* In 2006, the NFL implemented a "flexible scheduling" procedure for Sunday Night Football. Flexible scheduling ensured quality matchups on Sunday night in all weeks and gave surprise teams a chance to play their way onto primetime. For the 2025 season, flexible scheduling will be expanded to include Monday Night Football, as well as Thursday Night Football on a trial basis. Please note that the NFL is continuously reviewing its scheduling procedures to ensure exciting and meaningful games are available for viewing by the largest number of fans and so further changes to flexible scheduling could be implemented in the future.

* Flexible scheduling is in effect during the following windows (the "Flex Scheduling Windows"):

- ▶ Sunday afternoon games may also be moved between 1:00 p.m. and 4:05 p.m. or 4:25 p.m. ET.
- ▶ For Sunday Night Football, it may be used up to twice between Weeks 5-10, and at the NFL's discretion during Weeks 11-17;
- ▶ For Monday Night Football, it may be used at the NFL's discretion in Weeks 12-17;
- ▶ For Thursday Night Football, it may be used up to twice between Weeks 14-16.

* During the Flex Scheduling Windows, the games initially scheduled for Sunday Night Football (on NBC), Monday Night Football (ESPN or ABC), and Thursday Night Football (Amazon Prime Video) are tentatively scheduled and subject to change. Only Sunday afternoon games (or those listed as TBD) are eligible to be moved to Sunday night, Monday night, or Thursday night, in which case the initially scheduled Sunday, Monday, or Thursday night game would be moved to Sunday afternoon. Sunday afternoon games may also be moved between 1:00 p.m. and 4:05 p.m. or 4:25 p.m. ET.

* During the Flex Scheduling Windows, only Sunday afternoon or TBD games are subject to being moved into the Sunday night, Monday, or Thursday night window. The game that has been tentatively scheduled for Sunday Night Football, Monday Night Football, or Thursday Night Football during the Flex Scheduling Windows will generally be listed at 8:20 p.m. ET, 8:15 p.m. ET, and 8:15 p.m. ET, respectively. The majority of games on Sundays will typically be listed at 1:00 p.m. ET during the Flex Scheduling Windows except for games played in Pacific or Mountain time zones, which will be listed at 4:05 or 4:25 p.m. ET. For Sunday Night Football in Weeks 5-13 and for Monday Night Football in Weeks 12-17, the NFL will decide (after consultation with CBS, FOX, NBC, and ESPN) and announce no later than 12 days in advance of the game, which game will be played on Sunday night and which game will be played on Monday night. For Sunday Night Football in Weeks 14-17, the flexible scheduling decision will generally be made no later than six days prior to the game. For Thursday Night Football in Weeks 14-16, the flexible scheduling decision will be made no later than 21 days prior to the game.

In Week 17, two of five designated matchups will be played on Saturday with the remainder to be determined. Specific dates and start times for the designated Week 17 matchups will be determined and announced at a later date during the season.

^ As in prior seasons, for Week 18, the final weekend of the season, the scheduling of the Saturday, Sunday afternoon, and the Sunday night games is not assigned. The schedule for Week 18 will be announced no later than six days prior to that week's Saturday game (Jan. 4, 2025).

2025 POSTSEASON SCHEDULE & SITE PRIORITIES

Wild Card
Weekend

Site Priorities

The No. 1 seed in each conference will receive the only bye. Using NFL tie-breaking procedures, the remaining division champions in each conference will be seeded 2, 3 and 4, followed by the next three teams per conference seeded 5, 6 and 7. Wild Card games will feature the 2 seed hosting the 7 seed, the 3 seed hosting the 6 seed and the 4 seed hosting the 5 seed. There are no restrictions on intra-division games.

All times ET and PM unless otherwise noted; *—The NFL again will utilize “flexible scheduling” in 2025

FUTURE OPPONENTS

Under the NFL scheduling formula, every team plays 17 games as follows:

- Home and away against its three division opponents (six games).
- The four teams from another division within its conference on a rotating, three-year cycle (four games).
- The four teams from a division in the other conference on a rotating, four-year cycle (four games).
- Two intraconference opponents based on the prior year's standings (two games). These games match a first-place team against the first-place teams in the two same-conference divisions the team is not scheduled to play that season. The second-place, third-place and fourth-place teams in a conference are matched in the same way each year.
- One interconference opponent based on the prior year's standings on a rotating four-year cycle (one game). These games match a first-place team from one division against a first-place team in an opposite-conference division that the team is not scheduled to play that season. The second-place, third-place and fourth-place teams in each division are matched in the same way each year. The home conference for this game will rotate.

IMPORTANT DATES, 2025-26

JULY 2025

July 15

At 4:00 p.m., New York time, deadline for any club that designated a Franchise Player to sign such player to a multi-year contract or extension. After this date, the player may sign only a one-year contract with his prior club for the 2025 season, and such contract cannot be extended until after the club's last regular season game.

Mid-July

Clubs are permitted to open preseason training camp for rookies (defined as a player who has never signed an NFL player contract with a club in a prior league year) beginning seven days prior to the club's mandatory reporting date for veteran players.

Clubs may require first-year players (defined as a player who signed an NFL player contract with any club in a prior league year, but who does not have a pension-credited season) to report on the designated reporting date for all rookies, or at any time thereafter, including, but not limited to, the designated reporting date for veteran quarterbacks and injured players, or the designated reporting date for all other veteran players.

Veteran quarterbacks and "injured players" (as defined in CBA Article 21, Section 6) may be required to report to the club's preseason training camp no earlier than five days immediately prior to the mandatory reporting date for all other veteran players, provided the club has already opened (or simultaneously opens) its official preseason training camp for all rookies.

The earliest mandatory reporting date for veteran players (as defined in CBA Article 23, Sections 5(a)-(c) are:

a. For clubs whose first regular season game is on a Thursday or a Sunday, all veteran players other than quarterbacks and injured players are required to report to the club's official preseason training camp 47 days (including one day for physical examinations, meetings, classroom instruction, running, and conditioning) prior to such regular season game.

b. For clubs whose first regular season game is on a Monday, all veteran players other than quarterbacks and injured players are required to report to the club's official preseason training camp 48 days (including one day for physical examinations, meetings, classroom instruction, running, and conditioning) prior to such regular season game.

c. Notwithstanding Subsections (a) and (b) above, for clubs whose first preseason game is the Canton Hall of Fame Game, no veteran player other than quarterbacks and injured players will be required to report to such club's official preseason training camp earlier than fifteen days (including one day for physical examinations, meetings, classroom instruction, running and conditioning) prior to such preseason game.

July 22

At 4:00 p.m., New York time, signing period ends for Transition Players with outstanding tenders. After this date and until 4:00 p.m., New York time, on the Tuesday following the 10th weekend of the regular season, prior club has exclusive negotiating rights.

At 4:00 p.m., New York time, on July 22 (or the first scheduled day of the first NFL training camp, whichever is later) signing period ends for unrestricted free agents to whom a "UFA Tender" was made by prior club. After this date and until 4:00 p.m., New York time, on the Tuesday following the 10th weekend of the regular season, prior club has exclusive negotiating rights.

IMPORTANT DATES, 2025-26

Clubs are permitted to designate for return a maximum of two players who are placed on an applicable Reserve List during the business day of the final roster reduction. Any such player will immediately count against the club's number of designations, even if the player does not subsequently return to practice.

Players who are on the Reserve List or Exempt List and are not counting against the 90-player limit will begin to count against the 90-player limit.

Aug. 27

Claiming period for players placed on waivers at the final roster reduction will expire at 12:00 noon, New York time.

Upon receipt of the subsequent Personnel Notice, clubs may establish a Practice Squad of 17 players, as long as one player qualifies and is designated as an International Player. No club, including the player's prior club, will be permitted to sign a player to a practice player contract until all clubs have received simultaneous notification via the above Personnel Notice that such player's prior NFL player contract has been terminated via the waiver system.

Beginning at 4:00 p.m., New York time, any player placed on Reserve/Injured, Reserve/Non-Football Injury or Illness, or Practice Squad; Injured during the regular season or postseason, may be designated for return later in the season, subject to the applicable procedures.

Aug. 31

TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES

The following procedures will be used to break standings ties for postseason playoffs and to determine regular-season schedules.

Note: Tie games count as one-half win and one-half loss for both clubs.

TO BREAK A TIE WITHIN A DIVISION

If, at the end of the regular season, two or more clubs in the same division finish with the best won-lost-tied percentage, the following steps will be taken until a champion is determined:

TWO CLUBS

1. Head-to-head (best won-lost-tied percentage in games between the clubs).
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the division.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games.
4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
5. Strength of victory in all games.
6. Strength of schedule in all games.
7. Best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.
8. Best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.
9. Best net points in common games.
10. Best net points in all games.
11. Best net touchdowns in all games.
12. Coin toss.

THREE-OR-MORE CLUBS

(Note: If two clubs remain tied after one-or-more clubs are eliminated during any step, tiebreaker restarts at Step 1 of two-club format. If three clubs remain tied after a fourth club is eliminated during any step, tiebreaker restarts at Step 1 of three-club format.)

1. Head-to-head (best won-lost-tied percentage in games among the clubs).
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the division.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games.
4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
5. Strength of victory in all games.
6. Strength of schedule in all games.
7. Best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.
8. Best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.
9. Best net points in common games.
10. Best net points in all games.
11. Best net touchdowns in all games.
12. Coin toss.

TO BREAK A TIE FOR THE WILD CARD TEAM

If necessary to break ties to determine the three Wild Card clubs from each conference, the following steps will be taken:

- A. If all the tied clubs are from the same division, apply division tiebreaker.
- B. If the tied clubs are from different divisions, apply the following steps:

TWO CLUBS

1. Head-to-head, if applicable.
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, minimum of four.
4. Strength of victory in all games.
5. Strength of schedule in all games.
6. Best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.
7. Best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.
8. Best net points in conference games.
9. Best net points in all games.
10. Best net touchdowns in all games.
11. Coin toss.

THREE-OR-MORE CLUBS

(Note: If two clubs remain tied after one-or-more clubs are eliminated during any step, tiebreaker restarts at Step 1 of two-club format. If three clubs remain tied after a fourth club is eliminated during any step, tiebreaker restarts at Step 2 of three-club format.)

1. Apply division tiebreaker to eliminate all but highest-ranked club in each division prior to proceeding to Step 2. The original seeding within a division upon application of the division tiebreaker remains the same for all subsequent applications of the procedure that are necessary to identify the two Wild Card participants.
2. Head-to-head sweep (apply only if one has defeated each of the others, or one club has lost to each of the others).
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, minimum of four.
5. Strength of victory in all games.
6. Strength of schedule in all games.
7. Best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.
8. Best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.

9. Best net points in conference games.
10. Best net points in all games.
11. Best net touchdowns in all games.
12. Coin toss.

When the first Wild Card team has been identified, the procedure is repeated to name the second and third Wild Card (i.e., eliminate all but the highest-ranked club in each division prior to proceeding to Step 2). In situations in which three teams from the same division are involved in the procedure, the original seeding of the teams remains the same for subsequent applications of the tiebreaker if the top-ranked team in that division qualifies for a Wild Card berth.

OTHER TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES

1. Only one club advances to the playoffs in any tie-breaking step. Remaining tied clubs revert to the first step of the applicable division or Wild Card tiebreakers. As an example, if two clubs remain tied in any tiebreaker step after all other clubs have been eliminated, the procedure reverts to Step 1 of the two-club format to determine the winner. When one club wins the tiebreaker, all other clubs revert to Step 1 of the applicable two-club or three-club format.
2. In comparing records against common opponents among tied teams, the best won-loss-tied percentage is the deciding factor since teams may have played an unequal number of games.
3. To determine home-field priority among division winners, apply Wild Card tiebreakers.
4. To determine home-field priority for Wild Card qualifiers, apply division tiebreakers (if teams are from the same division) or Wild Card tiebreakers (if teams are from different divisions).
5. To determine the best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed, add a team's position in the two categories, and the lowest score wins. For example, if Team A is first in points scored and second in points allowed, its combined ranking is "3." If Team B is third in points scored and first in points allowed, its combined ranking is "4." Team A then wins the tiebreaker. If two teams are tied for a position, both teams are awarded the ranking as if they held it solely. For example, if Team A and Team B are tied for first in points scored, each team is assigned a ranking of "1" in that category, and if Team C is third, its ranking will still be "3."

TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURE FOR SELECTION MEETING

1. Clubs not participating in the playoffs shall select in the first through 18th positions in reverse-standings order.
2. Clubs participating in the playoffs shall select according to the following procedures:
 - (A) The losers of the Wild Card games shall select in the 19th through 24th positions based on won-loss-tied percentage in reverse-standings order.
 - (B) The losers of the Divisional playoff games shall select in the 25th through 28th positions based on won-loss-tied percentage in reverse-standings order.
 - (C) The losers of the Conference Championship Games shall select 29th and 30th based on won-loss-tied percentage in reverse-standings order.
 - (D) The winner of the Super Bowl game shall select last and the Super Bowl loser will select next-to-last.
3. If ties exist in any grouping, such ties shall be broken by figuring the aggregate won-lost-tied percentage of each involved club's regular-season opponents and awarding preferential selection order to the club that faced the schedule of teams with the lowest aggregate won-lost-tied percentage.
4. If ties still exist, apply the Divisional, Conference or Interconference tie-breaking methods, whichever is applicable.
 - (A) For Divisional or Conference ties, use the procedures on the previous page.
 - (B) For Interconference ties, use the following procedures:
 - (i) Ties involving TWO teams from different conferences will be broken by (a) head-to-head meeting; (b) best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, minimum of four, (c) strength of victory in all games, (d) best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed in all games, (e) best net points in all games, (f) best net touchdowns in all games, and finally (g) coin toss.
 - (ii) Ties involving THREE-OR-MORE clubs from different conferences will be broken by applying (a) divisional tiebreakers to determine the lowest-ranked team in a division, (b) conference tiebreakers to determine the lowest-ranked team within a conference, and (c) interconference tiebreakers to determine the lowest-ranked team in the league. The process will be repeated until the draft order has been established.

After the selection order for the first round of the draft has been determined, clubs originally involved in two-club ties will alternate positions from round to round. In the cases of ties that originally involved three-or-more clubs, the club at the top of a tied segment in a given round will move to the bottom of the segment for the next round, while all other clubs in the segment move up one place. This rotation will continue throughout the draft.

INSTANT REPLAY

The NFL uses a system of Instant Replay Review to aid officiating. The following procedures will be used:

Coach Challenges: In each game, a team will be permitted two challenges that will initiate Instant Replay reviews. The Head Coach can initiate a challenge by throwing a red flag onto the field of play before the next legal snap or kick. Each challenge requires an available team timeout. A team that is out of timeouts, or has used all its available challenges, may not attempt to initiate a challenge. If a challenge is unsuccessful, the team will be charged a timeout. If a team is successful on one of its challenges, it is allowed a third challenge, but a fourth challenge will not be permitted.

The Head Coach may challenge on-field rulings identified in the Reviewable Plays section below, except for those plays that only the Replay Official can challenge. If a team initiates a challenge when it is not permitted to do so, it will be charged a timeout. The penalty for initiating a challenge when a team has exhausted its timeouts is a loss of 15 yards.

Replay Official Request for Review: Only the Replay Official or the Senior Vice President of Officiating or his or her designee may challenge a play that 1) begins after the two-minute warning of each half, 2) happens throughout any overtime period, 3) happens when points are scored by either team, 4) is a Try attempt (successful or unsuccessful), or 5) in which the final on-field ruling includes:

- An interception by an opponent;
- A fumble or backward pass recovered by an opponent or that goes out of bounds through the opponent's end zone;
- A possession by the kicking team at the end of any free kick or scrimmage kick down;
- A play in which the offense failed to reach the line to gain on fourth down; or
- A disqualification of a player.

Such plays can be challenged only by the Replay Official or the Senior Vice President of Officiating or his or her designee, including when a foul is committed on the play that, if accepted, would negate the on-field ruling.

There is no limit to the number of Replay Reviews that may be initiated by the Replay Official. The Replay Official may only challenge a play until the next legal snap or kick.

Replay Reviews: All Replay Reviews will be conducted by the Senior Vice President of Officiating or his or her designee. Reviews are conducted in consultation with the Replay Official and the Referee, who will have access to a field-level video monitor. An on-field ruling will be changed only when the Senior Vice President of Officiating or his or her designee determines that clear and obvious video evidence warrants a change.

All reviewable aspects of the play may be examined and are subject to reversal, even if not identified in a coach's challenge or if not the specific reason for a Replay Official's request for review.

Reviewable Plays: The Replay System will cover the following play situations:

- Plays involving possession.
- Plays involving touching of either the ball or the ground.
- Plays governed by the goal line.
- Plays governed by the boundary lines.
- Plays governed by the line of scrimmage.
- Plays governed by the line to gain.
- Number of players on the field, even when a foul is not called.
- Game administration:
 - Penalty enforcement.
 - Proper down.
 - Spot of a foul.
 - Status of the game clock.
- Disqualification of a player for football and non-football acts.
- Other reviewable plays:
 - Direction of a pass.
 - Illegal forward pass.
 - Field goal or Try attempt.
 - Illegal forward handoff.
 - Ball touching a foreign object.

When the on-field ruling results in a dead ball (e.g., score, down by contact, incomplete pass, etc.), and following replay review, it is determined that possession was lost before the ball should have been ruled dead, possession can be awarded to a player who clearly recovers a loose ball in the immediate continuing action. When the on-field ruling is an incomplete pass and there is no clear recovery, the ball will be awarded to the team last in possession at the spot where it lost possession. A loose ball that touches out of bounds is deemed a clear recovery by the player who last possessed the ball. A preliminary ruling by on-field officials of which team recovered the ball can also constitute a clear recovery.

When a ruling is changed in replay, the game clock will be reset to the time when the ball should have been declared dead and the clock status is determined by rule. The game clock is not reset if the on-field ruling is not changed in replay.

When a changed ruling after the two-minute warning results in a game clock that would start before the snap, the clock is reset to the time when the play should have ended, and the clock will run for 10 seconds from the reset time. If less than 10 seconds remain in the half or the game, the half or the game is over. Either team may use a team timeout to avoid the 10-second runoff.

INSTANT REPLAY HISTORY

From 1986-91, a limited system of Instant Replay was used on a year-by-year basis. Replay also was experimented with during the 1996 and 1998 preseasons.

