

HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL SHOWDOWN

The Baltimore Ravens and the Baltimore Sun hosted another successful season of the Ravens RISE High School Football Showdown. Over the course of this year's campaign, current Ravens players, including CB Marlon Humphrey, DT Justin Madubiuke and OLB Odafe Oweh, joined cheerleaders, members of the Marching Ravens and more to paint the town purple. Ravens players gave each team a pre-game pep talk, administered the coin toss and interacted with fans in the student section. As part of the Purple Rising campaign, Ravens players also recognized female student-athletes at each school. In addition, each participating school's athletic department received a $1,500 donation from the Ravens.

New this season, the Ravens live-streamed each Showdown on the team's YouTube channel so fans could see all Showdown action there. Additionally, a Showdown Play and Player of the Year will be recognized at the Ravens vs. Atlanta Falcons game on Dec. 24.

The series began at Calvert Hall College on Sep. 23 and ended with the historic Baltimore City College and Baltimore Polytechnic Institute rivalry, the City-Poly game, on Oct. 28.

CB Damarion "Pepe" Williams
at Calvert Hall College

CB Marlon Humphrey and S Geno Stone
at Glenelg High School

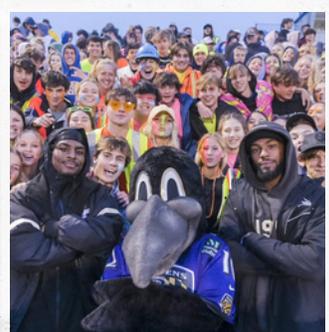

NT Isaiah Mack
at Franklin High School

OLB Odafe Oweh
at Franklin High School

LB Malik Harrison and DT Justin Madubiuke
at Baltimore Polytechnic Institute

WR Rashod Bateman and WR James Proche II at South River High School

LB Malik Harrison and DT Justin Madubiuke
at Baltimore Polytechnic Institute

S Geno Stone
at Glenelg High School

