Grange Elementary Named NFL Play 60 Super School

Grange Elementary School (Dundalk, Md.) was selected out of 150 entries to be honored as the Baltimore-area NFL Play 60 Super School. On Tuesday (12/7), about 400 students gathered at an assembly where the NFL presented the school with a $10,000 NFL Play 60 grant for health and wellness programming and equipment. Also, the Ravens Cheerleaders joined teachers to host the Ultimate Physical Education Class, utilizing equipment donated by the NFL for the school's physical education department.

Cox Shares a Story

On Tuesday (12/7), Ravens LS Morgan Cox joined New Town Elementary School (Owings Mills, Md.) for the school's annual book fair and reading night. Cox hosted a reading station at the event. Nearly 150 students in kindergarten through fifth grade rotated through Cox's station. Cox read The Adventures of Sparrowboy, followed by a brief Q & A for each group of students.

Wilson Attends Community Sports Night

On Tuesday (12/7), Ravens CB Josh Wilson was the featured guest at the Temple Emanuel Synagogue (Reisterstown, Md.) community's sports night. Wilson shared lessons learned from his life on and off the football field with the 100 youth and parents in attendance.

The Hyattsville native, DeMatha High School graduate, and former Maryland Terrapin, also expressed his appreciation for returning home to Maryland. The evening concluded with a Q & A.

Ray Lewis Holiday Gift Giveaway

Ravens LB Ray Lewis hosted his annual holiday gift giveaway on Tuesday (12/7). Through a partnership with the Port Covington Walmart store (Baltimore, Md.), the Ray Lewis Foundation invited 150 underprivileged students from Abbottston Elementary, Bluford Drew Jemison STEM Academy West, Fort Worthington Elementary, Lakewood Elementary and Samuel Coleridge-Taylor Elementary.

Lewis assisted the children as each selected one gift for themselves and one for a family member. Walmart associates and Ray Lewis Foundation volunteers were on hand to wrap the newly-acquired gifts. In addition, each child's family received a turkey for holiday dinner.
