

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

PLAYER HOLIDAY INITIATIVES

Throughout the week of Dec. 16, several players, including LB Josh Byrnes, S Tony Jefferson, DB/LB Anthony Levine Sr., WR Willie Snead IV and T Ronnie Stanley, as well as Ravens Legends Ed Reed and Bart Scott, hosted holiday initiatives. Events ranged from several "Shop with a Jock" shopping sprees to bike giveaways and more. The initiatives allowed players to continue to enjoy their holiday season alongside some of Baltimore's most underserved and deserving youth.

COMMUNITY QUARTERBACK AWARD

On Sunday, Dec. 1, prior to kickoff of the San Francisco game, the Ravens and T. Rowe Price honored some of Maryland's most outstanding volunteers. The award honors individuals who exhibit leadership, dedication and commitment to bettering their local communities. Each winner received complimentary tickets to the game, a personalized Ravens jersey, a commemorative award from T. Rowe Price and a $2,500 grant to help aid their respective nonprofit organization. This year's 2019 Community Quarterback class includes: Ed Benesch (Fallston Volunteer Fire & Ambulance Company), Robert Cradle (Rob's Barbershop Community Foundation), Wayman Hicks (Adopt-A-Block, Inc), Carol Shutt (Casey Cares Foundation) and Michael West (Good Knight Child Empowerment Network, Inc.).