For the 1999 season, the NFL introduced a system of Referee Replay Review to aid officiating. That system was extended on a one-year basis for the 2000 season and then approved for the next three years through 2003. The system was extended on a five-year basis in March 2004 and was later installed permanently in March 2007.

Following are the results of the different systems:

WAIVER & PERSONNEL INFORMATION

WAIVERS

The waiver system is a procedure by which player contracts or NFL rights to players are made available by a club to other clubs in the league. During the procedure, the 31 other clubs either file claims to obtain the players or waive the opportunity to do so—thus the term “waiver.” Claiming clubs are assigned players on a priority based on the inverse of won-and-lost standing. With certain exceptions, the claiming period is 24 hours from the first business day after the Super Bowl through the conclusion of the regular season. If a player passes through waivers unclaimed, he becomes a free agent. All waivers are no recall and no withdrawal. Under the Collective Bargaining Agreement, from the beginning of the waiver system each year through the trading deadline, any veteran who has acquired four years of pension credit is not subject to the waiver system if the club desires to release him. After the trading deadline, such players are subject to the waiver system.

ACTIVE/INACTIVE LIST

The Active/Inactive List is the principal status for players participating for a club. It consists of all players under contract who are eligible for preseason, regular-season and postseason games. Clubs are permitted to open training camp with no more than 90 players under contract and thereafter must meet a mandatory roster reduction prior to the season-opener. Clubs will be permitted an Active List of 47 players (or 48 players if teams carry eight offensive linemen) and an Inactive List of five or six players to complete their 53-player rosters for each regular-season and postseason game. A club that does not carry three quarterbacks on its 47/48-player Active List is permitted to designate one quarterback from its Inactive List as its emergency Third Quarterback. A Third Quarterback can be activated during a game if the club's first two quarterbacks are disqualified, injured or undergoing a medical examination. In addition, each club is permitted to elevate two players from its Practice Squad each week to increase its roster to 54 or 55 players.

PRACTICE SQUAD

Clubs are permitted to establish Practice Squads of up to 16 players who are eligible to participate in practice, but these players remain free agents and are eligible to sign with any other team. An additional 17th player may be signed if the player qualifies as an International Player.

PRESEASON ROSTER DATES, 2025

Aug. 26	Roster reduction to 53 players
Aug. 27	Teams establish practice squads

In addition to the squad limits described above, the overall roster limit of 90 players remains in effect throughout the regular season and postseason. The overall limit is applicable to players on a team's Active, Inactive and certain exempt lists, players on the Practice Squad, and players on the Reserve List as Injured, Physically Unable to Perform, Non-Football Illness/Injury, and Suspended by Club.

RESERVE LIST

The Reserve List is a status for players who, for reasons of injury, retirement, military service, or other circumstances, are not immediately available for participation with a club. Except for eight players who must be Designated for Return, players on Reserve/Injured are not eligible to practice or return to the Active/Inactive List in the same season that they are placed on Reserve. Players in the category of Reserve/Retired, Reserve/Did Not Report or Reserve/Exclusive Rights, and players who were placed in the category of Reserve/Left Squad in a previous season, may not be reinstated after a club's Week 13 game. No reinstatement may occur in the last five weeks of the regular season through the postseason.

2025 COACHING STAFF

John Harbaugh, Head Coach

Pro Career: Super Bowl-winning head coach John Harbaugh enters his 18th season at the helm in Baltimore. He has led the Ravens to a playoff berth in 12 (2008-12, 2014, 2018-20, 2022-24) of his 17 full seasons, and in 2012, captured the franchise's second Super Bowl championship. Under Harbaugh's guidance, Baltimore is one of four teams with at least 12 playoff berths in the past 17 seasons, joining Green Bay (13), Kansas City (12) and New England (12). Harbaugh has also led the Ravens to playoff berths in six (2018-20, 2022-24) of the past seven seasons, producing the league's second-most regular-season victories (78) during that span. Entering 2025, Harbaugh ties (Mike McCarthy) for the 12th-most total victories (185, including playoffs) by a head coach in NFL history. Additionally, his 13 playoff wins tie (Mike Holmgren) for the seventh most all time, while his .623 regular season winning percentage stands eighth best. Finishing 12-5 in 2024, the AFC North Champion Ravens produced the NFL's best offense (424.9 ypg), becoming the first unit in NFL history to post at least 4,000 passing yards and 3,000 rushing yards in a single season. A league-high nine of Baltimore's regular season wins in 2024 came against teams that finished with a winning record. In 2019, Harbaugh became the first Ravens coach to win Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year, leading the team to the AFC's No. 1 playoff seed and a franchise-best 14-2 record. Baltimore also won a franchise-record 12 straight games to close out the regular season. In 2012, the Ravens seized the franchise's second Super Bowl championship. Baltimore topped the Colts in the Wild Card round and followed that by earning a Divisional Round victory over top-seeded Denver before advancing to Super Bowl XLVII with a win in the AFC Championship Game at New England. In the Super Bowl in New Orleans, the Ravens bested the San Francisco 49ers, 34-31. In his initial season with the team (2008), Harbaugh led Baltimore to an 11-5 record and a berth in the AFC Championship Game. Baltimore set an NFL record that season for most total wins (13) by a team with both a rookie head coach and a rookie starting quarterback (Joe Flacco). Harbaugh spent his first 10 NFL seasons (1998-2007) with the Philadelphia Eagles. He was the team's secondary coach in 2007, after nine seasons as its special teams coordinator. In 2001, he was voted the NFL's Special Teams Coach of the Year by his peers. Career record: 185-115.

Background: Played defensive back at Miami (Ohio) from 1980-83, earned degree in political science. Coached collegiately at Western Michigan (1984-86), Pittsburgh (1987), Morehead State (1988), Cincinnati (1989-1996), and Indiana (1997).

Personal: Born in Perrysburg, Ohio, on Sept. 23, 1962, Harbaugh and his wife, Ingrid, have a daughter, Alison. Son of longtime college coach Jack. His brother, Jim, head coach of the Los Angeles Chargers, played for the Ravens in 1998. John's brother-in-law, Tom Crean, a longtime college head basketball coach, is married to the brothers' sister, Joani.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2025 COACHING STAFF

Sean McDermott, Head Coach

Pro Career: McDermott was named Buffalo's 19th head coach on Jan. 11, 2017. He enters his ninth season as Buffalo's head coach and his 27th season in the NFL ranks. McDermott joined the Bills after spending six seasons as the defensive coordinator of the Carolina Panthers. In his first year in Buffalo, McDermott led the Bills to their first playoff berth since 1999 with a 9-7 record. He became the third coach in Bills history to earn a playoff berth in his first season at the helm, joining Joe Collier (1966) and Wade Phillips (1998). The 2017 Bills also won six home games for the first time since 1999. In his second year in Buffalo, McDermott led the Bills to the NFL's second-ranked defense and since 2018 the Bills have allowed 19.7 points per game, the lowest in the NFL during that stretch. McDermott led the Bills back to the playoffs in 2019, as the team recorded its first 10-win season since 1999 and has now won 11-plus games for the fifth straight season, the longest streak in team history. In 2020, he led the Bills to the AFC Championship Game for the first time since 1994 and once again in 2024. The Bills have won five straight AFC East titles, dating back to 2020, for the first time in franchise history. Career record: 93-52.

Background: An all-Atlantic 10 Conference choice at safety for William & Mary as a senior in 1997, McDermott graduated with a degree in finance and began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater in 1998. No pro playing experience.

Personal: Born March 21, 1974. He and his wife, Jamie, have three children

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform

2025 COACHING STAFF

Zac Taylor, Head Coach

Pro Career: Zac Taylor is in his seventh season as head coach of the Cincinnati Bengals, after being named the 10th head coach in team history on Feb. 4, 2019. In 2024, his sixth season as head coach, Taylor guided the Bengals to their fourth consecutive winning season as the team posted a 9-8 record. After falling to 4-8 in early December, Taylor rallied the team to five straight wins to close out the regular season, with two of those victories coming on the road in prime time. He once again orchestrated one of the NFL's most dynamic offenses, serving as play-caller for a unit that led the league in passing yards per game (272.9), ranked sixth in points per game (27.8) and ranked ninth in total yards per game (365.5). Taylor led Cincinnati to back-to-back AFC North titles in 2021 and 2022, marking the first time in team history the Bengals won their division in consecutive years. Under Taylor's direction in 2021, the Bengals won the AFC for the first time since 1988 and advanced to Super Bowl LVI. They followed up with another AFC Championship appearance following the 2022 season, improving Taylor's postseason record to 5-2. Taylor came to Cincinnati after two seasons with the L.A. Rams, where he served as assistant wide receivers coach in 2017 and quarterbacks coach in '18. He broke into NFL coaching with Miami as assistant quarterbacks coach in 2012, then was elevated to quarterbacks coach for the Dolphins from 2013-15. Career record (including postseason): 51-54-1.

Background: Taylor played quarterback at Wake Forest (2002-03), Butler County (Kan.) C.C. (2004) and Nebraska (2005-06). As a senior in 2006, he was named Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year after passing for 3,197 yards and leading the Cornhuskers to a 9-3 record, an appearance in the Big 12 Championship Game and a berth in the Cotton Bowl. He was inducted into the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame in 2017. He joined the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as a college free agent in 2007, but was waived prior to the start of training camp. He then spent the 2007 season with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League (did not play). Taylor had two stints in the college coaching ranks, serving on staff at Texas A&M (2008-11) and Cincinnati (2016).

Personal: Taylor was born on May 10, 1983, in Norman, Okla. He earned a bachelor's degree in communication studies from Nebraska in 2006. He and his wife, Sarah, have four children — Brooks, Luke, Emma Claire and Milly. Sarah Taylor is the daughter of former Green Bay Packers and Texas A&M head coach Mike Sherman. Taylor's father, Sherwood, was a defensive back and captain at Oklahoma (1976-79), then later served as an assistant coach at Oklahoma and Kansas State. Taylor's brother, Press, played quarterback at Marshall and currently is the pass game coordinator for the Chicago Bears.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2025 COACHING STAFF

Kevin Stefanski, Head Coach

Pro Career: Two-time NFL Coach of the Year Kevin Stefanski enters his sixth season as the Cleveland Browns head coach after being named the 18th full-time head coach in franchise history by Managing and Principal Partners Dee and Jimmy Haslam on Jan. 13, 2020. Stefanski became the 16th coach to win the Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year Award multiple times since its inception in 1957, winning the honors in 2023 and 2020 and joined Forrest Gregg (1976) as the only Browns coaches to win the award. In his five seasons as head coach, Stefanski has led the team to two postseason appearances and two 11-win seasons. He joined Pro Football Hall of Famer Paul Brown (1951 and 1953) as the only coaches in team history to record multiple seasons with at least 11 regular season wins. During the Browns 78-year history, the team has surpassed 6,000 scrimmage yards in a single season just seven times, but have reached the mark in four seasons under Stefanski. Before the Browns, he spent 14 seasons (2006-19) with the Minnesota Vikings and moved up the coaching ladder from assistant to the head coach to offensive coordinator. He gained his first league experience with the Vikings in 2006 as an assistant to the head coach before transitioning to assistant quarterbacks coach from 2009-13, two seasons tutoring the tight ends group (2014-15), one season (2016) as running backs coach, two seasons guiding the quarterbacks (2017-18) and added the role of interim offensive coordinator for the remaining three games of the 2018 season before being promoted to the Vikings' offensive coordinator in 2019. Career record: 40-44.

Background: Stefanski played defensive back at Pennsylvania (2000-04) and earned a bachelor's degree in communications.

Personal: Born April 8, 1982, Stefanski is a native of Philadelphia, Pa. He and his wife, Michelle, have two sons, Will, Gabe and one daughter, Juliet.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2025 COACHING STAFF

Sean Payton, Head Coach

Pro Career: Sean Payton enters his third season with the Denver Broncos after being named the 20th head coach in franchise history on Feb. 3, 2023. In his first two seasons as head coach, the Broncos have accumulated an 18-16 regular-season record and one playoff berth (2024). In his second season at the helm in 2024, he led the Broncos to a 10-7 record and the club's first playoff appearance since the 2015 season. A 36-year coaching veteran with 26 seasons of NFL experience, Payton joined the Broncos after spending 15 years as New Orleans' head coach (2006-11, '13-21). While with the Saints, Payton accumulated a regular-season record of 152-89-0 and a 9-8 record in the playoffs. He also led the franchise to its first Super Bowl championship (Super Bowl XLIV) during the 2009 season along with making two NFC Championship Game appearances, winning seven NFC South Division titles and making nine playoff trips. With New Orleans, Payton helped lead an offense that ranked in the top 10 in each season from 2006-19. In his first season with the Saints in 2006, he received unanimous NFL Coach of the Year honors after leading the team to a 10-6 record. Prior to joining New Orleans, he spent three years on the Dallas Cowboys staff as assistant to the head coach & quarterbacks coach (2003-05). Payton got his first NFL offensive coordinator position with the New York Giants (2000-02) after spending one season as the team's quarterbacks coach (1999). He first entered the NFL with the Philadelphia Eagles as their quarterbacks coach (1997-98). Career record: 161-97-0.

Background: Attended Eastern Illinois (1983-86). Coached collegiately at Illinois (1986), Miami (Ohio) (1994-95), San Diego State (1988-89; '92-93) and Indiana State (1990-91). Had brief playing stops with the Chicago Bruins (AFL), Ottawa Rough Riders (CFL) and Chicago Bears in 1987.

Personal: Born Dec. 29, 1963, in San Mateo, Calif. Payton is married to Skyline. He has one daughter, Meghan, and one son, Connor.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2025 COACHING STAFF

DeMeco Ryans, Head Coach

Pro Career: DeMeco Ryans enters his third season as head coach of the Texans after being named to the role on Jan. 31, 2023, becoming the sixth head coach in franchise history. In 2024, the Houston Texans finished the regular season with a 10-7 record and clinched a playoff berth for the eighth time in franchise history. It marked just the second time in franchise history that the Texans made it to the Divisional Round in back-to-back seasons (2012-13). The Texans won their second consecutive AFC South title, making Ryans and QB C.J. Stroud the first quarterback/head coach duo in NFL history to win a division crown in each of their first two seasons together. Additionally, Ryans and Stroud became the third head coach/quarterback duo in NFL history to win a playoff game in each of their first two seasons and the third duo in NFL history to record 10-plus wins in each of their first two seasons with the club. Ryans joined Bill O'Brien (2018-19) and Gary Kubiak (2011-12) as the only coaches in franchise history to lead their team to back-to-back 10-win seasons. Under Ryans, the Texans earned five AFC Player of the Week awards and one AFC Player of the Month award. Additionally, the team had five players named to the 2025 Pro Bowl, marking the most selections they've had in a season since 2018. CB Derek Stingley Jr. was also named to the Associated Press All-Pro First Team, joining J.J. Watt as the only two defensive players in team history to garner the award. The Texans defense, coached by Ryans, was dominant in 2024, setting franchise records for most sacks (49.0) and tackles for loss in a season (106). The team also finished the year ranked second in the NFL in interceptions (19), tied for third in passes defended (90) and tied for fourth in sacks (49.0). Overall, the defense allowed the sixth-fewest total yards per game (315.0) and the sixth-lowest passing yards per game (201.0), while forcing 29 takeaways, the fifth-most in the NFL. In the Texans' first year under Ryans, the Texans finished with an 10-7 record and clinched a playoff berth for the first time since 2019. Houston won their seventh AFC South title and became the first team in NFL history to win their division with a rookie quarterback and first-year head coach. Additionally, Ryans and QB C.J. Stroud became the fourth rookie quarterback and first-year head coach to win a playoff game together. Under Ryans' leadership in 2023, Stroud and DE Will Anderson Jr. were named the Associated Press NFL Offensive and Defensive Rookie of the Year, marking a Texans sweep of the top rookie awards. The Texans were the fourth team since 1967 to win both Offensive and Defensive Rookie of the Year in the same season. The team's bright season produced two AFC Player of the Month awards, six Player of the Week awards, two NFL Offensive Rookie of the Month awards and three Pro Bowl selections. Ryans coached a team that boasted a +10 net differential in turnover margin, which ranked top-five in the NFL. Houston finished the season ranked sixth in rushing defense (96.6 yards per game allowed), while also finishing seventh in the league in passing yards per game (245.5) and 11th in points allowed (20.8). Ryans was named the PFWA Coach of the Year, becoming the first coach in franchise history to win the award. He also was named the Kansas City 101 AFC Coach of the Year.

Background: In 2022, which marked his last season in San Francisco, Ryans was named the PFWA Assistant Coach of the Year. He coached six seasons with the 49ers and two as the team's defensive coordinator (2021-22), helping lead the team to the NFC Championship. He spent the previous three seasons (2018-20) as the 49ers inside linebackers coach, while serving as the team's defensive quality control coach in 2017. Originally drafted in the second round (33rd overall) by the Texans in the 2006 NFL Draft, Ryans played for Houston (2006-11) and the Philadelphia Eagles (2012-15). He was a team captain for the Texans' 2011 season, a squad that claimed the franchise's inaugural AFC South title and playoff berth. Ryans holds the Texans record for the most tackles by a rookie (156) and currently sits as the second-leading tackler in franchise history (636). During his 10-year playing career, Ryans was named AP Defensive Rookie of the Year and PFWA Rookie of the Year in 2006, first-team All-Pro in 2007 and was selected to the Pro Bowl in 2007 and 2009. He appeared in 140 career games (139 starts) throughout his career and registered 970 tackles, 46 passes defended, 13.5 sacks, seven forced fumbles, 10 fumble recoveries and seven interceptions. Ryans played linebacker at the University of Alabama (2002-05). As a senior, he was a unanimous All-American selection, SEC Defensive Player of the Year and earned first-team All-SEC honors in 2005.

