Detroit joins Cleveland, Indianapolis and New England as the only teams to record a game with three interceptions this season.

Lions CB Jeff Okudah made his NFL debut in Week 2, posting a team-high seven tackles (all solo). In Week 2, he tallied six solo tackles, two tackles for loss and his first career interception, which he returned 36 yards.

Okudah also became the first CB and second rookie (since at least 1999) in team history to record a game with at least five tackles, two tackles for loss and an interception.

Okudah's 36 interception return yards are the most by a Lions rookie since 2009, and most by a Lions rookie CB in a game since CB Bryant Westbrook had 64 return yards on Dec. 7, 1997.

He is one-of-five rookies with an interception this season. His 13 solo tackles are the second-most by a rookie cornerback, and his two tackles for loss are the most by a rookie defensive back.

MUHLBACH MAKING HIS PLACE IN HISTORY

Muhlbach as an undrafted rookie free agent with the Lions in 2004

Lions LS Don Muhlbach entered the top-100 most games played in NFL history in Week 6 of the 2019 season at Green Bay. He is now currently has the 51st-most games played in NFL history (247).

goals and four game-winning extra points in his career. In his 16 years snapping for punts, only one of those have been blocked.

Detroit Lions Inspire Change

Annually since 2018, the Detroit Lions players and Chairman Emeritus Martha Firestone Ford, have made commitments toward Detroit Lions Inspire Change, a new social justice initiative in the City of Detroit.

Funds generated for the team's social justice initiative will focus on three community pillars that were hand-selected by the players – scholarship funding, social-educational programs and medical aid/health assistance.

Protecting Elections and Promoting Voter Education

In August, the Detroit Lions announced a partnership with Michigan Secretary of State Jocelyn Benson to protect election integrity and promote voter awareness, rights and participation in conjunction with RISE to Vote and the NFL Votes initiative.

Ford Field will host eight of the city's 12 receiving boards on election night, staff members will be given Election Day as a paid day off to serve as an election worker, and the Lions will be featured in a series of PSAs aimed at voter education.

The plan comes as a response to national calls for NFL teams to offer their arenas and personnel to support election administration this year. The Lions were one of the first NFL teams to partner with RISE to Vote on virtual voter education and participation events.

"The World Can't Go On"

On Tuesday, Aug. 25, Lions players and coaches cancelled practice in response to the shooting of Jacob Blake by Kenosha (Wis.) Police and the recurring social injustices in America. In a demonstration to the media, S Duron Harmon, DE Trey Flowers and T Taylor Decker, surrounded by their teammates and coaches, spoke on how they are more than just football players and are pushing for more change in their community.

"You might step on some toes, you might ruffle some feathers, but in order for change to happen, it has to get uncomfortable," Flowers said.

2020 DRAFT NOTES

CB JEFF OKUDAH

Okudah is tied as the highest-selected CB taken in a Draft in the common draft era (since 1967). He is the third Ohio State DB the Lions have ever selected, and he's the first Buckeye that Detroit has taken within the top three picks of a Draft since 1956.

RB D'ANDRE SWIFT

Swift is only the second running back from Georgia the Lions have ever selected and the first since 1975. Swift left UGA as the program's leader in rushing average (6.56 yards/rush).

WR QUINTEZ CEPHUS

After leading the Badgers in receptions, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns in 2019, Cephus is only the fourth offensive player and first receiver the Lions have drafted from Wisconsin.

WELCOME TO DETROIT

He was 1-of-6 DTs in the NFL to produce a three-game sack streak last season as well. After becoming only the fifth Samford product to be drafted into the NFL, he has experience with the Steelers, Chiefs, Dolphins and Bears.

WHAT'S UP, BRO?

DE Romeo Okwara (bottom left) and DE Julian Okwara (bottom right) link up on the same team for the first time of their football careers, even though they've taken an identical path to the pros.

Both brothers were raised in Nigeria before moving to Charlotte, N.C. and graduating from Ardrey Kell High School. From there, both brothers played at and graduated from Notre Dame, and now find themselves sharing a locker room with the Detroit Lions.

OKWARAS MAKE HISTORY

When the Lions selected DE Julian Okwara in the 2020 NFL Draft, he joined a team with his brother, DE Romeo Okwara, for the first time of their lives.

Not only is this the first time the Okwara brothers ever been on the same football team, they also became the fifth-known set of brothers to play together for the Lions.
