

On Dec. 5, at the Target in Owings Mills, the Baltimore Ravens and DE Calais Campbell hosted the 17th annual Holiday Helpers event funded by the Charles Richard Campbell Foundation. Campbell was joined by 28 teammates, including S Chuck Clark, IL Roquan Smith and T Ronnie Stanley, to serve as personal shopping assistants for 60 pre-selected fourth- and fifth-graders from Bridges and the Police Athletic League. Adding to the entertainment, Ravens cheerleaders and mascot Allan were in attendance to support the shopping experience, as well as a live DJ, photo booth and Santa and Mrs. Claus.

In addition to the shopping spree, the children received a pizza party donated by Papa Johns, cake, a Holiday Helpers T-shirt and gift bag of Ravens goodies.

Helping Up Mission Coat Drive

On Nov. 28, the Baltimore Ravens hosted their 19th annual Ravens Coat Giveaway at the Helping Up Mission shelter. Several Ravens players, including QB Lamar Jackson and K Justin Tucker, distributed coats and cold weather gear to Baltimore community members in need.