Personal: Born July 28, 1984, in Bessemer, Ala. He and his wife, Jamila, have two daughters, Xia and Zuri, and two sons, MJ and Micah.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2025 COACHING STAFF

Shane Steichen, Head Coach

Pro Career: Shane Steichen was hired as head coach of the Indianapolis Colts on February 14, 2023. He has 15 years of coaching experience, including the last 14 seasons in the NFL. In 2024, Steichen led the team to an 8-9 record. The Colts finished in the top 10 in rushing yards per game (137.1 – eighth) for the second consecutive season. Defensively, the Indianapolis defense ranked tied for seventh in the NFL in takeaways (25), tied for first in red zone takeaways (six), 10th in tackles for loss (88.0) and tied for third in forced fumbles (17). The Colts had three players earn Pro Bowl accolades, including linebacker Zaire Franklin, guard Quenton Nelson and running back Jonathan Taylor. Franklin and Nelson also earned Associated Press Second Team All-Pro honors. In his first season with Indianapolis, Steichen guided the team to a winning record, finishing the season 9-8. The Colts finished in the top 10 in the NFL in points per game (23.3 – tied-10th) and rushing yards per game (121.1 – 10th). Defensively, Indianapolis ranked fifth in the NFL in tackles for loss (94.0) and sacks (51.0), while finishing tied for fifth in forced fumbles (17.0). The team's 51.0 sacks were the most by the Colts in the Indianapolis era (since 1984). The Colts had four players selected to the Pro Bowl, including defensive tackle DeForest Buckner, center Ryan Kelly, quarterback Gardner Minshew II and Nelson. Prior to Indianapolis, Steichen served as the offensive coordinator of the Philadelphia Eagles for two seasons (2021-22) and helped the team reach Super Bowl LVII in 2022. During his two seasons as offensive coordinator, he guided an offense that ranked first in the NFL in rushing yards per game (153.6), rushing yards (5,224) and rushing touchdowns (57) over that time frame. Steichen spent seven seasons (2014-20) with the Los Angeles/San Diego Chargers where he served as offensive coordinator (2020), interim offensive coordinator (2019), quarterbacks coach (2016-19) and offensive quality control/wide receivers (2014-15). The Chargers offense finished in the top 10 in passing yards per game in each of his seven years on the offensive staff, including the league's best in 2017. In 2013, Steichen assisted the quarterbacks as an offensive quality control coach with the Cleveland Browns. He began his NFL career as a defensive assistant with the Chargers (2011-12) after spending one season as a full-time offensive assistant at Louisville (2010). Steichen also served as an offensive graduate assistant (2008-09) and student graduate assistant (2007) at his alma mater, UNLV.

Background: As a four-year letterman (2003-06) at quarterback for the Rebels, Steichen left as the school's 12th all-time leading passer with 2,755 yards and 22 touchdowns. He also registered 399 rushing yards and five touchdowns.

Personal: A native of Sacramento, Calif., Steichen was born on May 11, 1985. He and his wife, Nina, have a son, Hudson, and a daughter, Stella.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2025 COACHING STAFF

Liam Coen, Head Coach

Pro Career: Liam Coen was named head coach of the Jacksonville Jaguars on January 24, 2025. Coen arrives in Jacksonville after spending one season as the offensive coordinator for the Tampa Buccaneers (2024). In his lone season in Tampa Bay, he led the NFL's only offense that finished in the top five in yards per game (399.6), scoring (29.5), passing yards per game (250.4) and rushing yards per game (149.2). Under Coen's direction, the Buccaneers became the first team in NFL history to complete 70 percent of their passes and average over 5.0 yards per carry throughout an entire season, in addition to becoming just the second team in league history with 40-plus passing touchdowns and 5.0-plus yards per rush in a single season. Coen brings 15 years of coaching experience to Jacksonville, including five years in the NFL. Before his stint with Tampa Bay, Coen served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Kentucky for the 2023 and 2021 seasons, during which he put forth two of the highest-scoring single seasons in school history. The 2021 Wildcats team amassed 56 total touchdowns, while the 2023 Wildcats team scored 50 total touchdowns. Prior to his most recent stint with the Wildcats, Coen was the Rams' offensive coordinator in 2022 after spending time as the club's assistant quarterbacks coach (2020) and assistant wide receivers coach (2018-19). Coen contributed to an offense that ranked among league leaders across those seasons in passing yards per game (248.1; sixth), third-down conversion rate (41.9 percent; eighth), and rushing touchdowns (77; fourth). As assistant wide receivers coach in 2018, Coen helped guide Robert Woods and Brandin Cooks, who each topped 1,200 yards that season on the way to a Super Bowl appearance. The following year, Woods and Cooper Kupp each surpassed 1,100 receiving yards, marking the latter's first 1,000-yard campaign. Prior to his time with the Rams, Coen spent two seasons as the offensive coordinator for the University of Maine (2016-17). He came to the University of Maine from the University of Massachusetts (2014-15), where he had served as the quarterbacks coach and passing game coordinator. Coen also spent three years as the quarterbacks coach at Brown University (2010, 2012-13) and one year as the quarterbacks coach and passing game coordinator at the University of Rhode Island (2011).

Background: Prior to his coaching career, Coen played quarterback at the University of Massachusetts from 2005-08. He holds the program records for completions (830), attempts (1,302), completion percentage (63.7 percent), passing yards (11,031), yards per attempt (8.5), passing touchdowns (50) and passer rating (150.7). He graduated in 2008 with a degree in communications.

Personal: Born Nov. 8, 1985. A native of Wakefield, Rhode Island, Coen and his wife, Ashley, have two sons, Jackson and Callahan.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2025 COACHING STAFF

Andy Reid, Head Coach

Pro Career: Andy Reid was named the 13th head coach in Kansas City Chiefs history on Jan. 7, 2013. He is entering his 34th season in the National Football League and his 27th season as an NFL head coach in 2025. In 2024, Kansas City continued their AFC West dominance under Reid, winning their ninth consecutive division title and played in their seventh consecutive AFC Championship Game. Kansas City also became the first team in NFL history to play in three straight Super Bowls with the opportunity to three-peat. Reid became the winningest coach in franchise history, tallying 161 total wins (143 regular season and 18 postseason) in Kansas City. He is the first coach to become the winningest head coach for two different clubs (Philadelphia; 140). In 2023, the Chiefs became one of just eight teams to win back-to-back Super Bowl titles in league history (LVII and LVIII). The Chiefs took down the 49ers, 25-22, in overtime to make history. With Reid's third Super Bowl win with the Chiefs, he is the only active head coach who has led teams to multiple Super Bowl wins. Reid now owns 28 postseason victories, second only to Bill Belichick's 31 postseason wins. In 2022, his 10th season with the Chiefs, Reid and company tallied 14 wins, tying the record set in 2020 under Reid's direction, and going undefeated against the AFC West for the first time since 2019. The Chiefs also hosted their fifth consecutive AFC Championship Game, an NFL record, and defeated the Cincinnati Bengals en route to their Super Bowl LVII victory over the Eagles. In 2019, Reid led the Chiefs to their first Super Bowl appearance and victory in 50 years, bringing the Lombardi Trophy back to Kansas City for the first time since 1969. Additionally, the Chiefs' 35-24 victory over the Tennessee Titans in the AFC Championship Game brought the Lamar Hunt Trophy to Kansas City for the first time ever. In 2015 Reid also led the Chiefs to their first playoff win since 1993, with a win at Houston in the Wild Card round of the playoffs. In his first season in Kansas City in 2013, he helped orchestrate the franchise's best single-season turnaround as the Chiefs won 11 games and made the playoffs after going 2-14 the previous season. Prior to joining the Chiefs, he served as the head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles for 14 years (1999-2012), earning NFL Coach of the Year honors three times. Reid compiled the best win total (140) and playoff victory total (10) in Eagles history. He captured six division titles and five trips to the NFC Championship Game. Reid was an assistant coach with Green Bay (1992-98) under Mike Holmgren. With Green Bay, he helped the Packers earn a Super Bowl XXXI victory over New England. Career record: 301-163-1.

Background: A tackle and guard at Brigham Young (1979-81), Reid played on three Cougars Holiday Bowl teams. Served as a college coach at Brigham Young (1982), San Francisco State (1983-85), Northern Arizona (1986), Texas-El Paso (1987-88) and Missouri (1989-91). Reid graduated with a bachelor's degree in physical education. He also received a master's degree in professional leadership in physical education and athletics.

Personal: Born March 19, 1958, in Los Angeles, Calif. Reid and his wife, Tammy, have five children: Britt, Crosby, Drew Ann, Spencer and the late Garrett. He has 13 grandchildren: Maverick, Somers, Saylor, Blake, Reid, Brigitte, Canyon, Ryker, Rylen, Garrett, Ford, Levi and Deacon Andrew.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2025 COACHING STAFF

Pete Carroll, Head Coach

Pro career: Pete Carroll was named Head Coach of the Las Vegas Raiders by Owner Mark Davis on Jan. 25, 2025, pairing one of the most accomplished and respected coaches in pro football history with the iconic NFL franchise. Carroll, whose storied coaching career has spanned the past five decades, joins the Silver and Black following 14 seasons as the most successful head coach in Seattle Seahawks history, a tenure that came at the heels of a dynastic nine-year run in the college ranks at USC. In his 18 years of NFL head coaching, his 181 combined wins are the 16th-most in NFL history. Carroll guided the Seahawks to back-to-back Super Bowl appearances and a Super Bowl XLVIII victory following the 2013 season. His career as an NFL head coach has also included posts with the New York Jets (1994) and the New England Patriots (1997-99). Carroll began his NFL career as defensive backs coach for Buffalo (1984) and Minnesota (1985-89) before becoming the New York Jets' defensive coordinator (1990-93) and head coach (1994). He spent two years as San Francisco's defensive coordinator (1995-96), leading the league in total defense in 1995, before leading New England to a 27-21 record and two playoff appearances as head coach (1997-99). He began his coaching career at the collegiate level, serving as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Pacific, for three years (1974-76), working with the wide receivers and secondary. He then spent a season as a graduate assistant working with the secondary at Arkansas (1977) under Lou Holtz, helping the Razorbacks win the 1978 Orange Bowl, and then a season each as an assistant in charge of the secondary at Iowa State (1978) and at Ohio State (1979). He spent the following three seasons (1980-82) as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at North Carolina State, before returning to Pacific in 1983 as the assistant head coach and offensive coordinator. Career record: 170-120-1

Background: He was a three-sport (football, basketball and baseball) standout at Redwood High School in Larkspur, Calif., earning the school's Athlete of the Year award as a senior. He played quarterback, wide receiver and defensive back on the football team. He was inducted into the inaugural Redwood High School Athletic Hall of Fame in 2009. He then played football at Marin Junior College in Kentfield, Calif., from 1969-70 before transferring to Pacific.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2025 COACHING STAFF

Jim Harbaugh, Head Coach

Pro Career: Jim Harbaugh returned to the Chargers as the 19th head coach in franchise history, continuing his willing culture, having a career record of 144-52 as a collegiate head coach and a 60-29-1 record as an NFL head coach. Harbaugh led the Chargers to an 11-6 regular-season record and a playoff berth in 2024, with the defense leading the league by allowing just 17.7 points per game. Over nine seasons as head coach at the University of Michigan, he led the Wolverines to an 86-25 record along with three-consecutive Big Ten Championships, three-straight appearances in the College Football Playoff and a perfect 15-0 record and the being 2023 National Champions during his final season in Ann Arbor, Mich. As head coach for the Wolverines, Harbaugh coached the top defense in the nation, allowing just 291.0 yards per game in that nine-year span. Michigan had a top-five defense in the country five times over those nine seasons, including twice as the top-ranked defense in the nation. Harbaugh returned to his alma mater after spending four seasons (2011-14) as the head coach of the San Francisco 49ers, leading the team to a 49-22-1 record and three-consecutive NFC Championship Games, including a victory in 2012 to represent the NFC in Super Bowl XLVII. He was named 2011 NFL Coach of the Year by The Associated Press after his first season with San Francisco, when he led the 49ers to an NFC West division crown with a 13-3 record. That season, the defense led the NFL with 38 takeaways and ranked No. 1 in rushing defense, allowing just 77.3 yards per game on the ground. Harbaugh coached 17 players to a combined 30 Pro Bowls with the 49ers — the second-most Pro Bowlers in the NFL over that span. Eight of those players were also recognized as AP first-team All-Pro, including linebackers Patrick Willis (twice) and NaVorro Bowman (three times). Over Harbaugh's four years with San Francisco, the 49ers led the NFL in rushing defense (92.0 yards per game), while ranking No. 2 in scoring defense (17.4 points per game), third in total defense (310.2) and No. 4 with 122 takeaways.

Background: Played quarterback at Michigan (1982-86) before playing quarterback 15 seasons in the National Football League with the Bears (1987-93), Colts (1994-97), Ravens (1998), Chargers (1999-2000) and Panthers (2001). Worked as an assistant for his father, Jack Harbaugh, at Western Kentucky during his NFL playing career. Coached as an offensive assistant for the Raiders from 2002-03 before becoming the head coach at the University of San Diego (2004-06) and Stanford University (2007-10). Returned to the NFL as a head coach of the San Francisco 49ers from 2011-14, leading the 49ers to three-straight NFC Championship games, including an appearance in Super Bowl SLVII, and winning NFL Coach of the Year honors in 2011. He then returned to his alma mater — the University of Michigan — to be the head coach from 2015-23, culminating in a perfect 15-0 record that saw the Wolverines crowned 2023 National Champions.

Personal: Born December 23, 1963 in Toledo, Ohio. Harbaugh and his wife, Sarah, have two daughters — Addison and Katherine — and two sons — Jack and John. He also has three adult children — Jay, James Jr., and Grace. Harbaugh's son, Jay, is the special teams coordinator for the Seattle Seahawks. He is also the younger brother of Baltimore Ravens Head Coach John Harbaugh. Harbaugh's brother-in-law, Tom Crean, is a longtime college head basketball coach and is married to the brothers' sister, Joani.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2025 COACHING STAFF

Mike McDaniel, Head Coach

Pro Career: Mike McDaniel became the 11th head coach in Miami Dolphins history on Feb. 7, 2022. The 2025 season will be McDaniel's 19th in the NFL and fourth as a head coach. Miami has made big strides in three years under McDaniel. He led the team to the postseason in both 2022 and 2023, becoming the third coach in Dolphins history to make the playoffs his first two seasons. Under his leadership, multiple players have reached new career milestones, including 11 Pro Bowl selections and numerous team and NFL records. In 2024, McDaniel's offense set a franchise record in team receptions (413), while quarterback Tua Tagovailoa led the NFL in completion percentage (72.9) and red zone passer rating (120.2). His completion percentage was the best mark in franchise history and third best in NFL history. Running back De'Von Achane led NFL running backs in both receptions and receiving yards, while tallying the third-most scrimmage yards (1,499) by a running back in franchise history and becoming the first Dolphin to record 750+ rushing yards and 500+ receiving yards in a single season. Defensively, Miami ranked fourth in total defense (314.4), the best mark by the franchise since 2010 and its first top five finish since 2006. Defensive tackle Zach Sieler led the unit with 10.0 sacks for a second consecutive season, and his 20.0 sacks from 2023-24 are the most among interior defensive linemen in the NFL during that span. Rookie linebacker Chop Robinson tallied 6.0 sacks and 14 QB hits, the second most among first-year players. The 2023 Dolphins led the league in total offense (401.3) for the first time in 30 years. The team also led the league in passing offense (265.5), yards per carry (5.1) and fewest quarterback hits allowed (59). Wide receiver Tyreek Hill recorded 119 receptions for 1,799 yards, breaking his own single-season record set in 2022 (1,710). Hill became the first player in NFL history to have 1,700+ receiving yards in multiple seasons. Wide receiver Jaylen Waddle finished with 1,014 receiving yards, becoming the first Dolphin to post three consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons. Tagovailoa led the league in passing (4,624) on the way to his first Pro Bowl appearance. In 2022, the Dolphins offense ranked in the top 10 for the first time since 1995. Hill's 119 receptions and 1,710 receiving yards broke Miami's single-season franchise records, while Waddle led the league in yards per reception (18.1). Tagovailoa led the NFL in passer rating (105.5) and red-zone passer rating (112.2). McDaniel spent five seasons (2017-21) in San Francisco as run game specialist (2017), run game coordinator (2018-20) and offensive coordinator (2021). The 49ers advanced to the NFC Championship Game twice in that span and won it in 2019. In 2021, McDaniel's offense finished seventh in total offense (375.7 ypg) and had four players earned Pro Bowl selections. McDaniel also went to the Super Bowl in 2016 as an offensive assistant in Atlanta, where he served in that role from 2015-16. He also was wide receivers coach in Cleveland (2014), wide receivers coach (2013) and offensive assistant (2011-12) in Washington, running backs coach for Sacramento in the UFL (2009-10) and offensive assistant with the Texans (2006-08). He began his coaching career as an intern in Denver (2005). Career record: 28-25.

Background: McDaniel earned a bachelor's degree in history from Yale, where he played wide receiver. No pro playing experience.

Personal: Born March 6, 1983, in Aurora, Colo. He and his wife, Katie, have one daughter, Ayla.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2025 COACHING STAFF

Mike Vrabel, Head Coach

Pro Career: Mike Vrabel was introduced by Patriots Chairman and CEO Robert Kraft as the 16th head coach in franchise history in a press conference at Gillette Stadium on Jan. 13, 2025. Vrabel is a three-time Super Bowl champion with New England and was voted into the Patriots Hall of Fame in 2023. He is recognized as one of the most versatile linebackers and best free agent signings in team history. Vrabel is the seventh individual to become the head coach for a franchise he once helped win a Super Bowl as a player and the only one with three Super Bowl wins, joining Jerod Mayo (New England - 1), Bart Starr (Green Bay - 2), Forrest Gregg (Green Bay - 2), Art Shell (Oakland - 2), Jeff Saturday (Indianapolis - 1) and Jason Garrett (Dallas - 2). Vrabel is the second head coach for the Patriots that was formerly a Patriots player. He is the sixth Patriots head coach in team history to have played professional football. The five other Patriots head coaches that played professional football include: Lou Saban (1960-61), Mike Holovak (1961-68), Clive Rush (1969-70), Raymond Berry (1984-89) and Jerod Mayo (2008-15). Vrabel has spent his football life around accomplished leaders. After entering the NFL as a player in 1997, he played or coached under Bill Belichick, Bill Cowher, Romeo Crennel, Urban Meyer and Bill O'Brien. He gleaned attributes from each that helped form his philosophies as a head coach. Vrabel has 14 years of coaching experience, including 11 years in the NFL and three seasons at Ohio State. The Tennessee Titans hired him as their head coach in 2018 and he led the Titans to two division titles and three playoff appearances during his six seasons at the helm. In 2019, the Titans upset the Patriots in Foxborough in the wild card round, then defeated the No. 1 seed Ravens in Baltimore the following week to advance to the AFC Championship Game, where they lost to the eventual Super Bowl Champion Kansas City Chiefs. In 2021, the Titans claimed the top seed in the AFC with a 12-5 record, earning Vrabel NFL Coach of the Year honors. Vrabel became the linebackers coach at Ohio State in 2011 and then served as the defensive line coach for the Buckeyes for two seasons (2012-13). In 2014, Vrabel was hired by Houston Texans head coach Bill O'Brien as the linebackers coach (2014-16) and was promoted to defensive coordinator for the Texans in 2017. After six seasons as the head coach of the Titans (2018-23), he spent last season with the Cleveland Browns as a coaching and personnel consultant. With playoff appearances in 2019, 2020 and 2021, Vrabel became the sixth head coach in Oilers/Titans history to coach at least three playoff teams. The others are Jeff Fisher (six), Jack Pardee (four), Bum Phillips (three), Jerry Glanville (three) and Wally Lemm (three). The Titans won back-to-back AFC South titles in 2020 and 2021, marking the first time the organization accomplished the feat since the Oilers won.

