IT'S A DIFFERENT BALL GAME!

That's why The Fontainebleau has hosted so many NFL teams like the Falcons, the Chiefs, the Rams, the Bears, the Vikings—20 to be correct—and their fans.

It's easy to catch a pass around the three pools on the lush tropical patio and bask in the sun with poolside service. Or kick off a perfect evening in La Chandelle Lounge, one of the most popular dancing spots in the city, after you tackle the superb Creole, French or American cuisine in The Empire Room. And, if you have to plan a little strategy huddle in 10 meeting rooms of all sizes.

The Fontainebleau . . . where the staff makes sure it's a team effort.

JOHN W. MECOM, JR.

PRESIDENT OF THE NEW ORLEANS SAINTS

A youthful, aggressive Texas native, John W. Mecom, Jr., has seen the Saints grow from an idea to reality and is now pointing his franchise toward contender status.

The 33-year-old club president was with the Saints throughout training camp in 1971 at Hattiesburg, Miss., keeping abreast of the "Youth Movement" that he and new head coach J.D. Roberts had instituted. Like everyone else, he suffered during the pre-season campaign but was aware of the club's potential that was to rise to the occasion on the opening day of the regular season, the result being a 24-20 victory over the Los Angeles Rams.

Not one to adhere to tradition, John brought in a non-football man, former astronaut Richard F. Gordon, Jr., to head the Saints' front office as Executive Vice President, elevating Harry Hulmes to Vice President of Administration and Larry Liddell to Public Relations Director at the same time. With this move, Mecom said the Saints will operate with unity of purpose — to strengthen and improve the franchise.

To put it another way: to bring a winning team to the fans of New Orleans, whom Mecom calls "the greatest fans in the world."

Involved in the oil business in Louisiana for many years, John gives the Saints his full attention and he's become involved in a number of New Orleans projects now that he has lived in the Crescent City during five football seasons. Although connected with many endeavors, including serving on the Board of Regents of Loyola University, a variety of successful businesses and racing autos and boats, there's no doubt that his major interest is the Saints — and the eventual winning of an NFL championship.

While attending the University of Oklahoma, John, who also attended the University of Texas, met Katsy Mullendore of Pawhuska, Okla., and subsequently married her in 1962. They now have four children, John III, 8; Katsy Kathleen, 5½; Mary Elizabeth, 4½ and Kathleen, 1½. All of the Mecoms are very much a part of the Saints' scene every Sunday the club is at home in the fall.

RICHARD F. GORDON, JR., Executive Vice President

In his first season as a professional football executive, Richard F. Gordon, Jr., is continuing to prove himself to be a dynamic force in his capacity as Saints Executive Vice President.

Appointed to the position in January, 1972, Gordon came to the Saints after 20 years of military service, the last eight of which were spent as an astronaut in the National Aeronautic Space Administration (NASA), during which he logged a total of 315 hours and 53 minutes in space — 2 hours and 44 minutes of which were spent in EVA (Extravehicular activity).

His first space venture was the 3-day Gemini 11 mission on Sept. 12, 1966, in which he and command pilot Charles Conrad set a new altitude record of 850 miles. It was during this flight that he performed two periods of EVA.

After serving as a backup command module pilot for Apollo IX, Gordon occupied the command module pilot seat on Apollo XII in 1969. The other crewmen on man's second lunar landing mission were Charles Conrad and Alan L. Bean. Throughout the 31-hour lunar surface stay by Conrad and Bean, Gordon remained in lunar orbit aboard the command module.

Born in Seattle, Washington, Gordon, 42, received a Bachelor of Science degree in Chemistry from the University of Washington in 1951 and received his wings as a naval aviator in 1953.

During his military career, Gordon earned many awards and citations for his courageous efforts, including the NASA Distinguished Service Medal, two Navy Distinguished Flying Crosses, the Navy Distinguished Service Medal and the Godfrey L. Cabot Award (1970). He achieved the rank of Captain.

In his position with the Saints, Gordon is responsible for front office management and all business aspects of the organization.

Married to the former Barbara J. Field of Seattle, Wash., Gordon has six children: Carleen, 18; Richard, 16; Lawrence, 14; Thomas, 13; James, 12 and Dianne, 11.

ROBERTS

HARRY HULMES, Vice President — Administration

After spending two years with the Saints as Assistant to the General Manager and Director of Public Relations, Hulmes was appointed to his present position last January. It's a job that finds him getting involved in a variety of assignments, including public relations and player signings among other things. Having joined the Baltimore Colts as business manager in 1958, he's been an active executive in the NFL longer than anyone else on the Saints' administrative staff. During his 12 years in Baltimore Harry also served the Colts as publicity director, assistant general manager and general manager. He arrived on the New Orleans scene in February, 1970.

A product of Philadelphia, Pa., he spent three years in the U.S. Navy before graduating from the University of Pennsylvania. The 45-year-old Hulmes made his pro sports debut as assistant business manager of baseball's Baltimore Orioles in 1954, and three seasons later accepted the job as athletic publicity director at Bucknell University. Then it was on to Baltimore and the NFL.

Harry and his wife Barbara have three children — Linda, 17; Terry, 13 and Richie 9 — and live in Metairie.

J.D. ROBERTS, The Head Coach

Heading into his second full season as the Saints head coach, J.D. Roberts is well on his way to establishing an NFL beachhead in New Orleans.

A rugged disciplinarian, Roberts utilized the 1971 training camp at Hattiesburg, Miss., as a proving ground for the young rookies and veterans alike, drawing no barriers between the players and himself. When it was over, those players remaining knew they were the best and set out to prove it.

They also respected J.D. Roberts, for they realized that he asked nothing of them that he wasn't willing to do himself.

A tough ex-Marine, Roberts is a one-time All-American guard at Oklahoma, where he was a keen student of coaching master Bud Wilkinson. He was recruited two years ago from the Richmond Roadrunners, where he was the head coach. Although hired as interim coach, he was resigned to a multi-year contract which was re-written at the close of the 1971 season.

At 39, Roberts has been associated with the Saints since 1967 — the club's first year — as a scout and linebacker coach for the New Orleans club until 1969 and then as head coach of the Roadrunners until being elevated to the head job in New Orleans.

After leaving Oklahoma, he played a year with Hamilton in the Canadian League, then entered the Marine Corps and served as playing coach for the Quantico (Va.) team in 1955-56. The following year he made his college coaching debut at the University of Denver as line mentor. In 1958 he returned to his alma mater as an assistant. Since 1960 he's worked as either a defensive or offensive assistant at the U.S. Naval Academy, Auburn and the University of Houston. He was a New York Jets scout for two years beginning in 1965, then it was on to New Orleans.

Born in Oklahoma City and raised in Dallas, J.D. now resides in Metairie, La., with wife June and children, Gregory David, 14; Rebecca Anne, 13; Melinda, 12; Mark Vincent, 10 and Neil Charles, 9.

THE COACHING STAFF

JIM CHAMPION, Defensive Coordinator and Defensive Line

A former defensive tackle with the New York Yanks (1950-51) and the Dallas Texans (1952), the 45-year-old Champion began his coaching career at Greenwood (Miss.) High School in 1953 where his teams compiled a 24-2-2 record in four seasons.

From 1957 until 1961, he served as an assistant coach at Mississippi State University — his alma mater — before turning to the professional coaching ranks as an assistant coach with the Vancouver (B.C.) Lions of the Canadian League. He was given credit for building one of the strongest defensive teams in Canadian League history. The British Columbia Lions won the League's Western Conference championship in 1963-64 and the coveted Grey Cup the latter season.

CHAMPION

WHITEHEAD

Shifting to the St. Louis Cardinals in 1965 as defensive line coach, Champion returned to Canada in 1967 as head coach at Vancouver, a job he held until joining the Saints in the spring of 1971.

A 1950 graduate of Mississippi State, Champion was the most valuable lineman for the Grey team in the 1949 Blue-Grey game.

Jim and his wife Sara have three sons — Greg, 19; Keith, 17 and Joseph, 7 — and they live in Metairie, La.

MARV MATUSZAK, Linebackers

A two-time All-American linebacker at Tulsa University, Matuszak spent 10 seasons as a pro linebacker before entering the coaching ranks.

Drafted third by Pittsburgh in 1953, Marv played two seasons for the Steelers, split by two years of military duty during which he earned All-Army acclaim both seasons at Fort Sill, Oklahoma.

Traded to the San Francisco 49'ers in 1957, he made the All-NFL team before being swapped to the Baltimore Colts in 1959. Following three seasons with the Colts, he finished his playing career at Buffalo — where he was selected for the All-AFL team — and the Denver Broncos, serving as a player-coach his last season.

He spent the 1965-66 campaigns in Denver as a full-time assistant, being placed in charge of the club's overall defense in his last year. In 1967, he became head coach and general manager of the Alabama (Huntsville) Hawks, winning the Professional Football League Western Division championship with a 9-3 mark.

In 1968, he shifted operations to the Canadian League, serving as an assistant coach with the British Columbia Lions, leaving in 1971 to join the Saints' staff.

Marv and his wife Noreen have two children, Linda, 18 and Robert, 5.

SHIPP

BUD WHITEHEAD, Defensive Backfield

A 1961 graduate of Florida State University, Whitehead spent eight years in the defensive backfield of the San Diego Chargers, playing all four defensive backfield positions, intercepting a total of 15 passes, and playing in four AFL championship games, including a 51-10 title victory over the Boston Patriots in 1963.

Prior to joining the Charger organization, Bud had spent three seasons as both an offensive and defensive back at Florida State (1958-60), leading the nation's colleges in pass interceptions as a senior.

Upon retiring from professional football, Whitehead returned to Florida State to coach the offensive backfield in 1969 and 1970. He joined the Saints' staff in 1971.

From Marianna, Fla., Bud and his wife Diana have three children — Brian, 8; Todd, 4 and Lisa, 2.

KEN SHIPP, Offensive Coordinator and Receivers

A native of Murfreesboro, Tenn., Ken Shipp played college ball in his hometown at Middle Tennessee State College, where he was a top-flight halfback. He stayed on as an offensive assistant coach at Middle Tennessee, leaving after the 1953 season to accept his second coaching assignment at Trinity College in San Antonio.

In 1956, Shipp got his first taste of the pro life as an assistant for the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian League. Two years later, he shifted to Tulsa University, where he distinguished himself in the field of recruiting, signing the famed duo of quarterback Jerry Rhome and receiver Howard Twilley, on the same recruiting trip. During his stay at Tulsa, the Hurricanes led the nation's colleges in pass offense.

Following his tenure at Tulsa, Shipp moved on to South Carolina and then accepted a position at the University of Miami (Fla.) in 1963. In 1968, he moved back into the pro ranks, joining the St. Louis Cardinals where he was in charge of the passing offense. He came to the Saints in 1971.

JIM ROYER, Offensive Line Coach

An offensive lineman at the Naval Academy, Jim served four years in the Marine Corps before returning to his alma mater as an assistant coach in 1959. Two years later he became the offensive line coach at the University of Buffalo and in 1962 he moved to Tulane for a two-year hitch on the Green Wave staff. In 1964, he returned to the Naval Academy as a varsity scout, followed in 1966 by a three-year tour of duty as an assistant at the University of Pittsburgh.

In 1969, Royer joined head coach J.D. Roberts as an assistant with the Richmond ACFL team and came to the New Orleans Saints with Roberts midway in the 1970 season.

Jim is married (Corine) and lives in Metairie, La.

HENRY LEE PARKER, Director of Player Personnel

A graduate of Mississippi State University, Henry Lee is a charter employee of the Saints, serving first as assistant director of player personnel before being elevated to the top job in 1968.

A native of Holly Springs, Miss., Parker played football in college, then entered the coaching profession in 1948 at Corinth (Miss.) High School. After a year there, he shifted to Natchez (Miss.) High School, where he spent seven years.

Recognized as a keen observer of football talent, the very affable Parker joined the coaching staff at Mississippi State in 1956 as an assistant coach and was in charge of the Bulldogs' recruiting program immediately prior to coming to the Saints in 1967.

Parker and his wife Martha Ann have two daughters, 20-year-old Susan, currently attending Mississippi State, and 13-year-old Kathy. They live in Metairie, La.

BOB WHITMAN, Offensive Backfield Coach and Chief Scout

A veteran of 18 years in the coaching profession before joining the Saints as a player personnel scout in July of 1968, Whitman was appointed Chief Scout in September, 1971, and promoted to offensive backfield coach in June, 1972.

His new duties will find him coaching the Saints backs at training camp and during the pre-season campaign before embarking on his scouting missions this fall.

A 1950 graduate of Tulane, Whitman began his coaching career at St. Francisville (La.) High School as athletic director and head football coach, moving to Perkinson Junior College at Perkinson, Miss., in 1951, in a similar capacity.

He joined the Tulane staff in 1952 as freshman coach, a position he held until 1961 when he assumed the head coaching post at East Jefferson High School in New Orleans.

Bob and his wife, Miriam, live in Metairie and have eight children — Bob Jr., 20, a junior at Tulane, Judy, 19, a sophomore at Nicholls State, Mickey, 18, a freshman at LSUNO, Gerry, 17, Wayne, 16, Kenny, 14, Joan, 13 and Laura, 11.

JOSEPH BLAYLOCK, Player Personnel Scout

"Joe Blaylock is my name, and football is my game."

With this personable greeting as his calling card, Blaylock travels the country, utilizing his keen eye for football talent and his penchant for hard work to its fullest advantage as a Saints scout.

