THE MATCHUP

The New Orleans Saints open the 2022 regular season on the road at the same place where their 2021 campaign ended, against the Atlanta Falcons, on Sunday, September 11. Kickoff at Mercedes-Benz Stadium is slated for Noon CT on FOX.

While there is much familiarity between the Saints and Falcons clubs that closed out the 2021 campaign with New Orleans defeating Atlanta 30-20 to finish 9-8 for their fifth consecutive winning campaign, there will also be significant differences with the squads when they line up on Sunday for the 106th time in the regular season.

Dennis Allen will make his regular season debut as head coach of the Saints on Sunday, his 13th overall season on staff in New Orleans, the prior six and a half as defensive coordinator. The contest will also feature different starting quarterbacks from the 2021 finale, as Jameis Winston returns to the lineup after leading New Orleans to a 5-2 start last season before suffering a season-ending knee injury and Marcus Mariota replaces longtime starter Matt Ryan for the Falcons.

With the guidance of both Executive Vice President/General Manager Mickey Loomis and Allen, the Saints built on their existing core of players through free agency and the NFL Draft, adding key contributors in wide receivers Jarvis Landry and Chris Olave, safety Tyrann Mathieu and cornerback Alontae Taylor. With a solid foundation built, the 2022 Saints enter the regular season with 16 returning starters from a season ago: eight offense, eight defense (min. 8 starts).

New Orleans will open their season against the Falcons in Atlanta for the first time since 2014. They will start their annual journey away from the Caesars Superdome for the second consecutive season, looking for similar momentum to a 38-3 win over Green Bay in 2021, in a game relocated due to Hurricane Ida. New Orleans will open the season with three consecutive division matchups for only the third time, the first time since the 1995 campaign.

The Saints have faced the Falcons more than any other opponent as they have resided in the same division since 1970 (NFC West 1970-2001, NFC South 2002-present) and this will be the 106th regular season meeting with New Orleans looking to tie it at 53-53 and win their fourth consecutive season opener for the first time in franchise history. Since the Falcons moved into Mercedes-Benz Stadium in 2017, they defeated the Saints in the first matchup at the facility, but New Orleans has captured the last four meetings since.

THE COACHES

Dennis Allen was hired as the 17th head coach in New Orleans Saints history on February 8, 2022. Now in his 27th year coaching and 21st in the NFL, Allen has spent 12 seasons in New Orleans in two stints, including the last six-and-a-half campaigns as the team's defensive coordinator. He succeeds Sean Payton, who coached the team for 16 seasons, including the 2009 campaign, when Allen was secondary coach and ended with the Super Bowl XLIV championship. When Allen took control of a Black and Gold defense in Week 11 of the 2015 season that was ranked 32nd in opponent net yards per game and opponent points per game, he methodically molded a unit that has finished in the top 10 in both categories each of the last two years, effectively synchronizing with the team's offensive and special teams units to produce five consecutive winning seasons (2017-present) and four straight division titles and playoff berths (2017-20). Before rejoining the Saints coaching staff in 2015, Allen served as head coach of the Oakland Raiders from 2012-14 and as defensive coordinator of the Denver Broncos in 2011. Prior to his first stint in New Orleans from 2006-10, Allen was also an assistant in Atlanta from 2002-05.

Allen played safety at Texas A&M from 1992-95, where he started the final 21 games of his career before being signed as an undrafted free agent by the Buffalo Bills in 1996. Prior to entering the National Football League coaching ranks in 2002, Allen served as a graduate assistant at his alma mater from 1996-99 and as secondary coach at the University of Tulsa from 2000-2001. He earned a bachelor of business administration degree and a master's in kinesiology from Texas A&M.

Raised in Hurst, Texas, Allen and his wife Alisson have a daughter, Layla and a son, Garrison.

Arthur Smith was named the 18th head coach in Atlanta Falcons history on January 15, 2021 after serving as the Tennessee Titans offensive coordinator for the last two seasons from 2019-20. In 2021, Smith helped the Falcons improve from a 4-12 record in 2020 to a 7-10 mark.

Smith orchestrated one of the NFL's top offenses with the Titans from 2019-20, leading the league in red-zone touchdown percentage (75.2), ranking fifth in points per game (27.9) and total offense (379.6). He oversaw the NFL's second-ranked rushing attack, averaging 153.5 yards per game on the ground. The Titans were among the league's best in the red zone. The club's 75.6 (2019) and 75.0 (2020) red zone touchdown percentages are the fourth and fifth-best single-season marks by a team since 2000.

In 2020, Smith's offense averaged 30.7 points per game and 491 total points which was good for fourth in the NFL and stand as the second-highest marks in team history. He also oversaw one of the most potent rushing attacks in league history as Derrick Henry became just the eighth player in NFL history to rush for more than 2,000 yards in a single season. Henry's 2,027 rushing yards rank fifth all-time and paced the Titans to the league's second-best rushing offense in 2020, trailing only the Baltimore Ravens. Tennessee's 168.1 yards per game on the ground set a club record and Henry eclipsed Chris Johnson's franchise record of 2,006 rushing yards set in 2009.

Smith served under four different Titans head coaches, working his way up from his 2011 position of defensive assistant/quality control coach. He also spent time as an offensive assistant/quality control coach (2012), offensive line/tight ends asst. (2013), and assistant tight ends coach (2014-15) before taking over as tight ends coach during the 2015 season and holding the position through 2018.

Prior to joining the Titans, Smith spent two years as the defensive quality control coach for the Washington Commanders from 2007-08 serving on legendary coach Joe Gibbs' staff. In addition to his coaching role, he also worked as a college scouting assistant in Washington in 2007. In 2010, Smith worked at Ole Miss as an administrative assistant/defensive intern, primarily working with the linebackers.

Smith graduated from North Carolina where he played offensive line and later joined the coaching staff as a graduate assistant (2006), working with the offensive line.

Born and raised in Memphis, Tenn., he went to high school at Georgetown Prep (North Bethesda, Md.). Smith and his wife, Allison have two sons, Tanner and Liam, and one daughter, Sophie.

LAST MEETING

New Orleans Saints 30, Atlanta Falcons 20; January 9, 2022 @ Mercedes-Benz Stadium – The Saints did their part in Atlanta – thrashing the Falcons 30-20 at Mercedes-Benz Stadium, in what would be the final game of Head Coach Sean Payton's coaching career in New Orleans.

But when the Los Angeles Rams blew a 17-point lead and lost to the San Francisco 49ers 27-24 in overtime, it kept the Saints out of the playoffs for the first time since the 2016 season.

"Obviously, the other game didn't go the way we wanted," Payton said. "I'm proud of this group. Fought hard all season."

The Saints end the 2021 season with a 9-8 record and winners of four of their final five games. Sunday's game was another example of what the team had to fight through all season – losing a star player to injury.

Starting quarterback Taysom Hill was knocked out of the game in the second quarter with a left foot injury and Trevor Siemian replaced him. Siemian started strong by throwing two touchdown passes in the second quarter and then was off and on in the second half but did enough to lead the Saints to victory. The Saints started four players at quarterback in 2021, a necessity after starter Jameis Winston suffered a torn ACL in a home win over the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Siemian was nine for 15 for 71 yards with two touchdown passes against the Falcons while Hill was seven of nine for 107 yards with one touchdown in his limited action.

With right tackle Ryan Ramczyk back in the lineup, the Saints running game was strong. Alvin Kamara had his third 100-yard game of the season, carrying 30 times for 146 yards. Receiver Tre'Quan Smith had his best game of the season, catching five passes for 76 yards and a TD. The New Orleans defense continued its outstanding play, forcing two first half turnovers (a Paulson Adebo interception, and Malcolm Jenkins forced a fumble) that led to 10 points. Linebacker Kwon Alexander forced a fumble in the fourth quarter that was recovered by defensive lineman Shy Tuttle. Defensive end Cameron Jordan had a sack, his 23rd sack of Matt Ryan and 12.5 for the season. Linemate Marcus Davenport had 1.5 sacks.

SAINTS OPENERS

As the Saints prepare for their 56th season, they have posted a 20-35 all-time record on opening-day.

- New Orleans has won four of their last ten openers, but have captured the last three. They will be looking to win four consecutive season openers for the first time in franchise history.

- This will be the ninth time the Saints face the Falcons for their season opener. While New Orleans has a 1-7 record in the matchups, they have split the two openers since 2013.

MEMORABLE INDIVIDUAL PERFORMANCES IN OPENING GAMES: A look at the top statistical performances for the Saints in the first game of the season over the club's previous 55 years:

PASSING: 439 yards, QB Drew Brees. The signal caller completed 37-of-45 passes with three touchdown passes, zero interceptions and a 129.5 passer rating on Sept. 9, 2018 in a 48-40 loss to Tampa Bay at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

RUSHING: 206 yards, RB George Rogers. The running back opened 1982 by setting a club record for rushing yards on 24 carries vs. the St. Louis Cardinals.