Background: Was a defensive lineman for the Ohio State Buckeyes (1993-96). Earned back-to-back All-American honors and was twice named Big Ten Conference Defensive Lineman of the Year (1995 and 1996). Third-round draft pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers (1997-2000) and played for the New England Patriots (2001-08) and Kansas City Chiefs (2009-10). With the Patriots, he earned Pro Bowl and first-team All-Pro honors in 2007 and was a member of three Super Bowl Championship squads. Coached collegiately at Ohio State (2011-13).

Personal: Born August 4, 1975 in Akron, Ohio. He and his wife, Jennifer, are the parents of two sons, Tyler and Carter.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2025 COACHING STAFF

Aaron Glenn, Head Coach

Pro career: Aaron Glenn was named the 22nd head coach in franchise history by Chairman Robert Wood Johnson on Jan. 22, 2025. A 15-year NFL veteran defensive back, Glenn returns to the Jets after starting his career with the organization as a first-round pick (12th overall) in the 1994 NFL Draft. He played eight seasons with the team (1994-2001) that included two Pro Bowl selections and 24 interceptions, tied for the fourth most all-time in franchise history. Glenn enters his 12th season coaching in the NFL after serving as the defensive coordinator for the Detroit Lions the last four seasons (2021-24), previously coaching with the Cleveland Browns (2014-15) and New Orleans Saints (2016-20). In Detroit, he led a defense that helped the team to a 39-28-1 record the last four seasons, including a League-best 27-7 record the last two seasons. In his final year in Detroit (2024), Glenn's defense finished in the top 10 in scoring defense and takeaways resulting in a League-best +13.1 points per game differential, the fifth-highest margin by any team in the last 25 years. Detroit finished fifth in the NFL in rushing yards allowed (1,672) and fourth in percentage of rushing first downs allowed (23.3%), while allowing the lowest opposing passer rating (82.0), and second lowest completion percentage (61.1%). Glenn's defense finished with the lowest third-down conversation rate allowed (32.4%), despite losing five Week One starters to injury.

Background: Defensive back at Navarro College (TX) 1990-91 and Texas A&M 1992-93. Pro defensive back New York Jets 1994-2001, Houston Texans 2002-04, Dallas Cowboys 2005-06, Jacksonville Jaguars 2007, and New Orleans Saints 2008. Served as the General Manager for the Houston Stallions (LSFL) 2012 and as a pro scout and area scout for the New York Jets 2012-13 before his coaching career.

Personal: Born July 16, 1972; Humble, Texas. He and his wife, Devaney, have two daughters, Tristen and Rheagan, and a son, Aaron II.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform:

2025 COACHING STAFF

Mike Tomlin, Head Coach

Pro Career: Named the sixteenth head coach in Steelers history when he replaced Bill Cowher on January 22, 2007. Became the youngest coach (36 years, 323 days) in NFL history to win a Super Bowl when the Steelers defeated the Arizona Cardinals, 27-23, in Super Bowl XLIII on February 1, 2009 (L.A. Rams, Sean McVay, now the youngest at 36 years, 10 days). Tomlin reached the playoffs four times in his first five seasons and he is the only coach in Steelers' history to win division titles each of his first two seasons. In his 18 years as head coach of the Steelers, Tomlin has led Pittsburgh to seven AFC North titles, most recently in 2020, and has guided the Steelers to the playoffs 12 times, including two trips to the Super Bowl (XLIII and XLV). He has led Pittsburgh to a 183-107-2 record in the regular season since becoming the team's head coach in 2007 - the third-best record in the NFL during that time span. His 183-107-2 regular-season record (.630) is the best start in franchise history. Tomlin secured his 18th straight non-losing season with the Steelers' ninth win in 2024, a 44-38 win at Cincinnati in Week 13, a streak dating back to his first season as the team's head coach in 2007. Tomlin is the only head coach in NFL history to begin a head coaching tenure with at least 15 consecutive non-losing seasons. He has led the Steelers to a .500-or-better record in each of his 18 seasons as head coach, which is the third-longest streak of .500-or-better seasons by a head coach in NFL history. Tomlin is one of two active NFL head coaches with over 180 wins and one of five active NFL head coaches to defeat at least 31 current NFL franchises. In 2020, Tomlin's club won its seventh AFC North title. No other head coach has won the AFC North more than six times. In 2008, Tomlin directed the Steelers to a 12-4 record, winning his second-consecutive AFC North title. That season culminated with a Super Bowl triumph, making Tomlin one of only seven coaches in league history to win a Super Bowl within his first two seasons as an NFL head coach. In his first season, Tomlin guided the Steelers to a 10-6 record and their first AFC North title since 2004. Tomlin was the Minnesota Vikings defensive coordinator in 2006 after spending the previous five seasons (2001-05) as defensive backs coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Tomlin coached one of the top defensive backfields in the NFL for the Buccaneers, culminating with its performance in Super Bowl XXXVII. The secondary recorded four interceptions, returning two for touchdowns to help Tampa Bay capture the franchise's first Super Bowl title. Tomlin served two seasons as the defensive backs coach at the University of Cincinnati (1999-2000) before going to Tampa Bay. Prior to joining the Cincinnati staff, Tomlin had a short stint on the coaching staff at Tennessee. Martin and then spent two seasons at Arkansas State. Tomlin spent the 1996 season as a graduate assistant at Memphis. Tomlin began his coaching career in 1995 as wide receivers coach at Virginia Military Institute. Career record: 183-107-2.

Background: Was a three-year starter at wide receiver at William & Mary (1990-94) and finished his career with 101 receptions for 2,046 yards and a school-record 20 touchdown receptions. A first-team All-Yankee Conference selection in 1994, he established a school record with a 20.2 yards per catch average. Graduated in 1994 with a degree in sociology.

Personal: Born in Hampton, Va., on March 15, 1972. He and his wife, Kiya, have two sons, Dino and Mason, and a daughter Harlyn Quinn.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2025 COACHING STAFF

Brian Callahan, Head Coach

Brian Callahan became the 20th head coach in franchise history on Jan. 24, 2024. Enters 16th year as an NFL coach, in addition to two years as a college coach and two years as a high school coach. Prior to joining the Titans, Callahan was the offensive coordinator for the Cincinnati Bengals from 2019-23. During his time in Cincinnati, he was part of two AFC North titles, two AFC Championship Game appearances and a Super Bowl berth. He also helped guide quarterback Joe Burrow from the No. 1 overall draft pick in 2020 to multiple single-season franchise records by his second year and Pro Bowl honors within three years. From 2021 to 2023, the Bengals offense ranked in the NFL's top 10 in several categories: sixth in scoring (24.9), seventh in passing (250.8 yards per game), seventh in red-zone efficiency (61.5 percent), 10th in third-down percentage (41.0) and sixth in time of possession (31.00). Callahan joined the Bengals after spending 2018 as the quarterbacks coach for the Oakland Raiders. Under his tutelage, Raiders quarterback Derek Carr passed for a then-career-high 4,049 yards and led the AFC with a 68.9 completion percentage. From 2016 to 2017, Callahan was the quarterbacks coach for the Detroit Lions. Working with Matthew Stafford, he helped the veteran finish third in passing yards (4,446) in 2017, while posting a then-career-best 99.3 passer rating. Callahan broke into the NFL with the Denver Broncos in 2010 and served in multiple roles for the franchise through 2015, capped by the team's victory in Super Bowl 50. Career record: 3-14.

Background: Callahan attended De La Salle High School in Concord, Calif., where he was a part of the school's national-record 151-game winning streak and a No. 1 national ranking. As a walk-on quarterback at UCLA, he appeared in 13 games as a holder on PATs. He earned a bachelor's degree in sociology in 2006 and added a master's in education in 2008. He spent time at UCLA as a graduate assistant (2006-07) and then spent two years (2008-09) as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for Junipero Serra High School in San Mateo, Calif.

Personal: Born June 10, 1984, in Champaign, Ill. He and his wife, Allyson, are the parents of son, Ronan, and daughter, Norah. His father is longtime NFL coach Bill Callahan, the current offensive line coach with the Titans.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2025 COACHING STAFF

Jonathan Gannon, Head Coach

Pro Career: Became an NFL head coach for the first time when hired by Arizona on February 14, 2023. Gannon joined Arizona following two seasons (2021-22) as the defensive coordinator with the Philadelphia Eagles. He has 17 years of experience in the NFL with the Cardinals (2023-24), Eagles (2021-22), Colts (2018-20), Vikings (2014-17), Titans (2012-13), Rams (2009-11) and Falcons (2007). In Gannon's second season with the Cardinals in 2024, the team finished with eight wins, doubling their win total from 2023 (4). Arizona did so despite facing one of the NFL's toughest schedules for the second straight season (8 games vs. playoff teams in '23; 9 games vs. playoff teams in '24). The Cardinals defense was one of the NFL's best in the second half of the 2024 season. Over the final 11 games, Arizona allowed an average of just 19.6 points per game (only three teams allowed fewer points per game between Weeks 7-18). The Cards defense allowed the fewest total TDs (20) and passing TDs (10) in the NFL during that span. Gannon has presided over one of the NFL's best rushing attacks over the last two seasons. Arizona finished the 2024 season with 2,451 rushing yards, the 3rd-most in franchise history and the most since the team ran for a franchise record 2,582 yards in 1979. The Cardinals 5.29 rushing yards per attempt in 2024 is easily the highest single-season rushing average in franchise history. Under Gannon's guidance, the Cardinals have been one of the NFL's best in protecting the football (5th in the NFL with 12 games of zero turnovers between 2023-24). Arizona also finished the 2024 season with just 92 penalties, the 2nd-fewest in the NFL last season (LAR - 91). In his first season with Arizona in 2023, Gannon led the NFL's 3rd-youngest team that relied heavily on rookies. The Cardinals rookie class led the NFL in combined starts (64) and combined snaps on offense and defense (4,654) in 2023. Arizona was the only team in the NFL to have rookies combine for 2,000+ snaps on offense and 2,000+ snaps on defense that season. Philadelphia qualified for the postseason and boasted a top-10 defense in each of their two seasons (2021-22) under Gannon as defensive coordinator, ranking 2nd in total defense in 2022 (301.5 ypg) and 10th in the NFL in 2021 (328.8 ypg). Between 2021-22, the Eagles defense led the NFL with 99 sacks, ranked 3rd in total defense (315.1 ypg) and 3rd in pass defense (200.4 ypg). In 2022 Philadelphia won the NFC East title and advanced to Super Bowl LVII at State Farm Stadium. The Eagles easily led the NFL with a franchise single-season record 70 sacks during the 2022 regular season, the most by any team in a single season since the 1989 Minnesota Vikings (71). Prior to working with the Eagles, Gannon was the defensive backs/cornerbacks coach with the Indianapolis Colts (2018-20) and the assistant defensive backs/quality control coach with the Minnesota Vikings (2014-17) after working as a defensive assistant with the Tennessee Titans (2012-13). He spent three seasons (2009-11) as a scout with the St. Louis Rams after beginning his NFL coaching career as a defensive assistant with the Atlanta Falcons in 2007.

Background: Gannon played collegiately as a safety at Louisville and appeared in nine games as a redshirt freshman in 2002 before suffering a career-ending hip injury in his first career start at Cincinnati. As a true freshman in 2001, he was named the Cardinals defensive scout team player of the year. Following the injury, he worked as a student assistant at Louisville for three seasons (2003-05) and one season as a graduate assistant (2006) under Bobby Petrino. Gannon attended Saint Ignatius (Cleveland, OH) High School where he was an All-State defensive back and a standout in basketball and track & field. As a senior in 2001, he helped lead the basketball team to the school's first state championship and starred in the long jump and 110-meter hurdles, helping Saint Ignatius to their first track & field state championship that same year. Gannon was inducted into the Saint Ignatius Sports Hall of Fame in 2011.

Personal: Born April 4, 1983, in Cleveland, Ohio. Gannon and his wife, Gina, have three children – Rocco, Lola and Angelo.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2025 COACHING STAFF

Raheem Morris, Head Coach

Pro Career: Raheem Morris was named the 19th head coach in Atlanta Falcons history on Jan. 25, 2024. In his first season with the Falcons, Morris finished with a 4-2 record against NFC South opponents. Atlanta finished sixth in offensive yards per game (369.8), fifth in passing yards per game (239.3) and 10th in rushing yards per game (130.5). The Falcons recorded 550 yards of total offense in the Week 5 win over the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, the sixth-highest total in 2024. Defensively, the Falcons finished the season third in opponent plays of 20-or-more yards, allowing just 52 (eight rushing, 44 passing) throughout the season. Running back Bijan Robinson and special teamer KhaDarel Hodge both were elected to their first-career Pro Bowls after the 2024 season, while guard Chris Lindstrom was elected to his third consecutive (2022-24). Drake London, Robinson and Michael Penix Jr. combined to make the Falcons the first team in NFL history with a 300-yard passer, 175-yard receiver and 150-yard rusher each under the age of 25 in the same game (Week 18). In his sophomore season, Robinson finished the season third in the NFL in rushing yards (1,456), fifth in rushing touchdowns (14) and fifth in receiving yards (431), among running backs, making his first Pro Bowl appearance. Morris spent three seasons (2021-23) as defensive coordinator for the Los Angeles Rams. During his tenure with the Rams, Los Angeles made two postseason appearances and captured a title in Super Bowl LVI. From 2021-23, the Rams defense recorded the fourth-best red-zone efficiency rating and the seventh-fewest rushing yards per game in the NFL. His 2023 unit was one of the youngest in the NFL but helped the Rams earn a playoff berth and featured Rams third-round rookie defensive lineman Kobie Turner, a finalist for the AP Defensive Rookie of the Year award. Turner and Byron Young tallied a combined 17 sacks, finishing first and second among all rookies. Turner's nine sacks matched three-time NFL Defensive Player of the Year Aaron Donald's franchise rookie record (nine in 2014), while Young's eight sacks ranked third among rookies in franchise history. In 2022, Morris led a Rams defense that led the NFL in red-zone efficiency (44.4 percent), ranked second in goal-to-go efficiency (53.3 percent), seventh in interceptions (16) and ninth in defensive total rush EPA (42.97). During the 2021 season that culminated in a Super Bowl title, Los Angeles' defense averaged 1.5 takeaways per game and featured three players Donald, Leonard Floyd and Von Miller – ranked in the top 20 in sacks. Additionally, Morris' unit ranked third in sacks (50) and fifth in tackles for loss (85) during the regular season. In 2021, the Rams defense ranked sixth in the NFL in opponents' rushing yards per game (103.2) and fifth in yards per rush (3.96). Morris' unit held opponents to a 51.8 percent red-zone efficiency rate, which ranked eighth. Morris also led a secondary that ranked fifth in opponent passer rating (83.8) and third in interceptions (19). The secondary finished second in the NFL with 17 opponent passing touchdowns allowed and a 0.89 opponent touchdown-to-interception ratio. Career record: 29-47.

Background: Also served as Falcons defensive coordinator and interim head coach in 2020 after four years (2016-19) as Atlanta's assistant head coach, wide receivers coach and offensive pass game coordinator, and one season (2015) as the team's assistant head coach, defensive backs coach and defensive pass game coordinator. Served as defensive backs coach with the Washington Redskins (2012-14) and Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2007-08). In between, served three years (2009-11) as Tampa Bay head coach. Prior to 2007, spent 2006 season as defensive coordinator at Kansas State, and four years (2002-05) as the Buccaneers' defensive quality control coach, defensive assistant and assistant defensive backs coach. Got his start in coaching as a graduate assistant at Hofstra (1998) before coaching defensive backs at both Cornell (1999) and Hofstra (2000-01).

Personal: Born and raised in Newark, N.J., he graduated from Irvington (N.J.) High School.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2025 COACHING STAFF

Dave Canales, Head Coach

Pro Career: Dave Canales is in his second season as head coach for the Carolina Panthers. Canales came to Carolina having spent his first 13 seasons in the NFL with Seattle (2010-22) in various roles on offense, prior to serving as offensive coordinator for Tampa Bay in 2023. In his first season with Carolina, Canales helped guide quarterback Bryce Young to a career-high 21 total touchdowns. Before taking the lead in Carolina, Canales served as offensive coordinator for the Buccaneers in 2023 as the team won the NFC South division. Quarterback Baker Mayfield set career-highs in passing yards (4,044), completion percentage (64.3%), touchdowns (28) and completions (364). Canales joined the Buccaneers after 13 seasons with the Seahawks, where he helped Seattle to 10 playoff appearances, two conference championships and a Super Bowl XLVIII title. Prior to Seattle, Canales spent one season at the University of Southern California in 2009. He made the jump to USC from El Camino (California) College (2006-08). During that time, he worked as a part-time coach at the annual Pete Carroll football camps where he built a relationship with Carroll. Canales began his coaching career as the head freshman/sophomore coach and offensive coordinator at his alma mater, Carson High School, from 2004-05.

Background: Played wide receiver at Azusa Pacific from 1999-2003. No pro playing experience. College coach: El Camino College 2006-08, Southern California 2009. Pro coach: Seattle Seahawks 2010-22, Tampa Bay Buccaneers 2023. Joined Panthers in 2024.

