

T.RowePrice

COMMUNITY QUARTERBACK ★ AWARD ★

Through the annual Community Quarterback Award, the Baltimore Ravens have teamed up with T. Rowe Price and the National Football League to honor exceptional Maryland volunteers who devote their time to strengthening our communities.

Supported by the Ravens Foundation, Inc., T. Rowe Price and the NFL Foundation, the award recognizes individuals who exemplify leadership, dedication and commitment to improving the communities in which they live.

This year, there were 171 applicants and five overall winners. The five winners will be awarded Ravens apparel and a financial grant benefiting their respective nonprofit organization. Additionally, each winner will be honored on field prior to the Jan. 1 Ravens - Steelers game.

The 2022 Community Quarterback Winners

Alejandra Ivanovich
Amigos of Baltimore County

Jahlik Mathis
Police and Sneaks, Inc.

Kelly Ryan
Love in the Trenches

Laure Ruth
Women's Law Center of Maryland

Lonnie Walker
J.O.Y. Baltimore