A graduate of Mississippi Southern College (now the University of Southern Mississippi) in 1950, Joe began his coaching career as an assistant coach at Perkinston (Miss.) High School from 1950-52, then at Perkinston Junior College from 1952-56.

He was head coach and athletic director at Magnolia (Miss.) High School from 1956-58 where his team won their conference title the last two years. At Spring Hill (La.) High School in 1959-60 in a similar capacity, Joe's team won its district title both years.

Moving onto the college scene in 1960-61 as an assistant coach at Tulane under Andy Pilney, Blaylock went to Texas Tech from 1962-66 where two teams participated in major bowls, the Sun in 1964 and the Gator in 1965. He returned to Tulane under the late Jim Pittman in 1966, serving there until joining the Saints in February of 1970.

Joe and his wife, Opal, live in Metairie and have two children, Mrs. Rhonda Nuss, also of Metairie, and son Jody, 16.

CHARLIE SHEPHERD, Player Personnel Scout

A native of Atlanta, Ga., the 33-year-old Shepherd attended Clark College in his hometown and also played semi-pro football there and in Jacksonville, Fla. He sold sporting goods in Atlanta prior to taking a job as assistant equipment manager with the Atlanta Falcons in 1966.

Charlie assumed the position of equipment manager with the Saints in 1967 and held that spot until being elevated to the scouting department in 1970.

Charlie and his wife, Mary Ann, have one daughter, Regina, 14, and make their home in Algiers, La.

RAY JENKINS, Player Personnel Scout

Coming to the Saints originally as part of a scouting combine in 1967, Ray was hired on a full-time basis in 1968 when the team left the combine. He had worked for the combine since 1964.

A native of Colorado and a 1942 graduate of the University of Colorado, Jenkins spent 53 months in the U.S. Navy following graduation and then joined the coaching staff of the Colorado School of Mines in Golden, Colo., in 1946 as line coach.

Two years later, he went back to his alma mater as an assistant coach where he stayed until 1958 when he assumed the head coaching position at the University of Montana. From here he went to the scouting combine in 1964.

Ray and his wife, Bea, live in Boulder, Colo., and have two children, Judy, 24, a recent bride, and Ray, 19.

DIXIE WHITE, Personnel Scout

A longtime head football coach and athletic director at Northeast Louisiana University in Monroe, Dixie White joined the Saints scouting department this summer.

White, 54, had been at Northeast since 1964, compiling a 31-45-1 record, including a 7-3 record in 1966 when his team was ranked ninth nationally.

A native of Grand Saline, Texas, Dixie graduated from Lubbock, Tex., High School and earned a BA degree in mathematics from Texas Tech in 1940. Following a hitch in the U.S. Army, he entered the football coaching field at his high school alma mater in 1946, shifting in 1948 to Denison (Tex.) High School.

In 1949, he moved to Mid-Western University in Wichita Falls, Texas, as assistant football coach and in 1951 was named head coach there, compiling an 11-9-1 record for two seasons. Following stops at the University of Idaho in 1953 and Stephen F. Austin State College in Nacogdoches, Texas, in 1954, he served as an assistant coach at Arkansas from 1955-61 and at L.S.U. from 1962 to 1963.

From there he went to Northeast, serving as head coach and athletic director until joining the Saints.

White and his wife, Ann, have three children — Togar, 28, Kenneth, 27, and Judy, 25.

DEAN KLEINSCHMIDT, Trainer

A 24-year-old native of Morgan, Minn., Kleinschmidt holds a bachelor of science degree in health and safety, with major emphasis in athletic training, from Indiana University, where he served as a student trainer in 1965-66-67 before joining the athletic staff there full time as assistant trainer in 1968.

During the summers of 1967 and 1968, Dean was on the training staff of the Green Bay Packers under the late Vince Lombardi. He joined the Saints in 1969 as assistant trainer and assumed the head job in 1971.

A member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and the Southwestern Athletic Trainers Association, Kleinschmidt aided Indiana's training staff in the 1968 Rose Bowl, the Packers in the 1968 Super Bowl, Minnesota in the 1970 Super Bowl, the Air Force Academy in the 1971 Sugar Bowl, the South squad (under Coach J.D.

Roberts) in the 1972 Senior Bowl and Dallas in the 1972 Super Bowl. Dean and his wife Dianne live in Metairie, La.

GEORGE BORDEN, Assistant Trainer

Joining the Saints as assistant trainer a year ago, Borden had been working as head trainer at Virginia Commonwealth University in Richmond, Va., while attending the school as an undergraduate.

The 22-year-old Borden had gained previous experience while working in the same capacity as a student at Thomas Jefferson High School in Richmond.

George became associated with Saints head coach J.D. Roberts while serving as an assistant trainer for the Richmond (Va.) minor league football club from 1966 through the 1970 season.

CHUCK ZIOBER, Equipment Manager

Heading into his third season with the Saints, Ziober's colorful athletic career has involved soccer, baseball and football, not to mention his duties as coach for the Saints basketball team.

Prior to World War II, Chuck was a catcher in the New York Yankee organization, making it to the Yanks' AAA farm team in Newark before the outbreak of hostilities.

Following 23 years in the U.S. Marine Corps, Chuck served as the equipment manager for the Denver Broncos in 1964-65 and for the Miami Dolphins in 1966-67. With the San Diego Toros pro soccer team in 1968, he was the equipment manager, assistant general manager and trainer. He also sold sporting goods prior to joining the Saints.

He and his wife Peggy reside in Metairie, La.

EDDIE JONES, Business Manager

Beginning his fifth season as the Saints business manager, Jones is easy to get along with, imperturbable, and gets the job done with a maximum amount of efficiency.

Prior to joining the Saints, Eddie was associated with a New Orleans accounting firm. In addition to keeping the books, he also handles purchasing and various other financial responsibilities and all of the team's travel arrangements.

A native of Texas, Jones graduated from Denham Springs, La., High School and, after a four-year hitch in the Air Force, earned an accounting degree at Louisiana State University. He also has earned

C.P.A. status.

Jones, 34, lives in Metairie, La., with his wife Marilyn and daughter, Wendy, age 7.

LARRY LIDDELL, Public Relations Director

Coming to the Saints as Assistant Public Relations Director in April of 1971, Liddell was promoted to the head job in January when Harry Hulmes was appointed Vice President of Administration.

The Saints' contact man with the members of the news media, Larry does all the advance work on out of town trips and arranges the majority of speaking engagements and appearances for Saints' players and staff, in addition to handling news releases and publications.

A product of Shreveport, La., Liddell is a 1960 graduate of Clarksdale (Miss.) High School and a 1964 graduate of Delta State (Miss.) College, where he was editor of the school's newspaper. Following his graduation from college, Larry assumed the position of sports editor of the Clarksdale Press Register.

In 1968, Liddell joined the athletic staff at the University of Mississippi as Assistant Sports Information Director, a post he held until joining the Saints.

A 30-year-old bachelor, Liddell lives in Metairie, La.

HENRY SIMONEAUX, Ticket Manager

Soon after graduating from New Orleans' Behrman High School in 1950, Simoneaux worked as assistant to the ticket manager at Tulane. From here, he has worked his way up the ladder of success and has become one of the most respected men in his profession.

A two-year stint in the U.S. Army interrupted his career, but he returned as ticket manager at Tulane in 1954. Henry accepted a position with an oil company in 1956, but five years later he came back to Tulane as ticket manager and assistant business manager.

Simoneaux joined the Saints as a charter employee in 1967 and has done a fine job of handling a most difficult ticket situation in New Orleans — one that finds a possible crowd fluctuation of between approximately 55,000 and 80,000 for each home game.

He has also handled ticket distribution among Saints season ticket holders of two Super Bowl games held in New Orleans, which is no easy task.

Henry and his wife Earline and son Henry III, age 12, live in New Orleans.

PETE SMYTH, Assistant Ticket Manager

With the Saints in various capacities since the club's inception in 1967, Pete was appointed assistant ticket manager in January and quickly dedicated himself to learning the ticket business. It surprised no one when he succeeded in learning as much as he did in such a short time.

Smyth, 23, is a native of Goshen, N.Y., but his family moved to Houston, Tex., where he graduated from Robert E. Lee High School. He is currently attending graduate school at Loyola University in New Orleans, where he graduated in 1971.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Smyth (a former Saint executive now serving as president of the United States Auto Club), Pete lives in New Orleans.

FRED WILLIAMS, Assistant to the President

A native New Orleanian, Fred Williams attended Fortier High School and Tulane University before heading into the Marine Corps.

Following his four-year tour of duty, Williams returned to New Orleans and began a career in law enforcement, serving as the head of the District Attorney's Rackets Bureau (Bunco).

Fred joined with the Mecom interests in 1968 as a Security Consultant and was serving in this capacity when appointed to his present position in 1971.

Living in Slidell, La., Fred and his wife, Jessie, have four children — Jeffery, 18, Kevin, 16, Amy, 11, and Christopher, 10 — living at home, and a married daughter, Mrs. Lynn Spence, 22, living in New Orleans.

ED DAILEY, Administrative Assistant

A veteran of several political campaigns on the state and national level in his native Richmond, Va., Ed became associated with the Richmond Roadrunners as an administrative assistant and was subsequently brought to New Orleans prior to the 1971 season in a similar capacity.

Dailey, 50, served as an aide to the late President John F. Kennedy and the late Senator Robert F. Kennedy and was chairman of the campaign headquarters for both in Richmond.

Ed is a bachelor and lives in Metairie, La.

ERBY AUCOIN, Photographer

Hired in 1968 to set up the Saints' photographic department, Aucoin continues to make considerable contribution to the club's on-the-field and public relations activities with his films and still shots.

A former award-winning newspaper and television photographer, Erby shoots and personally handles all of the team's coaching footage. His crew is very much in evidence on game day, working on coaching films and still shots for publicity purposes. Erby has at his disposal all the equipment necessary for processing, printing, etc., in his new trailer-laboratory located at the Saints' David Drive practice field.

A graduate of L.S.U. and originally from Napoleonville, La., Erby and his wife, Rosalie, and children, Erby III, 17; Jayne Marie, 16; Cynthia Ann, 15; Patricia Lynn, 14; Albert Anthony, 11; Deidra Ann, 8; Michele Rose, 4 and Douglas Leon, 2, live in New Orleans.

U.S.M. . . . Vann Hall, where the Saints will live this summer.

SAINTS RETURN TO SOUTHERN MISSISSIPPI

The New Orleans Saints will train for the second straight year at the University of Southern Mississippi at Hattiesburg in 1972.

The Saints will be housed in Vann Hall, the athletic dormitory which consists of 81 rooms, for 162 athletes, and a cafeteria. The dorm is close to the training and dressing areas where the team will dress.

The practice area includes three practice fields on the east side of the USM Stadium and two areas on the baseball field.

For indoor work during bad weather Southern offers the Sports Arena which is located immediately behind the practice fields on the east side of the stadium.

Hattiesburg is located some 105 miles east-northeast of the New Orleans area via Interstate 59. To get to the University from I-59, take Highway 49 South and USM will appear on the right at the second traffic light.

The University of Southern Mississippi has a student body of 8,000 on-campus residents and a total enrollment of 10,000 including research center enrollment.

W. D. McCain is Southern's President and Reed Green serves as Athletic Director.

THE SAINTS' VETERANS

ABRAMOWICZ, DAN, 6-1, 195, Wide Receiver, 6th Year, Xavier (Ohio). Born July 13, 1945 at Steubenville, Ohio. Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 17a, 1967.

PRO: Although Danny only caught 37 passes last fall, he was a prime factor in the Saints' surprising successes. Once again he snared the vital tosses — five of them for touchdowns — and extended to 64 the number of consecutive league games in which he's pulled down at least one aerial. His average of 17.8 yards per reception was his highest in five pro campaigns. In addition, his blocking — always superior for a wide receiver — might have been better than ever... For the fifth straight season he led all the Saints in receptions and continued to reign as the club's pace-setter — for career, season and one game — in passes caught, TD receptions and yards gained receiving... He added punt returning to his accomplishments in the season's finale, fair-catching four and regretting the fifth, which netted him only the loss of a few teeth... Although he's still no sprint champion he did flash the fastest time in the team's mile run at training camp in 1971.

COLLEGE: Three-year letterman at Xavier... Career figures of 120 catches for 1685 yards and 14 touchdowns are Xavier records... Top season was junior year with 68 receptions for 738 yards and 10 TDs...

PERSONAL: Attended Catholic Central High in Steubenville, Ohio... Holds BS in physical education from Xavier where he was high B student... Resides in Metairie, La., operates Beef 'n Bottle shop and Archie and Danny's restaurant with Archie Manning. Married (Claudia); one son, Danny Joe, 3½.

ABSHER, RICHARD ALFRED, JR., 6-4, 235, Linebacker, 6th Year, Maryland. Born April 19, 1944 at Washington, D.C. Joined Saints: Free Agent, 1969.

PRO: A variety of injuries, with a bruised sternum perhaps being the

most bothersome, limited Dick's action at middle linebacker last season. It wasn't until the final two games that he was able to see prolonged activity — and he responded with a fumble recovery and a 21-yard return of an interception vs. Cleveland. A starter in the wind-up against Atlanta, he figures to be very much in the wide open scrap for the middle job this year... He had an outstanding 1969 campaign after being signed as a free agent by the Saints after he'd been released by Los Angeles. Philadelphia had originally drafted him fifth in 1967, then he served with both Washington and Atlanta before the Rams... A strong placekicker — who kicked off for the Saints down the stretch last year — he received little opportunity to back up the line until he arrived in New Orleans.

