

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

THANKSGIVING EVENTS

Kicking off this holiday season, Ravens players were in the Baltimore community on Friday (11/16) and Tuesday (11/20) to extend a helping hand to families in need.

The Ray Lewis Family Foundation hosted its annual distribution of Thanksgiving baskets at REACH! Partnership, a secondary Baltimore City public school. LB Jameel McClain partnered with The Salvation Army to help kick off its Red Kettle Campaign and hosted his third annual Salvation Army Thanksgiving event “53 Families.” S Ed Reed distributed Thanksgiving meals with all the fixings to families of the SEED School and Booker T. Washington Middle School. RB Ray Rice served lunch to homeless men and women at Our Daily Bread and also led the seventh annual Holiday Dinner at the Helping Up Mission men’s shelter. CB Lardarius Webb distributed Thanksgiving baskets to 400 Baltimore-area, single-parent families at the Webster Kendrick Boys & Girls Club. Additionally, WR LaQuan Williams hosted “The Need To Feed” at the Downtown Cultural Center, where dinner was distributed to homeless members of the Baltimore community.

S Ed Reed

RB Ray Rice

LB Jameel McClain and LB Brendon Ayanbadejo

WR Anquan Boldin

FIELD OPENING CEREMONY

K Justin Tucker

On Tuesday (11/20), the Ravens joined the Living Classrooms Foundation, the Baltimore City Public School System (BCPSS), local agencies and community and corporate partners to celebrate the grand opening of the Patterson Park Youth Sports and Education Center.

Students and families were invited to the newly-constructed 5,000 square-foot facility for an opening ceremony, followed by activities with local professional athletes from the Baltimore Blast, Orioles, Bayhawks and Ravens. WR Torrey Smith and K Justin Tucker were in attendance to record the first touchdown and first field goal on the new field.

WR Torrey Smith