Personal: A native of Carson, Calif., Canales was born on May 7, 1981. He and his wife, Lizzy, have four children.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2025 COACHING STAFF

Ben Johnson, Head Coach

Pro Career: Ben Johnson was named Head Coach of the Chicago Bears on January 21, 2025. Johnson became the 18th full-time Head Coach in the franchise's 106-year history, arriving in Chicago after leading one of the NFL's most prolific offenses with the Detroit Lions. Johnson most recently served as Offensive Coordinator (2022-24) in Detroit, where his 2024 unit averaged a franchise-record 409.5 yards per game, helping the Lions average a league-high 32.4 points per game and accumulate 68 total offensive touchdowns – the most by any team in the NFL. Each of his three seasons coordinating Detroit's offense (2022-24), Johnson's group has finished in the top-five in the league in total offense each year, including a No. 2 ranking in 2024. Over the last two seasons (2023-24), no unit has averaged more points per game (30.1) or net yards per game (402.2) than Johnson's offensive unit with the Detroit Lions. Before being elevated to offensive coordinator, Johnson spent two years as the Lions tight ends coach (2020-21) following one season as an offensive quality control coach (2019). Prior to his tenure with Detroit, Johnson served seven seasons on the staff of the Miami Dolphins, working under three different head coaches. Over his seven years in Miami, Johnson worked in the capacities of Offensive Assistant (2012), Assistant Quarterbacks Coach (2013-15), Tight Ends Coach (2015), Assistant Wide Receivers Coach (2016-17) and Wide Receivers Coach (2018). Career record: 0-0.

Background: Johnson spent three years at Boston College, first as a graduate assistant (2009-10), before coaching the tight ends (2011). A walk-on quarterback at the University of North Carolina, Johnson, who earned degrees in mathematics and computer science, spent one year as a software developer in his home state of North Carolina, before entering the coaching ranks. No pro playing experience.

Personal: Born May 11, 1986, in Charleston, S.C. Johnson and his wife, Jessica, have three children – Emory, Kennedy and Halle.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2025 COACHING STAFF

Brian Schottenheimer, Head Coach

Pro Career: Brian Schottenheimer was named the 10th head coach of the Dallas Cowboys on Jan. 24, 2025 after two seasons as the team's offensive coordinator. Schottenheimer brings 25 years of NFL coaching experience, including 15 years as an offensive coordinator at the pro level. Over Schottenheimer's two seasons as the steward of the Cowboys offense, Dallas ranked second in completions (826), third in pass attempts (1,251) and sixth in big pass plays (25-plus yards, 69), points-per-game (25.3) and total first downs (712). In his first year as the Cowboys offensive coordinator, Dallas led the league in scoring offense (29.9 points-per-game), ranked fifth in total offense (371.6 yards-per-game) and third in passing yards-per-game (258.6). Prior to Dallas, Schottenheimer's last stint as an offensive coordinator was with the Seattle Seahawks (2018-20), in which he helped lead the Seahawks to three consecutive postseason appearances. Over those three seasons, Seattle ranked third in touchdown passes (106), passer rating (106.8) and rushing yards-per-game (140.2). Schottenheimer spent three seasons as the offensive coordinator for the St. Louis Rams (2012-14). The Rams tallied 38 touchdowns in 2013, which was then the most in a single season for the franchise since 2006 when they reached the endzone 39 times. Also, Schottenheimer spent six seasons as the New York Jets offensive coordinator (2006-11), including assembling an offense that helped the Jets earn back-to-back appearances in the AFC Championship Game from 2009-10 while also leading the NFL in rushing (160.3 yards-per-game). Schottenheimer also made stops in Kansas City (offensive assistant, 1998), Washington (quarterbacks, 2001), San Diego (quarterbacks, 2002-05), Indianapolis (quarterbacks, 2016-17) and Jacksonville (passing game coordinator, 2021).

Background: Played quarterback at the University of Florida from 1994-96. Coached collegiately at Syracuse (1999), Southern California (2000) and Georgia (2015). No pro playing experience.

Personal: Born Oct. 16, 1973 in Denver, Colo. He and his wife, Gemmi, have a son, Sutton, and a daughter, Savannah. His father, Marty, was a head coach in the NFL from 1984-2008, making stops in Cleveland, Kansas City, Washington and San Diego.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2025 COACHING STAFF

Dan Campbell, Head Coach

Pro Career: Named the Lions' 28th head coach on January 21, 2021. Campbell enters his fifth season in Detroit after leading the club to a 15-win season and a top seed in the NFC in 2024, both firsts for the franchise. Under Campbell's leadership, the Lions have secured back-to-back NFC North division titles after a 30-year drought and made an appearance in the NFC Championship for only the second time. In his first four seasons with Detroit, Campbell's team has ranked top 10 in almost every major offensive category while producing 12 Pro Bowlers and eight All-Pro. Campbell brings 26 years of NFL experience, including 15 years as a coach and 11 as a player. He previously served as the assistant head coach/tight ends coach for the New Orleans Saints, a position he held since 2016.

Background: During the span of his five-year coaching tenure with New Orleans, the club captured four NFC South division titles, ranked first in the NFL in points scored (2,361), touchdowns (277), net yardage (31,147) and posted the third-most wins (56) in the League. In 2015, Campbell became the Miami Dolphins' interim head coach, where he took over a 1-3 team and guided them to a 5-7 finish. Under Campbell, Miami improved eight spots in the NFL's rushing yards per game rankings and saw five Dolphins selected to the Pro Bowl in 2015. Campbell initially joined the Dolphins in 2010 as a coaching intern before overseeing the tight ends unit for five seasons (2011-15).

Personal: Born April 13, 1976 in Clifton, Texas. He and his wife, Holly, have a son, Cody, and a daughter, Piper. He earned a bachelor's degree in agricultural development from Texas A&M.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2025 COACHING STAFF

Matt LaFleur, Head Coach

Pro Career: Named the 15th head coach in team history on January 8, 2019. Is entering his seventh season as Green Bay's head coach and his 17th season in the NFL. Has led the Packers to 67 regular-season wins, the second most in NFL history by a coach in his first six seasons (George Seifert, 75 from 1989-94). Has guided the Packers to five playoff appearances in his first six years, tied for the most in the NFC since 2019, including back-to-back appearances in the NFC title game (2019-20) and the two youngest playoff teams in the NFL over the past 45 seasons (weighted age of 25.25 in 2023 and 25.72 in 2024). Since taking over as head coach in 2019, has helped guide the Packers to top-10 rankings in total offense, scoring offense, giveaways, total defense, scoring defense and takeaways, the only team in the NFL to finish in the top 10 in all six categories over that span. In 2019-21, became the first coach in league history to win 13-plus games in three straight seasons. Led Green Bay to a 13-3 record in his first season in '19, the biggest one-year win improvement in team history (plus-seven). Served as an offensive coordinator for two seasons (Los Angeles Rams, 2017; Tennessee Titans, 2018) and coached quarterbacks for two seasons with the Atlanta Falcons (2015-16) and four seasons with the Washington Redskins (2010-13). Got his start in the NFL coaching ranks as an offensive assistant with the Houston Texans (2008-09). Has been a part of three staffs that have helped their teams lead the NFL in scoring (2016 Falcons, 2017 Rams, 2020 Packers). Tutored QB Matt Ryan in Atlanta, who posted a league-high 117.1 passer rating in 2016 on his way to being named NFL Most Valuable Player and Offensive Player of the Year by The Associated Press. Coached Robert Griffin III with Washington in 2012, who became the first QB in team history to win AP Offensive Rookie of the Year. Career record: 70-38.

Background: Played QB at Saginaw Valley State (2000-02), where he guided the Cardinals to three straight NCAA Division II playoff appearances and earned second-team All-Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference honors in all three seasons. Ranks No. 3 in school history in passing yards (7,699), completions (560) and passing TDs (67). Played in the National Indoor Football League for the Omaha Beef in 2003 and the Billings Outlaws in 2004. Began his coaching career as an offensive assistant at Saginaw Valley State in 2003 before working as a graduate assistant at Central Michigan in 2004-05. Also coached quarterbacks/wide receivers at Northern Michigan in 2006, served as the offensive coordinator at Ashland (Ohio) University in 2007 and coached quarterbacks at Notre Dame in 2014.

Personal: Born November 3, 1979, in Mount Pleasant, Mich. He and his wife, BreAnne, have two sons, Luke and Ty. His younger brother, Mike, is the offensive coordinator for the Los Angeles Rams. Their father, Dennis, coached 22 seasons (1976-97) on the staff at Central Michigan.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2025 COACHING STAFF

Sean McVay, Head Coach

Pro Career: Named the 23rd full-time head coach in franchise history on Jan. 12, 2017. During the 2024 season, McVay passed John Robinson for the most wins by a head coach in franchise history. He also tied Robinson for the most playoff berths by a head coach in franchise history with six. McVay became the youngest head coach in modern NFL history. During the 2023 season, the Rams finished 10-7 and clinched a Wild Card berth against the Lions after going 7-1 in their final eight games. The Rams finished 5-12 in 2022 after an injury-riddled team forced young players to step up. The stars aligned in 2021 as McVay and the Rams went "all in" to win Super Bowl LVI. He finished the regular season 12-5 and became the youngest head coach in NFL history to win a Super Bowl. In 2020, McVay and the Rams posted a 10-6 record, McVay's fourth-consecutive winning season, and earned his third playoff berth in his first four seasons. During the 2019 season the Rams posted a 7-9 record, the third straight winning season under McVay. In 2018, his second season as head coach, the Rams won 13 games, tied for the second-most single-season wins in franchise history, and competed in the organization's fourth Super Bowl. In his first season in 2017, the Rams won seven more games than the previous season, went from last in the league in scoring to first, and made their first postseason appearance in 13 years. Prior to joining the Rams, McVay was the offensive coordinator (2014-16), tight ends coach (2011-13) and offensive assistant (2010) in Washington. McVay joined Washington prior to 2010 after an undefeated regular season with the Florida Tuskers of the United Football League. The Tuskers finished a perfect 6-0 before losing in the UFL's inaugural championship game. McVay originally entered the National Football League as an offensive assistant with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Career record: 77-49.

Background: Played wide receiver at Miami (Ohio). No pro playing experience. His grandfather, John McVay, served in various administrative roles, including director of research development for the New York Giants (1976) and vice president/director of football operations for the San Francisco 49ers (1983-94), as well as serving as general manager one year in San Francisco (1998-99). John McVay oversaw five Super Bowl championship squads and earned induction into the 49ers Hall of Fame in 2013.

Personal: Born Jan. 24, 1986, in Marietta, Ga. Son of Tim and Cindy McVay. Has one brother, Ryan.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Chris Beake, safeties; born Sept. 10, 1972; Kansas City, Mo. Quarterback Air Force 1990-92. No pro playing experience. College coach: Air Force 1994. The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2025 COACHING STAFF

Kevin O'Connell, Head Coach

Pro Career: Named the 10th head coach in Vikings history on Feb. 16, 2022. O'Connell joined the Vikings after serving as the offensive coordinator for the Los Angeles Rams from 2020-21, including a Super Bowl LVI victory. Has 10 seasons of NFL coaching experience, including three seasons as an offensive coordinator for the Washington Redskins (2017-19) and Rams (2020-21). In three years at the helm (2022-24), O'Connell owns a 34-17 (.667) regular-season record and became the first head coach in Vikings history to have multiple 13-win seasons (13 in '22, 14 in '24). He joined Matt LaFleur and George Seifert as the only head coaches in NFL history to achieve multiple 13-win seasons in his first three years as a head coach. Among active head coaches, O'Connell's .667 winning percentage in his first three regular seasons tied for fourth with John Harbaugh (2008-10) and Nick Sirianni (2021-23) and trails only LaFleur (.796, 2019-21), Jim Harbaugh (.760, 2011-13) and Sean McVay (.688, 2017-19). O'Connell became the fastest head coach in franchise history to win 30 games, doing so in just 46 contests. He topped Dennis Green (48 games) and Bud Grant (50) among others. O'Connell, who was named the 2024 Associated Press Coach of the Year, led the Vikings to a 14-3 regular-season record and playoff appearance in 2024, the second-most wins in team history. The team's nine-game win streak from Week 9 to Week 17 tied the third-longest win streak in club history. O'Connell became the first head coach in NFL history since at least 1950 to win at least 14 games in a season with a quarterback who was in his first year with a team. Minnesota was 9-1 in one-possession games in 2024, the second-best mark league wide, trailing only the Kansas City Chiefs (11-0), and finished ninth in scoring (25.4 points per game) and seventh in passing offense (237.8 yards per game). Under O'Connell's guidance, QB Sam Darnold became the first quarterback in NFL history to record 14 wins in his first year with a team since at least 1950 when quarterback stats began being tracked. He had the best season of his career in 2024, setting new career highs in nearly every passing category and finishing fifth in the NFL in passing yards (4,319) and fifth in touchdown passes (35) and sixth in passer rating (102.5). Seven Vikings were named to the Pro Bowl in 2024 – Damold, LS Andrew DePaola, OLB Jonathan Greenard, WR Justin Jefferson, CB Byron Murphy Jr., T Brian O'Neill and OLB Andrew Van Ginkel – four of which were selected for the first time in their careers. Minnesota's six original selections were the most Vikings Pro Bowlers since 2009 when the team had eight. DePaola (first team), Jefferson (first team) and Van Ginkel (second team) were also named to AP All-Pro Teams. Prior to joining the Vikings in 2022, O'Connell guided Rams QB Matthew Stafford and WR Cooper Kupp to career years in 2021. Kupp was named 2021 NFL Offensive Player of the Year by the Associated Press and Super Bowl LVI MVP. O'Connell worked in Washington, serving as the quarterbacks coach in 2017-18 and the offensive coordinator in 2019. He coached QB Kirk Cousins in 2017, helping him throw for more than 4,000 yards and 27 touchdowns, and record a career-high 342 rushing yards and a league-leading four game-winning drives. O'Connell worked on special projects with the San Francisco 49ers in 2016. He was also the quarterbacks coach in Cleveland during the 2015 season. Career record: 13-5.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2025 COACHING STAFF

Kellen Moore, Head Coach

Pro career: Named the 19th head coach in Saints history on Feb. 11, 2025. Moore joined the Saints after serving as the offensive coordinator for the Philadelphia Eagles in 2024. Under the guidance of Moore, QB Jalen Hurts and RB Saquon Barkley both had career years. Hurts finished with a career-high 103.7 passer rating, en route to Super Bowl LIX MVP honors. Barkley, who was named the 2024 NFL Offensive Player of the Year by the Associated Press, had one of the best seasons on the ground in NFL history, leading the league with a franchise-record 2,005 rushing yards in the regular season and his 2,504 rushing yards including the postseason were an NFL record, earning Pro Bowl and All-Pro honors. The 2024 Eagles offense ranked eighth overall in net yards per game (367.2) and seventh in points per game (27.2). Philadelphia rushed for a single-season club record 3,048 yards (sixth-best in NFL history) and finished second in the league in rushing yards per game (179.3). Before joining the Eagles in 2024, Moore served as offensive coordinator of the Los Angeles Chargers in 2023 and the Dallas Cowboys from 2019-22, after starting his coaching career as quarterbacks coach in Dallas in 2018. In four seasons as offensive coordinator of the Cowboys, Moore's unit ranked second in the NFL in total offense (391.0 net yards per game) and scoring (27.7 points per game). The Dallas offense was also the NFL's fourth-best passing offense (264.4 net yards per game) and ranked seventh in rushing offense (126.6 yards per game) over that span.

Background: Quarterback Boise State 2007-11. Pro quarterback Detroit Lions 2012-14, Dallas Cowboys 2015-17.

Personal: Born July 5, 1988, in Prosser, Washington. He and his wife, Julie, have two daughters, Halle and Madelyn, and two sons, Kyler and Beckham. His younger brother, Kirby is the offensive coordinator at the University of Missouri.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2025 COACHING STAFF

Brian Daboll, Head Coach

Career: Daboll was named Giants Head Coach on Jan. 29, 2022. Daboll joined the Bills in 2018 as coordinator under coach Sean McDermott. The previous year, he helped lead the University of Alabama to its 17th national championship as the Crimson Tide's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. In 2020, Daboll was voted Associated Press NFL Assistant Coach of the Year after the Bills finished 13-3 and ended the Patriots' streak of 11 consecutive division titles. Daboll has over 20 years of NFL coaching experience. He spent 11 seasons with the New England Patriots (2000-06, 2013-16) in a variety of roles and helped the franchise win five Super Bowls (XXXVI, XXXVIII, XXXIX, XLIX and LI). Daboll began his coaching career at age 24 in 2000 — Bill Belichick's first year with the team — as a defensive coaching assistant. He was promoted to wide receivers coach in 2002. Daboll left the Patriots to become the Jets' quarterbacks coach from 2007-08. He has been an offensive coordinator for the Cleveland Browns (2009-10), Miami Dolphins (2011) and Kansas City Chiefs (2012). Prior to entering the NFL, Daboll spent one year (1997) as a volunteer assistant at the College of William & Mary, where he first met McDermott, before serving two seasons (1998-99) as a graduate assistant for Nick Saban at Michigan State. Career record: 16-19-1.

Background: Played safety at Rochester from 1995-97. No pro playing experience. College coach: William & Mary 1997, Michigan State 1998-99, Alabama 2017. Pro coach: New England Patriots 2000-06 and 2013-16, New York Jets 2007-08, Cleveland Browns 2009-10, Miami Dolphins 2011, Kansas City Chiefs 2012, Buffalo Bills 2018-21.

Personal: Born April 14, 1975, in Welland, Ontario, Canada.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2025 COACHING STAFF

Kyle Shanahan, Head Coach

Pro Career: Kyle Shanahan became the 20th head coach in franchise history on February 6, 2017, after spending the prior two seasons as offensive coordinator of the Atlanta Falcons. Has 21 seasons of coaching experience at the NFL level, including nine seasons as an offensive coordinator for the Atlanta Falcons (2015-16), Cleveland Browns (2014), Washington Redskins (2010-13) and Houston Texans (2008-09). In six of his nine seasons as an offensive coordinator (2008-09, 2012-13 and 2015-16), and five as head coach of the 49ers (2019, 2021-24), Shanahan has directed an offense that ranked in the top 10 in the NFL in yards gained. In 2019, Shanahan led the 49ers to Super Bowl LIV in his third season with the team, winning Coach of the Year honors by Sporting News and NFC Coach of the Year by the Committee of 101. Shanahan has since guided the team to consecutive NFC West division titles (2022-23) and three-consecutive NFC Championship Game appearances (2021-23). In 2023, Shanahan led the 49ers to a 12-5 record, their eighth NFC Championship victory and an appearance in Super Bowl LVIII. He became the second head coach in NFL history to reach the Conference Championship Game in each of his first four playoff appearances as a head coach. Career record: 70-62.