RECEPTIONS: 16, WR Michael Thomas. Thomas torched the Buccaneers on 16 catches for 180 yards and one touchdown, the highest single-game receptions total in franchise history.

RECEIVING YARDAGE: 205 yards, WR Wes Chandler. Chandler torched the Falcons in 1979 on six catches, the highest single-game yardage total in franchise history.

INTERCEPTIONS: Three, S Sammy Knight. The safety started 2001 with three interceptions at Buffalo and was named the NFC Defensive Player of the Week.

SACKS: Three, DE Joe Johnson. This 2007 inductee into the Saints Hall of Fame started 2001 with three sacks in a dominant defensive performance in the Saints' 24-6 victory at Buffalo.

BUCKING THE ODDS

The Saints have a long tradition of finding players as free agents signed after the draft that make an impact. Several played key roles in 2021.

Wide Receiver/Return Specialist Deonte Harty finished ranked second on the team with 570 receiving yards on 36 catches (team-best 15.8 avg., seventh in the NFL), while leading the club in kickoff return average (23.8 avg.) and punt return average (9.5 avg.).

Wide receiver Marquez Callaway led the team in two of four major receiving categories with a club-best 46 receptions for a team-high 698 yards (15.2 avg., ranked tenth in the NFL) and a club-best six touchdown grabs as the team's only offensive skill player to play in all 17 games.

Defensive end Carl Granderson played in 15 games with three starts and posted 24 tackles and three sacks.

Punter Blake Gillikin enjoyed an October where he was selected as NFC Special Teams Player of the Month. He finished his first season with punting duties ranked third in the league with 29 punts dropped inside the 20-yard line. Defensive tackle Shy Tuttle moved into a starting role for one of the NFL's top-ranked run defenses and finished with 48 tackles, three passes defended, one fumble and one fumble recovery.

Defensive back J.T. Gray led the NFL with 19 special teams stops (league-best 16 solo) and this season was voted by his teammates as the club's special teams captain and was selected to the Pro Bowl as a starter and as a first-team Associated Press All Pro.

Tight End Juwan Johnson led his position group with four touchdown receptions, converting to the position after playing in college and starting his Black and Gold career in 2020 as a wideout.

Running Back Tony Jones Jr., spent the entire 2021 campaign on the active roster after being elevated in Week 17 in 2020, rushing for 142 yards to provide depth to the running back position.

Offensive Lineman Calvin Throckmorton was one of two Saints linemen to play in all 17 games in his second season, starting four at right guard and the last nine contests at left guard.

Defensive Tackle Shy Tuttle joined the club in 2019 as an undrafted free agent and has played in 46 regular season games with 19 starts, posting 52 tackles, two sacks, one interception, seven passes defended, one forced fumble and one recovery for one of the league's top run defenses. In 2021, Tuttle played in all 17 games with 15 starts and finished with a career-high 48 tackles, three passes defended, one forced fumble and a fumble recovery in the season finale at Atlanta.

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT

A spot on the practice squad is another avenue to eventually get onto the active roster and have the opportunity to contribute. Below is an overview of players on the club's roster with extensive practice squad experience.

Running back Dwayne Washington participated on the Saints practice squad briefly in 2018 after spending most of the 2016 and 2017 seasons on Detroit's active roster. Through development, the tailback, in addition to his running skills, has developed into a core special teams player with 11 stops, to have a career-high seven for 2021. Washington scored a receiving touchdown in the preseason opener on Saturday night at Houston.

Tight end Juwan Johnson was signed by New Orleans out of Oregon, where he spent his graduate transfer season following the 2020 NFL Draft as a wideout. Recording four receptions for 39 yards seven contests, Johnson spent the majority of the season on the practice squad. Converted to tight end in 2021, Johnson's took advantage of his frame and participation in his first full offseason strength and conditioning program and led the tight ends group with four touchdown grabs.

After spending the last six weeks of the 2019 season and the first 16 weeks of the 2020 campaign on the team's practice squad, linebacker Andrew Dowell was elevated to the club's active roster for the regular season finale at Carolina. In two preseason games in 2021, he posted five tackles, one forced fumbles and two coverage spots to secure a regular season roster spot. In Week 3 at New England, Dowell recorded the first blocked punt that an opponent had against the Patriots since the 2015 season. Dowell's five special teams tackles on December 19 at Tampa Bay was the highest single-game total in the NFL in 2021 and he finished the season tied for fifth in the league with 14 coverage stops.

After splitting his rookie season in 2018 between the practice squad and active roster, defensive back J.T. Gray enjoyed a breakthrough campaign in 2019, when he was selected Associated Press second-team All-Pro when he recorded 16 special teams tackles, one blocked punt and one coverage fumble recovery. In 2021, he was selected as a first-team All-Pro and to his first career Pro Bowl (starter), when he led the NFL with 19 special teams tackles (league-leading 16 solo).

After spending the bulk of his rookie season on the Saints practice squad, fullback Adam Prentice joined the 53-man roster on November 25, 2021 and contributed on offense and special teams for New Orleans in the last seven contests with three starts. New Orleans logged at least 150 yards rushing in three of the team's final seven contests, including a season-high 193 in the season finale at Atlanta.

Originally signing as an undrafted free agent with Kansas City in 2014 out of BYU, safety Daniel Sorensen spent the first half of his rookie season on the Chiefs practice squad before being elevated to the active roster at midseason where he contributed with seven tackles. Expected to make his Saints debut on Sunday, Sorensen has played in 111 games with 41 starts, posting 378 tackles, 4.5 sacks, 12 interceptions, four returned for touchdowns, 33 passes defended, four forced fumbles, three fumble recoveries, 29 coverage stops, one special teams fumble recovery and one blocked field goal.

UP NEXT FOR THE SAINTS

Following Sunday's contest at the Atlanta, the Saints will host the Tampa Bay Buccaneers at the Caesars Superdome on Sunday, September 18 at 12:00 p.m. The Saints have swept the regular season series for the last three years, including an October 31 36-27 win at the Caesars Superdome and 9-0 shutout at Raymond James on December 19 in 2021. Overall, the Saints lead the regular season series against Tampa Bay 39-21, with the Saints posting a 2-2 record in home openers against the Bucs.

Ahead is a synopsis of several returning players and newcomers through the draft and free agency to the 2021 Saints offensive line:

Tackle/Guard James Hurst - An eight-year NFL veteran who was signed as a free agent from Baltimore in 2020, Hurst has 119 career regular season appearances with 64 starts at three different positions on the inside and outside. His versatility came in handy in 2020, as he started two contests at left tackle and one at left guard and the Saints gained over 200 yards rushing each time. In 2021, Hurst moved into the lineup for eight games at left tackle in place of an injured Armstead, two at left guard in place of an injured Andrus Peat and three at right tackle for an injured Ryan Ramczyk, starting contests at three different positions. Hurst is expected to primarily work at left tackle in 2022.

Right Tackle Ryan Ramczyk - The Black and Gold used their second first round selection in the 2017 NFL Draft to snag Ramczyk out of Wisconsin, one of the best linemen in the entire draft. After opening all 16 games and both post-season contests in 2017 and being selected as a PFWA All-Rookie, he has been selected as an AP All-Pro selection three times since Center/Guard Erik McCoy - New Orleans traded up in the second round of the 2019 NFL Draft to select this standout from Texas A&M, who was a three-year starter, anchoring the middle of the Aggies line. In 2018, he was a team captain who paved the way for the SEC's leading rusher and in 2019 was the first Saint in franchise history to start at center in Week One, opening all 16 regular season contests. McCoy opened all 16 contests and both postseason games in 2020 for the NFL's sixth-ranked rushing offense. McCoy started 13 contests at center in 2021.

Guard/Center Cesar Ruiz - The hard-working, talented and intelligent lineman is a perfect fit for New Orleans' culture with the 24th pick in the 2020 NFL Draft out of Michigan. The three-year letterman played in 36 games in college, starting his last 31 including the final 26 at center, earning All-Big Ten in 2019. Ruiz settled in at right guard in the last 15 games, with nine starts, as well as both post-season contests. When McCoy suffered a lower leg injury in the first quarter of the 2021 season-opening win over Green Bay, Ruiz transitioned over to his natural position, where the Saints did not give up a sack and started four contests in the middle. He returned to right guard on Oct. 25 at Seattle and was the only lineman in 2021 to not miss a start.

Tackle/Guard Andrus Peat - A first round selection (13th overall) in the 2015 NFL Draft out of Stanford, Peat was considered one of the top college linemen in 2014. In his first seven seasons, he's played in 84 regular season games with 79 starts, opening a contest at every position except center. In 2020, he opened 13 contests at left guard as he was part of the NFC Pro squad for the third consecutive season. In 2021, he opened the first six contests, where New Orleans got off to a 4-2 start before suffering a season-ending pectoral injury.

