

2024 Girls Flag Kickoff

Sept. 4 marked the start of girls flag football season. All across Maryland, teams competed in their first regular season games.

Dunbar High School

Ravens cheerleaders and Poe (above) with the players of North Hagerstown High School.

North Hagerstown High School

The Ravens are committed to expanding the reach of girls flag football statewide. To demonstrate their dedication, the Ravens have generously donated uniforms to every participating team, ensuring that all players have the gear they need to compete. The ultimate goal is to see girls flag football recognized as an officially sanctioned sport throughout the league.

The Douglass High School Ducks were ready for kickoff.

Western High School

The championship game will be hosted at M&T Bank Stadium on Nov. 8.