COLLEGE: Captain of Maryland team as senior as well as All-Atlantic Coast and participant in Blue-Gray Game and Senior Bowl... Played tight end as sophomore and junior, catching 55 passes for 650 yards... Defensive end as senior... College coach was Lou Saban, now at Buffalo.

PERSONAL: Holds BS degree in public relations... Family makes home in Camp Springs, Md... Spent off-season in Army officer's training... Dick is single; has seven sisters, no brothers!... Attended Bullis Prep School, Silver Springs, Md., where he lettered in football, basketball and baseball.

ADKINS, MARGENE, 5-10, 183, Wide Receiver, 3rd Year, Henderson J. C. Born: April 30, 1947 at Ft. Worth, Tex. Joined Saints: Traded No. 2 Draft Choice to Dallas, 1972

PRO: In two seasons at Dallas, the fleet Adkins was used sparingly, returning seven kickoffs for 149 yards and four punts for 44 yards in 1970 and catching four passes for 53 yards last fall... He impressed the Saints in a 1971 pre-season contest, snaring three tosses for 138 yards, including TD receptions of 81 and ten yards... Margene played three years in Canada for Ottawa, pulling down 135 passes — 30 for touchdowns, before being drafted second by the Cowboys in 1970... The Saints could add kickoff and punt returns to his pass-catching duties.

COLLEGE: At Henderson J. C. he participated in two Junior Rose Bowl games... Then attended Wichita State briefly before heading for Canada.

PERSONAL: Attended Kirkpatrick High School in Fort Worth, Texas... Married (Jeanette).

BELL, CARLOS, 6-5, 230, Tight End, 2nd Year, Houston

Born: September 21, 1947 at Clinton, Okla.

Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 4A, 1971

PRO: Last year was Bell's first at tight end after spending two seasons with Richmond in the ACFL as a running back. In the minor league in 1970 he rushed for 499 yards (3.9 avg.) and caught 13 passes for 148 yards... J.D. Roberts, his head coach at Richmond, converted Carlos in training camp a year ago... He has the good speed and can block and has labored hard on getting open and catching the football... As a rookie he was active for only three games and played in one, spending the remaining time on the Saints' cab squad... He should be fully recovered from an off-season knee operation.

COLLEGE: Played only his sophomore season at Houston, gaining 709 yards on the ground (6.5 avg.)... He also lettered in basketball for the Cougars... And was a high school All-American in football and basketball before enrolling at South Texas J. C.

PERSONAL: A pair of brothers played basketball and football, respectively, at the University of Oklahoma... Attended Clinton (Okla.) High School... Married (Francine), one son (Anthony, 4).

BURCHFIELD, DON, 6-2, 227, Tight End, 2nd Year, Ball State

Born: March 17, 1949 at Indianapolis, Ind.

Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 13, 1971

PRO: Constant hustling, solid blocking and a strong desire to learn earned Don the number two tight end job as a rookie last fall... He participated in all 14 games, catching three passes for 36 yards, returning one kickoff for five yards, contributing to the various special teams and being utilized effectively on short yardage situations as a second tight end... More improvement is expected this season.

COLLEGE: He was named Ball State's MVP in 1970 after grabbing 25 throws for 353 yards and three touchdowns as a tight end who also toiled at linebacker... As a freshman fullback he'd led his team in ground-gaining... Also won baseball letters.

PERSONAL: Attended Southport High School in Indianapolis, Ind.... Married (Vicki), one daughter (Angela Leigh, 3).

CARROLL, LEO, 6-7, 250, Defensive End, 4th Year, San Diego State

Born Feb. 16, 1944 at Los Angeles, Calif.

Joined Saints: Trade with Washington, 1971.

PRO: 1971 was a lost year for Leo, who was felled in the pre-season by a torn Achilles tendon. Placed on the team's reserve list-injured, he commenced workouts during the last week of the campaign and again hopes to bid for the defensive end berth that he was playing before injury struck last summer... Drafted second by Atlanta in 1967, he spent that entire season recuperating from a knee injury. The following year he was traded to Green Bay and in 1969 he was swapped to Washington, being the Redskins' regular defensive end throughout 1970. At the 1971 draft meeting he and a 17th round pick were moved to New Orleans in exchange for offensive tackle Mike Taylor.

COLLEGE: Played for the 1966 Small College champions... Competed in the Camellia Bowl (1966), the East-West, Coaches' All-American and the College All-Star games in 1967.

PERSONAL: A recreation major in college, he's back acquiring more credits... Makes his residence in Arcadia, Calif.... Married (Jolene Frances); two sons, Jason Leo, 3 and Jeremiah Richard, 1.

COLMAN, WAYNE C., 6-1, 220, Linebacker, 5th Year, Temple

Born April 13, 1946 at Ventnor, N.J.

Joined Saints: Waivers (from Philadelphia), 1969.

PRO: A starter at linebacker in the Saints' last 19 league games, including all 14 in 1971, Wayne may have to beat off the challenge of some promising newcomers to retain his right side post this season... Claimed from the Eagles in 1969, he was a part-time performer until Mike Morgan was injured vs. Miami late in 1970... Signed by Philadelphia as a free agent in 1968, he played in all of their games that year. He broke a leg in his fourth game with the Saints in 1969 — and broke his nose last fall, but lost no playing time... He's tough and active and wants to play.

COLLEGE: A defensive end at Temple where he earned All Mid-Atlantic Conference and All-Pennsylvania honors... Also participated in track and baseball.

PERSONAL: Attended Atlantic City, N.J., High School. Resides in Ventnor . . . Holds BS in Education degree . . . Married (Tonagee); one son, Wayne Jr., 2 . . . Hobbies include surfing, rowing and fishing. Driver education teacher during off-season.

CUNNINGHAM, CARL, 6-3, 240, Linebacker, 6th Year, Houston
Born: July 23, 1944 at Houston, Tex.

Joined Saints: Traded Draft Choice to Detroit, 1971

PRO: With the pre-season injury to Tom Roussel, Carl was given an opportunity to be the number one left side linebacker last fall and he did an admirable job, seeing action in 13 games . . . Rangy and strong, he proved particularly effective against the enemy's air assault . . . Denver had originally drafted him fourth in 1967 and he was a three-year starter for the Broncos before being traded to Detroit for offensive tackle Roger Shoals in May, 1971 . . . A few months later he came to New Orleans.

COLLEGE: A three-year regular at Houston, where he led the team in minutes played every year . . . He made first team, All-Texas, and played in the North-South Shrine Game.

PERSONAL: Attended Waltrip High School in Houston, Texas . . . Married (Sherry), two sons (Carl, 8, and Shane, 4).

DIDION, JOHN, 6-4, 250, Center, 4th Year, Oregon State
Born Oct. 24, 1947 at Woodland, Calif.

Joined Saints: Waivers (from Washington), 1970.

PRO: After picking up John late in 1970 from the Redskins the Saints placed him on their future list, then turned him loose on the opposition last autumn. Actually, a training camp injury to guard John Shinnors made it possible for Didion to break in as the starting center, replacing Del Williams when the latter was shifted back to guard. Despite a couple of nagging injuries John went all the way at the pivot and handled the job in fine fashion. He's the man to beat for the post this year — and it won't be easy . . . The Saints' original plans called for Didion to become a linebacker . . . Washington had drafted him seventh in 1969 and played him at center.

COLLEGE: A unanimous first team All-American in 1968 . . . As a 1967 junior, he made the major 2nd team All-American selections . . . Played in 1968 East-West game and 1969 Hula, Senior and Coaches' All-America Bowls.

PERSONAL: Earned a BS degree in Social Science . . . Married (Anne-Marie); one son, John, 1 . . . Worked with plumbing and heating company in the off-season . . . Resides in Washington, D.C.

DODD, AL, 6-0, 180, Wide Receiver, 5th Year, Northwestern, La.
Born August 21, 1945 at New Orleans, La.
Joined Saints: Free Agent, 1968.

PRO: Another Saint who wound up on the injured list in 1971, Al was victimized by a knee injury after a busy campaign that found him posting a career high 19.9 yards for each of his 15 receptions. He also tied a club record with five punt returns vs. Houston and increased his own career team standards for most punts returned, 42, and most kickoffs returned, 38, and most yards punts returned, 323 . . . His longest dash of 1971 was a 77-yard ramble with a missed field goal attempt vs. Dallas. The effort set up a score in the upset of the Cowboys . . . Dodd, who usually ends the season weighing closer to 170, takes quite a beating but thrives on the combat . . . He may get a lift with the runbacks this year, thus enabling him to concentrate on his wide receiver duties . . . Chicago had selected him fourth in 1967 and employed him at safety on defense . . . He spent 1968 on the Saints' cab squad before receiving a shot as a starter the next season.

COLLEGE: Set NAIA career interception record at Northwestern Louisiana with 31 . . . Twice named Gulf States Conference Athlete of Year . . . Played in Senior Bowl . . . Broad jumped 24-10 and triple-jumped 49-4.

PERSONAL: Native son of New Orleans area where he was star athlete at West Jefferson High. Operates sporting goods store in home town . . . Has degree in business administration . . . Married (Kathy); two children, Tracy Lynn, 5 and Al Jr., 3.

DUNCAN, JIM, 6-2, 200, Cornerback, 4th Year, Maryland State

Born: August 3, 1946 at Lancaster, S. C.

Joined Saints: Traded guard John Shinnery to Baltimore, 1972

PRO: A fourth round draft pick by Baltimore in 1968, Jim battled until the eleventh game in 1970 before winning the number one cornerback assignment. He intercepted two passes in the final four games and excelled in the Super Bowl conquest of Dallas. That same season he led the AFC and broke a Colts record by averaging 35.4 yards on 20 kickoff returns... After opening the 1971 campaign at cornerback — and racing back 102 yards with three kickoffs — he was sidelined with injuries and never could get back in the lineup.

COLLEGE: At Maryland State Duncan had played quarterback... He worked at cornerback, however, in the 1968 College All-Star Game.

PERSONAL: Attended Bar Street High School in Lancaster, S. C.

DURKEE, CHARLIE, 5-11, 165, Placekicker, 4th Year, Oklahoma State. Born: June 25, 1944 at Tulsa, Okla.

Joined Saints: Free Agent, 1971

PRO: Last season was the second time around for Charlie in New Orleans... He'd originally been signed by the Saints as a free agent in 1967 after having been waived as a rookie by Dallas... During the 1967-68 campaigns he was a perfect 54-54 on extra points and 33-69 on field goals for a total of 153 points... The pint-sized booter spent the next two years in business but returned to the gridiron last season, finally arriving back on the Saints' scene after brief trials with Houston and Green Bay... As the Saints' kicker in the last 12 games he connected on 24 of 25 conversion attempts and 16 of 23 field goal shots (to rank second in the NFC) for a team-leading total of 72 points... He booted a Saints record five field goals in a 29-21 win over the Packers last November.

COLLEGE: As a kicking specialist he was named Oklahoma State's MVP in 1965.

PERSONAL: Attended L. D. Bell High School in Hurst, Texas, where he lettered in four sports... Holds a college degree in personnel management... Resides in Sand Springs, Oklahoma where he's a salesman for Center Line Valve Company... Married (Kitty)... one son (Scott, infant).

ESTES, LAWRENCE, 6-6, 250, Defensive End, 3rd Year, Alcorn A&M

Born Dec. 9, 1946 in Louisville, Miss.

Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 8, 1970.

PRO: What looked like it might have turned into a fine development year for Lawrence was sidetracked by a shoulder injury that reduced his activity to 8 games. He started the first four games at defensive end last fall and in 1970, as a rookie, he got into all 14 contests as both an end and a special teams man. There will be plenty of competition at his position this season but he again must be rated a serious contender for a number one assignment.

COLLEGE: A small-college All-American and an All-SWAC selection in 1969... Also earned four letters in baseball as a pitcher... Played in the 1968 Orange Blossom Classic vs. Florida A&M.

PERSONAL: Married (Joyce)... Lives in Metairie, La... eventually would like to be a coach... was nicknamed "Part-time" after a song... During off-season he served as a taxicab bureau investigator.

FAGAN, JULIAN, 6-3, 205, Punter, 3rd Year, Mississippi
Born Feb. 21, 1948 at Laurel, Miss.
Joined Saints: Waivers (from Houston), 1970.

PRO: After leading the NFC with a 42.5-yard punting average as a rookie in 1970 — despite having a pair blocked — Julian dipped slightly to 41.4 yards last season. There's no reason to expect, however, that the former Ole Miss standout won't rebound to the top in 1972... In each of his pro campaigns he's punted 77 times for Saints' one-season marks and his NFL career total of 154 kicks represents another team record. He also tied a Saints standard by punting nine times in a game at Washington last fall... Although utilized only as a specialist during league combat, Fagan is a fine athlete who has filled in as a spare receiver during practice sessions.

COLLEGE: Strong punter at Ole Miss... For career, had 199 punts for 41.6 yard average... Named to All-SEC team, and Academic All-American three years... Led SEC in punting in 1968... President of Fellowship of Christian Athletes at Ole Miss, and served as youth director for Baptist church.

PERSONAL: Earned BA degree from Ole Miss... Completed third year of law school at Mississippi and resides in Oxford... Married (Kay).

