

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

THREAD GAMEDAY CONVERSATIONS

On Sunday, Nov. 11, while the team played at Cincinnati to take on the Bengals, the Ravens partnered with Baltimore-based organization Thread to facilitate "Gameday Conversations." This annual initiative involves citywide Ravens watch parties to encourage conversations about issues that impact Baltimore. Watch parties take place at corporations, hospitals, religious institutions, restaurants and community organizations around Baltimore. The Ravens personally welcomed 200 community members to the Under Armour Performance Center for a one-of-a-kind watch party in the team's auditorium. Thread has established an incredible reputation of uniting community members through relationships to overcome boundaries and stereotypes of difference through race, religion, education, socio-economic status and zip code.

BRANDON CARR SUPPORTS BREAST CANCER PATIENTS

On Nov. 4, Brandon Carr partnered with Bundles for Hope and hosted eight breast cancer patients at the Under Armour Performance Center for a full makeover and custom wig distribution. To continue to honor his late mother Kathy, Brandon gave these women a break from their treatment schedules for a day of relaxation and pampering. Teammates S Chuck Clark and DB/LB Anthony Levine Sr. joined Carr to help remind the women that they are not alone in their battle and have plenty of people in their corner supporting them.