Tackle Landon Young - A mainstay at left tackle for his entire college career at Kentucky, Young played in 49 contests with 30 starts in his college career. The Lexington, Ky. native was selected by New Orleans in the sixth round of the 2021 NFL Draft and held up to the competition in training camp to snare a roster spot. Young opened one contest at right tackle in 2021 and serves as Ramczyk's backup on the right side.

Offensive Lineman Calvin Throckmorton - This 6-5, 309 pound former four-year starter on the Oregon line was signed as an undrafted free agent in 2020, possessing the flexibility to play all five positions along the offensive line. After spending his rookie season on the practice squad, Throckmorton increased strength in the 2021 offseason and made strides in training camp, securing a roster spot. In his NFL debut in the 2021 season opening-win, Throckmorton was called to play right guard following a lower leg injury to McCoy in the first quarter, subsequently starting four contests. He then moved into left guard, Oct. 25 at Seattle following a shoulder injury to Andrus Peat and opened the last ten.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

DEFENSIVE DRAFTS

Over the last eight drafts from 2015-22, New Orleans has shown a commitment to defense, spending 21-of-33 picks on that side of the ball. With nine picks in 2015, the Saints picked six defensive players, the most taken since New Orleans chose nine in a 12-round selection meeting in 1990. Below is an overview of the defensive players selected by New Orleans from 2015-22 currently with the club:

CB Paulson Adebo, Stanford (D3-21) - Selected in the third round (76th overall) of the 2021 NFL Draft out of Stanford, Adebo finished his college career playing in 22 games with 21 starts and recording 97 tackles, 34 passes defended and eight interceptions, earning All-Pac-12 in 2018 and 2019. He started in the opener and became the first Saint to record an interception in his NFL debut since 2002. With three picks on the season, he became only the fifth Saints rookie to reach that level. Overall, he posted 63 tackles (54 solo), three picks and eight passes defended.

CONTUNUED FROM PREVIOUS PAGE-DEFENSIVE DRAFTS

LB Zack Baun, Wisconsin (D3a-20) - Selected in the third round (74th overall) of the 2020 NFL Draft out of the Wisconsin, Baun finished his college career with 154 tackles, 15 sacks, two interceptions, one returned for a TD, six passes defended, three forced fumbles and a recovery. The Saints were attracted to his playmaking ability. Baun finished with eight coverage stops in 2021, adding 22 defensive stops (16 solo) and a return of a blocked field goal.

DE Marcus Davenport, Texas-San Antonio (D1-18) - Davenport joined the Saints with the 14th overall pick in the 2018 NFL Draft after showing potential and production as a pass rusher at Texas-San Antonio. In four seasons, Davenport posted 22 sacks, including 8.5 in 2017 when he captured Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year. Davenport's strength on the line is a valuable asset for the Saints front, posting six sacks in 13 games in 2019. Davenport finished second on the team with a career-high nine sacks and added a club-best three forced fumbles and a fumble recovery in 11 games with nine starts in 2021, despite missing six games.

LB Kaden Elliss, Idaho (D7-19) - New Orleans selected this four-year starter from Idaho to compete at both linebacker and contribute on special teams. The Salt Lake City native finished his college career with 288 stops, 47 tackles for loss and 17 sacks. After missing the bulk of his rookie year with a knee injury, Elliss showed promise with five stops on coverage units in 2020 and in 2021, his progress continue with 13 stops, one sack, one fumble recovery and one special teams tackle.

CB Marshon Lattimore, Ohio State (D1a-17) - The 11th overall selection in the 2017 NFL draft out of Ohio State and the first corner taken possesses all the traits of a lockdown defender. With his agile, fluid style, Lattimore has the ability to shut down the best wide receivers. In 2017, he finished with 53 stops, five picks, to lead NFL rookies and the Saints, tying a team rookie record, a club-best 18 passes defended, a forced fumble and a recovery. Lattimore was the first Saints corner selected to the Pro Bowl since 1995 and selected as AP Defensive Rookie of the Year. His five takeaways in 2018 led the team, adding two more picks in the NFC Divisional Playoff win. In 2020, he led the cornerbacks with 63 tackles, two interceptions and ten passes defended as he was selected to his third Pro Bowl. In 2021, he was named the Week Six NFC Defensive Player of the Week, recording a career-high six passes defended at Washington, the league's highest total since 2017. He finished the season with 68 tackles (53 solo), three picks, a career-high and league-best 19 passes defended and one fumble recovery to lead the team with four takeaways.

DT David Onyemata, Manitoba (D4-16) - Possessing a unique combination of size and speed, this Nigeria native had an impressive rookie year after becoming the first player from the University of Manitoba to be drafted into the NFL. Despite being new to football, the 2016 fourth round draft pick became a critical member on the interior of the Saints defensive front in 2017, playing in all 16 games with six starts, making 40 tackles and two sacks. Overall in his career, he has played in 89 contests with 51 starts, posting 218 stops, 18 sacks, one interception, five passes defended, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. In 2021, Onyemata started all 11 games he played in and posted 34 tackles, two sacks for a loss of 17 yards and one one fumble recovery.

DE Payton Turner, Houston (D1-21) - Selected 28th overall in the first round of the 2021 NFL Draft, the Texas native comes off a senior campaign where he posted 10.5 tackles for loss and five sacks in only five contests. During his four collegiate seasons, Turner notched career totals of 115 tackles (68 solo), ten sacks, 25 tackles for loss, one interception, one forced fumble, ten passes defended and one blocked punt. Turner recorded five tackles and a sack in his NFL debut on September 19 at Carolina.

LB Pete Werner, Ohio State (D2-21) - New Orleans selected this three-year starter from Ohio State to compete at the linebacker position. The Indianapolis, Ind. native finished his college career playing in 47 career games with 35 starts, recording 185 tackles (111 solo), 16 stops for loss, four sacks, 11 passes defended, four forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. Werner helped power the Buckeyes to the College Football Playoff championship game as a senior in 2020, when he was voted by Big Ten coaches as a first-team All-Conference selection and a Butkus Award semifinalist, posting 54 tackles, 2.5 stops for loss, one sack and two forced fumbles. Werner made his first career start in Week Three and on Oct. 3 vs. the New York Giants had ten tackles. Leading the team with 13 stops in Week 6 at the Washington Football Team, Werner became the first Saints rookie since 2015 to have back-to-back performances of double-digit stops. He finished his rookie campaign with 59 defensive tackles (33 solo) and three special teams stops on the season.

CB Alontae Taylor, Tennessee (D2-22) - A four-year starter at Tennessee, this 6-foot, 193-pound defender possesses a combination of speed, instincts and versatility needed to excel both on defense and special teams. After playing quarterback in high school and starting his college career at wide receiver, he took to the secondary quickly, finishing his college career with totals of 162 tackles (115 solo), a split sack, five stops for loss, three forced fumbles, one fumble recovery for a touchdown, four interceptions, one returned 56 yards for a touchdown, 17 passes defended and one blocked punt.

DB P.J. Williams, Florida State (D3b-15) - Williams' career was initially limited by missing all but two games his first two seasons, but he's rebounded to miss only four contests with injury since. An experienced starter from Florida State, who developed into one of the nation's top cover corners, in 2019, he made 41 stops, a sack, an interception and three passes defended, serving as the team's nickel corner. In the Dec. 22, 2019 win at Tennessee, Williams further showed his versatility by making the switch to safety after Marcus Williams was forced to depart with a groin injury and then starting in Williams' place in the regular season finale at Carolina. In 2020, Williams posted 37 tackles, a club-best two defensive fumble recoveries,, one interception and two passes defended in 15 games, as he played both cornerback and safety. Williams finished tied for the team lead with three picks in 2021 and added 42 tackles (36 solo), two sacks, four passes defended and one forced fumble, playing in 16 games with four starts.

IN THE NFL

The New Orleans defense has made great strides in all areas after Head Coach Dennis Allen became defensive coordinator midway through the 2015 campaign. After ranking fourth in 2020, the New Orleans defense finished the 2021 season ranked seventh in the NFL in 2021 in opponent net yards per game.

STOPPING THE RUN

In rush defense, the Saints gave up only 80.2 net yards per game in 2018, second in the NFL after giving up 129.4 per game in 2017. The 2019 Saints finished fourth in the NFL in opponent rushing yards per game (91.3). 2018-19 marked only the second time they did so in back-to-back seasons in franchise history, joining the 1986-1987 teams. The 2020 Saints were fourth in the NFL in opponent rushing yards per game and opponent rushing yards per carry.