Background: Wide receiver at Duke 1998-99, Texas 2001-02. Coached at UCLA (2003), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2004-05), Houston Texans (2006-09), Washington Redskins (2010-13), Cleveland Browns (2014), Atlanta Falcons (2015-16).

Personal: Born December 14, 1979, Minneapolis, Minn.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2025 COACHING STAFF

Todd Bowles, Head Coach

Pro Career: Todd Bowles enters his fourth season as head coach of the Buccaneers following three seasons as the team's defensive coordinator (2019-21). Bowles has led the Buccaneers to their first three consecutive NFC South titles, becoming the first coach in team history to lead the Buccaneers to division crowns across each of his first three seasons at the helm. His 27 regular season wins rank second in franchise history for a head coach over their first three seasons, and he has increased the club's win total over the previous year for two straight seasons. Working with his third offensive coordinator in as many seasons, Bowles guided Tampa Bay to a 10-7 record in 2024 and boasted a top-10 point differential (+117) and yardage differential per game (+57.8). Bowles led a Buccaneers team that featured one of the league's most prolific offenses, establishing franchise records in completion percentage (71.5%), passer rating (106.8), rushing yards (2,536), yards per rush (5.3) and third-down conversion rate (50.9%), while becoming the first team in NFL history to complete at least 70% of their passes and average at least five yards per carry in the same season. During the final seven weeks of the season, Bowles' defense held opponents to 237.9 yards per game and yielded just 26 combined second-half points, helping produce a 6-1 finish and catapulting the Buccaneers to their third straight division title. In 2023, Bowles guided the NFL's eighth-youngest roster to an appearance in the NFC Divisional round, earning his first career playoff win as a head coach in a commanding 32-9 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles in the Super Wild Card Round. He inspired a 5-1 finish in the final six weeks of the regular season to secure Tampa Bay's spot in the playoffs. The defense as a whole finished top five in run defense for the fourth time in five seasons under Bowles and ranked seventh in scoring defense, limiting opponents to just 19.1 points per game in 2023. In 2022, Bowles led the Buccaneers to the NFC South title in his first year as the head coach in Tampa Bay, joining Jon Gruden as the only coaches in franchise history to accomplish that feat in year one. He was the play caller for a defense that finished top 10 in the NFL in total yards per game (324.3 opponent yards/game), yards per play (5.14 avg.), pass defense (203.5 passing yards allowed/game), net yards per attempt (6.1), sacks (45.0) and tackles for loss (89), while limiting opponents to the fifth-fewest first downs per game (18.5) and the sixth-lowest third down conversion percentage (36.9 percent). Prior to being named head coach, Bowles spent three seasons as defensive coordinator (2019-21) and transformed the unit into one of the NFL's most productive, opportunistic defenses. Since Bowles joined the Buccaneers in 2019, Tampa Bay's defense ranks first in fewest rushing yards per game allowed (93.0), fewest rush yards per attempt allowed (3.9), opponent fumble recoveries (59), strip sacks (41), and quarterback hits (535) while ranking second in sacks (235.0), forced fumbles (82) and tackles for loss (439). Additionally, Tampa Bay has also ranked in the top 10 in goal-to-go efficiency (third), takeaways (fifth), red zone efficiency (fifth), fewest yards per play allowed (sixth), fewest net passing yards allowed per attempt (eighth), defensive touchdowns (7-8th), fewest yards per game allowed (ninth), pass defense (ninth) and lowest third-down conversion rate against (10th).

The architect behind a historic defensive performance that catapulted the Buccaneers to a Super Bowl LV victory, Bowles and the Bucs held the explosive Kansas City offense to nine points and without a touchdown for the first time in 54 games with Patrick Mahomes as the starting quarterback. Bowles joined the Buccaneers after four seasons as head coach of the New York Jets (2015-18). Under Bowles, the Jets posted one of the best run defenses in the NFL, holding teams to just 4.0 yards per carry, the sixth-lowest figure in the NFL during that span, and allowed only 44 rushing touch-downs, tied for eighth-fewest in that time frame. Bowles' Jets defense also allowed opponents to convert only 36.0 percent of third downs, the fourth-lowest mark in the league. Opposing passers completed just 60.6 percent of their attempts against the Jets under Bowles, the third-lowest mark in the NFL. Nine New York players earned Pro Bowl berths: Darrelle Revis (2015), Muhammad Wilkerson (2015), Chris Ivory (2015), Brandon Marshall (2015), Nick Mangold (2015), Leonard Williams (2016), Jamal Adams (2018), Jason Myers (2018) and Andre Roberts (2018). Prior to serving as Jets head coach, Bowles spent two seasons as defensive coordinator of the Arizona Cardinals (2013-14), where he won Assistant Coach of the Year honors from the PFWA and AP in 2014. During Bowles' time in Arizona, the Cardinals defense allowed the third-fewest rushing touchdowns (14), fifth-fewest points per game (19.5) and fifth-fewest rushing yards per game (96.6). Bowles' defenses in Arizona also showed a knack for takeaways, recording the fifth-most interceptions (38) and most defensive touch-downs (nine) in the NFL. Bowles saw cornerback Patrick Peterson earn first-team AP All-Pro honors in 2013 and Pro Bowl honors both years (2013-14). Defensive end John Abraham (2013), cornerback Antonio Cromartie (2014) and defensive end Calais Campbell (2014) also earned Pro Bowl selections. Bowles spent one year with the Philadelphia Eagles (2012) as the team's secondary coach, before being named interim defensive coordinator for the final 10 games of the season. Before Philadelphia, Bowles was the Dolphins' assistant head coach/secondary coach for four seasons (2008-11). In 2011, he was named interim head coach for the final three games, going 2-1. Bowles also worked as Cowboys defensive backs coach from 2005-07, coaching three players to the Pro Bowl (safety Ken Hamlin, corner-back Terence Newman and safety Roy Williams). His NFL coaching career began in 2000 as the defensive backs coach of the New York Jets prior to four years with the Cleveland Browns, working as the team's nickel package coach (2001-03) and secondary coach (2004). Career record: 44-60.

Background: Bowles got his start as the defensive coordinator for Morehouse College in 1997, followed by a two-year stint as defensive coordinator at Grambling State (1998-99). He played collegiately at Temple, and despite going undrafted in 1986, played eight years in the NFL, with Washington (1986-90 and 1992-93) and San Francisco (1991), starting on the 1987 Washington team that won Super Bowl XXII. Following his retirement as a player, Bowles spent two seasons (1995-96) with the Green Bay Packers' player personnel department.

Personal: An Elizabeth, N.J., native, he and his wife, Taneka, have three sons, Todd Jr., Troy and Tyson.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2025 COACHING STAFF

Dan Quinn, Head Coach

Pro Career: Became the 31st coach in Washington history on Feb. 3, 2024. Quinn joins the Commanders with 21 years of coaching experience, most recently serving as the defensive coordinator for the Dallas Cowboys from 2021-23. In 2021, he was named Assistant Coach of the Year by the Associated Press. From 2021-23, Quinn's unit ranked No. 5 in the NFL in points per game (19.9), No. 7 in net yards allowed per game (327.0), No. 6 in sacks (141) and No. 1 in interceptions (59). Prior to his time in Dallas, Quinn spent six seasons (2015-20) as the head coach of the Atlanta Falcons where he led Atlanta to Super Bowl LI. He finished his career with the Falcons with a 43-42 regular-season record and a 3-2 postseason record. Before his time in Atlanta, Quinn served as the defensive coordinator for the Seattle Seahawks for two seasons (2013-14) and oversaw a defense that helped guide Seattle to consecutive Super Bowl appearances. The Seahawks defense ranked No. 1 in the NFL in fewest yards allowed (270.4), points allowed (15.2) and passing yards allowed (178.8), all while holding offenses to just 91.6 rushing yards per game during Quinn's tenure with the team. Before joining Seattle for his second stint, Quinn coached for the University of Florida (2011-12), the Seattle Seahawks (2009-10), New York Jets (2007-08), Miami Dolphins (2005-06), San Francisco 49ers (2001-04), Hofstra University (1996-2000), VMI (1995) and William & Mary (1994). Career record: 46-44.

Background: Quinn played defensive line at Salisbury for four seasons (1990-93) and was a four-year letterwinner and two-time co-captain. He also lettered in track and field and held the school record in the hammer throw until 2012. Quinn was inducted into the Salisbury Athletic Hall of Fame in 2005. No pro playing experience.

Personal: Born Sept. 11, 1970, in Morristown, N.J. In 20024, he and his wife, Stacey, started Quinn's Corps, which helps serve members of the military both at home and abroad.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

MODIFIED SUDDEN-DEATH OVERTIME

For the 2010 postseason, the NFL installed a modified sudden-death system to determine the winner when the score is tied at the end of regulation. In 2012, the system was expanded to cover all NFL games, including regular-season and preseason games. In 2021, the NFL eliminated overtime in preseason games. In 2022, the system was expanded for postseason games only to allow each team the opportunity to possess the ball. In 2025, NFL clubs approved a rule that aligns the postseason and regular season overtime rules by granting both teams an opportunity to possess the ball even if the first team scores a touchdown, subject to a 10-minute overtime period in the regular season. The first possession can end with a winner if the defense scores a touchdown or makes a tackle in the end zone for a safety.

Key Definitions

Possession: Actual possession of the ball with complete control. The defense gains possession when it catches, intercepts, or recovers a loose ball.

Opportunity to possess: The opportunity to possess occurs only during kicking plays. A kickoff is an opportunity to possess for the receiving team. If the kicking team legally recovers the kick, the receiving team is considered to have had its opportunity. A punt or a field goal that crosses the line of scrimmage and is muffed by the receiving team is considered to be an opportunity to possess for the receivers. Normal touching rules by the kicking team apply.

REGULAR-SEASON PROCEDURES

At the end of regulation time, the referee will immediately toss a coin at the center of the field in accordance with rules pertaining to the usual pregame toss. The captain of the visiting team will call the toss prior to the coin being flipped.

Following a three-minute intermission after the end of the regulation game, there shall be a maximum of one 10-minute period. Each team must possess or have the opportunity to possess the ball. The exception: if the team kicking off to start the overtime period scores a safety on the receiving team's initial possession, in which case the team that kicked off is the winner. If the team that possesses the ball first does not score on its initial possession, or if the score is tied after each team has had its opportunity to possess the ball, the team that scores next, by any method, is the winner. Each team shall be entitled to two timeouts, and if there is an excess timeout, the usual rules shall apply. Disqualified players are not allowed to return.

If the score is tied at the end of a 10-minute overtime period, the game shall result in a tie.

Instant Replay: No challenges. Reviews to be initiated by the replay official.

POSTSEASON PROCEDURES

In postseason, all games tied at the end of regulation are essentially new four-quarter contests unless a winner is determined. Following a three-minute intermission after the end of regulation, play will continue in 15-minute periods until a winner is declared, regardless of how many periods are necessary.

At the end of regulation, the referee will immediately toss a coin at the center of the field in accordance with rules pertaining to the usual pregame toss. The captain of the visiting team will call the toss prior to the coin being flipped.

Both teams must have the opportunity to possess the ball at least once during the extra period, unless the team kicking off to start the first overtime period scores a safety on the receiving team's initial possession. If the kicking team starts the first overtime period with a safety on the receiving team's initial possession, the team that kicked off is the winner. If the team that possesses the ball first does not score on its initial possession, or if the score is tied after each team has had its opportunity to possess the ball, the team scoring next by any method shall be the winner.

If the score is tied at the end of the first 15-minute overtime period, or if the second team's initial possession has not ended, another 15-minute overtime period will begin. Play will continue as it would between the first and second quarters of regulation after the teams change directions.

Every second and fourth overtime period (quarter) will include a clock stoppage for the two-minute warning. If tied after two periods, a possession will end. In that case, the team that lost the overtime coin toss will have the option to kick or receive for the start of the third overtime period (quarter).

If the game remains tied after the second overtime period, there will not be an extended "halftime." Play will continue with a kickoff to begin the third overtime period following a short television break.

Each team has three timeouts per half (defined as two 15-minute overtime quarters) and all general timing provisions apply as during a regular game. Disqualified players are not allowed to return.

Instant Replay: No challenges. Reviews to be initiated by the replay official.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS

The NFL rates its passers for statistical purposes against a fixed performance standard based on statistical achievements of all qualified pro passers since 1960. The current system replaced one that rated passers in relation to their position in a total group based on various criteria. The current system, which was adopted in 1973, removes inequities that existed in the former method and, at the same time, provides a means of comparing passing performances from one season to the next.

It is important to remember that the system is used to rate passers, not quarterbacks. Statistics do not reflect leadership, play-calling, and other intangible factors that go into making a successful professional quarterback. Four categories are used as a basis for compiling a rating:

- Percentage of completions per attempt
- Average yards gained per attempt
- Percentage of touchdown passes per attempt
- Percentage of interceptions per attempt

The average standard is 1.000. The bottom is .000. To earn a 2.000 rating, a passer must perform at exceptional levels, i.e., 70 percent in completions, 10 percent in touchdowns, 1.5 percent in interceptions, and 11 yards average gain per pass attempt. The maximum a passer can receive in any category is 2.375.

For example, to gain a 2.375 in completion percentage, a passer would have to complete 77.5 percent of his passes. The NFL record is 74.44 by Drew Brees (New Orleans, 2018). To earn a 2.375 in percentage of touchdowns, a passer would have to achieve a percentage of 11.9. The record is 13.9 by Sid Luckman (Chicago, 1943). To gain 2.375 in percentage of interceptions, a passer would have to go the entire season without an interception. The 2.375 figure in average yards is 12.50, compared with the NFL record of 11.17 by Tommy O'Connell (Cleveland, 1957).

In order to make the rating more understandable, the point rating is then converted into a scale of 100, with 158.3 being the highest rating a passer can achieve. In cases where statistical performance has been superior, it is possible for a passer to surpass a 100 rating. For example, take Aaron Rodgers' record-setting season in 2011 when he completed 343 of 502 passes for 4,643 yards, 45 touchdowns, and six interceptions. The four calculations would be:

—Percentage of Completions—343 of 502 is 68.33 percent. Subtract 30 from the completion percentage (38.33) and multiply the result by 0.05. The result is a point rating of 1.916.

Note: If the result is less than zero (Comp. Pct. less than 30.0), award zero points. If the results are greater than 2.375 (Comp. Pct. greater than 77.5), award 2.375.

—Average Yards Gained Per Attempt—4,643 yards divided by 502 attempts is 9.25. Subtract 3 yards from yards-per-attempt (6.25) and multiply the result by 0.25. The result is 1.562.

Note: If the result is less than zero (yards per attempt less than 3.0), award zero points. If the result is greater than 2.375 (yards per attempt greater than 12.5), award 2.375 points.

—Percentage of Touchdown Passes—45 touchdowns in 502 attempts is 8.96 percent. Multiply the touchdown percentage by 0.2. The result is 1.793.

Note: If the result is greater than 2.375 (touchdown percentage greater than 11.875), award 2.375.

—Percentage of Interceptions—Six interceptions in 502 attempts is 1.20 percent. Multiply the interception percentage by 0.25 (0.299) and subtract the number from 2.375. The result is 2.076.

Note: If the result is less than zero (interception percentage greater than 9.5), award zero points.

The sum of the four steps is (1.916 + 1.562 + 1.793 + 2.076) 7.348. The sum is then divided by six (1.225) and multiplied by 100. In this case, the result is 122.5. This same formula can be used to determine a passer rating for any player who attempts at least one pass.

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

From its humble beginnings in 1963 to today, the Pro Football Hall of Fame has grown in both size and stature. Recognized worldwide as America's premier sports Hall of Fame, it is doubtful that even the most optimistic of those who led the drive to bring the Hall of Fame to Canton, Ohio, could have envisioned the successes it would realize.

An exhilarating museum and attraction, the Hall of Fame pays tribute to the talents and triumphs of pro football's greatest stars. Chronicled within the walls of the Hall of Fame are the stories and circumstances of play that bring to life words such as courage, dedication, vision, fair play, integrity and excellence.

The Pro Football Hall of Fame has welcomed over 10 million fans. Each year, visitors travel from each of the 50 states in the United States and from upward of 70 foreign countries to tour the museum.

Today, the Hall of Fame reaches tens of millions of additional football fans each year through broad outreach such as national televised events, an in-depth website, educational and youth programs, social media, traveling exhibits and special events held around the country.

The Pro Football Hall of Fame works collaboratively with the pro football family: the National Football League, the 32 NFL clubs and other entities. The cooperative efforts of all of these organizations have contributed greatly to the overall success of the Pro Football Hall of Fame. In turn, the Hall strives to serve as the best possible historical showplace and repository for the sport of pro football.

The Hall of Fame is a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit educational institution guided by its Mission to "Honor the Greatest of the Game, Preserve its History, Promote its Values & Celebrate Excellence Together."

A 50-person Selection Committee composed of media representatives and Hall of Famers, elects new members to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The nearly year-round selection process culminates with the election of no fewer than four or no more than eight new members each year. An affirmative vote of 80 percent is needed for election.

The charter class of 17 enshrines was elected in 1963, and the honor roll now stands at 382 (184 living as of May 20, 2025) with the election of a four-person class in 2025.

CHRONOLOGY OF PROFESSIONAL FOOTBALL

1869

Rutgers and Princeton played a college soccer football game, the first ever, Nov. 6. The game used modified London Football Association rules. During the next seven years, rugby gained favor with the major eastern schools over soccer, and modern football began to develop from rugby.

1876

At the Massasoit convention, the first rules for American football were written. Walter Camp, who would become known as the father of American football, first became involved with the game.

1892

In an era in which football was a major attraction of local athletic clubs, an intense competition between two Pittsburgh-area clubs, the Allegheny Athletic Association (AAA) and the Pittsburgh Athletic Club (PAC), led to the making of the first professional football player. Former Yale All-America guard William (Pudge) Heffelfinger was paid $500 by the AAA to play in a game against the PAC, becoming the first person to be paid to play football, Nov. 12. The AAA won the game 4-0 when Heffelfinger picked up a PAC fumble and ran 35 yards for a touchdown.

1893

The Pittsburgh Athletic Club signed one of its players, probably halfback Grant Dibert, to the first known pro football contract, which covered all of the PAC's games for the year.

1895

John Brallier became the first football player to openly turn pro, accepting $10 and expenses to play for the Latrobe YMCA against the Jeannette Athletic Club.

