

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

HOLIDAY HELPERS

Funded by the Carr Cares Foundation, Ravens CB Brandon Carr (right) hosted the Ravens 14th Annual Holiday Helpers event on Dec. 10 at the Owings Mills Target. Joined by his teammates, the players served as personal shoppers for deserving Baltimore City students. In addition, Ravens cheerleaders, Poe and a live DJ were there to help with shopping and entertainment. On top of the shopping spree, the children received a pre-shopping pizza party, donated by Papa John's, cake and a Holiday Helpers t-shirt and gift bag, including items from the Ravens and Target. Players who attended the event included WR John Brown, TE Nick Boyle, S Chuck Clark, LS Morgan Cox, CB Marlon Humphrey (bottom center), S Tony Jefferson (bottom left), OLB Matthew Judon, WR Chris Moore, ILB Patrick Onwuasor, G Matt Skura, S Eric Weddle and DE Chris Wormley.

BRANDON CARR – EVERFI

On Monday, Dec. 10, Ravens CB Brandon Carr and the Carr Cares Foundation teamed up with EVERFI Inc. to present the Healthier Me – Wellness Fundamentals program to Glenmount Elementary school students. Carr spent the morning teaching students the importance of maintaining a healthy lifestyle, physical activity and his vision for the Healthier Me program. The program will serve as an integral part of the Carr Cares Foundation. EVERFI Inc.'s Healthier Me is an innovative, games-based digital course that educates elementary school students about the importance of well-balanced meals and physical activity. The program is built to help prepare them to make healthy informed decisions when it comes to nutrition and fitness. Carr also surprised the school's principal with two tickets to Super Bowl LIII in Feb. 2019.

SAMARITAN'S FEET

On Dec. 10, the Ravens participated in a Shoes of Hope distribution with Samaritan's Feet and student-athletes from Dunbar High School. Hosted at Collington Square Elementary/Middle school, players and volunteers spent their morning with the students, washing their feet and surprising them with new shoes. Shoes of Hope is a shoe distribution initiative run by Samaritan's Feet. Samaritan's Feet hopes that by providing children with shoes, they will be the foundation of a spiritual and healthy life, which will result in the advancement of their education and economic opportunities. Players in attendance included LB Chris Board, LS Morgan Cox, OLB Matthew Judon, DB/LB Anthony Levine Sr., RB/WR Ty Montgomery (below), DT Michael Pierce, DT Zach Seiler, T Greg Senat, S Eric Weddle and LB Kenny Young.