The Saints continued to effectively stop the run in 2021.

The Saints have stopped the run impressively the past four seasons. In seven straight games in 2018, they didn't surrender 100 rushing yards to an opponent for the first time since 2007 had a seven-game run in 2020. In 2021, the Saints didn't give up 100 yards rushing in their last four contests. Below are the longest streaks in team history the defense has gone without surrendering 100 yards. Between 2017-20 they didn't allow a 100-yard rusher in a 55 straight games (regular season/postseason), the longest streak in NFL history. In holding Buccaneers TB Ronald Jones to nine yards on Nov. 8, New Orleans' efforts produced dominant results as his rushing total was the lowest for a leading rusher for an opponent during the streak. Keeping San Francisco RB Jerrick McKinnon to 18 carries for 33 yards (1.8 avg.), New Orleans set the NFL record for the longest streak of keeping individual rushers under 100. After the last streak ended, New Orleans again has the longest current NFL streak of not surrendering a 100-yard rusher.

Blake Gillikin was signed by New Orleans following the 2020 NFL Draft after a college career at Penn State, where he finished tied for second on the Nittany Lions' career gross punting average charts (43.03). After spending his rookie season on Injured Reserve, Gillikin had a 42.0 net punting average, eighth in the league and 29 inside-the-20 yard line, third in the NFL and tying the single-season club record. Gillikin enjoyed a breakout performance in Week 5, where he had three punts drop inside-the-three-yard line at Washington, flipping the field position battle and becoming the first punter since at least 2000 to have three punts of 53-plus yards downed inside the three-yard line. In the Oct. 31 win over Tampa Bay, Gillikin punted at a 48.0 net clip and had a career-best 63-yard punt, helping him earn October's NFC Special Teams Player of the Month.

Kicker Wil Lutz went undrafted in 2016, joining the Ravens for training camp. Prior to the start of the regular season, Lutz joined the Black and Gold. Lutz has kicked in 80 games, converting 142-of-164 field goal attempts (86.6 percent) and 253-of-260 PATs (97.3 percent). He's recorded 316 touchbacks, the sixth-most in the NFL since 2016 despite missing the 2021 campaign with an abdominal injury. His 86.6 percent field goal percentage is best among kickers in team history. Until the 2018 regular season finale, he'd kicked a field goal in a club-record 36 consecutive games, second-longest streak in NFL history. In scoring three points on December 6, 2020 at Atlanta to reach 101, Lutz joined Pro Football Hall of Famer Morten Andersen (1985-89) as only the second Saint to score at least 100 points in five consecutive seasons, Lutz doing it in the first five years of his career. In the 2022 preseason, Lutz authoritatively drilled all four of his field goal attempts, including a 59-yard kick at Green Bay on August 19.

With his first field goal on October 20, 2019 at Chicago, Lutz set the National Football League record for consecutive road field goals.

COVERAGE UNITS

New Orleans' coverage and block units in 2022 are expected to be led by linebackers Zack Baun, Andrew Dowell and Kaden Elliss, defensive back J.T. Gray, safety Daniel Sorensen and running back Dwayne Washington as well as several contributors competing for spots in training camp and the preseason.

One of the club's two third round draft picks in 2020, Baun, a former Wisconsin standout, embraced work on the club's coverage units in 2020 with three stops. On Sept. 19 at Carolina, he made an adept play by returning a blocked field goal and was ranked fourth on the team with eight stops.

After spending the bulk of the 2019 and 2020 season on the Saints practice squad, Dowell recorded his first career blocked punt on September 26 at New England. He ranked second on the team with 14 stops and was tied for fifth in the NFL after having a career-high five tackles (four solo) on December 19 at Tampa Bay, the highest single-game total in the National Football League in 2021.

A seventh round draft pick of New Orleans in 2019, Elliss' blue collar mentality fit in with the coverage units with four stops in both 2020 and 2021.

Sorensen's a ninth-year NFL veteran who signed with New Orleans as an unrestricted free agent from Kansas City after spending the first eight seasons of his career in Kansas City, posting 29 coverage stops, one special teams fumble recovery and one blocked field goal to go with 378 defensive tackles, 4.5 sacks, 12 interceptions, 33 passes defensed, four forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries.

Signed by the Saints after the 2018 NFL Draft out of Mississippi State, Gray enjoyed a banner campaign in 2021, emerging as one of the league's elite players on special teams. Voted by his teammates as the club's special teams captain for the first time, Gray led the NFL with 19 special teams tackles in 16 games and added three defensive stops as he was selected as a Pro Bowl starter and as the team's only first-team Associated Press All-Pro. Playing in 53 career games, Gray has career totals of 44 special teams stops, one blocked punt, three fumble recoveries and five defensive tackles and one pass defensed.

Originally a seventh round draft pick of the Detroit Lions in 2016, since being promoted to the Saints active roster from the practice squad at the start of the 2018 season, the former University of Washington standout has become a core special teamer for New Orleans. Washington has recorded 15 stops, deflected a punt and recovered a blocked punt, posting a career-best seven stops in 2021.

QUARTERBACKS

JAMEIS WINSTON

- Winston signed with New Orleans as an unrestricted free agent after the 2020 NFL Draft after starting all 16 games for Tampa Bay in 2019, completing 380-of-626 passes (60.7%) for 5,109 yards with 33 touchdowns and an 84.3 rating, also carrying 59 times for 250 yards with one touchdown. Winston's NFL-high passing yardage total was the eighth-highest total in NFL record books as he became only the eighth passer to reach 5,000 yards in a season. In Week 14 and 15 wins, Winston tossed for 456 and 458 yards, becoming the only player in NFL history to pass for 450 yards in consecutive contests.
- Overall, the Bessemer, Ala. Native has appeared in 83 regular season games with 77 starts, completing 1,665-of-2,720 passes (61.2%) for 20,982 yards with 135 TDs, 91 interceptions and an 87.8 passer rating, while adding 1,204 rushing yards and 11 touchdowns. After seeing limited action in 2020, behind Drew Brees and Taysom Hill, Winston secured the starting spot in the preseason, when he completed 16-of-22 passes for 219 yards, three touchdowns, one interception and a 124.8 passer rating.
- Before suffering a season-ending knee injury in Week Eight, Winston completed 95-of-161 passes for 1,170 yards, 14 touchdowns, three interceptions and a 102.8 passer rating, ranked first in the NFL at the time of his injury in touchdown percentage (8.7).

FAMILIAR FOE

New Orleans Saints QB Jameis Winston has faced the Atlanta Falcons nine times in his career, all as a member of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. In those nine games, he has passed for 2,499 yards, 25 touchdowns and nine interceptions, while completing 66.0 percent of his passes (190 of 288) for a 109.1 passer rating. Winston has also carried 35 times for 166 yards (4.7 avg.) with two touchdowns against the Falcons.

— In 2015, he won both his starts against the Falcons, winning 23-20 at the Georgia Dome on November 1 and 23-19 at Raymond James Stadium on December 6. In 2016, he split the season series, eventually snapping a four game losing streak against Atlanta with a 35-22 win at Mercedes-Benz Stadium. In his debut against Atlanta as a Saint, Winston will be looking to even his record as a starter against the Falcons to 5-5. Below are some of Winston's highlight performances against this week's opponent:

- Nov. 1, 2015 at Atlanta - Completed 16-of-29 passes for 177 yards with one touchdown and zero interceptions, also carrying three times for 24 yards with one touchdown in a 23-20 overtime win. In the first possession of overtime, Winston executed a 15-play, 68-yard scoring drive that ended with a 31-yard field goal that would turn out to be the game-winner

- Dec. 6, 2015 vs. Atlanta - Completed 18-of-27 passes for 227 yards with one touchdown, one interception to go with five carries for 15 yards and a touchdown in a 23-19 win. With Tampa Bay trailing 19-16 with 6:55 left, Winston engineered a 12-play, 80-yard drive that ended with a six-yard touchdown pass to WR Mike Evans with 1:55 left to give the Buccaneers the 23-19 lead. On the drive, Winston completed four-of-four passes for 42 yards and scrambled for a first down with a 20-yard rush on a third-and-19 play.
- Sept. 11, 2016 at Atlanta - Winston completed 23-of-32 passes for 281 yards with four touchdowns, one interception and a 125.1 passer rating in a 35-22 season opening win as Winston would lead Tampa Bay to their first winning campaign since 2010.
- Nov. 24, 2019 at Atlanta - Winston completed 18-of-28 passes for 313 yards with three touchdowns, two interceptions and a 108.2 passer rating, also carrying eight times for 38 yards to improve the Buccaneers to 4-7, the start of a four-game winning streak.

