INSPIRE CHANGE

"I'm not going to forget about the people who are dealing with things that aren't fair. We have an opportunity to help make the world a better place, and I want to take advantage of that."

- T Ronnie Stanley

This past Sunday (1/2), the Baltimore Ravens featured the NFL's Inspire Change initiative, which showcases how players, owners and the league work together to create positive change in communities across America. Through Inspire Change, the NFL supports player-led efforts to engage with team owners, public officials, law enforcement, academic institutions, community partners and others to identify meaningful ways to strengthen local communities and the greater society.