1896

The Allegheny Athletic Association team fielded the first completely professional team for its abbreviated two-game season.

1897

The Latrobe Athletic Association football team went entirely professional, becoming the first team to play a full season with only professionals.

1898

- ▶ A touchdown was changed from four points to five.
- ▶ Chris O'Brien formed a neighborhood team, which played under the name the Morgan Athletic Club, on the south side of Chicago. The team later became known as the Normals, then the Racine (for a street in Chicago) Cardinals, the Chicago Cardinals, the St. Louis Cardinals, the Phoenix Cardinals, and, in 1994, the Arizona Cardinals. The team remains the oldest continuing operation in pro football.

1900

William C. Temple took over the team payments for the Duquesne Country and Athletic Club, becoming the first known individual club owner.

1902

- ▶ Baseball's Philadelphia Athletics, managed by Connie Mack, and the Philadelphia Phillies formed professional football teams, joining the Pittsburgh Stars in the first attempt at a pro football league, named the National Football League. The Athletics won the first night football game ever played, 39-0 over Kanawoola AC at Elmira, New York, Nov. 21.
- ▶ All three teams claimed the pro championship for the year, but the league president, Dave Berry, named the Stars the champions. Pitcher Rube Waddell was with the Athletics, and pitcher Christy Mathewson a fullback for Pittsburgh.
- ▶ The first World Series of pro football, actually a five-team tournament, was played among a team made up of players from both the Athletics and the Phillies, but simply named New York; the New York Knickerbockers; the Syracuse AC; the Warlow AC; and the Orange (New Jersey) AC at New York's original Madison Square Garden. New York and Syracuse played the first indoor football game before 3,000, Dec. 28. Syracuse, with Glen (Pop) Warner at guard, won 6-0 and went on to win the tournament.

- ▶ The Franklin (Pa.) Athletic Club won the second and last World Series of pro football over the Oreos AC of Asbury Park, New Jersey; the Watertown Red and Blacks; and the Orange AC.
- ▶ Pro football was popularized in Ohio when the Massillon Tigers, a strong amateur team, hired four Pittsburgh pros to play in the season-ending game against Akron. At the same time, pro football declined in the Pittsburgh area, and the emphasis on the pro game moved west from Pennsylvania to Ohio.

- ▶ A field goal was changed from five points to four.
- ▶ Ohio had at least seven pro teams, with Massillon winning the Ohio Independent Championship, that is, the pro title. Talk surfaced about forming a state-wide league to end spiraling salaries brought about by constant bidding for players and to write universal rules for the game. The feeble attempt to start the league failed.
- ▶ Halfback Charles Follis signed a contract with the Shelby (Ohio) AC, making him the first known black pro football player.

The Canton AC, later to become known as the Bulldogs, became a professional team. Massillon again won the Ohio League championship.

1906

- ▶ The forward pass was legalized. The first authenticated pass completion in a pro game came on Oct. 25, when George (Peggy) Parratt of Massillon threw a completion to Dan (Bullet) Riley in a victory over a combined Benwood-Moundsville team.
- ▶ Arch-rivals Canton and Massillon, the two best pro teams in America, played twice, with Canton winning the first game but Massillon winning the second and the Ohio League championship. A betting scandal and the financial disaster wrought upon the two clubs by paying huge salaries caused a temporary decline in interest in pro football in the two cities and, somewhat, throughout Ohio.

A field goal dropped from four points to three.

1912

- ▶ A touchdown was increased from five points to six.
- ▶ Jack Cusack revived a strong pro team in Canton.

1913

Jim Thorpe, a former football and track star at the Carlisle Indian School (Pa.) and a double gold medal winner at the 1912 Olympics in Stockholm, played for the Pine Village Pros in Indiana.

1915

Massillon again fielded a major team, reviving the old rivalry with Canton. Cusack signed Thorpe to play for Canton for $250 a game.

1916

With Thorpe and former Carlisle teammate Pete Calac starring, Canton went 9-0-1, won the Ohio League championship, and was acclaimed the pro football champion.

1917

Despite an upset by Massillon, Canton again won the Ohio League championship.

1919

- ▶ Canton again won the Ohio League championship, despite the team having been turned over from Cusack to Ralph Hay. Thorpe and Calac were joined in the backfield by Joe Guyon.
- ▶ Earl (Curly) Lambeau and newspaperman George Calhoun founded the Green Bay Packers on Aug. 11. The local Indian Packing Company sponsored the team for two years while it played an independent schedule.

1920

- ▶ Pro football was in a state of confusion due to three major problems: dramatically rising salaries; players continually jumping from one team to another following the highest offer; and the use of college players still enrolled in school. A league in which all the members would follow the same rules seemed the answer. An organizational meeting, at which the Akron Pros, Canton Bulldogs, Cleveland Indians, and Dayton Triangles were represented, was held at the Jordan and Hupmobile auto showroom in Canton, Ohio, Aug. 20. This meeting resulted in the formation of the American Professional Football Conference.

- ▶ A second organizational meeting was held in Canton, Sept. 17. The teams were from four states—Akron, Canton, Cleveland, and Dayton from Ohio; the Hammond Pros and Muncie Flyers from Indiana; the Rochester Jeffersons from New York; and the Rock Island Independents, Decatur Staleys, and Racine Cardinals from Illinois. The name of the league was changed to the American Professional Football Association. Hoping to capitalize on his fame, the members elected Thorpe president; Stanley Coffall of Cleveland was elected vice president. A membership fee of $100 per team was charged to give an appearance of respectability, but no team ever paid it. Scheduling was left up to the teams, and there were wide variations, both in the overall number of games played and in the number played against APFA member teams.

- ▶ Four other teams—the Buffalo All-Americans, Chicago Tigers, Columbus Panhandles, and Detroit Heralds—joined the league sometime during the year. On Sept. 26, the first game featuring an APFA team was played at Rock Island's Douglas Park. A crowd of 800 watched the Independents defeat the St. Paul Ideals 48-0. A week later, Oct. 3, the first game matching two APFA teams was held. At Triangle Park, Dayton defeated Columbus 14-0, with Lou Partlow of Dayton scoring the first touchdown in a game between Association teams. The same day, Rock Island defeated Muncie 45-0.

- ▶ By the beginning of December, most of the teams in the APFA had abandoned their hopes for a championship, and some of them, including the Chicago Tigers and the Detroit Heralds, had finished their seasons, disbanded, and had their franchises canceled by the Association. Four teams—Akron, Buffalo, Canton, and Decatur—still had championship aspirations, but a series of late-season games among them left Akron as the only undefeated team in the Association. At one of these games, Akron sold tackle Bob Nash to Buffalo for $300 and five percent of the gate receipts—the first APFA player deal.

- ▶ At the league meeting in Akron, April 30, the championship of the 1920 season was awarded to the Akron Pros. The APFA was reorganized, with Joe Carr of the Columbus Panhandles named president and Carl Storck of Dayton secretary-treasurer. Carr moved the Association's headquarters to Columbus, drafted a league constitution and by-laws, gave teams territorial rights, restricted player movements, developed membership criteria for the franchises, and issued standings for the first time, so that the APFA would have a clear champion.

- ▶ The Association's membership increased to 22 teams, including the Green Bay Packers who were awarded to J. Emmett Clair of the Acme Packing Co. on Aug. 27. The team cut ties with Acme Packing in October.
- ▶ Thorpe moved from Canton to the Cleveland Indians, but he was hurt early in the season and played very little.
- ▶ A.E. Staley turned the Decatur Staleys over to player-coach George Halas, who moved the team to Cubs Park in Chicago. Staley paid Halas $5,000 to keep the name Staleys for one more year. Halas made halfback Ed (Dutch) Sternaman his partner.
- ▶ Player-coach Fritz Pollard of the Akron Pros became the first black head coach.
- ▶ The Staleys claimed the APFA championship with a 9-1-1 record, as did Buffalo at 9-1-2. Carr ruled in favor of the Staleys, giving Halas his first championship.

1922

- ▶ After admitting the use of players who had college eligibility remaining, J. Emmett Clair withdrew from the APFA, Jan. 28. Six months later, the Packers were readmitted to the renamed NFL. The private Green Bay Football Club, with Curly Lambeau as president, suffered heavy financial losses and folded at the end of the season.
- ▶ The American Professional Football Association changed its name to the National Football League, June 24. The Chicago Staleys became the Chicago Bears.
- ▶ The NFL fielded 18 teams, including the new Oorang Indians of Marion, Ohio, an all-Indian team featuring Thorpe, Joe Guyon, and Pete Calac, and sponsored by the Oorang dog kennels.
- ▶ Canton, led by player-coach Guy Chamberlin and tackles Link Lyman and Wilbur (Pete) Henry, emerged as the league's first true powerhouse, going 10-0-2.

1923

- ▶ For the first time, all of the franchises considered to be part of the NFL fielded teams. Thorpe played his second and final season for the Oorang Indians. Against the Bears, Thorpe fumbled, and Halas picked up the ball and returned it 98 yards for a touchdown, a record that would last until 1972.
- ▶ Canton had its second consecutive undefeated season, going 11-0-1 for the NFL title.

- ▶ The league had 18 franchises, including new ones in Kansas City, Kenosha, and Frankford, a section of Philadelphia. League champion Canton, successful on the field but not at the box office, was purchased by the owner of the Cleveland franchise, who kept the Canton franchise inactive, while using the best players for his Cleveland team, which he renamed the Bulldogs. Cleveland won the title with a 7-1-1 record.

- ▶ Five new franchises were admitted to the NFL—the New York Giants, who were awarded to Tim Mara and Billy Gibson for $500; the Detroit Panthers, featuring Jimmy Conzelman as owner, coach, and tailback; the Providence Steam Roller, a new Canton Bulldogs team; and the Pottsville Maroons, who had been perhaps the most successful independent pro team. The NFL established its first player limit, at 16 players.
- ▶ Late in the season, the NFL made its greatest coup in gaining national recognition. Shortly after the University of Illinois season ended in November, All-America halfback Harold (Red) Grange signed a contract to play with the Chicago Bears. On Thanksgiving Day, a crowd of 36,000—the largest in pro football history—watched Grange and the Bears play the Chicago Cardinals to a scoreless tie at Wrigley Field. At the beginning of December, the Bears left on a barnstorming tour that saw them play eight games in 12 days, in St. Louis, Philadelphia, New York City, Washington, Boston, Pittsburgh, Detroit, and Chicago. A crowd of 73,000 watched the game against the Giants at the Polo Grounds, helping assure the future of the troubled NFL franchise in New York. The Bears then played nine more games in the South and West, including a game in Los Angeles, in which 75,000 fans watched them defeat the Los Angeles Tigers in the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.
- ▶ Pottsville and the Chicago Cardinals were the top contenders for the league title, with Pottsville winning a late-season meeting 21-7. Pottsville scheduled a game against a team of former Notre Dame players for Shibe Park in Philadelphia. Frankford lodged a protest not only because the game was in Frankford's protected territory, but because it was being played the same day as a Yellow Jackets home game. Carr gave three different notices forbidding Pottsville to play the game, but Pottsville played anyway, Dec. 12. That day, Carr fined the club, suspended it from all rights and privileges (including the right to play for the NFL championship), and re-turned its franchise to the league. The Cardinals, who ended the season with the best record in the league, were named the 1925 champions.

- ▶ Grange's manager, C.C. Pyle, told the Bears that Grange wouldn't play for them unless he was paid a five-figure salary and given one-third ownership of the team. The Bears refused. Pyle leased Yankee Stadium in New York City, then petitioned for an NFL franchise. After he was refused, he started the first American Football League. It lasted one season and included Grange's New York Yankees and eight other teams. The AFL champion Philadelphia Quakers played a December game against the New York Giants, seventh in the NFL, and the Giants won 31-0. At the end of the season, the AFL folded.

CHRONOLOGY OF PROFESSIONAL FOOTBALL

- ▶ Halas pushed through a rule that prohibited any team from signing a player whose college class had not graduated.
- ▶ The NFL grew to 22 teams, including the Duluth Eskimos, who signed All-America fullback Ernie Nevers of Stanford, giving the league a gate attraction to rival Grange. The 15-member Eskimos, dubbed the Iron Men of the North, played 29 exhibition and league games, 28 on the road, and Nevers played in all but 29 minutes of them.
- ▶ Frankford edged the Bears for the championship, despite Halas having obtained John (Paddy) Driscoll from the Cardinals. On Dec. 4, the Yellow Jackets scored in the final two minutes to defeat the Bears 7-6 and move ahead of them in the standings.

At a special meeting in Cleveland, April 23, Carr decided to secure the NFL's future by eliminating the financially weaker teams and consolidating the quality players onto a limited number of more successful teams. The new-look NFL dropped to 12 teams, and the center of gravity of the league left the Midwest, where the NFL had started, and began to emerge in the large cities of the East. One of the new teams was Grange's New York Yankees, but Grange suffered a knee injury and the Yankees finished in the middle of the pack. The NFL championship was won by the cross-town rival New York Giants, who posted 10 shut-outs in 13 games.

1928

Grange and Nevers both retired from pro football, and Duluth disbanded, as the NFL was reduced to only 10 teams. The Providence Steam Roller of Jimmy Conzelmann and Pearce Johnson won the championship, playing in the Cycledrome, a 10,000-seat oval that had been built for bicycle races.

1929

- ▶ Chris O'Brien sold the Chicago Cardinals to David Jones, July 27.
- ▶ The NFL added a fourth official, the field judge, July 28.
- ▶ Grange and Nevers returned to the NFL. Nevers scored six rushing touchdowns and four extra points as the Cardinals beat Grange's Bears 40-6, Nov. 28. The 40 points set a record that remains the NFL's oldest.
- ▶ Providence became the first NFL team to host a game at night under floodlights, against the Cardinals, Nov. 6.
- ▶ The Packers added back Johnny Blood (McNally), tackle Cal Hubbard, and guard Mike Michalske, and won their first NFL championship, edging the Giants, who featured quarterback Benny Friedman.

- ▶ Dayton, the last of the NFL's original franchises, was purchased by William B. Dwyer and John C. Depler, moved to Brooklyn, and renamed the Dodgers. The Portsmouth, Ohio, Spartans entered the league.
- ▶ The Packers edged the Giants for the title, but the most improved team was the Bears. Halas retired as a player and replaced himself as coach of the Bears with Ralph Jones, who refined the T-formation by introducing wide ends and a halfback in motion. Jones also introduced rookie All-America fullback-tackle Bronko Nagurski.
- ▶ The Giants defeated a team of former Notre Dame players coached by Knute Rockne 22-0 before 55,000 at the Polo Grounds, Dec. 14. The proceeds went to the New York Unemployment Fund to help those suffering because of the Great Depression, and the easy victory helped give the NFL credibility with the press and the public.

1931

- ▶ The NFL decreased to 10 teams, and halfway through the season the Frankford franchise folded. Carr fined the Bears, Packers, and Portsmouth $1,000 each for using players whose college classes had not graduated.
- ▶ The Packers won an unprecedented third consecutive title, beating out the Spartans, who were led by rookie backs Earl (Dutch) Clark and Glenn Presnell.

- ▶ George Preston Marshall, Vincent Bendix, Jay O'Brien, and M. Dorland Doyle were awarded a franchise for Boston, July 9. Despite the presence of two rookies—halfback Cliff Battles and tackle Glen (Turk) Edwards—the new team, named the Braves, lost money and Marshall was left as the sole owner at the end of the year.
- ▶ NFL membership dropped to eight teams, the lowest in history. Official statistics were kept for the first time. The Bears and the Spartans finished the season in the first-ever tie for first place. After the season finale, the league office arranged for an additional regular-season game to determine the league champion. The game was moved indoors to Chicago Stadium because of bitter cold and heavy snow. The arena allowed only an 80-yard field that came right to the walls. The goal posts were moved from the end lines to the goal lines and, for safety, inbounds lines or hashmarks where the ball would be put in play were drawn 10 yards from the walls that butted against the sidelines. The Bears won 9-0, Dec. 18, scoring the winning touchdown on a two-yard pass from Nagurski to Grange. The Spartans claimed Nagurski's pass was thrown from less than five yards behind the line of scrimmage, violating the existing passing rule, but the play stood.

- ▶ The NFL, which long had followed the rules of college football, made a number of significant changes from the college game for the first time and began to develop rules serving its needs and the style of play it preferred. The innovations from the 1932 championship game—inbounds line or hashmarks and goal posts on the goal lines—were adopted. Also the forward pass was legalized from anywhere behind the line of scrimmage, Feb. 25.
- ▶ Marshall and Halas pushed through a proposal that divided the NFL into two divisions, with the winners to meet in an annual championship game, July 8.
- ▶ Three new franchises joined the league—the Pittsburgh Pirates of Art Rooney, the Philadelphia Eagles of Bert Bell and Lud Wray, and the Cincinnati Reds. The Staten Island Stapletons suspended operations for a year, but never returned to the league.
- ▶ Halas bought out Sternaman, became sole owner of the Bears, and reinstated himself as head coach. Marshall changed the name of the Boston Braves to the Redskins. David Jones sold the Chicago Cardinals to Charles W. Bidwill.
- ▶ In the first NFL Championship Game scheduled before the season, the Western Division champion Bears defeated the Eastern Division champion Giants 23-21 at Wrigley Field, Dec. 17.

1934

- ▶ G.A. (Dick) Richards purchased the Portsmouth Spartans, moved them to Detroit, and renamed them the Lions.
- ▶ Professional football gained new prestige when the Bears were matched against the best college football players in the first Chicago College All-Star Game, Aug. 31. The game ended in a scoreless tie before 79,432 at Soldier Field.
- ▶ The Cincinnati Reds lost their first eight games, then were suspended from the league for defaulting on payments. The St. Louis Gunners, an independent team, joined the NFL by buying the Cincinnati franchise and went 1-2 the last three weeks.
- ▶ Rookie Beattie Feathers of the Bears became the NFL's first 1,000-yard rusher, gaining 1,004 on 101 carries. The Thanksgiving Day game between the Bears and the Lions became the first NFL game broadcast nationally, with Graham McNamee the announcer for NBC radio.
- ▶ In the championship game, on an extremely cold and icy day at the Polo Grounds, the Giants trailed the Bears 13-3 in the third quarter before changing to basketball shoes for better footing. The Giants won 30-13 in what has come to be known as the Sneakers Game, Dec. 9.
- ▶ The player waiver rule was adopted, Dec. 10.