In the Sept. 12 opener vs. Green Bay played in Jacksonville, Fla., Winston had one of the most impressive first starts in a Black and Gold uniform amongst its signal-callers. He passed for 148 yards on 14-of-20 passing (70.0%) with a 130.8 rating. Winston threw five touchdown passes, with a long of 55 yards on a pass to Deonte Harris. His five touchdown passes tied a career high from when he threw five touchdowns against Philadelphia (11/22/15) as a member of the Buccaneers. He also finished with 37 rushing yards on six attempts. In his first start with the Saints, Winston became the third player since 1950 to throw for five touchdowns in his first start with a team. Winston's 148 passing yards is the fewest yards with five passing touchdowns since 1948. With zero interceptions, Winston became the first quarterback in NFL history to throw five touchdown passes with no interceptions in his first career start with a new team in an opener. Overall, Winston became the seventh quarterback with five touchdowns and no interceptions in an opener, and first since Baltimore QB Lamar Jackson did so at Miami on Sept. 8, 2019. Winston became the 33rd player to start a game at quarterback for New Orleans, and the 11th to win in his first start. The victory was Winston's third career opening day victory and his first career win over Green Bay.

POWERFUL STARTS

With last year's season-opening win over Green Bay, Winston has posted a 4-1 record in season openers, including the 2016 opening win at Atlanta. Winston has won the last four season openers that he has started. Winston has won the three season openers (2016, 2019, 2021) played away from his team's home stadium.

Below are some of Winston's highlight performances in season openers (2016 and 2021 wins summarized on previous page:

- Sept. 17, 2017 vs. Chicago - Completed 18-of-30 passes for 204 yards with one touchdown in a 29-7 win.
- Sept. 12, 2019 at Carolina - Completed 16-of-25 passes for 208 yards with a 20-yard touchdown pass to WR Chris Godwin to help lead Tampa Bay to a 20-14 season-opening win.

SECOND THROUGH FIVE

In his first five National Football League seasons, Jameis Winston threw for 19,737 yards, the second-most yards ever by a player from their rookie season through their fifth season.

BY THE NUMBERS

2 - Winston is only the second Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback to play for the Saints, joining Danny Wuerffel, the 1996 winner, who played for New Orleans from 1997-99. He also joins his current teammate Mark Ingram II (2009), running back Reggie Bush (2005), running back Ricky Williams (1998), running back George Rogers (1980) and running back Earl Campbell (1977) as winners of College Football's most prestigious award to suit up for the Black and Gold.

11 - Despite not throwing a touchdown in the regular season in 2020 and missing the last ten games of 2021, Winston's 135 touchdowns since coming into the National Football League as a rookie in 2015 is still ranked 15th in the league over that period.

12 - On October 3, 2021 vs. the New York Giants, Winston completed a career-best 12 consecutive passes for the second time in his career. Also the number of games where Winston has engineered a game-winning drive in either the fourth quarter or overtime to lead his team to victory after The October 25, 2021 game-winning drive at Seattle, his first as a Saint.

30 - Career games which Winston has started with a passer rating of 100 or better, including five of seven games in 2021.

42 - The number of contests over the last seven seasons, where Winston has tossed for at least 250 yards.

1,204 - Rushing yards by Winston in his career.

20,982 - Career passing yards by Winston since 2015. Despite throwing for only 75 yards in 2020 and 1,170 in 2021 due to a season-ending knee injury in Week Eight, this is the 11th-highest total in the National Football League over that period.

BY THE NUMBERS

39 - Career multiple-touchdown pass games, including three in 2021.

72 - In the October 17, 2021 win over the Washington Football Team, Winston's 72-yard touchdown pass to WR/RS Deonte Harris was a career-long completion. Combined with the 49-yard hail mary touchdown pass at the end of the first half to WR Marquez Callaway, it marked the first time Winston had two touchdown passes of at least 45 yards in a contest.

ANDY DALTON

- Dalton brings additional starting experience to the New Orleans Saints quarterback room. Originally a second round draft pick in the 2015 NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals out of TCU, Dalton has played in 152 career games with 148 starts for Cincinnati (2011-19), Dallas (2020) and Chicago (2021) and completed 3,122-of-5,018 passes (62.2 pct.) for 35,279 yards, 226 touchdowns, 135 interceptions and an 87.0 passer rating.
- In two preseason appearances, Dalton was flawless, completing ten-of-ten passes for 124 yards and a 151.7 passer rating.

RUNNING BACKS

ALVIN KAMARA

- A talented runner and receiver with a 5-10, 215-pound frame who was selected by the Saints in the third round of the 2017 NFL Draft out of the University of Tennessee, Kamara enjoyed an outstanding rookie campaign. He ranked first on the club and sixth in the NFL in yards from scrimmage (1,554), second on the team in rushing and receiving, carrying 120 times for 728 yards (6.1 avg.) with eight TDs and a two-point conversion, catching 81 passes for 826 yards (10.2 avg.) with five TDs and a kickoff return for a TD for a club rookie record 14 total scores, tied for second in the NFL. Kamara finished first in the NFL in yards per carry.
- Kamara was the first Saints offensive rookie selected to the Pro Bowl since Rueben Mayes (1986), as an Associated Press second team All-Pro (flex), the clubs' first rookie All-Pro since 1993. He was named The Sporting News NFL Rookie of the Year and AP NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year.

SCRIMMAGE LEADER

Since entering the National Football League in 2017, Kamara ranks second in the league in total yards from scrimmage (7,501).

- In 2020, Kamara even exceeded expectations as one of the NFL's most electric players in the NFL. He carried 187 times for a career-high 932 yards (5.0 avg.) with 16 touchdowns, tied for first in the NFL. He led running backs in receiving with a career-high and team best 83 receptions for 756 yards (9.1 avg.) with five TDs. Kamara, who was the second Saint to lead the team in rushing and receiving, led the NFL with a team-record 21 total touchdowns, was second with 93 first downs and third with a career-best 1,688 yards from scrimmage, the seventh-highest total in club history.

- Kamara enjoyed a productive start to the 2021 season in the season-opening win over Green Bay, when he started and finished with 83 rushing yards on 20 attempts. Kamara added eight receiving yards on three receptions, with one receiving touchdown, surpassing Pierre Thomas for the seventh-most receptions in club record books and the most receptions all-time for a Saints running back.

- Despite missing four games in the middle of the 2021 season with a knee injury, Kamara led the Saints in rushing and receiving, for the second consecutive season carrying 240 times for 898 yards and four TDs and catching 47 passes for 439 yards with five TDs for a club-best 1,337 yards from scrimmage, surpassing wide receiver Marques Colston (2009-12), running back Mark Ingram II (2014-17) and wide receiver Michael Thomas (2016-19) as the first Saint to have 1,000 total yards from scrimmage in his first five seasons and/or in five consecutive seasons. New Orleans posted a 9-4 record in the 13 games that Kamara appeared in.

TOUCHDOWN LEADER

In the Saints' 2020 Christmas 52-33 win over the Vikings, Kamara tied the NFL record for total touchdowns and rushing touchdowns, as he carried 22 times for a career-high 155 yards (7.0 avg.), adding three receptions for 17 yards for 172 yards from scrimmage. The rushing touchdowns record tied the record held by Ernie Nevers of the Chicago Cardinals since Nov. 28, 1929, while for total touchdowns, Kamara joins Nevers, Cleveland's Dub Jones (Nov. 25, 1951) and Chicago's Gayle Sayers (Dec. 12, 1965). The performance catapulted Kamara to the NFL's touchdown lead, as he joined running back Dalton Hilliard as only the second Saint to lead the league in touchdowns.

BY THE NUMBERS

510 - Career grabs, the fourth-highest total in club history and the most in the National Football League through a player's first five seasons and still sixth in the league since 2016 despite missing the 2021 campaign. His 470 receptions from 2016-19 are the most by a player through his first four seasons. Reaching 500 grabs in his 69th career contests, Thomas reached the mark the quickest in NFL record books.

5,950 - Career receiving yardage, fourth-highest in club history.

32 - Career receiving touchdowns, the seventh-most in franchise history.

21 - 100-yard receiving games, third in team history—including a club-record three games with 180 yards. Thomas reached the century mark a club-record ten times in 2019 and twice in 2020.

31 - The number of contests over the last six seasons when Thomas has recorded eight or more receptions.

323 - Career receptions that have moved the chains for a first down - 63.3 percent of his catches.

34 - Catches of 25 yards or more.

5 - Career multiple-touchdown games. Also with the November 24, 2019 101-yards receiving performance vs. Carolina, Thomas surpassed tight end Jimmy Graham (four-2011 and 2013) to become the first player in franchise history with five consecutive games of 100-yards receiving.

3 - The number of quarterbacks Thomas caught passes from in his NFL record-setting 149 grabs in 2019, including Drew Brees, Teddy Bridgewater and Taysom Hill. In 2020, he caught passes from Brees, Hill and Jameis Winston.

