancer Awareness month through a variety of initiatives. Beginning Sunday (10/14), Ravens staff, family members and volunteers distributed over 50,000 pink ribbons to fans as they entered stadium gates for the Ravens-Cowboys game. Prior to the game's kickoff, 25 women, a combination of breast cancer survivors and those currently undergoing treatment, were honored during an on-field ceremonial tribute.

During the game, Ravens players and coaches incorporated many pink elements into their uniforms, including cleats, gloves, wristbands, jerseys, Gatorade towels and more. Ravens cheerleaders used pink pom-poms and members of Baltimore's Marching Ravens wore pink plumes.

HOSPITAL VISIT

In an effort to further support Breast Cancer Awareness, Ravens QB Joe Flacco, QB Tyrod Taylor and QB Dennis Dixon visited cancer patients at MedStar Franklin Square Medical Center on Tuesday (10/16). Dixon, who lost his mother to breast cancer, knows the importance of awareness and is a huge supporter of this initiative. The three players visited patients in the Harry and Jeanette Weinberg Cancer Institute and the inpatient oncology unit. While visiting, the players took photographs with patients and distributed pink Ravens hats and footballs.

HOMETOWN HUDDLE: RAVENS TEAM CHALLENGE

The Baltimore Ravens hosted their first-ever Ravens TEAM Challenge at M&T Bank Stadium on Tuesday (10/16) as part of the 2012 NFL/United Way Hometown Huddle. Approximately 100 local youth tested their physical endurance and ability to work as a team in order to complete various activities.

Fourth grade students from Baltimore's Dogwood Elementary School participated in challenges such as kickball, handball, capture the flag and an on-field obstacle course. The Ravens TEAM Challenge integrated educational programming and PLAY 60 physical activities while focusing on three values: fitness, sportsmanship and academics.

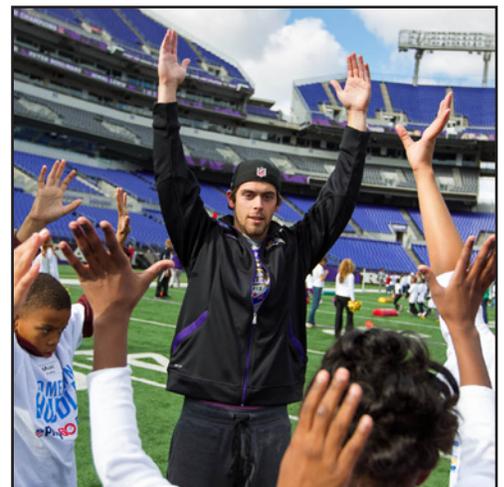

Joining the children were volunteers from the United Way, M&T Bank, Under Armour and the Baltimore Ravens. Alongside these volunteers were mascot Poe, Ravens cheerleaders and players RB Anthony Allen, CB Chykie Brown, LB Josh Bynes, WR Tandon Doss, G/C Gino Gradkowski, SS James Ihedigbo, CB/RS Asa Jackson, WR/RS Jacoby Jones, LB Albert McClellan, RB Bernard Pierce, WR Torrey Smith, S Christian Thompson and K Justin Tucker.