SMILEY, TOM, 6-2, 224, Running Back, 5th Year, Lamar Tech
Born: February 18, 1944 at Port Arthur, Texas
Joined Saints: Free Agent, 1972

A product of the Saints' June workouts, Tom was signed to add power to the club's ground attack... Cincinnati's second round draft pick in 1968, he was traded to Denver the following year and spent the beginning of the 1970 season in the service after being traded to Houston by the Broncos... He's seen comparatively little action during his previous four AFC campaigns — and most of that on the special teams.

Mifflin, Pa.... Married (Susan); one son, James, 1... Resides in Green Bay, Wis.... Enjoys hunting, fishing, archery and trapping.

FORD, JAMES, 6-0, 210, Running Back, 2nd Year, Texas Southern Born: September 11, 1949 at Jacksonville, Fla.
Joined Saints: Waivers from Dallas, 1971

PRO: After impressing the Saints with his pre-season play against them last summer, James was claimed from the Cowboys (who'd drafted him on the 13th round) just before the season's start and he was a starter by the third game... When his campaign was concluded by a knee injury — he underwent an immediate operation — in the ninth contest he was leading the team in rushing with 379 yards (4.1 avg.)... He also caught seven passes for 54 yards... The Saints are hoping that he comes back with his pre-operation speed and cutting ability.

COLLEGE: Developed late as a broken field ballcarrier, gaining 295 yards as a senior.

PERSONAL: He was a four-sport standout at New Stanton High School in Jacksonville, Florida... During the off-season he earned additional college credits in Jacksonville... Married (Carlotta)... one son (James, Jr., 2).

GRANGER, HOYLE, 6-1, 225, Running Back, 7th Year, Mississippi State. Born March 7, 1944 in Oberlin, La.
Joined Saints: Trade with Houston, 1971.

PRO: Although fully recovered from a 1970 knee operation last season, Hoyle had a difficult time breaking into the Saints' starting line-up, with Jim Strong providing the stiffest competition. When he was called upon, however, the Crunchin' Cajun maintained a 4.3-yard rushing average (32 carries) and caught 12 passes for 52 yards. The efforts hiked his six-year pro totals to 3,478 yards on the ground and 1,265 yards through the air... Houston's fifth round selection for 1966, he spent his first five pro campaigns with the Oilers and was twice named to the AFL All-Star team... To obtain Granger and a second round draft pick, the Saints traded defensive tackle Dave Rowe and wide receiver Ken Burrough to the Oilers.

COLLEGE: A three-year letter winner as Mississippi State fullback... Made second-team All-Southeastern Conference in '64 and '65... Competed in Blue & Gray and Senior Bowl games following senior season.

PERSONAL: Studied physical education and history at Mississippi State following graduation from Oberlin (La.) High School.... Salesman for a brewery in Houston during the off-season... Married (Sandra) and has two children, Hoyle, Jr., 6, and Wendy Jane, 4.

GRESHAM, BOB, 5-11, 195, Running Back, 2nd Year, West Virginia

Born: July 9, 1948 at Porter, Ala.

Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 8B, 1971

PRO: After carrying the ball only one time for 20 yards in pre-season action, Bob was activated for the league opener, contributed to the Rams' downfall with a team-leading 42 yards rushing, including a two-yard TD dive, and three receptions for 51 yards, including a 37-yard advance that set up the winning score... A durable, slashing type ballcarrier, he went on to play in 13 games and wound up the Saints' number two rusher with 383 yards (3.0 avg.) and leading touchdown producer with six... He also caught 17 passes for 203 yards and returned three kickoffs for 60 yards... Gresham hit his peak vs. Green Bay with 26 hauls for 113 yards — and should figure prominently in the Saints' scramble for backfield jobs this fall. The New Orleans Saints & Sinners Club voted him the Saints' "Rookie of the Year" in 1971.

COLLEGE: After rushing for 1,500 yards in high school he proceeded to smash West Virginia's ground-gaining record with a three-year output of 2,181 yards, winding up with a 6.2 average for 140 carries as a senior.

PERSONAL: Attended Big Creek (W. Va.) High School... Married (Joyce).

Born June 26, 1947 at Marietta, Texas.

Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 16, 1969.

PRO: Prematurely pegged to sit on the bench behind rookie phenom Archie Manning a year ago, Edd was rushed into action on the heels of Archie's injuries and responded like an old pro at the job, actually finishing with his most productive campaign — completing 96 of 210 throws for 1,191 yards and six touchdowns, all representing career highs... With Hargett at the helm the Saints tied Oakland and defeated San Francisco — both in the waning seconds — and also demolished Green Bay... The critics, of course, still cite his lack of size, but his leadership and ability to direct the offense cannot be denied. He has a live arm and a keen knowledge of the game, plus durability... Edd will stick in that protective pocket as long as possible and doesn't place himself in the scrambler category.

COLLEGE: In three years at Texas A&M, completed 403 of 821 passes for 40 TDs... Established 20 Aggie records, seven SWC records... Played in Blue-Gray Game and Coaches' All-American Game... All-SWC Player of the Year as a junior.

PERSONAL: Majored in electrical engineering with near-A average... Resides in Metairie and does public relations work for First National Bank... Married (Shirley Ann); daughter Amy Ellen, 3.

HESTER, RAY, 6-2, 215, Linebacker, 2nd Year, Tulane

Born: March 31, 1949 at New Orleans, La.

Joined Saints: Free Agent, 1971

PRO: A 14-game performer for the Saints as a freshman last fall, rugged Ray saw enough linebacker action, in addition to meritorious service on the special teams, to warrant a strong bid for an outside linebacker assignment this year . . . He recovered three enemy fumbles in 1971 and proved to be as aggressive as any linebacker has to be.

COLLEGE: A starter in 32 straight games at Tulane, including the Liberty Bowl conquest of Colorado in his finale as a senior — a season in which he was credited with 152 tackles.

PERSONAL: Attended Holy Cross High School in New Orleans . . . He's working as a real estate agent while continuing his studies at Tulane . . . Married (Holly), one son (Kyle, 3), one daughter (Kristen Leigh, infant).

HINES, GLEN RAY, 6-5, 265, Offensive Tackle, 7th Year, Arkansas

Born October 26, 1943 at El Dorado, Ark.

Joined Saints: Trade with Houston, 1971.

PRO: The Saints traded defensive tackle Mike Tilleman to Houston a year ago to secure the services of this strong, silent offensive tackle. He was tabbed the number one man on the right side of the Saints' line upon his arrival in training camp and there he remained, spending only a few minutes all season on the bench and starting every game . . . The Oilers had drafted Hines second as a future in 1965 and he was a five-year starter for them, being named to the AFL's Eastern All-Stars in 1968 and 1969 . . . He'll be difficult for any contender for his job to dislodge this season.

COLLEGE: A consensus All-American at Arkansas and the Southwestern Conference's outstanding lineman in 1965 . . . He received a similar award from the Houston Post . . . He was a starter in the 1966 College All-Star game.

PERSONAL: Married (Jody) and has two children. Resides in

HOLDEN, SAM, 6-3, 258, Offensive Tackle, 2nd Year, Grambling

Born: February 24, 1947 at Magnolia, Miss.

Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 2, 1971

PRO: A year ago Sam reported to the Saints with a pulled hamstring muscle, which he'd sustained while working out with the College All-Stars, and never was able to make the progress the club had hoped he'd make at either guard or offensive tackle. In addition to sitting out much of the pre-season action he spent the first five weeks of the regular campaign on the cab squad . . . Upon his return most of his work was confined to the special teams, where he did a fine job . . . He'll push for a first string tackle post this year.

COLLEGE: Played a season at Southern Illinois before transferring to Grambling and earning All-SWAC honors as a senior.

PERSONAL: Attended Xavier Prep and St. Augustine High School in N.O. and holds a B.S. degree in health and physical education from Grambling . . . Worked as taxicab investigator this past off-season . . . Married (Adelaide), one son (Marc Antony, 4).

HOLLAS, HUGO, 6-1, 190, Defensive Back, 3rd Year, Rice

Born Nov. 30, 1945 at Schulenburg, Tex.

Joined Saints: Free Agent, 1970.

PRO: Settled at the free safety position last fall, Hugo went all the way and proved to be one of the Saints' steadiest defenders. His tackling was strong and he was alert and aggressive against the enemy's air game. He was frequently utilized in the Saints' safety blitz . . . In each of his two NFL campaigns he's intercepted five passes, leading the team in 1970 and tying for that honor in 1971 . . . In an emergency he will also be employed to return punts because of his sure hands . . . Hollas had originally been signed as a free agent by Dallas in 1968 but a thumb injury hampered his chances to stick. The following year he played for coach J.D. Roberts' Richmond Roadrunners and led the ACFL in interceptions.

COLLEGE: Three-year starter at Rice . . . Never out of a collegiate game due to injury . . . All-Southwest Conference selection junior and senior years . . . Selected Rice's MVP following senior season.

PERSONAL: Earned a B.S. Degree at Rice in Education with a minor in biology . . . Married (Jerlyn) and one son, Shane, 2 . . . Resides in Metairie, La. and works as account manager for I-C Railroad.

HOWELL, DELLES, 6-4, 202, Cornerback, 3rd Year, Grambling
 Born Aug. 22, 1948 at Vallejo, Calif.
 Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 4, 1970.

PRO: This underrated athlete made excellent progress as a pro sophomore in 1971, holding down the right corner post for the full 14-game schedule and tying for the team lead with five interceptions, two of which were rally-killers in the win over Dallas... Rangy and quick, Delles can cover a lot of territory and discouraged heavy enemy bombardment of his area most of last season... For the second consecutive year, however, he had to play with a cast protecting a cracked bone in his hand... At 100% he'll become an even more proficient tackler.

COLLEGE: Four-year starter at cornerback for Grambling... An all-conference choice his freshman season.

PERSONAL: Studied physical education at Grambling... Married (Sheila)... Resides in Monroe, La... Brother Mike is in Cleveland's defensive backfield.

HUARD, JOHN, 6-0, 220, Linebacker, 6th Year, Maine
 Born March 9, 1944 at Waterville, Maine
 Joined Saints: Trade with Denver, 1971.

PRO: There's no question that injuries have hindered John's progress considerably. Last year, for example, he started each of the Saints' six pre-season games at middle linebacker only to tear his Achilles tendon in the league opener vs. Los Angeles. He spent the remainder of the campaign recuperating from the operation. Now he's ready to give it another shot... The compact-sized firebrand had been sidelined throughout the 1970 season following a knee operation... Drafted fifth by Denver in 1967, he was the Broncos' number one middle man for three years before being traded, leading his mates in unassisted tackles in 1968 and 1969.

COLLEGE: A Little-All American two years and All-Yankee Conference three years... Three-year letterman... Set school record for most unassisted tackles in a single season... Competed in the Tangerine Bowl in 1965... Also ran track.

PERSONAL: Attended Waterville High School in Waterville, Maine... In College was president of the Student Athletic Association and Vice-President of Kappa Sigma social fraternity... Resides in Winslow, Maine... Married (Helen)... Three children, Kimberly 6, John Jr. 5 and Kristi 4... Self-employed as school lecturer in Winslow, Maine.

KOPAY, DAVE, 6-0, 218, Running Back, 9th Year, Washington
 Born: June 28, 1942 at Chicago, Ill.
 Joined Saints: Free Agent, 1971

PRO: The Saints signed Dave following his release by the Redskins last fall. In New Orleans he worked at both linebacker and running back, but in ten games he made his greatest contribution on the special teams — his recovery of a fumbled punt setting up the clinching TD in the win over Dallas... Originally signed as a free agent by San Francisco in 1964 and led the team in rushing with 271 yards... He was traded to Detroit in 1968 and to Washington the following year... For his pro career he's averaged 3.7 yards per carry.

COLLEGE: Kopay was an All-Pacific Eight Conference choice and captained Washington's 1964 Rose Bowl team... He earned a B.A. degree in history.

PERSONAL: Attended Notre Dame High School in Sherman Oaks, California... Married (Sarah).

KUPP, JACOB RALPH (JAKE), 6-3, 248, Guard, 9th Year, Washington. Born March 12, 1941 at Pasadena, Calif.
 Joined Saints: Returned from Atlanta, 1968.

PRO: Voted the team's MVP by the New Orleans Touchdown Club, Jake played what was probably the best football of his pro career in 1971, fully earning the Pro Bowl bid that he didn't receive... In addition to being an outstanding blocker for both the pass and run, he's a fine leader — serving as the Saints' offensive captain again last fall — being a great influence on the squad's many young players. At age 31 Kupp is the senior member. He started all 14 games last season and will be counted on for the same duty this year, despite the many newcomers challenging for his job... Dallas' ninth round pick in 1964 as a tight end, he was first shifted to guard, then swapped to Washington in 1966 where he was switched back to tight end, snaring four passes for 28 yards... He came to New Orleans in the 1967 expansion draft, was waived to Atlanta, then returned to the Saints for keeps the following season.

COLLEGE: Captain of Washington team and played linebacker and offensive end... Also starting pitcher for Huskies' baseball team.

PERSONAL: Football, basketball and baseball star at Sunnyside (Wash.) High... Has BA in education... Married (Carla), three sons Randy 7, Craig 5, Kyle 3... Hometown is Sunnyside, Wash., but now lives in Metairie, La... Public Relations in Ben Weiner Furniture Rental Business.

LEE, BIVIAN, 6-3, 200, Cornerback, 2nd Year, Prairie View

Born: August 3, 1948 at Austin, Tex.

Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 3, 1971

PRO: Special teams duty and part-time work at cornerback kept Bivian busy as a rookie in 1971 and the rangy defender figures to make a strong bid for a starting secondary berth this season... He got into all 14 contests last year.