- ▶ The NFL adopted Bert Bell's proposal to hold an annual draft of college players, to begin in 1936, with teams selecting in an inverse order of finish, May 19. The inbounds line or hashmarks were moved nearer the center of the field, 15 yards from the sidelines.
- ▶ All-America end Don Hutson of Alabama joined Green Bay. The Lions defeated the Giants 26-7 in the NFL Championship Game, Dec. 15.

- ▶ There were no franchise transactions for the first year since the formation of the NFL. It also was the first year in which all member teams played the same number of games.
- ▶ The Eagles made University of Chicago halfback and Heisman Trophy winner Jay Berwanger the first player ever selected in the NFL draft, Feb. 8. The Eagles traded his rights to the Bears, but Berwanger never played pro football. The first player selected to actually sign was the number-two pick, Riley Smith of Alabama, who was selected by Boston.
- ▶ A rival league was formed, and it became the second to call itself the American Football League. The Boston Shamrocks were its champions.
- ▶ Because of poor attendance, Marshall, the owner of the host team, moved the Championship Game from Boston to the Polo Grounds in New York. Green Bay defeated the Redskins 21-6, Dec. 13.

1937

- ▶ Homer Marshman was granted a Cleveland franchise, named the Rams, Feb. 12. Marshall moved the Redskins to Washington, D.C., Feb. 13. The Redskins signed TCU All-America tailback Sammy Baugh, who led them to a 28-21 victory over the Bears in the NFL Championship Game, Dec. 12.
- ▶ The Los Angeles Bulldogs had an 8-0 record to win the AFL title, but then the 2-year-old league folded.

1938

- ▶ At the suggestion of Halas, Hugh (Shorty) Ray became a technical advisor on rules and officiating to the NFL. A new rule called for a 15-yard penalty for roughing the passer.
- ▶ Rookie Byron (Whizzer) White of the Pittsburgh Pirates led the NFL in rushing. The Giants defeated the Packers 23-17 for the NFL title, Dec. 11.
- ▶ Marshall, Los Angeles Times sports editor Bill Henry, and promoter Tom Gallery established the Pro Bowl game between the NFL champion and a team of pro all-stars.

1939

- ▶ The New York Giants defeated the Pro All-Stars 13-10 in the first Pro Bowl, at Wrigley Field, Los Angeles, Jan. 15.
- ▶ Carr, NFL president since 1921, died in Columbus, May 20. Carl Storck was named acting president, May 25.

- ▶ An NFL game was televised for the first time when NBC broadcast the Brooklyn Dodgers-Philadelphia Eagles game from Ebbets Field to the approximately 1,000 sets then in New York, Oct. 22.
- ▶ Green Bay defeated New York 27-0 in the NFL Championship Game, Dec. 10 at Milwaukee. NFL attendance exceeded 1 million in a season for the first time, reaching 1,071,200.

- ▶ A six-team rival league, the third to call itself the American Football League, was formed, and the Columbus Bullies won its championship.
- ▶ Halas' Bears, with additional coaching by Clark Shaughnessy of Stanford, defeated the Redskins 73-0 in the NFL Championship Game, December 8. The game, which was the most decisive victory in NFL history, popularized the Bears' T-formation with a man-in-motion. It was the first championship carried on network radio, broadcast by Red Barber to 120 stations of the Mutual Broadcasting System, which paid $2,500 for the rights.
- ▶ Art Rooney sold the Pittsburgh franchise to Alexis Thompson, Dec. 9, then bought part interest in the Philadelphia Eagles.
- ▶ Bell and Rooney traded the Eagles to Thompson for the Pirates, then re-named their new team the Steelers.

1941

- ▶ Elmer Layden was named the first Commissioner of the NFL, March 1; Storck, the acting president, resigned, April 5. NFL headquarters were moved to Chicago.
- ▶ Homer Marshman sold the Rams to Daniel F. Reeves and Fred Levy, Jr.
- ▶ The league by-laws were revised to provide for playoffs in case there were ties in division races, and sudden-death overtimes in case a playoff game was tied after four quarters. An official NFL Record Manual was published for the first time.
- ▶ Columbus again won the championship of the AFL, but the two-year-old league then folded.

- ▶ The Bears and the Packers finished in a tie for the Western Division championship, setting up the first divisional playoff game in league history. The Bears won 33-14, then defeated the Giants 37-9 for the NFL championship, Dec. 21.

1942

- ▶ Players departing for service in World War II depleted the rosters of NFL teams. Halas left the Bears in midseason to join the Navy, and Luke Johnsos and Heartley (Hunk) Anderson served as co-coaches as the Bears went 11-0 in the regular season. The Redskins defeated the Bears 14-6 in the NFL Championship Game, Dec. 13.

1943

- ▶ The Cleveland Rams, with co-owners Reeves and Levy in the service, were granted permission to suspend operations for one season, April 6. Levy transferred his stock in the team to Reeves, April 16.

- ▶ The NFL adopted free substitution, April 7. The league also made the wearing of helmets mandatory and approved a 10-game schedule for all teams.
- ▶ Philadelphia and Pittsburgh were granted permission to merge for one season, June 19. The team, known as Phil-Pitt (and called the Steagles by fans), divided home games between the two cities, and Earle (Greasy) Neale of Philadelphia and Walt Kiesling of Pittsburgh served as co-coaches. The merger automatically dissolved the last day of the season, Dec. 5.
- ▶ Ted Collins was granted a franchise for Boston, to become active in 1944.
- ▶ Sammy Baugh led the league in passing, punting, and interceptions. He led the Redskins to a tie with the Giants for the Eastern Division title, and then to a 28-0 victory in a divisional playoff game. The Bears beat the Redskins 41-21 in the NFL Championship Game, Dec. 26.

1944

- ▶ Collins, who had wanted a franchise in Yankee Stadium in New York, named his new team in Boston the Yanks. Cleveland resumed operations. The Brooklyn Dodgers changed their name to the Tigers.
- ▶ Coaching from the bench was legalized, April 20.
- ▶ The Cardinals and the Steelers were granted permission to merge for one year under the name Card-Pitt, April 21. Phil Handler of the Cardinals and Walt Kiesling of the Steelers served as co-coaches. The merger automatically dissolved the last day of the season, Dec. 3.
- ▶ In the NFL Championship Game, Green Bay defeated the New York Giants 14-7, Dec. 17.

- ▶ The inbounds lines or hashmarks were moved from 15 yards away from the sidelines to nearer the center of the field—20 yards from the sidelines.
- ▶ Brooklyn and Boston merged into a team that played home games in both cities and was known simply as The Yanks. The team was coached by former Boston head coach Herb Kopf. In December, the Brooklyn franchise withdrew from the NFL to join the new All-America Football Conference; all the players on its active and reserve lists were assigned to The Yanks, who once again became the Boston Yanks.
- ▶ Halas rejoined the Bears late in the season after service with the U.S. Navy. Although Halas took over much of the coaching duties, Anderson and Johnsos remained the coaches of record throughout the season.
- ▶ Steve Van Buren of Philadelphia led the NFL in rushing, kickoff returns, and scoring.
- ▶ After the Japanese surrendered ending

World War II, a count showed that the NFL service roster, limited to men who had played in league games, totaled 638, 21 of whom had died in action.

- Rookie quarterback Bob Waterfield led Cleveland to a 15-14 victory over Washington in the NFL Championship Game, Dec. 16.

- The contract of Commissioner Layden was not renewed, and Bert Bell, co-owner of the Steelers, replaced him, Jan. 11. Bell moved the league headquarters from Chicago to the Philadelphia suburb of Bala-Cynwyd.
- Free substitution was withdrawn and substitutions were limited to no more than three men at a time. Forward passes were made automatically incomplete upon striking the goal posts, Jan. 11.
- The NFL took on a truly national appearance for the first time when Reeves was granted permission by the league to move his NFL champion Rams to Los Angeles.
- Halfback Kenny Washington (March 21) and end Woody Strode (May 7) signed with the Los Angeles Rams to become the first African-Americans to play in the NFL in the modern era. Guard Bill Willis (Aug. 6) and running back Marion Motley (Aug. 9) joined the AAFC with the Cleveland Browns.
- The rival All-America Football Conference began play with eight teams. The Cleveland Browns, coached by Paul Brown, won the AAFC's first championship, defeating the New York Yankees 14-9.
- Bill Dudley of the Steelers led the NFL in rushing, interceptions, and punt returns, and won the league's most valuable player award.
- Backs Frank Filchock and Merle Hapes of the Giants were questioned about an attempt by a New York man to fix the championship game with the Bears. Bell suspended Hapes but allowed Filchock to play; he played well, but Chicago won 24-14, Dec. 15.

- The NFL added a fifth official, the back judge.
- A bonus choice was made for the first time in the NFL draft. One team each year would select the special choice before the first round began. The Chicago Bears won a lottery and the rights to the first choice and drafted back Bob Fenimore of Oklahoma A&M.
- The Cleveland Browns again won the AAFC title, defeating the New York Yankees 14-3.
- Charles Bidwill, Sr., owner of the Cardinals, died April 19, but his wife and sons retained ownership of the team. On Dec. 28, the Cardinals won the NFL Championship Game 28-21 over the Philadelphia Eagles, who had beaten Pittsburgh 21-0 in a playoff.

1948

- Plastic helmets were prohibited. A flexible artificial tee was permitted at the kickoff. Officials other than the referee were equipped with whistles, not horns, Jan. 14.
- Fred Mandel sold the Detroit Lions to a syndicate headed by D. Lyle Fife, Jan. 15.
- Halfback Fred Gehrke of the Los Angeles Rams painted horns on the Rams' helmets, the first modern helmet emblems in pro football.
- The Cleveland Browns won their third straight AAFC championship, going 14-0 and then defeating the Buffalo Bills 49-7.
- In a blizzard, the Eagles defeated the Cardinals 7-0 in the NFL Championship Game, Dec. 19.

1949

- Alexis Thompson sold the champion Eagles to a syndicate headed by James P. Clark, Jan. 15. The Boston Yanks became the New York Bulldogs, sharing the Polo Grounds with the Giants.
- Free substitution was adopted for one year, Jan. 20.
- The NFL had two 1,000-yard rushers in the same season for the first time—Steve Van Buren of Philadelphia and Tony Canadeo of Green Bay.
- The AAFC played its season with a one-division, seven-team format. On Dec. 9, Bell announced a merger agreement in which three AAFC franchises—Cleveland, San Francisco, and Baltimore—would join the NFL in 1950. The Browns won their fourth consecutive AAFC title, defeating the 49ers 21-7, Dec. 11.
- In a heavy rain, the Eagles defeated the Rams 14-0 in the NFL Championship Game, Dec. 18.

- Unlimited free substitution was restored, opening the way for the era of two platoons and specialization in pro football, Jan. 20.
- Curly Lambeau, founder of the franchise and Green Bay's head coach since 1921, resigned under fire, Feb. 1.
- The name National Football League was restored after about three months as the National-American Football League. The American and National conferences were created to replace the Eastern and Western divisions, March 3.
- The New York Bulldogs became the Yanks and divided the players of the former AAFC Yankees with the Giants. A special allocation draft was held in which the 13 teams drafted the remaining AAFC players, with special consideration for Baltimore, which received 15 choices compared to 10 for other teams.
- The Los Angeles Rams became the first NFL team to have all of its games—both home and away—televised. The Washington Redskins followed the Rams in arranging to televise their games; other teams made deals to put selected games on television.

- In the first game of the season, former AAFC champion Cleveland defeated NFL champion Philadelphia 35-10. For the first time, deadlocks occurred in both conferences and playoffs were necessary. The Browns defeated the Giants in the American and the Rams defeated the Bears in the National. Cleveland defeated Los Angeles 30-28 in the NFL Championship Game, Dec. 24.

- The Pro Bowl game, dormant since 1942, was revived under a new format matching the all-stars of each conference at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. The American Conference defeated the National Conference 28-27, Jan. 14.
- Abraham Watner returned the Baltimore franchise and its player contracts back to the NFL for $50,000. Baltimore's former players were made available for drafting at the same time as college players, Jan. 18.
- A rule was passed that no tackle, guard, or center would be eligible to catch a forward pass, Jan. 18.
- The Rams reversed their television policy and televised only road games.
- The NFL Championship Game was televised coast-to-coast for the first time, Dec. 23. The DuMont Network paid $75,000 for the rights to the game, in which the Rams defeated the Browns 24-17.

1952

- Ted Collins sold the New York Yanks' franchise back to the NFL, Jan. 19. A new franchise was awarded to a group in Dallas after it purchased the assets of the Yanks, Jan. 24. The new Texans went 1-11, with the owners turning the franchise back to the league in midseason. For the last five games of the season, the commissioner's office operated the Texans as a road team, using Hershey, Pennsylvania, as a home base. At the end of the season the franchise was canceled, the last time an NFL team failed.
- The Pittsburgh Steelers abandoned the Single-Wing for the T-formation, the last pro team to do so.
- The Detroit Lions won their first NFL championship in 17 years, defeating the Browns 17-7 in the title game, Dec. 28.

- A Baltimore group headed by Carroll Rosenbloom was granted a franchise and was awarded the holdings of the defunct Dallas organization, Jan. 23. The team, named the Colts, put together the largest trade in league history, acquiring 10 players from Cleveland in exchange for five.
- The names of the American and National conferences were changed to the Eastern and Western conferences, Jan. 24.
- Jim Thorpe died, March 28.
- Mickey McBride, founder of the Cleveland Browns, sold the franchise to a syndicate headed by Dave R. Jones,

- NFL clubs voted unanimously to remove the hip-drop tackle from the game. A hip-drop tackle occurs when a defender wraps up a ball carrier and rotates or swivels his hips, unweighting himself and dropping onto ball carrier's legs during the tackle, Mar. 27.
- The NFL and NFLPA announced the introduction of five new helmets for the 2024 season that achieved record-high testing results, reflecting a significant advancement in helmet safety innovation. Twelve new helmet models are eligible for players to wear for the 2024 season, Apr. 9.
- The NFL announced that the Green Bay Packers and Philadelphia Eagles will play on Friday, Sept. 6, in Sao Paulo, Brazil, in the first-ever regular season game in South America, Apr. 10.
- The NFL announced it will open an NFL Academy in Australia in September, 2024 as the league continues to invest in long-term global football development efforts and pathways for international talent, April 25.
- The 2024 NFL Draft in Detroit set a new attendance record after more than 700,000 fans were in attendance for the three-day event, including a record 275,000 people for the first round, Apr. 27.
- The NFL and Netflix announced a three-season deal beginning in 2024 with two Christmas Day games. Netflix will stream at least one holiday game each year of the three-year deal, May 15.

CHRONOLOGY OF PROFESSIONAL FOOTBALL

- ▶ The league's Inspire Change contributions surpass $375 million in efforts to strengthen advances in social justice, the NFL announced, May 18.
- ▶ The league announced the rollout of NFL Source, an evolution of the league's supplier diversity commitments which seek to standardize how the NFL and its partners support working with underrepresented businesses locally and nationally, year-round, May 21.
- ▶ Pittsburgh will host the 2026 NFL Draft, the league announced, May 23.
- ▶ The NFL announced an expansion of its NFL Africa Program into Nigeria, hosting a camp to identify talent as well as NFL Flag football activities, in hopes to continue to expand the game of football, June 14.
- ▶ Clubs approve a new fund investment policy and conditionally approve certain private equity funds as eligible to acquire non-controlling interests in member clubs, Aug. 27.
- ▶ The Kansas City Chiefs defeated the Baltimore Ravens, 27-20, to open the 2024 season, marking the first ever game to feature the NFL's new Dynamic Kickoff, Sept. 5.
- ▶ The Philadelphia Eagles defeated the Green Bay Packers, 34-29, in the NFL's first-ever game in South America at Corinthians Arena in São Paulo, Brazil, Sept. 6.
- ▶ The NFL announced injury data for the 2024 preseason, which includes the fewest number of concussions in a full preseason. The decrease in preseason concussions to an historic low resulted from the long-term, holistic approach to concussion reduction efforts, Oct. 4.
- ▶ The NFL set a Thanksgiving Day viewership record for the third consecutive year. The average viewership across all three games – Chicago Bears vs. Detroit Lions, New York Giants vs. Dallas Cowboys and Miami Dolphins vs. Green Bay Packers – was 34.2 million, the highest Thanksgiving Day average on record (records date back to 1988), Dec. 3.
- ▶ Netflix's first ever NFL Christmas delivered the two most-streamed NFL games in U.S. history with an average audience of over 24 million viewers each, Dec. 26.

2025

- ▶ The National Football League announced injury data for the 2024 season with concussions at the lowest-level ever. Concussions decreased 17% compared to last season and 12% compared to the 2021-2023 season average. This decrease builds on a preseason record, which had the fewest number of concussions in practices and games since 2015, Jan. 30.
- ▶ Virginia Halas McCaskey, the daughter of Pro Football Hall of Famer George Halas and the principal owner of the Chicago Bears since 1983, passed away at age 102, Feb. 6.
- ▶ The Philadelphia Eagles defeated the Kansas City Chiefs, 40-22, in Super Bowl LIX in New Orleans, preventing the Chiefs from becoming the first team ever to win three consecutive Super Bowls, Feb. 9.

- ▶ Super Bowl LIX reached a record 182.8M viewers across FOX, FOX Deportes and Telemundo, surpassing the comparable reach of 182.2M for Super Bowl LVIII on CBS, Nickelodeon and Univision, Feb. 10.
- ▶ The NFL and NFLPA announced the introduction of seven new helmet models for the 2025 season, highlighting new top-performing helmet models available to the players for the upcoming season, Apr. 11.
- ▶ Nike and the NFL announced Rivalries, a new and exciting uniform and fan gear program that will give athletes and fans an opportunity to connect like never before. The program will elevate NFL rivalry games over the next four seasons, with specially designed Nike uniforms and fan gear, Apr. 25.
- ▶ Washington will host the 2027 NFL Draft, the league announced, May 5.
- ▶ The NFL announced that the Indianapolis Colts and Atlanta Falcons will play on Sunday, Nov. 9 in Berlin, Germany, in 2025 at the Olympic Stadium, in the first-ever regular season game in Germany, May 14.
- ▶ The NFL announced that the Miami Dolphins will play the Washington Commanders on Sunday, Nov. 16, in the first-ever regular season game in Madrid, Spain, in 2025 at Bernabéu Stadium, May 14.