4 - Thomas became the first player in NFL history to have 90 receptions in each of his first four NFL seasons.

56 - On November 10, 2019 vs. Atlanta, in his 56th game, Thomas surpassed Odell Beckham Jr. (61) to become the player to reach 400 catches in the fewest games.

9 - With eight games of at least ten grabs in 2019, Thomas set the NFL single-season record.

149 - NFL-record number of receptions Thomas posted in 2019, surpassing Marvin Harrison's (143-2002).

1,725 - NFL-leading and career-high receiving yardage total in 2019, the seventh-highest single-season total in NFL history.

JARVIS LANDRY

• Signed by New Orleans as a free agent after the 2022 NFL Draft, this former Litcher High School and LSU standout returns home as one of the league's most accomplished receivers and will seek to establish continuity with Jameis Winston and the Saints offense in training camp to become one of his top targets. Posting career totals in 123 career games with 113 Starts with the Miami Dolphins (2014-17) and Cleveland Browns (2018-21), the five-time Pro Bowler has produced 688 catches for 7,598 yards with 37 touchdowns. He ranks fourth in the NFL in receptions since coming into the league as a second round pick of the Dolphins in 2014. Landry ranks 10th in NFL history for most receptions in a player's first 123 career games (688) and sixth in a player's first 100 games (581). He is just one of four players to have 680-plus catches since 2014. Since being drafted in 2014, Landry is ranked fourth in the league in receptions (688) and targets (1,045), eighth in first down receptions (394) and ninth in receiving yards (7,598).

- Landry will look to bounce back in 2022 from a knee injury in 2021 that caused him to miss four games and will seek to build on his totals last season in 12 games where he still managed to lead the Browns in receiving with 52 receptions for 570 yards with two touchdowns, while adding six carries for a career-high two rushing scores.

TWO AT A TIME

Since Week 2 of his rookie season in 2014 until Week 2 of the 2021 campaign, Landry caught at least two passes in 111 consecutive games. His streak was the best in the NFL since 2014 and was the fourth-longest all-time.

MARQUEZ CALLAWAY

After a productive college career on offense and special teams at Tennessee, Callaway joined the Black and Gold as an undrafted free agent in 2020. Appearing in 11 games with three starts, Callaway posted 21 receptions for 213 yards and also made an impact as a gunner and punt returner. He returned 11 punts for 122 yards (11.1 avg.), four kickoff returns for 94 yards (23.5 avg.) and recovered two punts on special teams. In 2021, Callaway built an impressive all-around sophomore campaign. As the only Saints skill position player to play in all 17 games, Callaway provided consistency to the position, recording 46 receptions for a club-best 698 yards with a team-high six touchdowns.

Q FACTOR

In the September 26, 2021 win at New England, Callaway had four receptions for 48 yards and scored his first career NFL touchdown from Jameis Winston.

The former University of Tennessee standout then made a couple of big catches on October 3 vs. the New York Giants, catching two receptions for 74 yards, including a 58-yard grab in the second half.

In the Week Five win at Washington, Callaway posted four receptions for 85 yards with a career-high two touchdowns, including a perfectly anticipated 49-yard "Hail Mary" scoring reception from Winston at the end of the first half.

Although Callaway had only three receptions for 32 yards in the Oct. 25 win at Seattle, he saved his best for last with a fourth quarter 13-yard reception that advanced New Orleans to the Seahawks six-yard line and set up a 33-yard field goal.

Callaway's two receptions for 37 yards came at a crucial time in the November 14 contest at Tennessee, as he caught a grab for a 22-yard gain on the first play of New Orleans' final drive and then caught a 15-yard touchdown on third-and-13 on the drive to put the Saints within two.

Callaway caught a 26-yard pass from QB Trevor Siemian in the end zone of the November 21 contest at Philadelphia to give him a team-leading six scoring grabs.

On December 19 at Tampa Bay, Callaway posted six receptions for a career-high 112 yards, including grabs of 33 and 40 yards to help pace the passing offense.

In the Jan. 2, 2022 win over Carolina, Callaway helped spark the New Orleans pass offense with a game-high six grabs for a game-high 97 yards, including crucial 28- and 15-yard receptions on a two minute drive at the end of the first half to set up a field goal as time expired at the end of the second quarter to close New Orleans' halftime deficit to one.

TRE'QUAN SMITH

- A talented fifth-year wideout, who was selected by New Orleans in the third round of the 2018 draft out of Central Florida, the 6-1, 210-pounder emerged as one of the Knights' top weapons from 2015-17 and was a key figure in their emergence. During that period, he caught 168 passes for 2,748 yards (16.4 avg.) with 22 touchdowns. In his final campaign for the 13-0 Knights in 2017, Smith appeared in and started all 13 games and hauled in 54 receptions for 1,082 yards (19.9 avg.) and 13 touchdowns.

- Smith recorded five touchdowns apiece in each of his first two seasons and achieved more consistency in 2020, when he posted a career-high 34 receptions for 448 yards (13.2 avg.) with four touchdowns to rank fourth on the Black and Gold in receiving. He was activated off Injured Reserve for the NFC Divisional Playoff vs. Tampa Bay, where he recorded three receptions for 85 yards (28.3 avg.) with two touchdowns.

- Activated off Injured Reserve on October 25, 2021, Smith played in 11 of the last 12 games in 2021 and recorded 32 receptions for 377 yards with three touchdowns, finishing his season on a high note at Atlanta in the regular season finale, when he posted five grabs for 76 yards and a TD.

DEONTE HARTY

- This fourth-year wideout initially made his mark for New Orleans in the return game, where he was selected to the Pro Bowl as a rookie. In addition to return duties in 2021, Harris enjoyed a breakout season on offense, when he recorded 36 receptions for 570 yards (15.8 avg.) with three touchdowns, finishing seventh in the NFL in yards per catch. Harris also returned 21 punts for 199 yards (9.5 avg.) and brought back 26 kickoffs for 690 yards (23.8 avg.) to spark the New Orleans return game.

CHRIS OLAVE

- A talented wide receiver who became one of the most prolific receivers in Buckeyes history, Olave played in 47 games and caught 176 passes for 2,711 yards (15.4 avg.) with 35 touchdowns. Olave's 35 career touchdown receptions set an Ohio State program record and ranks fourth in Big Ten history. His 11 career 100-yard games also ranks second in school history. Olave entered the starting lineup in 2019 with immediate results. He helped lead the Buckeyes to three consecutive Big Ten championships (2018-2020) and back-to-back College Football Playoff appearances (2019, 2020). In the 2020 CFP Semifinal vs. Clemson, Olave had a career night, hauling in six passes for 132 yards and two touchdowns in a 49-28 win, securing a bid to play in the championship game. Olave will look to integrate into the Saints offense in training camp after a standout senior campaign, where he caught 65 passes for 936 yards (14.4 avg.) and 13 touchdowns, tied for sixth nationally, as he was selected as an AFCA first-team All-American and a consensus second-team All-American.

TIGHT ENDS

ADAM TRAUTMAN

- The Saints were pleased to find the 6-5, 253-pound Trautman available near the end of the third round of the 2020 NFL Draft and made an aggressive trade up to the 105th pick to add him out of Dayton. A converted high school quarterback, the Michigan native moved to tight end as a freshman developed into one of the top offensive player in NCAA FCS football, where he played in 44 games, recording 178 receptions for 2,295 yards (12.9 avg.) and 31 touchdowns. Though 16 contests in 2020, Trautman posted 15 receptions for 171 yards with one touchdown while also impressively developing his blocking ability.

- In 2021, Trautman continued progress in both blocking and pass-catching, leading the tight end unit with 27 grabs for 263 yards and two touchdowns. Prior to being sidelined by a knee injury for three weeks, Trautman had recorded five catches in the team's Week 10 and 11 contests. Trautman will seek to pick up on this momentum in the 2022 offseason/preseason.

TAYSOM HILL

- Hill's brought unheralded versatility to the Saints offense and special teams. A constant participant on special teams from midseason in 2017 to midseason in 2020, as well as the backup signal-caller and as a runner and receiver, in 2018, Hill averaged 24.9 yards per return on 14 kickoff returns, had six coverage stops, second on the team, completed a ten-yard pass on a fake punt and blocked a punt. Overall, Hill carried 37 times for 196 yards (5.3 avg.), third on the team, with two touchdowns and completed three of seven passes for 64 yards. The blocked punt that sparked a division-clinching win at Tampa Bay, earning him Week 14 NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors. In the postseason, he caught a touchdown, made a special teams tackle and executed a successful fake punt, making significant contributions in all facets as the team advanced to the NFC Championship game for the third time in franchise history.

