

Volume 7
Number 14

COMMUNITY NEWS

November 16, 2010

Ravens All Community Team Auction Party

The Ravens hosted the 10th annual All Community Team (ACT) Auction Party at M&T Bank Stadium on Monday (11/15). The sold-out event opened the stadium's North Club Level to more than 500 guests. The evening raised money through a silent auction, live auction and raffle.

The All Community Team consists of title sponsor M&T Bank and other Baltimore corporations that provide financial and volunteer support to many Ravens service projects. Proceeds from the ACT Auction Party benefit the Ravens' charitable arm, the Ravens All Community Team Foundation. The foundation is committed to improving, encouraging and enabling the healthy development of youth in the Baltimore area, as well as other parts of the state of Maryland, through programs that focus on various needs, including housing, hunger, education, athletics and mentoring.

Ravens players who have a foundation attended the event, mingled with guests and assisted with the live auction. Players with foundations include Matt Birk, Anquan Boldin, Marc Bulger, Domonique Foxworth, Ben Grubbs (left), Todd Heap, T.J. Houshmandzadeh, Ray Lewis, Derrick Mason, Willis McGahee, Brandon McKinney, Ed Reed, Ray Rice and Tom Zbikowski. For more information on the players' foundations, visit www.baltimoreravens.com/Community.

Cheerleaders Build Relationship With Ronald McDonald House

The Baltimore Ravens Cheerleaders chose to focus their community outreach for the 2010 season on developing a relationship with the Ronald McDonald House (RMH) in Baltimore. The cheerleaders volunteer at RMH twice a month to host activity nights for the residents and their families. On Monday (11/8), nearly a dozen cheerleaders visited RMH to do arts and crafts and play board games with the youth.

Matt Birk & Friends Auction and Awareness Evening

On Monday (11/8), C Matt Birk hosted the Matt Birk & Friends Auction and Awareness Evening at the American Visionary Art Museum (Baltimore, Md.).

Proceeds from the night's silent and live auction benefit Matt Birk's HIKE Foundation. The mission of the HIKE Foundation is to provide at-risk Baltimore-area children with interactive programs and resources needed to guide youth through the key educational transitions between elementary, middle, high school and college. Ravens G Ben Grubbs (above, at right) and T Michael Oher (above, at left) joined Birk in entertaining guests.

For more information on Ravens in our Community, please call 410-701-4000 or visit www.BaltimoreRavens.com/community.