RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

GIANT FOOD DISTRIBUTION

On Monday, Dec. 19, Ravens players visited the Harry and Jeanette Weinberg Family Center YMCA to distribute holiday dinner baskets to 150 pre-registered Baltimore-area families in need. The Ravens partnered with Giant Food, the official supermarket of the Baltimore Ravens, to provide dinner baskets that included a turkey, canned goods and non-perishable side dishes. Ravens RB Javorius Allen, DE Kapron Lewis-Moore and RB Terrance West were in attendance to give the gift of a meal this holiday season. The annual event helps feed those who may not have the means to feed their families during the holiday season.

WEBB TOY DISTRIBUTION

Ravens DB/RS Lardarius Webb hosted his seventh-annual toy drive on Monday, Dec. 19 at the Webster Kendrick Boys & Girls Club. Through the Lardarius Webb Foundation, approximately 250 children received gifts for the holidays. Webb spoke to the youth about the importance of giving back, and each individual was given a hand-picked present. Webb adopted the Webster Kendrick Boys and Girls Club and hosts multiple events there throughout the year.

BIG BENEFIT

Ravens TE Benjamin Watson hosted his 12th Annual Big BENefit Shopping event on Monday, Dec. 19 at the Walmart on Liberty Road (Randallstown, Md.). Watson and his One More Foundation surprised 25 families from Building Families for Children with a Christmas shopping extravaganza. Many of these families have fallen on hard times and needed a little assistance around the holidays.

ADOPT A FAMILY

Ravens WR Kamar Aiken and CB Jimmy Smith adopted families through the United Way this holiday season. These players took it upon themselves to purchase presents for parents and children from Baltimore City and County. The grateful families were carefully selected based on need and circumstances. This year, personal deliveries were made possible through the agencies, giving the family members an opportunity to meet the players who chose to show some holiday spirit and give back to those in need.