COLLEGE: After being converted from quarterback to defensive back he led the SWAC with six interceptions as a sophomore... He gained All-SWAC acclaim each of his last three seasons and was a Little All-American pick while serving as team captain each of his last two years... In 1969 he shattered a Cotton Bowl record by racing 105 yards with an interception vs. Bishop... He was named Prairie View's MVP in 1970 and concluded that campaign by playing in the North-South Shrine Game in Miami.

PERSONAL: Attended Emile High School in Bastrop, Texas and holds a college degree in physical education and biology... Married (Loretta).

LONG, DAVE, 6-4, 255, Defensive Tackle, 7th Year, Iowa

Born Sept. 6, 1944 at Jefferson, Iowa.

Joined Saints: Trade with St. Louis, 1969.

PRO: The move from end back to tackle proved a beneficial one for Dave last season as he stuck in there for the 14-game distance and held his ground well, being particularly effective against the opposition's running attack. The dean of the Saints' defense at age 27, he's strong and durable and feels that he can do a better job inside... He tied for the team lead by recovering four enemy fumbles in 1971... St. Louis' third round draft choice in 1966, Long played tackle as a rookie, then shifted over to end, being traded to New Orleans in 1969 along with Richard Neal as John Gilliam went to the Cardinals.

COLLEGE: Played both ways at end in college and made all-Big Ten in '65... Played in Blue-Gray game.

PERSONAL: An all-state quarterback at Thomas Jefferson High in Cedar Rapids, Ia., where he also starred in basketball... Married (Theresa), one son, three daughters, Curtis 13, Lisa 7, Deborah 5, Jennifer 3... Works in real estate in off-season... Makes home in Mandeville, La.

MALLORY, JOHN, 6-0, 184, Safetyman, 5th Year, West Virginia

Born: July 24, 1946 at Summit, N. J.

Joined Saints: Traded No. 6 Draft Choice to Atlanta, 1972

PRO: Drafted tenth by Philadelphia in 1968, John was swapped to Atlanta the following year and in 1970 he became the Falcons' all-time punt return leader by dashing back 203 yards with 17 kicks — one of his runbacks going for 75 yards and a TD. He also sprinted 17 yards to tally with a fumble that season and last year he scooped up a loose ball and streaked 54 yards to score... He'll get an opportunity to play safety and return kicks for the Saints.

COLLEGE: In three college campaigns he collected 1,044 yards via punt returns and was twice named to the All-Southern Conference team... In 1967 he was voted West Virginia's MVP.

PERSONAL: Attended Summit (N.J.) High School... Married (Marybeth), one son (Scott, 2)... In off-season he serves as member of Personnel Administration at Bell Telephone Laboratories in Murray Hill, N. J.

MANNING, ARCHIE, 6-3, 210, Quarterback, 2nd Year, Mississippi

Born: May 19, 1949 at Cleveland, Miss.

Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 1, 1971

PRO: A holdout siege that delayed his initial Saints practice session until July 31, combined with a freak foot injury in a pre-season game vs. Kansas City and a pulled thigh muscle suffered while scoring the clinching touchdown in the regular season victory over Dallas (game no. 5) prevented the amazing Archie from hitting full stride as a rookie . . . Although he did participate in 12 games, he was constantly reinjuring his thigh and his ballcarrying and scrambling threat was minimized considerably . . . He also directed the Saints to a triumph over Los Angeles and a tie with Houston, producing final-second heroics in both tussles . . . For the entire campaign he completed 86 of 177 passes (.486) for 1,164 yards and six scores, with nine interceptions. In his frantic efforts to duck the defensive rush, however, he was dumped 40 times for a deficit of 332 yards . . . Strictly as a ballcarrier, though, and a limping one at that, he gained 172 yards (5.2 avg.) and crossed the goal line four times . . . Last winter he had his left arm operated on for the removal of a plate that had been inserted when he broke the arm as an Ole Miss senior . . . Hopefully, the Manning injuries are at an end and he'll now be able to do what he does best on a regular basis, at top speed — that's run (4.7 for 40 yards) and throw — on the go or from the pocket.

COLLEGE: During his three seasons as the Ole Miss signal-caller Archie connected on 412 of 761 aerials (.541) for 4,753 yards and 31 touchdowns — all school records . . . His three-year total offense of 5,576 yards represented a new SEC mark . . . An All-SEC pick in 1969-70, he was also an All-American selection in 1969, when he set an Ole Miss single game standard by accounting for 540 yards total offense — 436 via 33 pass completions — vs. Alabama . . . At the conclusion of his last two seasons he earned MVP recognition in the Sugar Bowl and Gator Bowl . . . A brilliant baseball shortstop, he was also drafted by the American League's Chicago White Sox.

PERSONAL: Attended Drew (Miss.) High School . . . Married (Olivia) . . . Operates Archie & Danny's Restaurant in Metairie, La.

MARTIN, D'ARTAGNAN, 6-1, 190, Cornerback, 2nd Year, Kentucky State. Born: March 28, 1949 at New Orleans, La.

corner assignment, playing just about all the way in all 14 games and learning a few valuable lessons in the process . . . A daring, aggressive performer, he made the mistakes expected of a pro fledgling as he went head-to-head against the game's top receivers . . . His speed and quickness are not questioned and he should improve with each contest in 1972 . . . He included three interceptions — good for 51 return yards — and numerous vicious tackles among his freshman achievements.

COLLEGE: At Kentucky State Martin played defense, punted and returned punts, and worked in some fullback — being named the outstanding freshman player in 1967, the team's MVP in 1968, Little All-American in 1969 and team captain in 1970.

PERSONAL: An offensive end and defensive back at G. W. Carver High School in New Orleans, he gained All-District, City and State distinction.

MOOERS, DOUG, 6-6, 255, Defensive Tackle, 2nd Year, Whittier

Born: March 11, 1947 at Seattle, Wash.

Joined Saints: Trade with Dallas, 1971

PRO: New Orleans swapped offensive tackle Don Talbert to the Cowboys for Mooers last summer . . . Dallas had signed him as a free agent and retained him on their cab squad throughout 1970 . . . He'd seen action at both defensive end and tackle for the Saints in the 1971 pre-season and in the first four regular season contests . . . He suffered a torn Achilles in the fourth game and now returns to bid for a starting post, probably at tackle, following his operation.

COLLEGE: At President Nixon's alma mater he was an outstanding defensive end.

PERSONAL: Attended Western High School in Anaheim, Calif. . . Now lives in Metairie, La. and works in the Jefferson Parish (La.) sheriff's office . . . Married (Sherry) . . . one son (Cory, infant).

MOORE, REYNAUD, 6-2, 190, Safetyman, 2nd Year, U.C.L.A.
Born: October 17, 1949 at Los Angeles, Cal.
Joined Saints: Free Agent, 1971

PRO: In his rookie campaign Reynaud got to play quite a bit at strong safety — enough to indicate that he might have a future in the NFL... He's quick, can tackle and knows where the ball's going... Last year, too, he was employed as a specialist, returning 11 kickoffs for 246 yards and two punts for 12 yards.

COLLEGE: A transfer from Los Angeles City College, where he played both wide receiver and cornerback, he wound up his senior season at U.C.L.A. with interceptions in four straight games.

PERSONAL: Attended Susan Miller Dorsey High School in Los Angeles... An engineering major, he helps his father operate an air-conditioning outfit in L.A.

MORRISON, DON, 6-5, 260, Offensive Tackle, 2nd Year, Texas-Arlington. Born: December 16, 1949 at Ft. Worth, Tex.
Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 4D, 1971

PRO: Virtually from his first day in last year's training camp Don was installed as the first string left tackle on offense. No one ever nudged him from that post as he battled the league's best defensive ends to a standstill. Now, in his sophomore season, he's expected to further accelerate his pace... Raw-boned and strong, he helped to bolster both the Saints' air and ground attack last fall...

COLLEGE: While beefing up from 210 to 255 pounds during his college career, the UTA co-captain gained All-Southland Conference and All-Texas honors... He also excelled as a shot-putter, javelin-thrower and discus-tosser and was an honor roll engineering major.

PERSONAL: Attended Forney (Texas) High School... Married (Marsha).

NEAL, RICHARD, 6-3, 254, Defensive End, 4th Year, Southern Born Sept. 2, 1947 at Minden, La.
Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 2, 1969.

PRO: Elected the team's defensive captain last season, Richard never failed to give 100% effort and set a solid example for his mates. Unfortunately, he battled through most of the campaign with a sprained ankle that never got an opportunity to heal... A starter in all 14 games, he tied for the team lead by pouncing on four enemy fumbles... If he can remain injury-free in 1972 he should fulfill his excellent potential, particularly as a pass-rusher... A damaged knee cramped his style in 1970 — his initial year as a number one — after he spent much of his rookie season observing the action from the bench... There's little doubt that he has the physical equipment to develop into a pro standout.

COLLEGE: NAIA All-American in 1968... Awarded 4 letters, was team captain in '68, and All-SWAC in 67-68.

PERSONAL: Holds B.A. in political science... An All-State athlete at Booker T. Washington High in Shreveport, La., where he earned 3 football letters and 1 in track... Married (Phyllis Olivia), one daughter, Stacie Marie, 3½... Lives in New Orleans... Works in public relations for Falstaff Brewing Co.

NEWLAND, BOB, 6-2, 190, Wide Receiver, 2nd Year, Oregon
Born: October 27, 1948 at Medford, Ore.
Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 7B, 1971

PRO: Although handicapped throughout training camp by a pulled hamstring, Bob made a strong showing once he recovered and wound up as the Saints' third leading receiver with 21 receptions for 319 yards (15.2 avg.)... A part-time starter, he participated in all 14 games, laboring on the special teams when he wasn't chasing passes... A 9.9 (100 yards) sprinter, he could make a serious bid for a regular's receiving role this season.

COLLEGE: His 125 catches — for 1,941 yards — represented an Oregon career record... As a senior he smashed the school's one season mark with 67 grabs for 1,123 yards — and single game standards with 11 receptions (vs. Air Force), 225 yards receiving (vs. Illinois) and a 95-yard TD caper (vs. Illinois)... An All-West Coast selection, he played in the 1970 East-West Shrine Game.

PERSONAL: Attended North Eugene (Oregon) High School . . . Now living in Metairie, La., he serves as Southern Sales Manager for Blue Ribbon Sports, Inc., manufacturers of athletic shoes.

OWENS, JOE, 6-3, 245, Defensive End, 3rd Year, Alcorn A&M

Born: November 8, 1946 at Columbia, Miss.

Joined Saints: Waivers from San Diego, 1971

PRO: New Orleans drafted Joe on the ninth round in 1969 and initially tested him at linebacker. He went on to spend that season with the minor league Richmond Roadrunners . . . The Saints swapped him to San Diego for a draft pick in 1970 and he proceeded to excel defensively for the Chargers, including 11 QB sacks, 55 tackles and a safety among his achievements . . . Reunited with his Richmond mentor (J.D. Roberts) last season, he earned the number one left end assignment and played consistently strong football in all 14 games — being the top pass-rusher on the Saints' front line.

COLLEGE: Won All-Southwestern Athletic Conference honors at Alcorn A&M.

PERSONAL: Attended Jefferson High School in Columbia, Miss. . . . Married (Burtaniel) . . . one son (Joe, Jr., 3).

PARKS, DAVID WAYNE (DAVE), 6-2, 220, Tight End, 9th Year,

Texas Tech. Born Dec. 25, 1941 at Muenster, Texas.

Joined Saints: Free Agent, 1968.

PRO: Last year was Dave's most productive since he earned All-Pro acclaim with San Francisco in 1966. Not only did he grab 35 passes (second best on the team) for 568 yards (16.2 avg.) and five touchdowns, but he contributed the big plays — tallying once in the conquest of Los Angeles, twice in the victory over San Francisco, and in the final eight seconds to gain a stalemate with Oakland . . . When he bulks up to 220 pounds he's still a comparatively small tight end, but he can and does block and he can get open, catch the ball and run with it after he's tucked it away . . . A converted wide receiver — the switch was made in mid-season of 1969 — he could still be moved outside in an emergency . . . Although he's had his share of leg miseries since playing out his San Francisco option and signing with New Orleans in 1968, he was able to play all the way in 1971 and both he and the Saints are hoping for more of the same this fall . . . A first round draft pick of the 49ers in 1964, he played in three Pro Bowl games and led the league with 80 receptions for 1,344 yards and 12 touchdowns in 1965.

COLLEGE: All-American at Texas Tech in 1963 and All-Southwest Conference in 1962 and 1963 . . . Played in East-West Game, All-America and College All-Star Games.

PERSONAL: All-State football player at Abilene (Tex.) High . . . Married (Susan), children are Paige 9, David 7, Todd 5 . . . Resides in New Orleans.

POLLARD, BOB, 6-3, 255, Defensive Tackle, 2nd Year, Weber State

Born: December 30, 1948 at Beaumont, Tex.

Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 11, 1971

PRO: From the beginning of the 1971 training camp Bob held down a starting job at left tackle on defense — and he never disappointed as a rookie regular . . . Particularly effective against the enemy's running game, he should improve his pass rush with experience. He has excellent speed and quickness and proved a durable performer in going the full 14-game route last fall . . . and earning a place on the league's All-Rookie team.

COLLEGE: After starting out at Texas Southern, he transferred to Weber State for his last two seasons at defensive end.

