

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

RAVENS CAW TO ACTION - HUDDLE FOR 100

On Monday, Sept. 23, the Ravens hosted their “Huddle For 100” community day of service. Over 25,000 people throughout the Baltimore area answered the “Caw to Action” and dedicated over 100 minutes to help reach over 3.3 million minutes of combined service throughout the day. Nearly 40 players, spent their day volunteering at more than 50 charitable organizations ranging from organizing the Maryland Book Bank to reading to kids at local Elementary schools to painting a food pantry at the City of Refuge Baltimore. At the conclusion of each event, Ravens players presented one lucky fan with tickets to the Oct. 13 game vs the Cincinnati Bengals. The day was capped off with a live TV announcement where DT Brandon Williams and DE Chris Wormley presented an outstanding volunteer with a paid trip to Super Bowl LIV.