- In 2019, Hill carried 27 times for 156 yards (5.8 avg.) with a touchdown, catching 19 passes for 234 yards with six TDs, deflecting a punt and posting two coverage stops. He ranked third on the club in touchdowns and third in receiving TDs. After a multi-threat performance Thanksgiving night at Atlanta, when he deflected a punt and caught and rushed for a touchdown. Hill became the first quarterback to rush for and catch a touchdown in the same contest since Jim McMahon (1983). In a valiant postseason effort vs. Minnesota, Hill led the team in rushing with four carries for 50 yards, caught two passes for 25 yards with a TD and completed a 50-yard pass.

- In 2020, Hill contributed on multiple facets, completing 88-of-121 passes (72.7%) for 928 yards with a 98.8 rating, rushing 87 times for 457 (5.3 avg.) yards with eight touchdowns, catching eight passes for 98 yards with a TD and playing on special teams units until Brees' rib injury. Following Brees' injury, November 15, Hill went 3-1 in four starts.

•In the 2021 season-opening win, Hill contributed to a 38-3 victory over Green Bay on September 19, completing a pass for three yards, rushing twice, including gaining a first down once and playing on special teams. Sept. 19 at Carolina, Hill started at tight end and rushed twice for 16 yards and added one coverage stop. In the September 26 win at New England, Hill carried six times for 32 yards, while his fourth quarter four-yard touchdown run helped seal the win. Oct. 3 vs. the New York Giants, Hill scored two rushing touchdowns for the third time in his career. Overall in 12 games with nine starts providing value at quarterback on offense and special teams, he completed 78-of-134 passes for 978 yards with four touchdowns, carried 70 times for 374 yards (5.3 avg.) with a club-best five touchdowns, caught four passes for 52 yards and added a special teams stop. In 2022, Hill will assist the Black and Gold offense in multiple facets.

DEFENSIVE ENDS

CAMERON JORDAN

•New Orleans' first choice in the 2011 NFL Draft (24th overall) out of the University of California, Jordan enjoyed another standout season in 2021, recording 59 tackles (38 solo), 12.5 sacks for a loss of 75.5 yards, tied for seventh in the NFL, including 8.5 takedowns in the last four contests to lead the league over that period, six passes defended and two forced fumbles. Jordan was selected to his seventh Pro Bowl, the most by a defensive player in club history and ranked second overall in team records. With 107 sacks in his first 11 seasons, Jordan is ranked second on the Saints career sack list and ranked 27th on the National Football League's all-time quarterback takedown list. He's also proven to be one of the league's best run defenders, playing an important role in top five rush defenses in each of the past four seasons.

MULTI-SACK GAMES

Jordan has posted 107 career sacks and over the past 11 seasons is the only player to have 90 takedowns and 50 passes defended, after reaching 51 deflections with two in the 2020 season finale at Carolina. During this time, the Saints own a 54-19 regular season record when he corrals a signal-caller, and they boast a 22-3 mark in a multi-sack performance in the regular season, including a three-sack performance against Atlanta on Nov. 22, 2020 that gave him 21 all-time against the Falcons, making him only the 12th player in league record books to have 20 takedowns against an opponent. Jordan's 25 multi-sack games rank second in franchise record books to Rickey Jackson's 27

BACK TO BACK TO BACK

With 3.5 sacks on January 2 vs. Carolina preceded by two takedowns apiece at Tampa Bay on December 19 and vs. Miami on December 27, Jordan became the first player to have multiple takedowns in three consecutive games in the NFL since he had a similar stretch from November 22-December 9, 2018.

VERSATILE DEFENDER

Jordan's the only National Football League defender to record at least 200 tackles, 45 sacks, 60 stops for loss and 90 quarterback hits since 2017. Since 2017, Jordan has posted 273 stops, 60.5 sacks, 74 tackles for loss and 109 QB hits.

TACKLES FOR LOSS

Jordan's 74 tackles for loss since 2017 rank third in the NFL over that period.

FOUR IN A ROW

Jordan has had three consecutive contests of at least one sack in 2013, 2014, 2016, 2017-19 and in 2021. With at least one sack in the final four contests of 2021, Jordan did so twice in a season for the first time. In the January 9 regular season finale at Atlanta, when Jordan dropped Falcons signal-caller Matt Ryan for the 23rd time, he finished the campaign with least one takedown in four consecutive games for the second time in his career, which matched a stretch from October 6-October 27, 2019.

ONE OF 15

With three sacks of Buccaneers QB Tom Brady in 2021, Jordan is now one of only 15 NFL players to have at least 15 sacks against two opponents, 17 against Tampa Bay and 23 against Atlanta, after dropping former Falcons signal-caller Matt Ryan twice in 2021. Jordan's 23 takedowns of Ryan are the most a player has had against an individual quarterback in NFL history.

CARL GRANDERSON

•Signed by New Orleans as an undrafted free agent out of Wyoming in 2019, Granderson posted 17.5 career sacks in college and possesses the perfect body type for a pass rusher. As a rookie, Granderson appeared in eight regular season contests, posting ten tackles and one sack. In 2020, Granderson added 11 tackles, five sacks, ranked fourth on the team, a club-best two forced fumbles and one pass defended as he has seen more extensive time in the club's defensive line rotation as his game experience has continued to increase. On September 19 at Carolina, Granderson received his first start in place of an injured Marcus Davenport and blocked his first career field goal on special teams. In Week Five at the Washington Football Team, Granderson recorded his first takedown of 2021. He made his second on Thanksgiving night at Buffalo against his former Wyoming college teammate, Bills QB Josh Allen and had a key third quarter takedown on December 12 at the New York Jets against another high draft pick, New York signal-caller Zach Wilson.

PAYTON TURNER

•With the 28th overall pick in the 2021 NFL Draft, the Saints added to the line with this gifted pass rusher. He appeared in five games in 2021 before spending the remainder of his rookie season on Injured Reserve (shoulder). Turner recorded 12 tackles (nine solo) and one sack while also appearing on special teams. A full recovery from the shoulder injury and hard work in the team's offseason program has led to an impressive preseason for Turner.

DAVID ONYEMATA

• A fourth round selection out of Manitoba in 2016, Onyemata teams with Shy Tuttle to form a solid duo in the interior of the Saints defensive line. In 80 games with 42 starts in five seasons, he has posted 186 career tackles, 16 sacks, five passes defended, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. In 2019, he opened all 15 regular season games he played in, posting 32 stops, one pass defended and three sacks for the NFL's fourth-ranked run defense. Onyemata was re-signed to a three-year contract by the Saints in the 2020 offseason and finished ranked third on the team with 6.5 quarterback takedowns, tied for sixth in the league among defensive tackles and one interception, starting every contest for a unit ranked fourth in the NFL in opponent net yards per game and fourth in run defense. In 2021, he anchored an interior that has helped the Saints defense currently ranked first in the league in opponent yards per rushing and fourth in opponent rushing yards per game.

SHY TUTTLE

• Signed as an undrafted free agent out of the University of Tennessee in 1999, Tuttle contributed to a defensive unit in 2021 that ranked fourth in the NFL in run defense, seventh in total defense, and eighth in sacks. He played in all 17 games with 15 starts and posted 48 tackles (17 solo), three passes defended, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. In his first three seasons in New Orleans, Tuttle has appeared in 46 regular season games, with 19 starts, recording 94 tackles (42 solo), two sacks, one interception, seven passes defended, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. In three postseason contests, he's made eight stops (five solo) and two passes defended.

KENTAVIUS STREET

• Signed with New Orleans at the start of the offseason, this fourth-year defensive lineman brings positional versatility to a formidable Saints defensive front. Originally a fourth round draft selection in the 2018 NFL Draft (128th overall) out of North Carolina State by San Francisco, Street enjoyed his most productive campaign in 2021. He appeared in all 17 regular season games with two starts, posting career-highs across the board; 27 tackles (15 solo), three sacks, six tackles for loss and one forced fumble, adding two more solo stops in three postseason contests as San Francisco advanced to the NFC Championship Game. Overall, the Greenville, N.C. native has appeared in 35 career regular season games with four starts for the 49ers, posting career totals of 41 tackles (23 solo), three sacks for a loss of 17 yards and one forced fumble.

LINEBACKERSDEMARIO DAVIS

• This dependable and sure-tackling defender joined the New Orleans Saints after a breakout 2017, where he started 16 games for the Jets. Davis posted a team-high and career-high 165 tackles (112 solo) and a career-best five sacks. For his career, the Brandon, Miss. native has appeared in 160 games with 146 starts for the Jets (2012-15, 2017), Cleveland (2016) and Saints, recording 1,105 tackles (733 solo), 29.5 sacks, two interceptions, 45 passes defended, three forced fumbles, six fumble recoveries and 24 special team stops.