PERSONAL: Attended Hebert High School in Beaumont, Texas . . . Married (Toni), one daughter (Kim, 1) . . . He spent the past off-season on active Army duty.

drafted 14th — as a future — by Buffalo in 1964. A broken ankle, suffered in an auto accident, caused him to miss the 1965 campaign . . . After two seasons the Bills traded him to Kansas City in 1968, where he played both offensively and defensively for two years before a shoulder injury shelved him for the 1970 season . . . He's played in two AFL championship games and in a victorious Super Bowl — in January, 1970.

COLLEGE: He was an All-American selection at L.S.U.

PERSONAL: Attended Opelousas (La.) High School . . . Married (Mary Louise) . . . one son (Micheal Rene', 8), one daughter (Jeanne Jones, 3). Holds public relations job for Jefferson Parish Police Dept.

ROBINSON, VIRGIL, 5-11, 195, Running Back, 2nd Year, Grambling

Born: November 2, 1947 at Gretna, La.

Joined Saints: Waivers from Green Bay, 1971

PRO: Drafted second by Green Bay a year ago, he was tried as a wide receiver and defensive back before being waived to New Orleans on the final cutdown . . . Despite being handicapped by a sprained ankle early he went on to participate in 11 games for the Saints — leading the team with 19 kickoff returns for 443 yards (23.3 avg.). He also carried the ball 29 times for 96 yards (3.3 avg.) and caught 12 passes for 53 yards, including the game-winning reception in the final seconds at San Francisco . . . Virgil has that outside speed so essential to the Saints' attack.

COLLEGE: As a senior running back and flanker at Grambling he rushed for 884 yards (4.6 avg.) and averaged 28.4 yards on kickoff returns and 17 yards on punt runbacks . . . He was a business and accounting major.

PERSONAL: Attended L. B. Landry High School in New Orleans . . . He makes his home in Gretna, La. and works in the sheriff's office in Jefferson Parish (La.).

ROUSSEL, TOM, 6-3, 235, Linebacker, 5th Year, Southern Mississippi
Born Jan. 20, 1945 at Thibodaux, La.

Joined Saints: Trade with Washington, 1971.

PRO: After coming to New Orleans from Washington in the 1971 deal involving quarterback Billy Kilmer, Tommy promptly won the starting left side linebacker job, excelling throughout the pre-season action until felled by an ankle injury. Together with a faulty shoulder, it combined to limit his action to seven contests. He was ready for the last four games, however, and finished very strong, indicating that he'll be the man to beat out on the left side in 1972 . . . The Redskins had drafted Roussel second in 1968 and he played very well as a rookie. Injuries slowed him down somewhat the next two years — with the Saints now hoping that his ill luck has finally run its course.

COLLEGE: An honorable mention All-American . . . Competed in Blue-Gray and Senior Bowl games in '67 and played as a member of the College All-Stars in 1968 . . . An all-time USM great.

PERSONAL: Majored in physical education, recreation and health . . . Works for Shell Oil Co. . . . Married (Cherry), one son, Thomas Jr. 4, one daughter, Leigh Hall, 2 . . . Resides in Metairie, La.

STRONG, JIM, 6-1, 215, Running Back, 3rd Year, Houston

Born: December 12, 1946 at San Antonio, Tex.

Joined Saints: Waivers from San Francisco, 1971

PRO: A seventh round selection by the 49ers in 1970, Jim got into only three games that year, lugging the ball twice for three yards . . . Once claimed by the Saints his activity was stepped up as he played in all 14 contests last fall and wound up as the number one fullback while leading the team in ground-gaining with 404 yards (4.3 avg.). He also caught 16 aerials for 78 yards and demonstrated solid blocking ability, particularly in protecting the passer.

COLLEGE: In his senior season he paced Houston's rushing attack with 1,037 yards and 11 touchdowns . . . A second team All-American, he was also named MVP in the Bluebonnet Bowl.

PERSONAL: Attended Sam Houston High School in San Antonio, Texas . . . Handles public relations work in Houston during the off-season . . . Married (Eileen).

WALKER

WYATT

WALKER, MIKE, 6-4, 235, Defensive End, 2nd Year, Tulane

Born: July 11, 1949 at Texarkana, Ark.

Joined Saints: Free Agent, 1971

PRO: The Saints got Mike into the final five games of 1971 after signing him several weeks following his release by Minnesota. He saw service at both defensive end and on the special teams. The lanky Louisianian spent the past off-season in military service and endeavoring to pack on some vital extra pounds . . . The Vikings had drafted him eleventh in 1971 with a view towards making a linebacker out of him.

COLLEGE: Walker was voted Tulane's most valuable defensive player as a tackle in 1969 — and participated in the Green Wave's Liberty Bowl triumph over Colorado.

PERSONAL: Attended Sulphur (La.) High School where he earned All-State acclaim as a middle guard.

WILLIAMS, DELANO R. (DEL), 6-2, 245, Center, 6th Year,

Florida State. Born Nov. 9, 1945 at Live Oak, Fla.

Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 3b, 1967.

PRO: Although performing most of last year's 14 games with aching ankles, Del was a tough, dependable operator, whether snapping from center or leading the interference from his regular right guard berth . . . After starting in the latter slot from the beginning of his rookie campaign, he was shifted to center in a late season emergency in 1970. That's where he opened in 1971, also, but he was moved back to his original guard post during the season. That's likely where he'll be stationed this year . . . Never less than a tenacious battler — though lacking some of the heft of his guard rivals throughout the league — Williams is yet another shining example for the recruits just breaking in . . . He's now in his second year as the Saints' player representative.

COLLEGE: Starter in every varsity game at Florida State . . . Played tackle first two years, then moved to guard and was considered the best pass blocker among collegiate linemen in 1966 . . . Played in East-West Shrine game . . . Second team All-America selection in 1966.

PERSONAL: Graduate of Suwannee High in Live Oak, Fla. . . Majored in criminology at Florida State . . . Resides in Tallahassee, Fla., where he operates a restaurant.

WILLIAMS, JOE, 6-0, 200, Running Back, 2nd Year, Wyoming

Born: March 30, 1947 at Center, Tex.

Joined Saints: Traded No. 4 Draft Choice to Dallas, 1972

PRO: This could be the season in which Joe finally gets his opportunity to play. After being drafted 12th by Dallas in 1970 he spent the year on the Cowboys' cab squad . . . Last fall he broke into the lineup infrequently, carrying the ball 21 times for 67 yards and scoring one TD. He also caught three passes for 59 yards . . . Williams attracted the Saints' attention with a stellar pre-season performance against them — netting 42 yards via six hauls . . . The Saints have him labeled as a possibility at either fullback or halfback.

COLLEGE: Played two years at Wyoming but sat out his senior campaign.

PERSONAL: Attended Dunbar High School in Lufkin, Texas . . . During the off-season he teaches high school and does some coaching . . . Married (Holly), one daughter (Stephanie, infant).

WYATT, DOUG, 6-1, 195, Safety, 3rd Year, Tulsa

Born Oct. 18, 1946 at Tyler, Tex.

Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 17, 1970.

PRO: The number one choice at strong safety last season after splitting his duties between safety and cornerback as a rookie, Doug will undoubtedly be the man to beat at SS in 1972 . . . He's intercepted four passes in each of his two NFL campaigns and returned one 55 yards for the victory-clinching TD vs. Green Bay last November . . . Like quite a few of his teammates, an injury — to his ankle — kept him under full speed for several games in 1971 . . . The competition will be heavy at his position this year but if he continues to progress and plays consistent defense against both the run and the pass he could knock off his challengers . . . A variety of injuries — including a knee operation and an exploding bottle that damaged his eye — apparently cooled the pros on his possibilities, thus permitting the Saints to cop another potential prize on the 17th round . . . The last Tulsa team on which he'd played defense yielded 400 points in ten games.

COLLEGE: Earned three football letters at Tulsa as both offensive end and defensive back . . . Team captain in '69 . . . Played in Hula Bowl . . . All-Conference three years and All-Big Four (Arkansas, Oklahoma, Okla. State and Tulsa) three years.

PERSONAL: Lost 40 per cent vision in one eye when soft drink bottle exploded but has 20-20 vision with contact lens . . . Majored in marketing . . . Married (Judy); twin sons, Keith and Kevin, 1 . . . Resides in Metairie, La. and is employed by Sooner Pipeline Company.

GRANT, BOB, 6-2, 225, Linebacker,
5th Year, Wake Forest
Born: October 14, 1946 in Jacksonville, North Carolina
Joined Saints: Traded draft choice to Washington, 1972.

PRO: Baltimore's second round draft choice for 1968, he was a sometimes starter on the outside during his first two years in the NFL, seeing most of his action on the special teams as the Colts were well fortified in the linebacking position. He did, however, start the first eleven games for Baltimore in their 1970 Super Bowl season, intercepting two passes that season after picking off a pair of Sonny Jurgensen tosses in his initial pro start in 1969 . . . Grant was traded to Washington for a number two draft pick in 1971 and he got into six games with the Redskins . . . He possesses excellent speed and strength.

COLLEGE: A standout defensive end at Wake Forest, he played in the East-West Shrine Game and was voted the top player in the Piedmont Bowl in Winston-Salem, N.C. in 1965.

PERSONAL: Attended Georgetown (N.C.) High School . . . Majored in speech at Wake Forest . . . He's a Karate expert . . . Married (Pamela Ann) . . . one son (Jason, 2).

THE SAINTS' 1972 DRAFT CHOICES

No. 1 ROYCE SMITH, Guard, 6-3, 250, Georgia

Georgia's No. 1 guard for three straight years, Royce reaped a carload of honors following his senior season. Not only did his teammates elect him permanent captain of the 11-1-0 squad which capped its campaign with a Gator Bowl victory over North Carolina, but he also repeated as All-SEC first team and gained first team distinction on just about every All-America team selected, including AP, UPI, NEA, Football Writers of America, Football Coaches Association of America, Sporting News, Gridiron News, Football News, Time Magazine and Walter Camp . . . He was also awarded the coveted Jacobs Trophy for being voted by the SEC head coaches as the best blocker in the SEC and the Atlanta Touchdown Club named him the outstanding lineman in the South. His final participation was in the Senior Bowl where he was coached by J.D. Roberts in a win over the North team . . . Royce was a starting defensive end on his freshman team . . . In high school, he excelled in track and football, where he received All-City acclaim as a fullback . . . He has future ambitions to become a football coach . . . The Saints' scouts praised Smith's "size, speed (4.9), strength, quickness and intelligence." . . . Attended Groves High School in Savannah, Ga. . . . Born: June 17, 1949.

No. 2 WILLIE HALL, Linebacker, 6-2, 217, Southern California

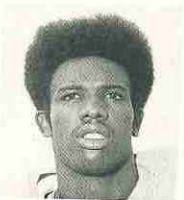

To boost their overall defensive speed, the Saints tapped wondrous Willie, who, in the words of the Saints' scouts, "Can flash a 4.6 over 40 yards — thus providing him with excellent range and lateral movement. He can cover that pass receiver coming out of the backfield. He also meets the blocker well, reacts quickly to the ball and is both a fine open field tackler and an effective pass-rusher." . . . A transfer from Arizona Western, Willie has also excelled as a javelin thrower on the track team . . . During his last season on the gridiron at U.S.C., he earned spots on the All-Pac Eight team, the All-West Coast team and the All-American team . . . His teammates also voted him the Trojans' most valuable player . . . Hall played in last year's East-West Shrine game . . . Attended Pulaski High School in New Britain, Conn. . . . Born: September 29, 1949.

No. 3 BOB KUZIEL, Center, 6-5, 255, Pittsburgh

During his three years as the Pitt pivotman, Bob played every offensive play as a senior and 38 of a possible 40 quarters as a junior, proving his durability as well as his effectiveness as a snapper and blocker. He's very quick off the ball and as strong providing pass protection as he is in opening holes for ballcarriers. Pitt's offensive line coach, Ernie Hefferle, said of Kuziel, "In over 30 years of coaching, he's one of the best that I've ever seen." . . . Bob, who states, "I enjoy playing as much as I can — I like to feel that I'm an important part of the team," weighed only 227 as a junior . . . As a senior, he was selected to the All-East team and to second team All-American. He played in both the East-West Shrine and Hula Bowl games . . . Majoring in economics and history, he received a B.S. degree from Pitt . . . According to the Saints' scouts, "Kuziel has good quickness and explosion and sustains his block well. He can also go get that middle linebacker — and is an accurate snapper for kicks." . . . From West Haven, Conn., he attended Manlius (N.Y.) High School . . . Born: July 24, 1950.

No. 3a TOM MYERS, Safetyman, 5-11, 184, Syracuse

(From Oakland via trade for draft choice)

Termed by his college coaches as "one of the all-time Orange greats to work the secondary," Myers ranked eighth in the nation in punt returns as a junior with 15.0-yard average and 436 total yards, thus breaking the record previously established at Syracuse by the brilliant Floyd Little. According to the Saints' scouts, "Tom has strength, speed (4.6) and quickness and anticipation necessary to play safety in the pros. A tough and aggressive tackler, he also knows how to go after the ball once it's been thrown. He's an outstanding leader, too." . . . Syracuse's captain and an All-American choice in 1971, he played in both the East-West and Hula Bowl games last winter . . . A lacrosse letter-winner, he's earned a degree in physical education with a view towards a career in physical therapy . . . Attended Pulaski High School in New Britain, Conn. (along with Willie Hall) . . . Born: October 24, 1950.

