

RAVENS OFFSEASON IN THE COMMUNITY

On Wednesday, June 5, the Baltimore Ravens, in partnership with the Heart of America Foundation, hosted an organization-wide volunteer day to transform The Historic Samuel Coleridge-Taylor Elementary School #122.

Ravens players, including Brandon Stephens and Ar'Darius Washington, helped assemble bikes for students!

SIGNATURE PROJECT

Close to 200 Ravens players, staff and executives helped refurbish the school's gym, classrooms, hallways, playground and outdoor courtyard. The community center, recently re-dedicated to civic leader Theresa Marshburn also received some extra love as Ravens players and staff painted a mural to be displayed.
