

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

On Tuesday (9/24), the Baltimore Ravens, including players C Gino Gradkowski, S James Ihedigbo, FB Vonta Leach, WR Torrey Smith, QB Tyrod Taylor and DT Brandon Williams, joined Habitat for Humanity of the Chesapeake for a build day at the construction site of 18 new rowhomes, including three funded by the Ravens All Community Team Foundation. This marked the third time that the Ravens have lent a helping hand for this project, in an effort to further improve the community surrounding M&T Bank Stadium.

S James Ihedigbo

FB Vonta Leach

Ravens Players and Habitat Staff

HISPANIC HERITAGE LEADER

To celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month, the Ravens honored Dr. Elizabeth Molina Morgan (below) as the 2013 NFL Hispanic Heritage Leader at their home game against the Houston Texans (9/22). Dr. Morgan has spent more than 30 years working in all facets of public education. She was the superintendent of Washington County (Maryland) Schools for nearly a decade and led the district to increase its graduation rate by 14 percent. She also recently received the Hispanic Heritage Foundation's "Educator of the Year" Award.

SPECIAL GUESTS

Occasionally, the Baltimore Ravens will host special groups out to the Under Armour Performance Center for practice. Last week, the team hosted a group of nuns, staff and a very special resident from the Little Sisters of the Poor - St. Martin's Home, a nursing home in Catonsville, Md. Marie Cusick, a long-time resident of the home, was approaching her 100th birthday, and to celebrate, she watched practice and met Ravens coaches and players, including WR Torrey Smith, pictured below.