No. 4 MIKE CRANGLE, Defensive End, 6-4, 233, Tennessee - Martin

"Mike is aggressive, with tremendous initial movement and good quickness," stated the Saints' scouts. "He rushes the passer effectively and hustles all the time." . . . A transfer from the University of Cincinnati, the rugged Irishman started the past two seasons at defensive end for T-M and was named to the All-Gulf South Conference team, the All-District 24 National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics team, and was twice honored as his Conference's Defensive Player of the Week . . . In addition, Mike was a starter on defense in the past season's North-South and Senior Bowl contests . . . Statistically, during the last two years he was credited with 134 individual tackles and 52 assists. He also sacked the QB 42 times, recovered seven fumbles, deflected 13 passes and forced 24 off-target throws . . . He's a veteran of two years Army service . . . Attended Akron (Ohio) Central High School . . . Born: February 3, 1947.

No. 4a JOE FEDERSPIEL, Linebacker, 6-1, 225, Kentucky

(From Philadelphia via trade for Tony Baker) An All-SEC performer, Joe has played both inside and outside linebacker but will likely rate priority in the middle by the Saints . . . He was selected as the best player on the South team in the Miami All-Star game last December, then followed up with another fine performance in the All-American Bowl . . . The Saints' scouts figure him as "tremendously improved over his junior season." . . . In the last two seasons, he was credited with 125 and 126 solo tackles and 43 and 49 assists . . . Attended DeSales High School in Louisville, Kentucky . . . Born: May 6, 1950.

No. 4b MIKE COLEMAN, Defensive End, 6-6, 271, Knoxville College

(From Kansas City in consideration of Charlie Williams) A transfer from Wilberforce, where he also starred in basketball, Mike has been labeled by Saints' scouts as "strong, with good balance and speed (4.9). He's quick off the ball and has fine lateral movement. He has good body control, sheds blockers well and his pass-rush has been improving steadily." . . . Coleman served as Knoxville's team captain the past two seasons, while also gaining Little All-American acclaim and participating in the Black All-Star Game in Houston last December . . . A physical education major who graduated in March, he plans to get involved in recreation center work after his grid career. . . . Attended North Chicago (Ill.) Central High School . . . Born: February 18, 1949.

No. 5 BILL BUTLER, Running Back, 6-0, 218, Kansas State

(From Green Bay via trade for Wimpy Winther) From a sophomore season when he carried only 19 times for 65 yards, Bill hiked his hauls to a school record 204 last fall, producing 838 yards (4.1 avg.) and 16 touchdowns, 14 of them on the ground. He also caught 15 passes for 137 yards. He was KSU's leading rusher and captain in 1971 and his career rushing total of 1,400 yards ranks second in the school's history . . . The Leaksville, N.C. product also led K-State's ground-gainers in 1970 with 497 yards . . . When he first arrived at college he weighed 185 pounds, but the added weight has not diminished his 4.6 speed . . . Butler served as team captain as a senior and was also voted the squad's most inspirational player and most valuable player — while earning All-Big Eight honors . . . He climaxed the campaign by participating in Miami's North-South Shrine game . . . In high school, he'd been an All-Conference defensive back, intercepting eight passes in one season . . . He'd like to get into coaching after his pro grid career . . . The Saints' scouts appraisal: "Runs with power and balance, being an especially tough inside runner who is capable of breaking tackles." . . . Married (Diane Lynn); son (Britton David, born last January) . . . Attended Escambia High School in Pensacola, Fla. . . . Born: August 12, 1950.

No. 5a CARL JOHNSON, Offensive Tackle, 6-4, 245, Nebraska

"Showed quick feet in setting up to protect the passer and displayed great effort in staying with the pass-rusher. He runs well and has made excellent progress over the past year — a hard worker and constant hustler" — is how the Saints' scouts size up Johnson . . . An alternate in 1970, he developed into a starter as a senior, winding up with All-Big Eight and All-American honors on Nebraska's national championship team . . . He played in the Orange Bowl each of his last two seasons and in the All-American Bowl last January . . . A transfer from Phoenix J.C., he earned his B.S. degree in business administration at Nebraska . . . Attended South Mountain High School in Phoenix, Arizona . . . Born: December 26, 1949.

No. 5b BO DAVIES, Safetyman, 6-1, 177, South Carolina

(From Baltimore via trade for John Shinnners) A three-year starter, Bo worked at both roverback and safety and led the Atlantic Coast Conference with a record eight interceptions in 1970, while also participating in 60 tackles — two less than he did as a soph — and recovering two fumbles. As a senior he was involved in 50 tackles — 33 unassisted — recovered a fumble and swiped four enemy aerials . . . He also lettered in track and played basketball as a freshman . . . The Saints' scouts reported, "Davies has fine speed (4.6) and is at his best defending against passes, reacting quickly in the right direction. He has good hands and will make the key interception." . . . Bo concluded his college career with an appearance in the All-American Bowl after having previously played in the Peach Bowl . . . Off the field, he's one of the leaders in the Carolina chapter of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. He earned his B.A. degree with English as his major . . . His father, Bobby Davies, was a two-time basketball All-American at Seton Hall and his pro play with the Rochester Royals gained him a place in the NBA Hall of Fame . . . Married (Donna) . . . Attended Gettysburg (Pa.) High School . . . Born: February 7, 1950.

No. 6a CURT WATSON, Running Back, 5-11, 211, Tennessee

(From Oakland via trade for Elijah Nevett) Although a fractured rib sidelined him for last fall's final two regular season games, Curt managed to establish a Tennessee record by crunching out a career total of 2,364 yards — to also rank as the fifth leading ground-gainer of all-time in the SEC. A workhorse back, he averaged over 20 carries per game as a Volunteer . . . As a senior, he lugged the ball 193 times for

JACKSON

766 yards (4.0 avg.) and nine touchdowns... In his sophomore campaign, he rushed for 807 yards (5.5 avg.), including a school record 197 yards vs. Georgia... Although slowed somewhat by injuries as a junior, he collected 791 yards... During his college career, he was named to both the AP and UPI All-Southeastern Conference teams... He also participated — in successive years — in the Gator, Sugar and Liberty Bowls, and capped his career, last January in the Senior Bowl... The Saints' scouts on Watson: "He has speed, balance, power, toughness, quickness and agility. He can hit the hole and then cut back sharply against the grain in the wink of an eye."... Attended Crossville (Tenn.) High School... Born: July 1, 1950.

No. 7 ERNIE JACKSON, Cornerback, 5-10, 173, Duke

He's not very big but he can get the job done... As far as the Saints' scouts are concerned, "Ernie's got great speed (4.5) and quickness, reads the plays well and provides tough support against the ground attack. He also has fine hands for fielding passes and punts. He could be a return specialist if he can't win a job on defense."... After injuries struck Duke in mid-season 1971, he went both ways, thereafter playing 75% of each game... He intercepted four passes, returning two for touchdowns; hauled back six punts for 120 yards and a TD; averaged 25.4 yards on seven kickoff runbacks; and carried the ball 31 times from scrimmage for 237 yards (7.6 avg.) and three scores... He was the only player in Atlantic Coast Conference history to be honored as both offensive and defensive player of the week in the same season... Three times last season he was picked as ACC defensive back of the week. Ernie swiped four enemy aerials as a sophomore before injuries limited his 1970 activity... Another of his specialties was blocking extra point and field goal attempts... Majored in electrical engineering... From Hopkins, S.C., he attended Lower Richland High School... Born: April 11, 1950.

WHERE KIDS ARE KING!

No. 8 RON VINSON, Wide Receiver, 6-3, 190, Abilene Christian

Injuries curtailed Ron's activities throughout much of his senior campaign, as he caught 11 passes for 175 yards and one score... Another injury sustained off the field following the draft necessitated a knee operation and could keep him idle throughout 1972... In his first two collegiate seasons he pulled down 142 throws for 2,256 yards — with the latter total representing a school and Southland Conference record... He's received All-Conference and All-Texas College honors... Vinson, who wasn't a highly sought-after prep performer, hit his stride after transferring from Texas — El Paso for his sophomore year... According to the Saints' scouts, "Ron has excellent speed (4.6), can leap and will fight for the ball in a crowd. He's intelligent and an outstanding competitor."... Majored in agriculture-business... Attended Abilene (Texas) High School... Born: December 15, 1949.

No. 9 KENT BRANSTETTER, Defensive Tackle, 6-3, 255, Houston

After starting at defensive left end as a junior, Kent was shifted to defensive right tackle last fall. In high school, he'd been a fullback and linebacker. As a sophomore, he played only 12 minutes after transferring from Tyler (Texas) J.C.... He played in both the Bluebonnet Bowl and the All-American Bowl... The Saints' scouts pegged him: "Branstetter has good agility and strength, uses his hands effectively and is a tough competitor."... Attended LaMarque (Texas) High School... Born: February 3, 1949.

No. 10 ANDY KUPP, Guard, 6-3, 246, Idaho

A three-year starter at Idaho, Andy spent his first and third seasons at guard and his second at offensive tackle. Seven times during his college career, he was named offensive leader of the week... He will, of course, be competing with his brother Jake — a nine-year pro — for a guard berth with the Saints... The Saints' scouts appraisal: "Andy improved as the season progressed. A good all-around athlete and a team man, he makes a strong effort to stay with his man on pass-blocking assignments. His speed (4.9) is excellent."... Married (Leslie)... Attended Sunnyside (Wash.) High School... Born: May 25, 1949.

BARRIOS

LACHAUSSEE

No. 11 PAUL DONGIEUX, Linebacker, 6-2, 225, Mississippi

A three-year regular at linebacker for Ole Miss — mostly in the middle — Paul participated in 114 tackles last fall, 69 of them unassisted. He also led his team with four pass interceptions, and deflected three more. In three successive years he played in the Sugar Bowl, Gator Bowl and Peach Bowl, plus the Senior Bowl under J.D. Roberts last January . . . Dongieux earned second team All-SEC honors as a senior and served as the Rebels' co-captain in 1971 . . . He was hampered early by foot problems in 1970 . . . As far as the Saints' scouts are concerned, "Paul's a solid hitter who has good movement, reads the offense well, can shed blockers and pursue, tackles viciously and is a fine leader." . . . He's a chemical engineering major . . . Attended Murrah High School in Jackson, Miss. . . . Born: October 30, 1950.

No. 12 STEVE LOCKHART, Tight End, 6-2, 216, Arkansas State

They called him "Stinger" in college because of his blocking ability . . . In his first two seasons, he also managed to haul down 52 passes . . . The Saints' scouts pegged him, "Steve has good quickness and speed (4.8) for a tight end. He can get deep and has excellent concentration. He gets that quick break from the line, makes good cuts and has fine hands." . . . He's a college journalism major. . . . A veteran performer in the Pecan Bowl, Lockhart earned All-Conference honors in 1970 and 1971 and excelled for State's 1970 small college champions . . . Attended Archbishop Rummel High School in New Orleans . . . Born: December 26, 1949.

No. 13 CEPHUS WEATHERSPOON, Wide Receiver, 6-1, 182, Fort Lewis, Colo.

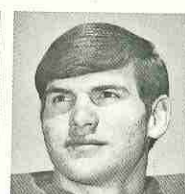

In college Cephus proved himself capable of making the spectacular catch — when it was needed the most . . . He was listed by the Saints' scouts as, "A quick starter who can accelerate rapidly — and he can make the nifty moves at top speed (4.6) . . . He has quick hands and feet and an excellent attitude." . . . Hometown: Globe, Arizona . . . Born: June 14, 1948.

No. 14 STEVE BARRIOS, Wide Receiver, 6-0, 185, Tulane

"A leader and clutch competitor," reported the Saints' scouts. "He has good hands and concentration and his cuts are sharp. Steve also has an excellent attitude for football." . . . With 1,197 yards via 60 receptions to his credit for three seasons, Barrios now reigns as the leading yardage producer — via pass-catching — in Tulane's history . . . He also set a school single season mark with 505 yards as a junior, helping the Green Wave to a Liberty Bowl title . . . A pre-season shoulder injury caused him to sit out his first four games as a senior — but he was still named to the AP All-South Independent Team three years in a row . . . Attended West Jefferson High School in Gretna, La. . . . Born: February 25, 1950.

No. 15 RUSTY LACHAUSSEE, Quarterback, 6-2, 195, Tulane

As a sophomore stay-in-the-pocket quarterback, Rusty established three still-standing Tulane aerial records: Most passes completed, 90; most passes attempted, 199; and most yards gained passing, 1,291 . . . Relegated to the bench by a preference for a running QB, Lachaussee's action was limited during his last two seasons . . . Nevertheless, his career total of 1,722 yards passing holds as third highest in the school's history . . . The Saints' scouts said, "Rusty has a strong arm, sets up quickly and has a good delivery. A tough competitor, he also has a sound knowledge of the game." . . . Married (Christine) . . . Attended Pascagoula (Miss.) High School . . . Born: September 21, 1950.

GRAHAM

No. 16 JOE BALTHROP, Guard, 6-2, 244, Tennessee

After being selected an All-American as a sophomore by Football News, Joe was plagued by injuries that idled him for almost half of his junior campaign . . . A walk-on as a freshman, he developed quickly into an outstanding strongside tackle . . . The Saints' scouts enthused, "He's very aggressive, has good natural strength and is quick to get after those secondary defenders." . . . Balthrop saw action in the Gator, Sugar and Liberty Bowls . . . Married (Barbara Ann); daughter (Christy Michelle, born last January) . . . Attended Clarksville (Tenn.) High School . . . Born: February 13, 1949.

