

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

RAVENS BOOKMOBILE

The Baltimore Ravens unveiled their first-ever Bookmobile at Abbottston Elementary School in Baltimore City on Sept. 12. The rolling library is fully funded by the Ravens Foundation, Inc. and will be owned and operated by the Maryland Book Bank, a nonprofit organization that distributes free children's books to students, teachers and schools throughout Maryland. Ravens president Dick Cass was joined by QB Joe Flacco (pictured left), WR Steve Smith Sr. (pictured center right) and DT Brandon Williams (pictured bottom right) to help launch the program that will impact thousands of Baltimore-area students. The Ravens' commitment to literacy continues with the release of their new children's book, "Poe's Road Trip to Ravens Gameday." The book follows Poe's journey throughout the week as he visits various Maryland landmarks leading up to gameday at M&T Bank Stadium. Written by Poe, the book will be distributed for free on the Bookmobile to the students it serves. Also, books can also be purchased at the Ravens team store at M&T Bank Stadium.

COMMUNITY SHOWCASE

New in 2016, the Ravens present Community Showcase on RavensWalk, a space that allows their charitable partners an opportunity to be featured in front of thousands of fans. Each nonprofit has the ability to bring awareness to their respective organization through this new program. The platform gives groups who participate a chance to share information with the Ravens Flock about the great work they are doing in the community. The nonprofits that can be found on RavensWalk in the Community Showcase throughout the season include: Playworks Maryland (pictured right), Sister's Circle, Bridges, House of Ruth Maryland, Athletes Serving Athletes and One Love.