• In 2018, Davis opened all 16 contests and led the team with 110 stops (74 solo), five sacks to lead the linebackers, four passes defended, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. Davis' abilities to diagnose and tackle played a key role in New Orleans ranking second in the NFL in opponent rushing yards per game and opponent rushing yards per play. Participating in the postseason for the first time, Davis led the defense with 22 stops (15 solo), an interception in the NFC Championship and a pass defense. In 2019, he posted 111 stops, ranked first on the club, four sacks, one interception and 11 passes defended to help spur the league's fourth-ranked run defense.

• In 2020, Davis filled up the stat sheet with a team-leading 119 tackles (74 solo), four sacks and six passes defended. Davis became the first Saint to lead the team in tackles in three consecutive seasons since Jonathan Vilma (2008-10).

ZACK BAUN

• An athletic, sideline to sideline linebacker, possessing the rare combination of pass rush skills and the ability to drop in coverage. After a stellar career at Wisconsin, Baun played in 15 rgames in 2020, with three starts at strongside linebacker, posting eight tackles (three solo) and four special teams stops. Overall in his college career, he played in 39 games with 27 starts, all which took place in his final two seasons, recording 154 tackles, 30.5 stops for loss, 15 sacks, two interceptions and three forced fumbles.

• Baun's strength and knowledge of the defense, which was on display when he led the team with five solo tackles in the season opening win vs. Green Bay.

• With Kwon Alexander missing the Week 16 contest vs. Miami due to COVID-19 protocols, Baun stepped into his place at weakside and tied a career-high with seven tackles (career-high tying five solo) and added one solo stop.

KADEN ELLISS

• Elliss was selected by the Saints with their second of two seventh round draft choices (244th overall) in 2019 out of Idaho. Elliss is a strong, athletic player with coverage, pass rush and run-stopping abilities who bounced back after missing the majority of 2019 (knee). In 2020, he appeared in 15 regular season games and two postseason contests on special teams recording five stops. The son of former NFL standout Luther Elliss, has utilized his strength, speed and size on defense and special teams. Elliss finished his third campaign with 13 stops, four special teams stops, one sack and one fumble recovery in 13 games.

PETE WERNER

• New Orleans selected this three-year starter from Ohio State in the second round of the 2021 NFL Draft. The Indianapolis native finished his college career playing in 47 career games with 35 starts, recording 185 tackles (111 solo), 16 stops for loss, four sacks, 11 passes defended, four forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. Werner helped power the Buckeyes to the College Football Playoff championship game as a senior in 2020, when he was voted by Big Ten coaches as a first-team All-Conference selection and a Butkus Award semifinalist, posting 54 tackles, 2.5 stops for loss, one sack and two forced fumbles. Werner made his second career start Oct. 3 vs. the Giants and recorded a ten tackles. With 13 stops in Week Five at Washington, he became the first Saints rookie defender to reach double-digit totals in back-to-back games. He ranked fifth on the team with 59 tackles.

• With Davis missing 2021's Week 16 contest vs. Miami due to COVID-19 protocols, Werner stepped into his spot in the middle and enjoyed a standout performance with a game-high ten tackles, his second double-digit total of the season.

SECONDARY

S TYRANN MATHIEU

• This versatile, hard-hitting, playmaking safety and New Orleans native returned home, signing after the 2022 NFL Draft and will bring extensive experience to the Saints secondary. Mathieu was originally selected by the Arizona Cardinals in the third round (69th overall) in the 2013 NFL Draft out of LSU and has played for the Cardinals (2013-17), Houston Texans (2018) and Kansas City Chiefs (2019-21). In nine NFL seasons, he has played in 129 regular season games with 120 starts and has posted career totals of 606 tackles (520 solo), 41 stops for loss, ten sacks for a loss of 78 yards, 26 interceptions for 335 returns yards, three brought back for touchdowns, 82 passes defended, four forced fumbles, six fumble recoveries and five special teams stops. Mathieu has been selected to three Pro Bowls, three Associated Press All-Pro teams and the Pro Football Hall of Fame's 2010's All-Decade Team.

NOSE FOR THE BALL

Saints safety Tyrann Mathieu comes to New Orleans after starting all 16 games he played in for Kansas City in 2021 and recording 76 tackles, one sack, a career-high three fumble recoveries, one sack and two interceptions to earn his second consecutive Pro Bowl selection. With the two picks in 2021, Mathieu's interception total since he entered the NFL in 2013 is tied for third over that span.

CB MARSHON LATTIMORE

• Selected by the New Orleans Saints in the first round (11th overall) of the 2017 NFL Draft, Lattimore started all 13 games he appeared in. He totaled 53 tackles (44 solo), a forced fumble, one fumble recovery, five interceptions for 85 yards and 18 passes defended, as he became the youngest Saint (21 years old) ever selected to the Pro Bowl and was selected as the AP NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year.

• In 2018, Lattimore opened all 16 contests and posted a career-high 59 tackles (49 solo), two interceptions, 12 passes defended, a club-best four forced fumbles, tied for fourth in the NFL and three fumble recoveries, returned for 91 yards, leading the team in takeaways and tied for the NFL lead in defensive fumble recoveries, the highest total among defensive backs. Lattimore also added two picks in the NFC Divisional Playoff win over Philadelphia.

• A standout 2019 campaign by Lattimore resulted in him being voted to the Pro Bowl, the only Saints cornerback to ever be selected multiple times. Lattimore started all 14 games he played in and posted 57 stops, one interception and ranked first on the team with 14 passes defended.

• In 2020, he posted a career-high 62 tackles (52 solo), two interceptions and 11 passes defended as he was voted to the Pro Bowl for the third time. High expectations follow in 2021 as he signed a long-term contract extension to lock up the lockdown corner in the New Orleans secondary.

• After signing a contract extension at the start of the season, Lattimore posted 68 stops, three picks, a career-high 19 passes defended, ranked third in the NFL and one fumble recovery, being selected to his fourth Pro Bowl.

2021 HIGHLIGHTS

Below were Lattimore's 2021 defensive highlights:

• In the September 26 28-13 win at New England, Lattimore picked off Patriots QB Mac Jones in the game's next to last play to seal the victory.

• In the Week Five win over Washington, Lattimore earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors, as he recorded a career-high six passes defended, the first time that occurred in the NFL since 2017 and tied for the second-highest total in the league since the 1992 season.

• In Week 13 vs. Dallas, Lattimore, posted eight tackles (five solo), a fourth quarter interceptions and a game-high three passes defended.

• In the Week 14 win at the New York Jets, Lattimore, recorded a game-high two passes defended and five tackles, as New York's longest reception in the contest went for only 27 yards.

2021 HIGHLIGHTS

• In the Week 15 9-0 win at Tampa Bay posted four solo tackles, two passes defended and his first fumble recovery of the season.

• After being selected to the Pro Bowl five days earlier, Lattimore posted a team-lead tying third interception in the third quarter vs. Miami on December 27.

S MARCUS MAYE

• Marcus Maye joined the Saints as an unrestricted free agent in 2022, looking to solidify the safety position alongside Mathieu. Maye, entering his sixth NFL season, first entered the league as a second round draft pick (39th overall) of the New York Jets out of the University of Florida in 2017. He has started all 60 contests he has appeared in for the Jets, posting career totals of 308 tackles (221 solo), 3.5 sacks for a loss of 19 yards, six interception returns for 148 yards, 24 passes defended, four forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and four special teams stops.

CB PAULSON ADEBO

• New Orleans' third round selection (76th overall) in the 2021 NFL Draft out of Stanford, Adebo overcame not playing college football in 2020 to make significant contributions to the Saints secondary in his first season with the club. The Texas native finished his college career playing in 22 games with 21 starts for Stanford and recording 97 tackles, 34 passes defended and eight interceptions, earning All-Pac 12 honors in both 2018 and 2019.

• Adebo showed his development by opening opposite Lattimore in the 2021 regular season opening win vs. Green Bay and returning a pick 33 yards in the third quarter to become the first Saints defender to have an interception in his NFL debut since LB James Allen vs. Tampa Bay on September 8, 2002. He then added a second pick in the Week Five win at Washington. With a pick in the regular season finale at Atlanta, Adebo finished his rookie campaign ranked fifth on the club with 63 tackles (54 solo), tied for first with three picks and added eight passes defended and two special teams stops.

P.J. WILLIAMS

• A third round pick of the Saints in 2015 out of Florida State, Williams has appeared in 78 regular season games with 31 starts for New Orleans, posting 208 tackles, four sacks, eight interception returns for 168 yards with two touchdowns, 49 passes defended, three forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. In 2021, playing a hybrid role of both cornerback and safety, Williams tied for the team lead with three picks for 86 yards returned including a game-clinching 40-yard interception return for a touchdown on October 31 vs. Tampa Bay, while playing outside cornerback, nickel cornerback, strong safety or free safety.
