

YOUR OFFICIAL PSL OWNER REWARDS RECAP

The holiday season has finally come – which means it's time to deck the halls, mix up your favorite seasonal drinks, and bundle up for some "football weather"! To close out November, the Ravens pulled out a couple emotional, yet exhilarating, and much needed wins over the Bears and Browns to maintain a strong position for the postseason and prepare us for some meaningful games in December.

Speaking of exhilarating, November was another exciting month for PSL Owner Rewards and in this month's newsletter we will recap a familiar prize pack, some new additions, and hear from some lucky traveling winners!

CELEBRATING THE PURPLE LADIES

The Ladies of the Flock Prize Pack Has Returned...

This month's PSL Owner Rewards fun started when 50 lucky female PSL Owners were surprised with a Ravens "Ladies of the Flock" prize pack. It's a prize pack that was first introduced in 2019 and we received tremendous positive feedback, so we brought it back! This year's prize pack included a t-shirt, wallet, necklace, scarf and a very cozy knit beanie.

Check out Krista Kaiser, Section 129 from Mount Airy, MD in some of her new gear.

HONORING THOSE WHO HAVE SERVED OUR COUNTRY

A special thank you to active-duty and veteran military PSL Owners...

The month of November is special across the NFL with an annual Salute to Service initiative that acknowledges the contribution of our military members and the Ravens honored veterans and active-duty military members at the Ravens-Vikings game on November 7th. Continuing the tribute, we surprised 30 PSL Owners who have served or currently still serve in the military with a special Ravens "Salute to Service" prize pack which included a Ravens military hat, pin, camo flag, mini helmet and fatigue koozie.

Our winners served in the following branches:

PFC Timothy Radawiec, Section 141 from Baltimore, MD, served in the United States

Army (8)

Navy (8)
Air Force (11)
Marine Corps (3)

Special thank you for your service and efforts!

Army from 2002-2005 and shared a bit of his story...

"I was stationed in Dexheim, Germany with the 123rd Main Support Battalion. I spent 15 months in Iraq stationed at Camp Dogwood and Baghdad International Airport where I spent much of my time on convoy security running supplies to different bases across the region. While I was away my family sent articles from the Baltimore Sun all about the Ravens and whenever the games aired, I watched them play on Armed Forces Network!"

LETTING YOU DECIDE!...

100 winners given the chance to pick their own prize...

Throughout the year, PSL Rewards sends out hundreds of prize packs to winners and typically the contents are predetermined with the luck of the draw. This time around, we decided to turn the tables a little with a Ravens "Choice Pack" opportunity where winners could choose from one of four options:

Option 1: Cold Weather Package

(gloves, knit hat, and a koozie)

Option 3: Tailgate Package

(party platter, mini car flags and car magnets)

Option 2: Signature Team Football

Option 4: Hall of Fame Package

(HOF memorabilia in honor of Ed Reed, Ray Lewis and Jonathan Ogden)

Out of the four options, can you guess which ones were the most popular?? Here's a hint, temperatures have dropped, and their numbers will live on in Ravens history forever.

RAVENS PSL OWNERS IN "ENEMY" TERRITORY x 2

Select winners awarded road game tickets...

Our November schedule got back to some normalcy with two road games after that unusual stretch of four consecutive home-games in October. When the Ravens visited the Dolphins in Miami on November 11th, five lucky PSL Owners received a pair of tickets each to represent the Ravens in Hard Rock Stadium!

Cole Natterman, Section 544 from Baltimore, MD and his father Mark Natterman were amongst the group and shared these photos as they described what a wonderful time they had between the Florida sun and primetime Thursday night matchup, despite the disappointing outcome.

From sunny Florida we went to windy Chicago for a matchup with the Bears on Sunday, November 21st.

Newlyweds Delvin Owens and Chris Townley, Section 109 from Odenton, MD, made the trip and, after getting married just last month, they continued the celebration in Chicago.

We checked back in with the couple after an exciting win and they gave us the low down on their fun weekend reporting:

"Thank you for choosing us for this awesome experience and allowing us to see that great game in person. This was extra special to us because we just got married last month on the 16th so this was basically our wedding present from the Baltimore Ravens. The trip was awesome, we truly enjoyed every bit of it (the food was amazing). It was awesome experiencing the beginning of Christmas in Chicago while watching the Ravens pull off that awesome game winning drive. It was super cool to represent Ravens Flock at an away game and get a crazy win in enemy territory."

Congratulations to all of our fabulous winners this month. Stay tuned for how PSL Rewards wraps up 2021 with more surprises.

Sincerely,

Raven Jones
