

OUR TEAM. OUR COMMUNITY.

Ozzie Newsome Scholars Program

Baltimore Ravens owner Steve Bisciotti and his wife, Renee, have honored Ozzie Newsome by making a $4 million gift in his name to Maryland's Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs).

Through The Stephen and Renee Bisciotti Foundation, the $4 million donation will create the Ozzie Newsome Scholars Program, which will fund scholarships for Baltimore City Public Schools graduates who attend an HBCU in Maryland.

A gift of $1 million will be presented to each of Maryland's four HBCUs: Bowie State University, Coppin State University, Morgan State University and the University of Maryland Eastern Shore.

"Throughout his entire life, Ozzie has inspired and uplifted everyone around him with his leadership, humility and determination. We hope that Ozzie's example will inspire each of the Newsome scholars."
- Ravens Owner Steve Bisciotti

LATINX
HERITAGE MONTH

Prior to the 10/17 game against the Chargers, the Ravens recognized Parkville High School student Cesar Romero as the 2021 Ravens Latinx Heritage Month Youth Honoree.

Originally from El Salvador, Romero has been identified by teachers and coaches as a leader in the classroom and on the field.

POR LA CULTURA

EN ESPAÑOL

Latinx communities have made their mark on the sport of football on and off the field. Like the Latinx community, the NFL is devoted to achieving excellence and cultivating diversity. The NFL will always celebrate stories that elevate Latinx culture, inspire and propel youth towards their dreams, and build a unified path to greatness through sport.

Click the logos above to follow the NFL in español on Instagram and Twitter!