

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

16TH ANNUAL RAVENS COAT GIVEAWAY

On Nov. 18, the Baltimore Ravens hosted their 16th annual Coat Giveaway at the Helping Up Mission addiction and homeless treatment center in Baltimore City. Head Coach John Harbaugh along with T Orlando Brown Jr., LS Morgan Cox, OLB Matthew Judon, DB/LB Anthony Levine Sr., K Justin Tucker and G Marshal Yanda all participated in the impactful morning. Coach Harbaugh addressed the 250 men in attendance, preaching the importance of faith and determination. After a few trivia questions, Ravens players passed out new winter coats, gloves, hats and more.

ORLANDO BROWN JR. DAY AT POT SPRINGS ELEMENTARY

On Monday, Dec. 2, T Orlando Brown Jr. visited his alma mater, Pot Springs Elementary in Lutherville, MD, to discuss the importance of education, leadership and integrity as a student. Throughout the morning, he welcomed students, conducted morning announcements, read to the student body and ate lunch with kindergardeners. The exciting day was an opportunity for Brown to interact with his former teachers and administrators, as the school honored their proud alum.

