

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

SCHOOL SUPPLY DISTRIBUTION

On Wednesday, Sept. 2, former Ravens DE Michael McCrary (pictured bottom left) joined members of the Ravens Foundation's All Community Team (ACT), sponsored by M&T Bank, to distribute 360 backpacks full of school supplies to students at Westport Academy Elementary and Middle School (Baltimore City). ACT is a partnership among the Ravens organization, players and members of the corporate community. These donations equipped the entire student body with the necessary tools to prepare the children for the upcoming school year. Members of ACT were also joined by cheerleaders and mascot Poe to help get the students excited for their return to school.

HONOR ROWS

Throughout the 2015 regular season, the Baltimore Ravens, the Governor's Office on Service and Volunteerism and M&T Bank will continue to honor local youth-led service organizations through the Ravens' annual Honor Rows program. During each home contest, a different group of Maryland youth will receive up to 100 tickets to the game, Honor Rows t-shirts and pre-game sideline passes. Groups will also receive in-game official recognition on the RavensVision board. In order to be selected for the program, organizations must demonstrate a strong commitment to servicing the needs of the local community.

HOMETOWN HERO

The Baltimore Ravens and Dietz & Watson have partnered again for the 2015 season to honor current and veteran service members at every Ravens home game. Winners are selected from nominations submitted on their behalf by family members, friends and colleagues. Each winner is awarded tickets to the game, pre-game passes to watch the Ravens warm up from the sidelines and the opportunity to deliver the game ball to the NFL referee before kickoff. Nominations will continue to be accepted throughout the regular season. To submit a nomination for a former or current service member, please visit www.baltimoreravens.com/hometownhero.