No. 17 DICK GRAHAM, Wide Receiver, 5-8, 172, Oklahoma State

For a little man, Graham accomplished quite a bit during his three varsity campaigns — catching 97 passes for 1,458 yards and 10 touchdowns; returning 33 kickoffs for 813 yards — including a 95-yard TD runback vs. Nebraska's national champions; and lugging back 73 punts for 487 yards . . . He was several times selected as Big-Eight Conference "Back of the Week" and he also gained all-conference honors . . . During his college career he was employed at flanker, quarterback and tailback as well as a kick return ace — he worked at defensive halfback as a freshman . . . At Oklahoma State they said, "He makes things happen when he's in there." . . . The Saints' scouts reported, "A solid all-around athlete, he's strong for his size, tough physically and a rugged competitor at all times. An elusive ballcarrier, he also packs the power to break tackles." . . . At this writing there was a question regarding Graham's decision to play pro ball . . . Attended Amarillo (Texas) High School . . . Born: May 22, 1950.

Sixth round draft choice Wayne Dorton, a guard from Arkansas State, elected to play pro football in the Canadian Football League.

OTHER SAINTS ROOKIES FOR 1972

BRENNAN, DON, Wide Receiver, 6-2, 195, Miami (Fla.)

A transfer from Coffeyville (Kansas) Junior College, Brennan, signed as a free agent, wound up playing wide receiver and defensive safety for former Saints coach Charlie Tate at Miami. He'd been a J.C. All-American and led the nation in J.C. pass receptions . . . He attended Shawnee Mission East High School in Prairie Village, Kansas . . . After football he'd like to get involved with corrective therapy work . . . Born: March 20, 1949.

BROWN, CHADWICK, Defensive Tackle, 6-5, 248, East Texas State

An All-Conference performer in 1967 and 1968, Brown played mostly on offense in college but is ticketed for defensive duty by the Saints, who signed him as a free agent . . . A trackman and an All-City selection in football at Lincoln High School in Dallas, he went on to be drafted by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the seventh round for 1969 . . . Born: September 9, 1947.

CARTER, EUGENE, Wide Receiver, 5-11, 176, San Diego State

Although on the small and skinny side, Carter impressed at the Saints' April three-day camp and was signed as a free agent . . . He was named MVP of his Chaffey (California) Junior College team — while also gaining All-Conference acclaim — before transferring to San Diego State . . . During his J.C. career he once caught 11 passes in a game, returned a kickoff 94 yards for a touchdown, and set a one-game record by snaring passes for 260 yards . . . Eugene earned a degree in public administration and is currently going to graduate school, while aiming for a career in probationary work . . . Attended both Lincoln and Camden High Schools in Camden, Arkansas . . . Born: July 10, 1948.

DEES, CHUCK, Linebacker, 6-1, 228, Mississippi State

A local player — from suburban Metairie, La. — who stopped by at the Saints' practice site and asked for a tryout. Off the trial he was contracted as a free agent . . . Dees won football letters each of his three years on the State varsity and served as team captain last fall . . . He's heading for a degree in business-marketing . . . At East Jefferson High School in Metairie, he was team captain, an All-District selection and his team's most valuable back . . . Born: June 5, 1950.

ERIKSEN, BOB, Linebacker, 6-2, 220, U.S.C.

Labeled as a darkhorse possibility to gain a spot on their roster, the late-developing Eriksen was signed by the Saints as a free agent . . . He got into the 1970 Rose Bowl game but didn't win his first football letter until last season, when he was also voted the Trojans' MVP and served as team captain for the Notre Dame and Washington contests . . . A football, basketball and baseball standout at Bullard High School in Fresno, California, he was drafted as a pitcher by the Cleveland Indians in 1968 but preferred to continue his education . . . He intends to earn his master's degree in education, with a coaching career as his goal . . . Born: June 26, 1950.

GRAVES, BART, 6-4, 240, Guard, 1st Year, Tulane

Born: October 1, 1949 at Little Rock, Ark.

Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 15, 1971

PRO: It's back to the offensive line for Bart this year following an injury-curtailed shot at defensive end in training camp as a rookie . . . A damaged knee in the summer and a subsequent operation caused him to miss the entire season . . . Now he'll start all over again performing the blocking chores he handled at Tulane.

COLLEGE: After playing a season for Northeast Oklahoma A&M's national junior college champions, he transferred to Tulane and was named to the AP All-Southeastern Independent team as a tackle in 1969. He went on to excel for the Green Wave's Liberty Bowl champs as a senior despite being shelved for several games by a leg injury.

PERSONAL: A physical education teacher in New Orleans during the off-season . . . Attended Marshall (Texas) High School . . . Married (Gay), one daughter (Alicia, 3), one son (Todd, infant).

HAYES, BILLIE, Cornerback, 6-1, 175, San Diego State

This will be the second pro trial for Hayes who was initially drafted on the fourth round by Cincinnati in 1970. The Saints signed him as a free agent after he impressed during the rookie workouts last April . . . During a sparkling college career, he advanced from a Junior College All-American at Riverside City College in 1967 to a college All-Conference pick as a senior at San Diego State . . . With the Aztecs he played in the 1969 Pasadena Bowl . . . He has a keen knowledge of where the ball's going to go and has the leaping ability to make the tough plays . . . His brother Tom is a first string cornerback with the Atlanta Falcons . . . Billie was also an outstanding high school and college track performer . . . He holds a degree in Recreation Administration and is striving for his master's degree in Criminal Justice Administration . . . A counselor during the off-season, he eventually plans to enter the field of Juvenile Probation . . . Attended Rubidoux High School in Riverside, Calif. . . . Born: June 22, 1947.

LINHART, ANTON, Kicker, 6-0, 170, Austria Tech

Located in Europe by scout Robert Kap and signed over there by head coach J.D. Roberts, the Austrian-born Linhart will be given every opportunity at training camp to earn the number one placekicking job . . . Tony attended Vienna High School and Austria Technical School and during this same period he commenced playing league soccer in Europe — 11 years with the Wiener Sport Club and two years with the First Vienna Football Club . . . Born: July 24, 1942.

McCOY, JAY, Running Back, 5-11, 200, Memphis State

A transfer from Mississippi State, the hard-running McCoy proceeded to become the third leading rusher and second highest scorer in Memphis State history, while also serving as team captain during his senior season. He participated in the North-South Shrine game in Miami . . . Jay's a future coach with ambitions to obtain a master of science degree in education . . . The Miami Dolphins had given him a shot as a free agent a year ago and the Saints are now following the same procedure . . . Although originally from Baltimore, he attended Southwest Miami (Fla.) High School and was voted "Mr. Athlete" . . . Married (Sandra) . . . Born: January 13, 1947.

McGUIGAN, FRANK, Running Back, 6-0, 205, Arkansas State

A Bennie Ellender product at State, McGuigan checks in with the Saints as a free agent highly recommended by his college coach . . . At Arkansas State, "Hurricane", as he was tagged by teammates, gained Little All-American distinction and All-Southland Conference honors and was also named the Conference's MVP . . . He played in the 1968 Pecan Bowl . . . A history and physical education major, he's planning to attend Brigham Young University for a master's degree in administration . . . His Father Judge (Philadelphia, Pa.) High School team won the city championship . . . The Philadelphia Eagles tested him in 1969 and the past two seasons he's played in the ACFL with the Pottstown Firebirds and the Norfolk Neptunes . . . Born: January 29, 1948.

MORRIS, BOB, Center, 6-5, 245, Duke

This will be the second NFL trial for Morris, who was initially drafted tenth by Houston in 1970. Last year he played for the Roanoke (Va.) Bucks in the ACFL and earned another crack — via the Saints and the free agent route . . . An All-Atlantic Coast Conference choice with Duke in 1969, when he also captained the Blue Devils for three games, he wound up his college activity by playing in the North-South Shrine game and the All-American Bowl game . . . An all-everything performer in five sports at Madison Heights High School in Anderson, Indiana, he also was a baseball catcher and javelin thrower for two years at Duke . . . He's already earned his master's in history-education (from Indiana State University) and is shooting for a PhD in history . . . Born: March 1, 1948.

PAJENK, EGON, Kicker, 6-3, 185, no college

Another Kap — Roberts production, with J.D. signing Pajenk to a contract after checking him out in kicking drills in Europe last spring . . . In their quest for distance — particularly on kickoffs — as well as accuracy, the Saints feel that they may have in answer in Egon (the pronunciation is Aye-gonn Pie-yank) . . . As far as league soccer is concerned, he had only two years experience with the Rapid-Wien team . . . He attended Johnsdorf (Austria) High School . . . Born: July 28, 1950.

SCOTT, BOBBY, 6-1, 201, Quarterback, 1st Year, Tennessee

Born: April 2, 1949 at Chattanooga, Tenn.

Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 14, 1971

PRO: Last year was an educational one for Bobby, as he spent the entire campaign on the Saints' cab squad — posing as the opposition's quarterback before each game and generally learning a lot more about playing the position. This season he'll make another pitch to break into the QB tandem that the Saints have usually retained on the 40-man roster.

COLLEGE: During his three-year stint at Tennessee he threw for 32 touchdowns and a school record 3,461 yards . . . His 385 yards passing vs. Florida in 1970 represented a Vols single game mark . . . He was named the MVP in the 1971 Sugar Bowl Game.

PERSONAL: Attended Rossville (Georgia) High School . . . He spent the past winter earning more credits at the University of Tennessee.

STRICKLAND, BILL, Offensive Tackle, 6-4, 245, Alabama

A free agent acquisition for the Saints, Strickland could turn out to be one of the summer's sleepers . . . An underrated player for Bear Bryant's Crimson Tide, he served as a game tri-captain and participated in the Gator, Liberty and Bluebonnet Bowls . . . He holds a BS degree in business administration from 'Bama . . . He'll spend some of his off hours piloting a chopper . . . Attended Banks High School in Birmingham, Alabama . . . Born: November 16, 1948.

TILLMAN, FADDIE, 6-5, 235, Defensive Tackle, 1st Year,

Boise State. Born: October 7, 1948 at Dallas, Tex.

Joined Saints: Waivers from Atlanta, 1972

PRO: Faddie (pronounced Fay-dee) spent last season on the Atlanta cab squad after having been drafted tenth by the Falcons. Their scouts described him as "A big man who can run — and is seldom knocked off his feet . . . Adding weight could be his chief concern as he attempts to gain a berth on the Saints' defensive line . . . New Orleans claimed him last winter.

COLLEGE: Tillman transferred to Boise (Idaho) State after starting out at Arizona Western Junior College.

PERSONAL: A Dallas, Texas product, he attended Hamilton Park High School . . . Married (Beverly). An off-season student in business administration.

WHITAKER CRESTON, 6-2, 187, Wide Receiver, 1st Year,

North Texas State. Born: August 12, 1947 at Jacksonville, Ill.

Joined Saints: Free Agent, 1971

PRO: Enlisted by New Orleans during the 1971 campaign following his release by Los Angeles, he spent the last six weeks on the Saints' cab squad and figures to be ready to go all out for a pass-catching assignment this season . . . Wiry and swift, he's equipped to make the grade although he played no college football . . . The Rams signed him as a free agent in 1970 but he was in military service throughout the season.

COLLEGE: Cres starred in track and basketball at college.

PERSONAL: Attended Jacksonville (Illinois) High School . . . Now resides in New Orleans.

SAINTS IN PRO BOWL

In the team's five-year history, six players have been tapped for action in the Pro Bowl: 1967—safety Dave Whitsell, 1968—defensive tackle Dave Rowe; 1969—kicker Tom Dempsey, guard Jake Kupp, and running backs Tony Baker and Andy Livingston. In addition, Tom Fears coached the East squad in the 1969 game, and Saints assistants Jack Faulkner, Don Heinrich, Ed Khayat and Brad Ecklund along with trainer Warren Ariail served with Fears.

SAINTS ON TELEVISION

PRE-SEASON: WWL-TV (Channel 4) in New Orleans will telecast live the Saints three road games during the '72 pre-season schedule. Saints home games will be video-taped for replay the Sunday following each of the Saturday night games.

REGULAR-SEASON: All Saints road games will be telecast back to New Orleans (WWL-TV, Channel 4) and to the Saints' regional CBS network. All home games, with the exception of the Sept. 25 Monday night game against Kansas City, will be telecast to the Saints' regional network in addition to the network of each opponent, with the home game vs. New England being televised via NBC-TV. The Saints-Chiefs game will mark the Saints first national television exposure via the ABC-TV network. New Orleans and Baton Rouge are blacked out during all home telecasts.

For the second consecutive year the broadcast team of Bill McColgan, on the play-by-play, and Jim Taylor, as the colorman, will handle the radio account of each of the Saints' 20 games throughout the 1972 season via station WWL in New Orleans.

A former All-Pro fullback with the Green Bay Packers who closed his brilliant NFL career with the Saints in 1967, Taylor will be working the color for the fourth straight season. The one-time L.S.U. great now lives in Metairie, La.

The versatile McColgan had broadcast the games of the NFL's New York Giants, Cleveland Browns and Washington Redskins, plus Ohio State football, Cleveland Indians baseball, Cleveland Barons hockey and college basketball before coming to New Orleans in 1971. He'd also served with CBS-TV in their coverage of pro football.

The Saints' six pre-season games will be televised by station WWL-TV in New Orleans with veteran mikeman John Ferguson describing the play-by-play and ex-Saints linebacker Steve Stonebreaker providing the color commentary.
